Reparations to Jugo-Slavs In Austrian Pact

DISCUSS NOTE ON PROTOCOL

Marshal Foch's Secret Session with Council Arouses Much Comment in French Metropolis

(By the Associated Press)

PARIS, Dec. 5.—The Jugo-Slav delegation signed the Bulgarian treaty and the financial and racial minority clauses of the Austrian treaty at five o'clock this afternoon, in the French Foreign Office.

Concedes Certain Points.

The Supreme Council in agreement with the Jugo-Slav delegation conceded certain modifications to the Austrian treaty affecting Jugo-Slavia, notably that of advancing the date for the payment of the reparations due Jugo-Slavia thereby enabling the Jugo-Slavs to sign the St. Germain treaty providing for the protection of the racial minorities and the financial annexes and also insuring the signing of the Bulgarian treaty by Jugo-Slavia.

The note to be sent to Germany regarding the signing of the protocol was again considered, but it is not yet finished.

Provokes Speculation.

The secret session of the Supreme Council Thursday with Field Marshal Foch has provoked much speculation.

"Coercion is the only argument which is likely to impress the Germans with the necessity of signing the protocol," according to the morning newspapers, who report the secret meeting held by the Council of Five on Thursday at which Field Marshal Foch said that ample means existed with which to carry out the provision of the ultimatum to Germany, as planned in June when it was thought that

RED DELEGATES REACH DORPAT FOR PEACE PARLEY WITH BALTIC STATES

DORPAT, Dec. 5.—Adolphe Joffe, former Bolsheviki ambassador to Germany, with 24 other delegates, arrived on Thursday to begin negotiations for peace with the representatives of the Baltic States.

The party includes two military experts, numerous women stenographers and clerks and a correspondent from the Bolsheviki News Agency.

Agreed Not to Talk

Esthonian officials say that the delegates have agreed not to talk to the newspapermen.

The Associated Press learns that Krassin, one of the Bolsheviki delegates, brings stiff proposals demanding guarantees the nature of which is not disclosed but which it is believed, are designed to present the further use of Esthonian territory by the anti-Bolsheviki for military operations.

It is undestood that the Bolsheviki will decline to agree to any proposal to give up the Gulf of Finland though they are in favor of neutralizing it.

Governor Dines Secretary Baker In Japanese Garden

Transplanted To Hotel Tivoli

Yesterday Was Busy Day for War Department's Head, Filled to Full with Inspections of Posts and Formal Call on President Porras

Last evening Governor and Mrs. Chester Harding gave a banquet at the Hotel Tivoli in honor of Secretary of War and Mrs. Baker, which was graced by the presence of President Porras and those prominent in the republic and the Canal Zone.

Japanese Garden.

The dining room was a veritable Japanese garden, with palms and ferns used in profusion, further enhanced by a delightful electrical moonlight effect.

The guests were seated about one large table whose tiny lake with little Japanese boats a-sailing, swans floating and live goldfish swimming to and fro formed a novel centerpiece.

On an island in the center were miniature Japanese pagodas, brilliantly illuminated with colored lights.

Tropical Bower.

The dining room was a bower of tropical flowers, a wonder creation of John McEwen, the Tivoli's manager.

Galimany and his orchestra played selections from the Mikado and Madame Butterfly that harmonized with the motif of the decorative scheme.

Seating Arrangement.

Governor Harding with Mrs. Baker on his right, sat facing the President and Mrs. Harding with Secretary of War Baker on the right of Mrs. Harding. Next to Mr. Baker in order were: Mrs. Kennedy, Secretary de la Guardia, Admiral Johnston, Mrs. Carlos A. Vasseur, wife of the Cuban Consul; A Percy Bennett, British minister; Mrs. Sargent, General March, Mrs. Boyd and General Kennedy on President Porras' left.

To the right of Governor Harding and Mrs. Baker in order were: Secretary Alfaro and Mrs. Lefevre, Don Carlos A. Vasseur, Dr. Boyd, Hon. W. J. Price, American minister; Secretary Lefevre, Mrs. Morrow, General Chamberlain and Mr. Auan.

On the west side were Judge Connolly, Miss Butler, Dr. Fabrega, Mrs. Stevens, Captain Sargent, Mrs. Connolly, and on the east side sat Mrs. Dooble, Colonel Morrow, Judge New, Dr. Jorge Boyd, Mrs. Fabrega and Judge Feuille.

Attend Amador Dance.

After dinner the whole party left in cars for Fort Amador where a dance was being held.

This morning private cars will take Secretary Baker and General March, Governor Harding, General Kennedy and Admiral Johnston to the Atlantic side on a visit to the coast defenses at Forts Sherman, Randolph and France Field.

Reception To-night.

This evening General Kennedy will hold a reception at Quarry Heights and for the benefit of those residing on the Atlantic side a special train will leave Colon at 7 o'clock, returning to the Atlantic side at half-past eleven.

See Pacific Side.

Early yesterday morning Secretary Baker and General March with their staffs and accompanied by Governor Harding, General Kennedy and Admiral Johnston motored to Paraiso and inspected the Culebra and Cucaracha slides, later visiting the new army post at Miraflores and returning by launch.

Visit Posts.

In the afternoon a visit was made to Fort Amador which was reached at 1.30, and the coast defenses were inspected.

Colonel Hamilton, the district commander, and Colonel H. F. Steele, the coast defense commander, conducted the party. The regular guard was turned out. All ROME, Dec. 5.—Reports from the large cities say that there has been a gradual re-establishment of order and that hopes are held that work will be resumed everywhere on Friday.

The strikers unanimously resumed work in Rome and other towns where everything is normal.

Quiet has been restored in Mantua where disorders had occurred.

LANSING DISCUSSES STRAINED U. S.-MEXICAN RELATIONS WITH FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE

Conference May Have Important Bearing on United States' Government's Future Policy Toward Carranza and Mexican Administration

SENATORS HITCHCOCK AND FALL VISIT PRESIDENT WILSON

Conference Follows Disclosure by Lansing that Chief Executive's Illness Had Prevented Any Consultation with Him on Present Serious Stage in Relations

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The Mexican Embassy has notified the State Department that W. O. Jenkins, the United States consular agent in Puebla, who had been arrested on the charge of being complicated in his own kidnapping by the bandit leader Cordova and released when a ransom of $150,000 was paid, has been released from the Puebla penitentiary where he was held under custody.

Framing Reply

Private dispatches from Mexico City said that Carranza's government's reply to the last American note on the Jenkins case was being prepared and it was hinted that the Mexican government would possibly propose the formation of an inquiry commission under the section of what is known as the old Guadalupe treaty.

Discuss Relations

The strained relations between the United States and Mexico were discussed by Secretary of State Lansing and the Foreign Relations committee yestrday afternoon.

It is said that the conference might have important bearing on the future policy of the United States government toward Carranza.

Lansing Attends

Secretary Lansing appeared at the request of the committee which was considering Senator Fall's resolution requesting President Wilson to sever diplomatic relations with Mexico and Senator Hitchcock's substitute resolution assuring the president of Congressional support should he decide to break off relations with Mexico.

Earlier in the day, Ambassador Fletcher discussed the Jenkins' case with the committee.

Jenkins Goes Home.

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 5.—Jenkins was released at 10 o'clock Thursday night by the order of the Judge of Puebla. He retired immediately to his home, according to a dispatch from Puebla.

Announce Receipt.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—A State Department announcement issued at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon reads: "The release of Jenkins was reported late this afternoon by the American Embassy in Mexico City."

As Senators Arrive.

The embassy's dispatch reached the State Department coincident to the arrival of Senators Fall and Hitchcock to discuss with President Wilson the resolution proposing severance of diplomatic relations with Carranza.

Only An Incident.

While Jenkins' release has served to relieve the tension here, officials explained that Jenkins' case is only an incident in the Mexican situation.

Senators regard Senator Fall's charges that the Mexican ambassador and Consuls were engaged in spreading Red propaganda in the United States as being more serious.

OVER 200 SHIPS TIED UP FOR LACK OF COAL

(By the Associated Press)

NORFOLK, Dec. 15.—More than 200 merchantships of nearly every nationality are tied up in Hampton Roads because of the coal shortage. The 8,000 officers and men are uneasy due to the enforced idleness caused by this situation. Shipping men to-day declared that the situation was serious.

TO EXAMINE FALL'S EVIDENCE

[illegible] Seems To Be Improving

President Did Not Volunteer Any Information Relative to Intervention in Mexico

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—President Wilson this afternoon reserved judgment in the Mexican situation until he could examine the evidence which Senator Fall submitted charging the Mexican ambassador and consuls in the United States with the distribution of Bolsheviki propaganda.

