DR. EDWIN HALL MADE FINE TALK

Famous New York Lecturer Held Close Attention of Audience.

CHURCH WAS TOO SMALL

Many Who Desired to Attend the Lecture Were Compelled to Return to Their Homes Disappointed—Lecture at Auditorium Tonight.

Dr. Edwin Hall, the celebrated evangelist of New York who is touring Florida for pleasure and health, through the courtesy of Rev. S. B. Rogers of the First Baptist Church, occupied the pulpit of that church on Sunday evening, taking as his theme, "Man, His Origin and Destiny."

On account of this service, Rev. T. J. Nixon, pastor of Kavanaugh Methodist Church, South, and Rev. Thos. P. Hay, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, annulled their services for Sunday evening, with the result that one of the largest congregations of the season were present, and the only regret was that the Baptist church was not capable of accommodating a couple of hundred more. As early as 7 o'clock, fifteen minutes before the hour announced for the opening of the meeting, the church room was crowded to its utmost capacity, and when the time arrived for the beginning of church the crowd which thronged the lobbies and sidewalks, unable to gain admittance, was something wonderful.

Dr. Hall is one of the most forceful and eloquent talkers ever heard in this city. His subject was a deep one and he handled it with such ease and grace that the large congregation was captivated. Among others present were a number of the caste of the dramatic company of "Not Like Other Girls," and at the close Mr. Schwartz, the manager, grasped Dr. Hall's hand and said: "The best I ever heard. Here is a bill to pay for tickets to be given to any worthy poor;" and he left the bill in the Doctor's hand.

Dr. Hall's work was highly appreciated and he received the congratulations of many in his audience at the conclusion of his lecture.

Dr. Hall has tendered his services to the University High School and will deliver a lecture in the auditorium of the public school building, which will be a school benefit. The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock and will be of a humorous nature, the subject being "How to Get Married and Stay So." The lecture will be brim full of sparkling wit and humor and is said to contain eighty laughs in seventy minutes.

Dr. Hall has made a good impression in Gainesville, as he has proven himself to be a speaker of remarkable force and ability. It is to be regretted that all who desired could not have heard him Sunday night.

AFTER GRIPPE

Or Any Severe Sickness Druggist W. M. Johnson Advises Gainesville People to Take Vinol.

Mrs. S. C. Berry of Middleton, Conn., writes: "The grippe left me in a very weakened condition, no appetite, thin, nervous, no vitality and a bad cough. I had hemorrhages, and nothing seemed to help me. I read of what your cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, had done for others and decided to try it. I found that it soon gave me a hearty appetite; my cough disappeared; my health and strength returned until I felt like a new creature. I consider Vinol a wonderful medicine, as it makes strength and vitality so fast."

Our local druggist, Mr. W. M. Johnson, says: "We have never sold in our store a more valuable strength creator and health restorer for the convalescent than Vinol. This is because Vinol contains in a concentrated form all of the vital principles of cod liver oil, but without a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work.

"Vinol tones up the digestive organs and renews the strength of every organ of the body.

"We ask every person in Gainesville who has been ill to try Vinol on our guarantee to build them up and make them well and strong. We return money if it fails." W. M. Johnson, Druggist.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

Alyce Kee Nan Company Played to Small House Monday.

The Alyce Kee Nan Company, of which Miss Kee Nan, an accomplished English actress, is the leading lady and star, presented a one-act sketch, "A Matter of Honor," and the three-act comedy drama, "Not Like Other Girls," at the opera house Monday night. The play was fairly well rendered, Miss Kee Nan being especially good in her character roles. Wm. H. Lemle as Deacon Coleman also appeared to good advantage, and his work was appreciated. Other members of the caste were good and in all the company deserved a better audience.

"BEGGAR PRINCE" OPERA CO.

Will Appear in This City Two Nights, February 8th and 9th.

Manager C. R. Layton announces that after considerable negotiations he has closed a contract with the "Beggar Prince" Opera Company at the opera house Thursday and Friday nights, February 8th and 9th.

This engagement Mr. Layton considers the most notable in the amusement line that he has effected in some time, the company requiring a large guarantee for one performance. The piece is built on operatic lines, enacted by performers who are trebly gifted—being vocalists, farceurs and possessing dramatic ability as well—"The Beggar Prince" this season being composed of these three entertaining elements. This edition has been edited by Wm. H. Lydell, author of "Gayest Manhattan" and other New York travesty successes. The presenting company is headed by Miss Etta Merris, soprano and comedienne, well and favorably known to patrons of light opera. As a fun-maker few ladies can impart to an audience that feeling of spontaniety and good fellowship that Miss Merris can. During the action of the play will be introduced for the first time here the "Sammy Girls," "The Noble Firemen," "Belles and Beaux at the Seashore" and numerous other musical and vocal ensemble numbers. The latest lightning effects known to stageland are employed in enhancing a performance that will be a real loss to miss witnessing. Manager Layton's enterprise in securing attractions of this calibre will no doubt be appreciated by our play-goers and a big house is assured. Seats on sale at Avera's. Prices 50, 75 and $1. Thursday night, "Beggar Prince;" Friday, "Said Pasha."

Tired, Nervous Mothers

Make Unhappy Homes—Their Condition Irritates Both Husband and Children—How Thousands of Mothers Have Been Saved From Nervous Prostration and Made Strong and Well.

A nervous, irritable mother, often on the verge of hysterics, is unfit to care for children; it ruins a child's disposition and reacts upon herself. The trouble between children and their mothers too often is due to the fact that the mother has some female weakness, and she is entirely unfit to bear the strain upon her nerves that governing children involves; it is impossible for her to do anything calmly.

The ills of women act like a firebrand upon the nerves, consequently nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous despondency, "the blues," sleeplessness, and nervous irritability of women arise from some derangement of the female organism.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness, alternating with extreme irritability? Are your spirits easily affected, so that one minute you laugh, and the next minute you feel like crying?

Do you feel something like a ball rising in your throat and threatening to choke you; all the senses perverted, morbidly sensitive to light and sound; pain in the abdominal region, and between the shoulders; bearing-down pains; nervous dyspepsia and almost continually cross and snappy?

If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition, and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for nervous prostration than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; thousands and thousands of women can testify to this fact.

Mrs. Chester Curry, Leader of the Ladies' Symphony Orchestra, 42 Saratoga Street, East Boston, Mass., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"For eight years I was troubled with extreme nervousness and hysteria, brought on by irregularities. I could neither enjoy life nor sleep nights; I was very irritable, nervous and despondent.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended and proved to be the only remedy that helped me. I have daily improved in health until I am now strong and well, and all nervousness has disappeared."

Mrs. Charles F. Brown, Vice-President of the Mothers' Club, 31 Cedar Terrace, Hot Springs, Ark., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I dragged through nine years of miserable existence, worn out with pain and nervousness, until it seemed as though I should fly. I then noticed a statement of a woman troubled as I was, and the wonderful results she derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I decided to try it. I did so, and at the end of three months I was a different woman. My nervousness was all gone, I was no longer irritable, and my husband fell in love with me all over again."

Women should remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the medicine that holds the record for the greatest number of actual cures of female ills, and take no substitute.

Free Advice to Women.

Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write to her for advice. Mrs. Pinkham's vast experience with female troubles enables her to advise you wisely, and she will charge you nothing for her advice.
