T. L. Farmer, a prominent real estate dealer of Samson, Ala., is in the city on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. H. C. Futch. Mr. Farmer expects to return to his home today, and will be accompanied by Mrs. Futch and Miss Marion Futch. He is well pleased with Gainesville, which he declares is one of the finest cities in the country.

FOR YOUR SUNDAY DINNER

try the following delightful dessert:
½ cup English Walnut meats.
½ doz. figs cut up fine.
1 pkg. package JELL-O, any flavor.
Dissolve the JELL-O in a pint of boiling water. When cool and just commencing to thicken stir in the figs and nuts. Serve with Whipped Cream. Delicious. The walnuts, figs and JELL-O can be bought at any good grocerys. This makes enough dessert for a large family and is very economical.

THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

Interesting Program Carried Out at Tabernacle Yesterday.

The program of the second day of the Florida Anti-Saloon League, which is being held at the Tabernacle, was one of enjoyment, as the program was one full of interest to those who attended.

It is to be regretted that the entire program could not be published, but this is the fault of the management, who promised to have the secretary furnish proceedings. However, we suppose both the management and secretary were weary at the end of the meeting, and did not feel like coming to the newspapers.

The program for Wednesday was a most interesting one, and was carried out as planned. There was a fine address by Hon. J. N. C. Stockton in the evening, who spoke on "State Legislation Needed, and Why." Mr. Stockton had a fine audience, and held the closest attention of those who heard him.

Today's program will be as follows:

Morning.

10:00, Devotional Exercises—Rev. W. C. Foster.

10:15, National Legislation Needed, and Why—Rev. G. W. Young, D. D.

11:00, Field Day, What It Is—Rev. W. R. Lambert.

11:15, Should Anti-Saloon Field Day be Held in the Churches?—Revs. J. B. Pruitt and James F. Winnard.

11:45, Address, Agitation and Public Sentiment Building—Rev. W. J. Carpenter.

Afternoon.

2:00, Devotional Exercises—Rev. P. W. Sinks.

2:15—Reports of Committees.

2:45, Why the South is Going Dry—Revs. S. B. Rogers and J. T. Boone.

3:30, Methods of Liquor Men in Prohibition Elections—Rev. C. C. Carroll.

3:45, Relation of the Anti-Saloon League to Politics—Rev. J. R. Carson.

4:00, Recess.

Evening.

7:30, Devotional Exercises—Rev. H. M. White.

7:45, The Saloon Before the Courts—Hon. Christopher Matheson.

8:00, Address—Gov. N. B. Broward.

Adjournment.

DEATH OF MR. FUTCH.

One of Alachua County's Oldest Citizens Passed Away Monday.

Eli Futch, eighty-four years old, died at the home of Mrs. W. M. Blitch, in Santa Fe, at 4 o'clock Monday morning of lagrippe, after an illness of two weeks.

Deceased was born in Statesboro, Liberty county, Georgia, on June 22, 1824, and came to Florida when a young man. He settled at Santa Fe, and has been on one farm consecutively for fifty-seven years.

Deceased was married about 1851 to Miss Martha Markey, and fourteen children came to bless them, but of these only ten survive, being four daughters and six sons. The sons are J. E. Futch of this city, Prof. J. F. Futch and J. T. Futch of Wauchula, W. D. Futch and R. T. Futch of High Springs and I. S. Futch of Alachua. The daughters, Mrs. W. M. Blitch of Santa Fe, Mrs. C. W. Stephens and Mrs. C. W. Wells of Alachua, and Mrs. Laura Jones of Madison, Ga.

The funeral was held Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, and the interment was at New Hope cemetery, Rev. W. C. Foster of Alachua officiating.

Friends of the family extend sympathy in this hour of bereavement.

A runaway dray horse caused a great deal of excitement yesterday, when he decided to take a "spurt" around the square, finally landing at the corner of East Main and Liberty streets, where the animal decided to inspect the stock of The G. W. Hyde Company. When the horse reached the pavement his foot slipped, which resulted in the animal falling to the walk, when he was captured.

PHOTOGRAPHY.

Photography today is an economic and social necessity in every community. It maintains the memory and affections of family life through the picture it makes, and which we could not now do without. How often is regret expressed that no picture exists of some friend or relative who is no longer with us! Sometimes, indeed, the camera has to intrude upon the sacredness of the death chamber itself when relatives feel that a photograph in such circumstances is better than none at all. Do not procrastinate. Be wise and "secure the shadow ere the substance fades."

You can get a picture from locket to life-size at Smith's Studio.

Gainesville Lodge No. 990, B. P. O. E.—Meets tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Elks' Home. Visiting brothers cordially welcomed. H. S. CHUBB, E. R.; DR. J. M. DELL, JR., Secretary.