Conferred for Hour

Senators Fall and Hitchcock conferred with the President for nearly an hour but they did not seek his decision on the pending resolution requesting that the President sever diplomatic relations with Mexico.

Wilson promised, however, to indicate his views later, after studying Senator Fall's data.

Asks For Memorandum.

President Wilson asked Senator Fall to prepare a memorandum covering the disclosures before the committee investigating the Mexican situation.

To this request Fall acquiesced. Senator Fall said he was entirely satisfied with President Wilson's condition and his ability to handle the Mexican situation.

Mrs. Wilson Present

Mrs. Wilson was present at the conference in the sick-room.

President Wilson was propped up in bed.

Senator Hitchcock said that Wilson seemed to be better than when he saw him a fortnight ago.

His face is fuller and his general condition apparently greatly improved.

Senator Fall said that he did not ask Wilson's views as to whether there should be any intervention in Mexico and President Wilson did not volunteer any information. Senator Hitchcock said Wilson was in good humor.

You all know that "Castor Oil" is the best purge for a baby, but perhaps you do not know that ANY Castor oil is not the same. Raw Castor oil contains resinous substances which hurt the delicate organs of the baby. THAT given to infants should be purified and deprivated of all irritating substances. Such a one is the ERBA Castor oil which is the only one a careful mother should give to her baby. It is bi-purified and absolutely tasteless: wonderful in its effects.

Ask for ERBA oil; sold by all druggists in original bottles.

WELCOME MR. BAKER

NOW that everybody else resident on the Isthmus has had an opportunity to greet Newton Diehl Baker, the United States Secretary of War, and to pass judgment on the man, we feel that it is not amiss for us to give him a hand-shake.

It is good that the many employes of the Canal have had an opportunity to see the real Mr. Baker who for so long has practically held their destinies in the hollow of his hand.

It is his quill that approves all the big Canal improvement projects that are planned to make life in the Canal Zone pleasant and to dispel the hum-drum monotony that often enthralls the newcomer.

Mr. Baker is Americanism rampant and is sincere in his praise of the United States and her accomplishments.

He is democratic, diplomatic, unaffected and tactful.

He refuses to cast any pearls as regards the Mexican situation, not openly and bluntly, but still just artfully dodges any leading questions.

We hope that he will give us some news before he leaves Monday on what the policy of the new army is to be; information as to increased fortifications for the Canal Zone; some word as to the day when the Isthmus will have the troops for which the Gatun and Miraflores cantonments are being constructed; some hope that he will co-operate with Canal officials to provide Canal Zone employes with everything to make their life faraway from the homeland worth while and interesting.

But even if he leaves without divulging anything regarding any one of these interesting things we want the Isthmus' welcome to ever ring sincerely in his ears and for him to always know that everyone on the Isthmus, be he Zonian or Panamanian, is glad he came and hopeful for benefits which he may be instrumental in providing.

Franchise Needed

The prohibition law is the most drastic legislation ever passed for the Canal Zone.

It affects the population in an intimate and domestic matter.

Where did the law originate?
When did it originate?
Who wanted it?
Who was against it?
Who was for it?
Why?

To ask these questions is simply to emphasize that the law was something handed out from Washington practically without the knowledge and certainly without the expressed consent of the people governed by it.

This is not to question the advisability of prohibition. There is no occasion to discuss that. There should have been occasion, though, before the law was enacted. This is just another thing to show that the Canal Zone should have direct political representation in Washington. Not that the law is bad, or good—simply that in the making of all their laws the people of the Zone should be represented in regular and open manner.

Have a Chance

Got the tropical ennui?

Do something different.

Take a trip to Colon, if you live at this end, and have not been there for some time. Or Colonite, visit Panama. Try Bella Vista as a change from your swimming pool, or try the fresh water pool at Balboa and go home thanking your stars for the salt water pool at the Washington.

If you haven't been to a dance for some time, try one to-night. Or make it the movies, or try a long hike, or read Burns. Get a history of ancient Rome, if you are lusty on that. Or dip into astronomy and learn a little of all that we don't know about the stars. Or go to church. Or take a few drinks. Whatever it is that you aren't bored with doing, have a try at. It will wake up a few cells in you and make them turn over, like a plunge in cold water. If you can't dance, for instance, trying to learn it will make you forget all your other troubles. Or why not take up Spanish again if you haven't taken it up in the last six months.

"We have done those things which we ought not to have done," say the Episcopalians, and some of them were pleasant, though they don't say that, "and left undone those things which we ought to have done." Not for spiritual reasons alone, but to give you a fresh interest in life, try doing some of the things which you have left undone.

Babel

The tower of Babel is the classic example of confusion and disorder and non-production through inability of men to understand each other's language.

The men who are trying to straighten out the strikes in the States frequently run into the obstacle of being unable to communicate the ideas of America, expressed in American, to the minds of Czecho-Slovaks who think in the Czecho-Slovak language, or maybe in a dozen different languages.

One people, one language, is an idea endorsed by the Senate committee which investigated the steel strike. Democracy can exist only through understanding, and a fundamental step for making the country safe for democracy is to see that the immigrants learn the language. The committee recommends that if they do not learn it within five years that they be subject to deportation.

Paris Fashion Note

PARIS, Nov. 17.—The "nothing-below-the-knee girl" is outdone by the latest freak of Parisian fashion. Now comes the "nothing-above-the-waist-line girl." She has already made her debut at fashionable tango palaces.

Philosophers assert that they are merely a phase of the madness sweeping France, and especially Paris following the painful restraint of war.

During the last week Mlle. Spinelly at the Palais Royal appeared in a short "washki ki shirt," ending at the waistline in a tiny tulle ruffle. She wore no stocking and above the waist her sole ornament was the indispensable string of pearls.

Just as a timely tip for Christmas, if you have a friend who is a collie owner you'll make a sure hit by giving a copy of Lad. All collie owners should have a copy of Lad, as it will help them to understand and appreciate their own Lads.

PLAN CANAL TO SHORTEN ROUTE

New Zealanders' Nine Mile Project Will Make Panama Canal Favored Course

COLON, Dec. 5.—"While New Zealand steamers make the canal en route to Europe, Australian companies have found the Suez Canal route to England shorter and have seldom used the Panama Canal.

"Before the war, New Zealand planned to dig a canal between Auckland and Manakau, to enable steamers from Sydney to call at Auckland and then go on to Europe via the Panama Canal. It would reduce the present distance by at least 1,000 miles," said Victor French of the New Zealand Red Triangle to-day.

Nine Miles Long.

Mr. French explained that Australian ships wished to call at Sydney, especially the White Star liners and other big leviathans. The canal would be about nine miles long and would connect up the beautiful Waitemata with its 120 miles of harbor, which is situated in Auckland harbor and Manakau on the other side of the north island.

Mr. French said that the ferry boats travel over 100 miles without leaving this huge harbor which is considered among the largest in the world. The harbor is all built up and dredged and H. M. S. New Zealand and other big battleships can go right up to the quay banks at all tides.

He considers that the canal which is to be started at once will bring a great many Australian ships through the Panama Canal.

HEAVY DAMAGES CLAIMED FROM PANAMA RAILWAY

Complaints Not Drawn Up According to Federal Liability Law, Says Hanan

COLON, Dec. 5.—Judge Hanan read his opinion yesterday in the district court, of the demurrers against the Panama Railroad company, claiming damages for $45,000, and stated that the complaints in each case were insufficient, but that if plaintiffs were entitled to recovery at all under the act, the complaints must be drawn up so as to come clearly within that law.

Leave was granted the plaintiffs to amend.

Catherine Rice asks $25,000 for the death of her son, Jonathan, coal plant messenger killed by falling from a ladder; John Brown claims $10,000 for the death of Adolphus Brown, claimed to have been killed while on duty on the high line ascent track by a string of cars; and Williams, who sues for $10,000 for the death of Samuel A. Williams, dock laborer, who was killed by falling into a ship's hold.

Holds Alleged Highwaymen For District Court

COLON, Dec. 5.—Judge Thompson held Charles Hurdle and Justo Flores for the district court on the charge of holding up John Collins, an old seaman on the Cuba, and robbing him of $17.

From the evidence it appears that all three were out spending the evening in Colon, and when returning to the ship on Pier Eleven the two defendants set upon Collins a very old man, and took his money away from him.

Policeman Harvey arrested Hurdle, and Flores was later taken into custody.

Both are in Cristobal jail.

CARPENTIER KNOCKS BECKETT OUT; PUTS ENGLISHMAN TO SLEEP IN FIRST

FRENCHMAN WILL PROBABLY MEET DEMPSEY NEXT EASTER

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON, Dec. 5.—Georges Carpentier, the well known heavyweight, knocked out Beckett, the British heavyweight champion, in the first round of the bout staged yesterday for the heavyweight championship of Europe.

Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight boxer, and Joe Beckett, the British heavyweight, entered the ring at 9.35, the Frenchman receiving a slightly better reception.

The battle began at 9.45.

After a short handshake, the contestants faced each other, Carpentier smiling confidentially.

Like a flash the Frenchman darted in and quickly planted a left on Beckett's face. Brief sparring followed during which Carpentier darted in again with a left, showing footwork and handwork far superior in speed to that of Beckett.

Once more the Frenchman scored two swift left blows in rapid succession to Beckett's face afterwards retreating out of reach before Becket could retaliate. Coming together again the men got in a short clinch and in the breakaway, Carpentier, like a flash, sent his left straight to Beckett's head immediately after landing a terrific right to the jaw which forced Beckett to the floor face downward with blood spurting from his mouth, owing to the previous punches of Carpentier.

Beckett laid on the floor utterly oblivious to all around him and was counted out. After the count, seeing that there was no sign of reviving, he was carried to his corner Carpentier helping to carry him.

When Beckett finally opened his eyes, one of his seconds said, "Joe you're out."

Carpentier is now the European heavyweight champion.

World's Great Leaders Are All Able to Put Up Creditable Game of Golf

President Wilson Undoubtedly Could Hold His Own With Famous Foreigners in a Match of Skill of Links

About all the great world leaders golf in their play hours. President, Premiers, a King or two, Field Marshals, Admirals, all seek the links as a favorite sport and recreation. To these dominating figures who now control the destiny of the world a little white golf ball is still an unsolved problem. They are long on golfing enthusiasm, but rather short on skill. "Bobby" Jones, sixteen-year-old "Southern star, could easily defeat these renowned dignitaries on the links provided the Atlanta youth didn't become flustered at the presence of his royal opponents. But what young Mr. Jones could likely accomplish doesn't mean that the Allied leaders couldn't put up a creditable game. Men like Balfour, Beatty, Haig and others are far from being novices with a driver or irons.

If, some time after peace is formally concluded, a friendly golf tournament between the Entente leaders could be arranged, America would have a formidable representative in Woodrow Wilson. The French Government officially recognized the President's golfing talents when it assigned St. Cloud, one of the leading French courses, for his exclusive use while in France.

President Wilson has long been a golfer. Since occupying the White House it has been his custom to take frequent wallops on the links. The President, usually in the company of Rear Admiral Grayson, has been a conspicuous figure at Chevy Chase, a celebrated golf club on the outskirts of Washington.

The Nation's Chief Magistrate could compete in an international meet, handicap himself by playing on a strange course, and yet come mighty near winning first prize. But it wouldn't be all smooth going. Marshal Foch, for one, would be a strong opponent.

The game of golf, an effective reflector of men's characters, shows the commander-in-chief of the victorious Allied Armies to be a cunning resourceful player. He knows golf thoroughly, all the different little tricks that help to lower scores. Like most good golfers the famous Frenchman hates to lose a ball. It used to be a habit of the Marshal's to encourage at night searching the links for lost balls.

Now, with peace soon to be determined, France will have little to fear from a "man on horseback." Rather it will be a figure carrying a bag of clubs wending its way to the links, probably at beautiful La Boulie, down in Southern France which escaped the destructive invader. This no doubt will be Marshal Foch's ambition when he relinquishes command of the French Armies.

King Albert used to be a frequent golfer. The King of Belgium for any immediate tournament would likely be out of practice, for his devastated land hasn't been any place for golf since 1914.

Golf, like tea drinking, is a traditional British custom. All the great English statesmen and military leaders do not require any introduction to mashies or niblicks. In normal times mid-Surrey and Wharton Heath, two exclusive English courses a few miles outside of London, were cluttered up with luminaries and all in knickerbockers, for no Briton would dream of changing the time-honored costume when he sallied out to do battle with golf balls.

King George, following the example of his father, derives much pleasure golfing. While not a hard hitter, the present British ruler is quite capable with the shorter shots and his game is not to be taken lightly.

Lloyd George has been a golfer for something like twenty years. The little Welshman, like many others who tried to wrest an unconditional surrender from Col. Bogey, seems to get worse the more he plays. Even after all these years of effort Lloyd George is still given a big handicap. What the Prime Minister lacks in skill he more than makes up in the enjoyment that he gets from golf. The relaxation to be had on the links has undoubtedly steeled Lloyd George to weather many Cabinet crisis of the past four years.

Mr. Balfour, who headed the British Commission to the United States last year, is a veteran of the British links. A player of considerable ability, he has labored extensively to improve the ancient sport on the other side.

Former Prime Minister Asquith is another English leader who has spent many years swinging golf clubs. His game is something like that of Lloyd George, lots of enthusiasm and little else.

Field Marshal Douglas Haig has played a lot of golf, mostly on his native links near Dublin. Even during the dark days, when the British Army was fighting with its back to the wall, Marshal Haig found a few hours for golf, as his duties necessitated frequent visits to England, during which he invariably slipped away for a round.

Admiral David Beatty, who commands the British Grand Fleet, can handle a club with the best of players. He golfs more on the American principle—hit 'em a mile. The Admiral's favorite sports are boxing and golf. Most of the latter he plays on the beautiful courses near Dublin, the home of his family.

Lord Reading and in fact about all notable Britons who helped in the winning of the war are golfers, a sport whose popularity is spreading over the world with the same speed with which it enveloped Scotland centuries ago, taking in high and low in its scope.

BOXING NOTES

BRIGGS AND WALCOTT TRAINING.

Jim Briggs and Joe Walcott opened up their quarters before a large crowd of interested fight fans yesterday.

In the morning both men up [illegible] and went for a five mile hike on the roads and at three o'clock in the afternoon the training quarters were thrown open to the favorites of both men.

From what can be gathered as to the opinion of both fighters, Jim Briggs will certainly have to fight as he never did before in order to retain the championship title and the biggest end of the purse.

Fight fans who witnessed that sensational 10-round bout that took place at the Bull-ring a month ago are of the opinion that Walcott had it all over on Briggs and are preparing to wager their last nickel that Walcott will be awarded the referee's decision at the end of the 15 rounds.

RIPPLES IN THE POOL

HIGH SCHOOL BOYS PLAY WATER POLO

Bob Getman's team defeated Bill Allen's team in a hard, and fast game by a score of 3 goals to 2.

Bob Pearson's Seals will play Blakely's Sharks. The winner of this game will play Gerrard's Dolphins.

Bob Pearson is working for High and Fancy Diving title, and practicing many difficult dives from the 28 foot board.

Some of the dives he has executed from the top tower are as follows: Back Jack, one and a half, full Gainer, one and a half; Front Jack, Swan and two and a half from the 28 foot board.

Most any day you can see either Pearson, Moore or Robertson executing hair raising dives from the top tower. The most difficult dive ever performed on the Zone by anyone from the Zone or Panama, was by "Joe Williams," Balboa's High and Fancy diver, when in 1917 on the fourth of July, he executed four sommer-saults from the tower, and at Coco Solo, in 1918, when he turned 12 sommer-saults from the Pile Driver.

It has been said that the Mack Sennett Bathing Girls are coming to the Zone, with the film "Yankee Doodle in Berlin." Have you reserved your seats at the pool?

Little Andrew Van Sicklin, 6 years old, is the latest little swimmer, weighing only 45 lbs. This little fellow can cross the Pool a number of times, can dive from the lower boards, and can swim the crawl stroke.

The Smith Twins, formerly of the Zone are making the whole world take notice of their swimming. A few months ago these human fishes defeated the World's Greatest Lady Fancy Swimmer, Fanny Durat of Australia, who holds the world's swimming records.

Balboa Swimming Pool will be the Mecca for the children this morning at 9 o'clock. Many races and games will be contested for. Prizes to be given to the swimmers and non-swimmers.

Business Men Plan Tour to West Indies

We understand that a party of business men from Cincinnati have arranged a tour to the West Indies and will very likely call here, says the Gleaner of the 1st inst.

From what can be gathered, the party planned to visit Cuba first, and then come on here from Santiago by one of the steamers plying between that port and Kingston which was to be chartered for the trip.

The party comprises about forty and just whether they have had to alter their plans on account of quarantine restrictions is not definitely known.

The Pacific Steam Navigation Co.'s Steamer Ebro is scheduled to leave New York on the 7th of January for Pacific ports via Kingston and Cristobal. Prior to that, she is making a trip from New York to Bermuda with tourists.

The other West Indian cruises are filling up pretty well it is learnt, and there is reason to believe that there will be a good season.

Large Number Attend Meeting of Union at Church of the Nazarene, November 27

The executive meeting of the Christian Endeavor Union, held at the Nazarene Church, Guachapali, Panama, Nov. 27th, was called to order at 10 o'clock with prayer by the vice-President, after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and confirmed. The following persons were present: Rev. S. Witt (President), Rev. G. N. Tylerbest vice-President), F. H. Linton (Secretary), Rev. R. H. Thorbourne (Treasurer), Messrs. W. E. Barclay, J. Philips, T. C. Yearwood, J. Thaws and G. Richards, representatives from the various societies in connection with the Union.

Business of importance was dealt with, the most important being the affiliation of the Empire C. E. Society in the Union, which was organized after the first mass meeting of the Union, held in July: also the nomination of officers for the coming year, election to take place April at the next mass meeting (Colon). This meeting came to a close at 10:15 a.m., allowing sufficient time for the next meeting at 11 sharp.

Just at this time rain came down in torrents, which hindered the coming of many members who would be present. A brief service was held consisting of addresses and songs from the representatives of the various societies, including the Colon Wesley Guild.

At 3 p.m. the public demonstration which was formerly arranged, began. The various societies of the Union, were represented with their C. E. banners, regalias and flags, led by the Salvation Army band. Marching from 25th Street, Guachapali, across the tram-car line through San Miguel, crossing the car line in front of the Calidonia bridge, down to 20 Street, Guachapali, and back to the church.

Crowds of people could be seen from the buildings, as the procession went by.

As soon as the people were seated the meeting was called to order by the vice-President.

Hymn 381 was sung, (Blest be the tie that binds. Prayer offered, scripture read, and the chairman's opening address were given as the preliminary; at this juncture the Colon Baptist was asked to sing, at the close of which the president of the Union was asked to give his address.

Quite an interesting address was given on the responsibility of the C. E. Society to the church for the social, training and spiritual influences.

Many inspiring addresses were listened to from the various representatives who were sent by the different societies of the Union, and bright and cheery anthems were also sung, which helped to make the program interesting. After the roll-call of the societies, the secretary's announcement and the singing of the pledge, this meeting was brought to a close with the singing of the Mizpah Benediction.

The delegates from the various societies were then entertained by the home-society. Quite a dainty provision was made as all enjoyed it heartily.

The closing service of the day in the form of an entertainment began at 7.30 p.m.

Mr. Jones (representative of the Colon Wesley Guild) occupied the chair. The program was quite an interesting one. Songs, recitations solos, etc., were given by members of the different societies. Too much cannot be said of the excellent way in which the Colon Baptist Society played their part in the day's program. All other societies at the Pacific end certainly helped to make the program one of success.

We pray for a brighter time at the next meeting at the Atlantic end in April.

Society Grants a Christmas Bonus

The Colon Love Chariot Benevolent Society, which was founded on July 11, 1918 and registered April 8, 1919, will give a bonus to all its financial members covering a period of nine months and who have not drawn any sick or funeral benefit for themselves or their dependents this year.

This is certainly something unprecedented in the annals of any society on the Isthmus, more so one that has not even completed its second anniversary, and reflects the highest commendation on its organizer, Mr. J. P. Lord, and Mr. G. Burnham the indefatigable secretary. The other officers who have helped to bring about the success of the organization are Messrs. O. Williams, H. Burke, Grosvenor and W. Cox.

Members entitled to the bonus will receive same in due time for the Christmas which will help to provide them with their little odds and ends and thus enable them to enjoy the holiday with their family and friends.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR AT STANDARD OVAL.

The Committee of Saint Alban's Church, Paraiso, have arranged to hold a grand Christmas Bazaar at the Standard Oval, on Tuesday, December 16.

Tickets are on sale throughout Panama and are going rapidly. All eyes are turned towards the Standard Oval, Exposition Grounds, and the sweetest band of music has been engaged for the occasion.

Numerous attractions are being planned, to wit:

Fishing well, Post Office, Fairy Girls, and a few side entertainments.

If you have not yet obtained your ticket, please call at the City Pharmacy, Central Ave., or at the Medical Hall, Calidonia Bridge.

This Bazaar will be the greatest attraction for the Christmas season. Leave the purchasing of your Christmas cards and Christmas presents till you go to the Bazaar. You will find everything you will need there.

Come and get a Christmas ham, your box of sweets, toys and other things.

Gatun News Items

The arrangements for Christmas are moving on apace, and the Ladies' committee are busy at work making adequate preparations for bringing the traditional good cheer of Xmas to the little ones in our midst. It is likely that a performance will be given by the children when their parents and friends will be privileged to hear them deliver their little speeches and their little songs. We are sure that the teachers will do their best to prepare them for this occasion, and we will all be on hand to hear and to join with the juveniles in their whole-hearted enjoyment of Xmas.

Bowling teams are being organized, and both the ladies and gentlemen evince the greatest amount of enthusiasm in anticipation of indulging in this particular form of indoor exercise. At the present time the practising has to be done at the Cristobal Silver Clubhouse alleys, but we are hoping that the time is not far distant when we shall have our own alleys.

The interior arrangements of the Gatun Commissary in regard to new counters and compartments for salesmen on the silver side are nearly complete, and there is a great addition to the floor space. Christmas toys are on hand but the right of pre-emption as accorded the gold trade. Maybe, if there are any toys left, and if we have any money left, we may be able to get some little mementos to hand over to our boys and girls to bring the light to their eyes and joy to their hearts.

There is a persistent rumor going the rounds, that the little private schools around will be closed down. As there are about three of these halls of learning the proprietors of these will be hard hit.

The Operators' C.C. will cross bats with the team locally known. The issue is doubtful, but we hope as "The Grass Cutters" on Sunday that the better team will win.

The Gatun C.C. is on the warpath and would be glad to take the scalp of any of the teams from the Pacific, end—Surrey or Jamaica preferable.

There will be the usual song service at the Silver Clubhouse on Sunday. Movies also.

The occasion being of a public nature, the hall which was beautifully decorated to suit the occasion, was filled to its utmost capacity. Immediately after the opening of the meeting the Chairman addressed the audience and called upon Miss E. Wilson to unveil the Dispensation. She gave a brilliant address and then unveiled the dispensation, amidst great applause. At this stage the Grand Officers announced that they were present, and ready to install the Lodge. Following is the staff of Grand Officers: Bros. R. S. Anderson, Sub. G. M.; S. N. Wilson Deputy G. M.; B. B. Mattis, Gen. Secy.; T. E. McLean, Gen. Treas.; S. Callendar, G. S. D.; J. E. Smith G. J. D.; and H. A. McLean, G. Tyler.

The staff of officers installed to serve for the ensuing term is as follows: Bros. J. V. Henderson, I. G.; D. Garabaldi, D. M.; O. N. McCalla, P. Secy.; I. Haye, Asst. Secy.; R. F. Passmore, Treas.; Jas. Edwards, S. D.; Chas. Pessoa, J. D.; I. R. Simpson, Indoor Guard; P. Sutherland, Chap.; E. A. Williams Tyler; W. W. Kilbey, P. I. G.

The Grand Officers here retired and shortly after returned and dedicated the hall to the use of the Armistice Lodge. The ceremonies were of a most impressive character and left their indelible print behind.

Special mention must be made of the choir who in their melodious strains added a great deal to the success of the function.

Several sister lodges were represented and all with one accord expressed their joyful feelings and wished the new lodge success.

Refreshments were served and the meeting came to a close with the singing of the Doxology.

Horse Killed by An Automobile

On Wednesday evening last, a horse, the property of A. Fillen, was accidentally killed by automobile No. 1283 of the Naval Air Station, Coco Solo.

While the cart to which the animal was harnessed was being driven in the direction of Mt. Hope it was overtaken by a motor truck of the Quartermaster's Department, which took the opposite side of the road, thus leaving the center vacant.

At this juncture, the Naval auto overtook the other vehicles and attempted to effect a passage between them. The passage, however, was a little narrow and to avoid collision with the motor truck, the automobile swung toward the cart, which resulted in the aforementioned accident.

This is a very great loss to Fillen and it is hoped that he will receive full compensation at an early date.

A. A. DAVY RETURNS TO THE ISTHMUS.

Scenes Seen On Movie Screens

AT THE CECILIA, TO-DAY.

News of the coming of a crowned head could not have caused more excitement at the Buckwood Inn, Delaware Water Gap, than rumors ran riot when, a day before the heralded arrival of Valeska Suratt, the William Fox star, to make scenes of her latest photoplay "Wife Number Two."

The women guests were particularly expectant. In the first place they were to have a chance of seeing the famous actress; in the second they were to have a chance to gather enough ideas for gowns to last them a lifetime.

Feminine interest in the star's she was to arrive, twelve huge trunks were brought in the inn consigned to Miss Suratt.

Didn't Wear Gowns.

If these women expected to be surprised they were left disappointed. They were all lined up for her when she made her first appearance the morning after her arrival.

Miss Suratt didn't wear a glittering creation of the White Lights. She wore an ordinary walking skirt and sweater. And she continued wearing this or a similar costume every minute she was at the resort except when at meals or sleeping. She did spruce up a bit for the dining hall, but outside of that never. She was there to enjoy every hour not taken up by her work. Walking, golf, tennis and riding were more to her taste than giving a fashion show.

As for the mystery of the twelve trunks: they contained Miss Suratt's costumes for "Wife Number Two," and although they were not strictly of the variety expected by the curious guests they were elegant enough to lessen their disappointment.

Also, Shorty Hamilton in "Shorty's Clever Ruse," a comedy.

Everybody agreed there was not a dissenting opinion—that Jewel Carmen made the prettiest bride in the world. It was right at the beginning of the new William Fox play, "Confession," which will be shown at the Amador Theatre to-day.

There is plenty of drama and tragedy in this remarkable play, and there are thrills and sobs aplenty, but the star is the merriest thing that could be imagined. Almost the first thing is the wedding and you see Jewel Carmen as a bride. Of all the things you have ever seen on screen or in real life, this is the loveliest, with the possible exception of your own bride, if you ever had one.

Visits President Porras.

Promptly at 11.30 yesterday morning the presidential carriage drew up at the palace with Minister Price, Secretary Baker, General March and Don Alfredo Boyd, the President's secretary.

After Panama's national hymn was played, the party entered the palace, followed by Governor Chester Harding, General Chamberlain, Col. Fred. T. Cruse, military attache at the American legation; Colonel Milliken, Major W. W. Irvine, Major J. Swing and Clarence B. Hewes, secretary to the American legation.

A guard of honor, commanded by Lieut. Rubio Avila, ... on the porch.

In Yellow Room.

President Porras received his visitors in the yellow room where from the walls looked down the fathers of the republic.

The meeting between Secretary Baker and General Peyton C. March and Panama's President was a most cordial one.

Greeted by President.

Dr. Porras said he was very pleased to meet Mr. Baker and hoped that his visit to the republic would be a pleasant one, following which he presented the members of his cabinet to Secretary Baker, and for many minutes Dr. Porras, and Secretary Lefevre held conversation in English with Mr. Baker and the American minister.

Exchange Toasts.

Toasts between the two republics were exchanged.

The President, addressing Mr. Baker in beautiful English, said:

"Mr. Secretary, Gen. March, and Friends: In the name of my government, I bid you welcome to my country, and as representative of the nation, it is my wish that your short stay in our little country will be a happy and satisfactory one."

Mr. Baker in reply proposed the health of the President and the republic, and expressed the wish that the present cordial relations might long exist between them.

Baker Says Good-Bye.

"If all people who come here are received as I have been received, I have my doubts whether Panama would be able to withstand the wave of immigration. And I am beginning to doubt if General March will return with me," said Secretary of War Newton D. Baker in bidding good-bye to President Porras.

During the ceremony the Republican band, under Director A. Galimany, played a number of selections and as the distinguished party left the building, played "The Star Spangled Banner."

Accompanying the President were Carlos M. Arias, F.; General Manuel Quintero, V., minister of public works; Fabio Arosemena, General Santiago de la Guardia, secretary of finance; Dr. Ricardo Alfaro, minister of government and justice; Samuel Quintero, Aurelio de la Guardia, Manuel A. Herrera of the supreme court; Dr. Juan Lombardi, president of the supreme court; General Papio Aizpuru, president of the National Assembly; Ernesto Lefevre, minister of foreign affairs; Rodolfo Estripeaut, governor of Panama; Juan A. Jimenez, Jose Manuel Huerta, second vice-president of the National Assembly; Jeptha Duncan, secretary of public instruction; Alcalde Archibald Boyd and Ezequil Urrutia of the supreme court.

Returned Call.

Later in the morning the members of the cabinet returned the visit in behalf of the president at the American legation.

To Receive Labor.

Sunday morning at the Administration building Secretary Baker will receive a labor deputation of canal and railroad employes, and Sunday evening the republic of Panama will entertain the distinguished guests at a banquet at the Union Club, to be followed by a reception and dance.

Enough Finger Wagging.

ROOSEVELT MEMORIAL.

Wilbur S. Perry is receiving a great deal of support for his project to erect a monument to Roosevelt at Cristobal at the entrance of the canal.

Yesterday he stated that the monument would probably be placed at the corner of the French Steamship Company's building and that the agent for the company had already given his permission.

"The monument will cost about $25,000 and will be of bronze. Subscriptions will be voluntary and I have no doubt we can raise the money from present and past canal employes," he concluded.

TURKS HOPE U. S. WILL RATIFY PACT SAYS SULTAN'S SON

Abdul Medjid Effendi Says Ottomans are Worn Out With Wars

(By the Associated Press)

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 5.—Abdul Medjid Effendi, the son of the ex-Sultan Abdul Aziz, heir presumptive to the Ottoman throne, during an interview with the Associated Press, expressed the hope that the United States would ratify the Treaty of Versailles and make an appeal on behalf of his own people.

Action Delays Turks.

"It is stated that the Turkish peace is delayed because of the attitude of the United States," he said.

"It should be remembered that we have been warring for the past ten years and therefore are exhausted.

Should Take Pity.

"Pity should be taken on our homeless people who are living in the utmost misery.

Want Chance to Live.

"Why cannot we be given a chance to live, prosper and develop economically like the other nations?" he asked.

"We are a gifted people and if our gifts are turned into the ways of peace we can show the world that we can succeed industrially as we did militantly," he concluded.

SALTA OFFICIALS WANT AMERICANS TO BUILD RAILWAY

Commission Seeking to Interest Yank Capitalists in Project

(By the Associated Press)

BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 5.—The commission recently appointed by the province of Salta in northwestern Argentine to negotiate for the construction of a railroad from the city of Salta to Antofagasta, Chile, a distance of 700 kilometers is seeking to interest capitalists in the United States in the project according to information received by Julius Klein, United States commercial attache in Buenos Aires.

Reduce Trip to U. S.

He was told that it would give uninterrupted connection between Antofagasta, whose port was now being improved by the Chilean government and the city of Buenos Aires and reduce the trip from the United States to Buenos Aires by two days.

Would Reduce H. C. of L.

He was further informed that it would tap the fertile food producing cattle province and feed northern Chile which is comparatively barren, and thus reduce the cost of living in that section, it is believed, and enable Chile to [illegible] cheaply mine her nitrate which is now in competition with the artificial product.

Cattle Perish.

Because of the lack of railroads, more than 30,000 heads of Salta cattle are now driven through mountain passes to Chile every year of which large numbers perish. The estimated cost of the road is [illegible].

It is proposed that Americans not only build, but also operate the road, says Mr. Klein, in which case it would be the first railroad of any consequence opened and operated by Americans in all South [America].

LOS YUGOESLAVOS FIRMAN EL TRATADO

Se ha puesto en libertad al Consul Jenkins

Mr. Jenkins salió de la cárcel el jueves a las diez de la noche

WILSON SE RESERVA

FALL Y HITCHCOCK VISITARON AL PRESIDENTE AYER POR LA TARDE

Wilson prometió una declaración después de estudiar las pruebas

Washington, Diciembre 5. La Embajada mejicana ha notificado al Departamento de Estado que se ha puesto en libertad al agente consular norteamericano Jenkins.

Washington, Diciembre 5. El Departamento de Estado informó esta tarde a las tres que la Embajada mejicana aquí en la Ciudad de Mejico participa que el agente consular norteamericano Jenkins fue puesto en libertad. El despacho llegó a la Embajada en el momento en que llegaban a la Casa Blanca los Senadores Hitchcock y Fall, quienes fueron autorizados por el Comité de Relaciones Exteriores del Senado para que discutan con el Presidente Wilson la resolución pidiendo al Presidente que rompa relaciones diplomáticas con Carranza.

Ciudad de Mejico, Diciembre 5. El agente consular norteamericano en Puebla, Mr. Jenkins, fue puesto en libertad el jueves a las diez de la noche por orden del Juez de Puebla. Inmediatamente después de su liberación Jenkins se retiró a su residencia, según informe despacho de Puebla llegado a este lugar.

Washington, Diciembre 5. Esta tarde el Gabinete discutió extensamente la situación mejicana, la huelga de trabajadores de las minas de carbón y la cuestión ferroviaria. Después de terminar la conferencia no se publicó declaración alguna.

Washington, Diciembre 5. Esta tarde el Presidente Wilson se reservó su opinión sobre la cuestión mejicana hasta que pudiera examinar las pruebas presentadas por el Senador Fall acusando al Embajador y los Cónsules mejicanos en los Estados Unidos de haber distribuido propaganda bolshevista en este país. Los Senadores Hitchcock y Fall conferenciaron con el Presidente Wilson casi una hora y no le [illegible] al Presidente su opinión sobre las resoluciones presentadas pidiendo el rompimiento de las relaciones diplomáticas con Méjico, pero el Presidente Wilson prometió [illegible] después de haber estudiado los datos presentados por Fall. El Presidente pidió al Senador Fall que preparara un memorandum cubriendo las [illegible] ante el Comité [illegible] que investiga la cuestión mejicana y Fall prometió cumplirlo. [illegible] de la conferencia el Senador Fall dijo que está "completamente satisfecho con la condición del Presidente Wilson y con su habilidad para ocuparse de la cuestión mejicana. La señora de Wilson estuvo presente durante la conferencia que fue celebrada en el cuarto donde se encuentra recluido; el Presidente estaba apoyado sobre la cama.

El Senador Hitchcock dijo que el Presidente parecía estar gozando de mejor salud que cuando lo vió hace dos semanas; su cara, dice, está más colorada y aparentemente su condición general ha mejorado muchísimo.

Fall dijo que no le preguntó al Presidente si opinaba que debía haber intervención en Méjico y que el Presidente no ofreció dar información al respecto. Hitchcock dijo que el Presidente estaba de buen humor.

Washington, Diciembre 5.— Aunque la liberación de Jenkins ha servido para aminorar la tirantez, las autoridades de esta capital han explicado que el caso Jenkins es solamente un incidente de la situación mejicana. Los Senadores opinan que constituyen algo más grave aún las acusaciones del Senador Fall de que el Embajador y los cónsules mejicanos hicieron propaganda bolshevista en los Estados Unidos.

WEYLER DICE QUE EN ESPANA REINA LA TIRANIA

VE EN UN DICTADOR LA UNICA GARANTIA DE LIBERTAD

Madrid, Diciembre 5. El A. B. C. publica una declaración del General Weyler, en la cual el General dice: "Vivimos bajo un régimen de tiranía. Los patrones ejercen una terrible tiranía sobre los trabajadores, estos últimos sobre los patrones, los militares tiranizan a los civiles y éstos tiranizan a los militares; los políticos tiranizan al Gobierno y el Gobierno hace lo mismo contra los poderes públicos. La libertad se encuentra restringida bajo este régimen tiránico. Un dictador de los izquierdistas y de los derechistas será la única garantía para la restauración de la libertad."

QUE SUCEDERA SI LOS ALEMANES NO FIRMAN EL PROT.

SE DICE QUE ES POSIBLE QUE VENGA LA OCUPACION DE ESSEN Y FRANKFORT

Londres, Diciembre 5. Circulan rumores persistentes en la Bolsa de que el Consejo Supremo ha amenazado con la ocupación de Essen y Frankfort si Alemania no firma el protocolo para poner en vigencia el tratado de paz. El mercado no ha sido afectado.

París, Diciembre 5. Hoy el Consejo Supremo discutió nuevamente la nota que será enviada a Alemania sobre el protocolo al tratado de paz, pero la nota no ha sido terminada todavía. El jueves la sesión del Consejo fue secreta y se dice que durante el curso de la discusión el Mariscal Foch hizo declaraciones importantes.

Los periódicos dicen que durante la sesión secreta del jueves el Mariscal Foch declaró que existen muy buenos recursos para hacer cumplir un ultimatum a Alemania, que fue preparado en Junio cuando se creyó que los delegados alemanes no vendrían a Versalles.

El futuro de la vieja Turquía

SE DICE QUE YA HAY UNA BASE DE ARREGLO DE LA CUESTION

París, Diciembre 5.— La insinuación del Premier Lloyd George sobre el arreglo del futuro de Turquía por la Conferencia cuando se reúna en Londres, es muy comentada en los círculos franceses. Sin embargo, se ha sabido que el Gobierno francés no ha consentido todavía en el traslado a Londres de las negociaciones sobre las cuestiones de Turquía y el Asia Menor.

GUILLERMO CREE QUE LOS ALIADOS NO LE LLAMARAN

EL EX-KAISER SIGUE CON GRAN INTERES LA GUERRA CIVIL EN RUSIA

Londres, Diciembre 5.— El corresponsal de The Daily Mail en Berlín dice que el ex-Kaiser cree que los aliados no lo llamarán a juicio y que en caso de que sea llamado su futuro no será afectado. Sus amigos sugirieron recientemente que se rindiera, ofreciendo dar información completa, pero el ex-Emperador no parece estar muy dispuesto a tomar esta medida. Después de la labor de cortar maderos, parece que el interés del ex-Kaiser se concentra en la cuestión rusa, pues lee con gran interés las noticias sobre la guerra civil en Rusia y sigue el curso de las distintas campañas con la ayuda de grandes mapas y banderitas.

Un juez más para el circuíto de Panamá

Mensaje y proyecto presentado ayer por el S. de Gno. y Justicia

LOS FISCALES SERAN TRES

EL PROYECTO LO FIRMAN TODOS LOS MAGISTRADOS DE LA CORTE SUPREMA

El Proyecto está plenamente justificado en el correspondiente Mensaje

República de Panamá.— Presidencia.— Mensaje número 3.—Panamá, 5 de Diciembre de 1919.

Honorables diputados:

La Corte Suprema de Justicia por Acuerdo número 27 de fecha de ayer, aprobó un Proyecto de ley reformatorio del Código Judicial y de la Ley 52 de este año, reforma que consiste en establecer en el Circuito de Panamá un Juzgado más y en aumentar a tres el número de los Fiscales del Circuito, de manera que pueda atender cada uno de éstos a los negocios de cada uno de los tres Juzgados que deben conocer de asuntos criminales.

Al entrar en vigencia la ley sobre juicio oral y a causa del gran número de negocios criminales existentes en los Juzgados 1º y 2º, se echó de ver que le era imposible a un sólo Fiscal asistir a las audiencias diarias que simultáneamente han venido celebrándose en dichos tribunales.

El Poder Ejecutivo trató de remediar el mal apuntado mediante los servicios de un Asesor de la Fiscalía, a quien el Fiscal podía nombrar su representante para el acto verbal de la audiencia; pero esta medida, de carácter provisorio, que no hace sino poner de relieve la necesidad de que haya [illegible] Fiscal que gestione ante cada Juzgado, no puede perdurar y debe ser reemplazada cuanto antes, por legislación adecuada al propósito que se tiene en mira.

Pensaron hace poco la Corte Suprema y el Poder Ejecutivo en restablecer uno de los Juzgados de Instrucción, creados por el Código Judicial y suspendidos por la ley 47 de 1917. Pero, como observa atinadamente el señor Presidente de la Corte Suprema, luego se vió que el sistema de los Juzgados de Instrucción no se armoniza bien con el de juicio oral, y de allí que se decidiera la creación de un nuevo Juzgado de Circuito en lo criminal, puesto que así el trabajo se distribuirá de ese modo con mayor equidad y la [illegible] será más rápida y perfecta.

En los Juzgados que [illegible] tuplamente [illegible] de manera que en cada uno de ellos hay [illegible] más de quinientos, cifra que es superior en mucho al trabajo que puede llevar a cabo un Juez que desee dar sus fallos á conciencia y de modo eficiente.

Para evitar, por tanto, los [illegible] que se aumente el número de los Jueces a seis, a fin de que tres conozcan de negocios civiles y tres de negocios criminales.

Identificado el Poder Ejecutivo con las razones y atinados propósitos de la Corte Suprema, me complazco en someter a vuestra consideración el proyecto presentado por ese alto Tribunal, con la súplica de que previos los trámites reglamentarios correspondientes, le déis vuestra sanción y lo [illegible]

El Secretario de Gobierno y Justicia,

R. J. Alfaro.

PROYECTO DE LEY

por la cual se reforman los artículos 123 y 104 del Código Judicial y los artículos 91, 95 y 100 de la Ley 52 de 1919.

La Asamblea Nacional de Panamá,

Decreta:

Artículo 1º—En el Circuito de Panamá habrá seis Jueces de los cuales [illegible] tres [illegible]

Artículo [illegible] de Panamá habrá tres Fiscales de Circuito que se denominarán Fiscal primero, segundo y tercero, respectivamente. Dichos Fiscales ejercerán sus funciones ante los Juzgados de Circuito así: el Fiscal Primero en el Juzgado Primero y en el Cuarto; el Fiscal Segundo en el Juzgado Segundo y en el Quinto, y el Fiscal Tercero en el Juzgado Tercero y en el Sexto, ya sea que se trate de negocios civiles o criminales.

Nueva incursión de los bandidos

LOS BANDIDOS MEJICANOS LLEVAN A CABO UNA NUEVA HAZAÑA

Zapata, Texas, Diciembre 5.— Anoche los bandidos mejicanos realizaron una nueva incursión contra una hacienda norteamericana dentro del territorio de los Estados Unidos y después se escaparon llevándose gran cantidad de provisiones de la tienda establecida en la hacienda. Antes de saquear la tienda los bandidos amarraron y amordazaron al dependiente.

BISMARK OPINABA Q' EL EX KAISER ERA UN DESEQUILIBRADO

LAS MEMORIAS DE BISMARK DESARROLLAN ESTA OPINION CON TODO DETALLE

Berlín, Diciembre 5.— El doctor Paul Tesdorpf ha publicado un folleto que dice que Bismark, antes de su rompimiento con el ex-Kaiser, había obtenido la opinión de varios especialistas sobre la salud de Guillermo y que los especialistas declararon unánimemente que el ex Kaiser sufría de una enfermedad mental, posiblemente de demencia permanente. Estas opiniones, dice Tesdorp, son desarrolladas en las memorias de Bismark, y refiere el deseo de ciertas personas de evitar su publicación.

WILSON NO HA SIDO CONSULTADO EN LO DE MEJICO

ASI LO HA DECLARADO EL SECRETARIO LANSING SEGUN DICE EL CABLE

Washington, Diciembre 5.— Los miembros del Comité de Relaciones Exteriores del Senado dijeron que el Secretario Lansing reveló que a causa de la enfermedad del Presidente Wilson, éste no fue consultado por el Departamento de Estado sobre los sucesos recientes que han llevado a las relaciones entre los Estados Unidos y Méjico al estado grave en que se encuentran actualmente.

Esta noche el doctor Grayson declaró en la Casa Blanca que no veía razón alguna por la cual los comités y los representantes no podrían visitar al Presidente el viernes si lo deseaban urgentemente.

PARECE Q' EL POETA D'ANNUNCIO PREPARA OTRA EXPEDICION

LOS YUGO-ESLAVOS ESTAN DISPUESTOS A RESISTIR CON LAS ARMAS CUALQUIER ATAQUE

París, Diciembre 5.— La delegación yugo-eslava ha declarado que ha recibido informes que anuncian que D'Annunzio está preparando una expedición contra Cattaro, Spalato y el territorio frente a Laibach. Se informa que D'Annunzio empleará una fuerza de 10.000 hombres para realizar esta expedición. La delegación también anunció que ya ha notificado al Consejo Supremo que se han dado órdenes a las fuerzas yugo-eslavas para que hagan resistencia con las armas a cualquier ataque contra territorio yugo-eslavo.

La ceremonia tuvo lugar ayer a las 5 p. m.

En el Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores de París

HAY MODIFICACIONES

LA MODIFICACION PRINCIPAL ES LA DE ADELANTAR LA FECHA DE INDEMNIZACIONES

Se arreglaron todas las diferencias que impedían la firma

París, Diciembre 5.— Los representantes yugo-eslavos firmaron el tratado de paz búlgaro y las cláusulas financieras y sobre la protección de las minorías raciales del tratado de paz austriaco, esta tarde a las cinco en el Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores.

París, Diciembre 5.— El Consejo Supremo, en su acuerdo con la delegación yugo-eslava, concede ciertas modificaciones del tratado de paz austriaco que afectan a la Yugo-Eslavia. Con estas modificaciones se permite que la Yugo-Eslavia firme el tratado de paz de Saint Germain, inclusive las cláusulas sobre la protección de las minorías raciales y los anexos financieros, y también se asegura la firma del tratado búlgaro por los representantes yugo-eslavos.

El tratado de Paz ante el Senado de Estados Unidos

Continuacion del informe que rindio la Mayoria de la Comision al Senado de E.E. U.U.

La reserva cubre asimismo la cuestión de mandatos. Según las estipulaciones del pacto de la Liga, la aceptación de un mandato por uno cualquiera de sus miembros es voluntaria, pero cuanto a quién tendrá autoridad para rehusar o aceptar un mandato sobre un país, el pacto de la Liga no lo dice. La decisión sobre la aceptación de un mandato debe corresponder exclusivamente al Congreso de los Estados Unidos, como lo establece la reserva, y no debe ser delegada, ni siquiera por inferencia, en ningún agente personal o delegado o comisionado.

"3—Los Estados Unidos se reservan exclusivamente el derecho de decidir cuáles cuestiones están dentro de su jurisdicción doméstica y declaran que toda cuestión doméstica y política concerniente a sus asuntos, incluyendo inmigración, tráfico costanero, arancel de aduana, comercio y otras cuestiones domésticas, están dentro de la jurisdicción exclusiva de los Estados Unidos y no son de ningún modo sometibles bajo este tratado a arbitramento ni a la consideración del Consejo o de la Asamblea de la Liga de las Naciones o a la decisión o recomendación de ninguna otra potencia."

Esta reserva se explica por sí misma. Es innecesario seguir aquí todos los tortuosos rodeos que para aquellos que los han seguido a través del laberinto descubren el hecho de que la Liga bajo ciertas condiciones tendrá la facultad de examinar y decidir cuestiones de inmigración y arancel y las otras cuestiones mencionadas en la reserva. El Comité cree que esta reserva libra a los Estados Unidos de los peligros de cualesquiera obligaciones a este respecto.

"La cuarta y última reserva es como sigue:

"4—Los Estados Unidos rehusan someter a arbitraje o investigación por la Asamblea o el Consejo de la Liga de las Naciones establecida por dicho tratado de paz las cuestiones que a juicio de los Estados Unidos dependan de su política de antiguo establecida, comúnmente conocida como la Doctrina Monroe, o relacionadas con ella; dicha doctrina será interpretada por los Estados Unidos únicamente, y se declara que está completamente fuera de la jurisdicción de dicha Liga de las Naciones y enteramente inafectada por las estipulaciones de dicho tratado de paz con Alemania."

El propósito de esta reserva es claro. Su intención es preservar la Doctrina Monroe de toda intervención o interpretación por otras potencias. [illegible] a los Estados Unidos, así cree el Comité que esta reserva protegerá a la Doctrina Monroe contra la destrucción [illegible] que está amenazada por el artículo XXI del pacto de la Liga, y la deja donde siempre ha estado, bajo el solo y completo control de los Estados Unidos.

Este pacto de la Liga de las Naciones es una alianza y no una liga, como lo prueban ampliamente las estipulaciones del tratado con Alemania, el cual inviste de todo poder esencial a cinco grandes potencias. Estas mismas naciones, las principales potencias aliadas y asociadas, dominan también la Liga a través del Consejo.

El Comité cree que la Liga tal como es engendrará guerras en lugar de asegurar la paz. Cree también que el pacto de la Liga demanda sacrificios de independencia y soberanía americana que de ninguna manera promoverán la paz del mundo, sino que llevan consigo los más graves peligros para la futura seguridad y bienestar de los Estados Unidos. Lo mismo las enmiendas que las reservas están inspiradas en un sólo propósito, cual es, guardar los derechos americanos y la soberanía americana, la invasión de los cuáles estimularía violaciones de la palabra empeñada, provocaría conflictos y engendraría guerras. Los Estados Unidos pueden servir mejor la causa de la paz, como la han servido hasta ahora, y hacer más en pro de la libertad y la civilización en el mundo, continuando en el camino que siempre ha seguido, que dejándose encadenar por los dictados de otras naciones, o sumergir y comprometer en todas las disenciones y conflictos de Europa.

Hemos oído con frecuencia decir que los Estados Unidos "deben" hacer esto y aquello respecto a esta Liga de Naciones y los términos del tratado de paz. No hay "deber" en este particular. "Deber" no es una palabra [illegible] dicha por naciones extranjeras o funcionarios domésticos al pueblo americano y a sus representantes. Igualmente [illegible] la tentativa de asustar a los que no piensan haciéndoles creer que si el Senado adopta enmiendas, los Estados Unidos pueden ser excluidos de la Liga. Esta es la sola cosa que seguramente no sucederá. Las otras naciones saben bien que no hay amenaza de retaliación posible.

(Pasa a la Página 12.)

El tratado......

(Viene de la página 12.)

ble con los Estados Unidos, porque nada hemos pedido para nosotros y nada hemos recibido. No buscamos garantías, ni territorio, ni ventajas comerciales. Las otras naciones nos recibirán en nuestros propios términos, pues sin nosotros, su Liga es un fracaso, y todas sus ventajas de una paz victoriosa están en peligro. No exigimos nada para nosotros, pero insistimos en que nosotros seremos los jueces, y los únicos jueces, en la preservación de nuestros derechos, nuestra soberanía, nuestra seguridad y nuestra independencia.

En este momento los Estados Unidos están libres de todo enredo u obligación que legalmente o en nombre del honor pudiera compelerlos a hacer algo contrario a los dictados de la conciencia o de la libertad y los intereses del pueblo americano. Esta es la hora en que podemos decir precisamente lo que haremos y exactamente lo que no haremos, y nadie podrá jamás cuestionar nuestra buena fe si hablamos ahora. Una vez cogidos en las mallas de un tratado de alianza o una Liga de Naciones compuesta de veintiséis potencias, nuestra libertad de acción está perdida. Para preservar la independencia americana y la soberanía americana, y de este modo servir mejor al bienestar del género humano, el Comité propone estas enmiendas y reservas.

EL SECRETARIO BAKER EN LA PRESIDENCIA

Como dijimos en nuestra edición anterior, en los salones de la residencia presidencial tuvo lugar al medio día de ayer la ceremonia de estilo con motivo de la visita que Mr. Newton D. Baker, Secretario de Guerra de los Estados Unidos, y el General March, Jefe del Estado Mayor del ejército estadounidense, hacían al Excelentísimo Presidente de la República doctor Belisario Porras.

La presentación oficial estuvo a cargo del Hon. M. Price, después de lo cual se libaron algunas copas del rubio licor, a los acordes de los himnos panameño y americano que fueron ejecutados por la Banda Republicana.

En este acto estuvieron presentes todos los señores Secretarios de Estado, los señores Magistrados de la Corte Suprema de Justicia, el Gobernador de la Provincia, el Alcalde del Distrito, varios Diputados, el Subsecretario de Relaciones Exteriores y el Gerente del Banco Nacional.

Integraban la Junta de recibo los señores Nicanor A. de Obarrio, Fabio Arosemena, Carlos M. Arias y Juan A. Jiménez.

El Secretario Baker departió amigablemente con todos los presentes e hizo gratos y halagadores augurios acerca del porvenir de la República.

Alivia el dolor.— Pregúntele a cualquier farmacéutico o comerciante en medicinas cuál es el más popular de los aceites medicinales para curar el dolor en las coyunturas, en los músculos y los nervios, o para la neuralgia y el reumatismo, y le dirá que el Aceite Curativo Canadiense es más popular que cualquier otro. La causa de esto es que posee mejores propiedades curativas que cualquier otro aceite.

Parece ser que el Subteniente Caballero ha sido víctima de la nerviosidad de los animales al atravesar un río; es sabido que los caballos y las mulas apenas entran al agua comienzan a echar violentamente la cabeza hacia atrás, lo que hace al jinete tener sumo cuidado para no recibir un golpe que le haga perder el equilibrio.

Según informes, el cadáver del Subteniente Caballero no ha sido encontrado; hasta ahora únicamente se ha hallado la bestia que [illegible]

LA FIESTA CATOLICA EN ROMA

Roma, Diciembre 5.— La fiesta de San Francisco Javier, protector de las misiones católicas, fue celebrada el miércoles. El Papa publicó una encíclica recomendando la formación de elementos indígenas del clero y seminarios indígenas en los centros donde se encuentren misiones católicas. Se excita a los misioneros a que se abstengan de intervenir en las disputas raciales y nacionales y que no olviden que su objeto principal es la defensa de la fe de los Apóstoles. La encíclica recomienda el estudio de las ciencias coloniales y los idiomas indígenas, para lo cual se nombrarán profesores especiales en el Colegio de Propaganda y el Instituto Pontifical Oriental.

CHARLA COTIDIANA

CHARADAS LOS SABADOS Y SOLUCIONES LOS DOMINGOS

Un recuerdo de la primera edad ha venido a la mente en el momento de escribir las palabras que he puesto como título de esta charla. Allá en la ciudad añeja que se extiende sobre las faldas del Monserrate, en la ilustre Bogotá, hace veinticinco años, cuando todavía no había penetrado hasta allá ciertos bacilos de la civilización moderna, cuando no había alumbrado eléctrico público ni privado, existían todavía las puertas de cuero tachonadas de grandes clavos de cabeza de bronce de unos ventorrillos característicos de aquella ciudad, donde se vendía chocolate en jícaras de barro, con acompañamiento de almojábanas, a todas horas del día, y sobre cuyas puertas se leía hosrrorosamente una muestra dibujada con letras negras sobre fondo que un tiempo fue blanco, azul o rojo pero que entonces presentaba un matiz de tabaco más profundo hacia el borde inferior y que iba esfumándose a medida que subía, matiz causado por la continua carrera del humo del fogón donde hervía el "cacadito" dentro de la enorme olleta de cobre, fogon alimentado con leña y huérfano de chimenea. Me parece que el Comandante Guizado no hubiera estado muy satisfecho de las condiciones de "seguridad" contra incendios que ofrecían tales establecimientos, si ellos hubieran podido caer bajo su jurisdicción. Los letreros aquellos decían, invariablemente:

CHOCOLATERIA

Tamales los sábados y empanadas los domingos

He ahí por qué, al escribir el título de esta charla, como dije al principio, me vino ese recuerdo, iluminando recónditas células cerebrales, como en un fogonazo de magnesio para tomar una vista fotográfica en un interior...

Y es que he decidido, para satisfacer todos los gustos, no seguir la serie ininterrumpida de charadas, sino publicarlas como ya está dicho: los sábados, para anunciar los domingos a quién han correspondido los premios, que los interesados podrán reclamar ese mismo día en esta oficina.

¡Y vamos ahora al asunto.

Cuando yo les decía a ustedes que Agustín Pérez, ese amable ciudadano de Colón tan aficionado a las charadas, es un chico de talento... Lean ustedes, si quieren convencerse, la solución que me ha dado para mi última charada. Qué facilidad en la versificación y qué viveza de ingenio muestra el muchacho! Porque yo me figuro que es un muchacho. Dice:

Lino Tipo; yo presento
que me ha querido engañar, [illegible] voy a relatar
en qué fundo mi argumento:
por más que me crea importuno,
permítame preguntar:
¿por qué usted nos suele dar
dos todos en vez de uno?
[illegible] todo en cierta ocasión
[illegible] en extensas praderas
[illegible] las aves viajeras
[illegible] en conversación:
y [illegible] de ese lado umbrío ominous[illegible] la corriente de una cristalina fuente que desaguaba en el río.

Sobre la cima altanera del todo, se balanceaba la tórtola, que lloraba con voz triste y lastimera.

Pero el todo que proclamo el segundo, no el primero por el cual el premio espero, tiene su dueña y su amo.

Y aunque de datos carezca y me digan atrevido, afirmo: es el apellido de Leda "la picaresca".

Don Lino no soy mentiroso y lo puedo demostrar: usted me debe pagar dos premios en vez de uno.

Colón, Dic. 10 1919.

Muy bien muy bien, Agustín Pérez. Es usted un chico que promete.

Y ahora vamos a descifrar el enigma de esta carta que indiscretamente he tomado de un legajo de la correspondencia privada de mi amiguita Leda:

Querida 33:

He regresado contenta de mi paseo a 23; el 22 está bien y contento, siempre juega, acompañado de 13, con el 12 que le mandaste.

Hay aquí mucho 55, de exquisito 123, que yo 5mo con delicia, porque a mi Juan le han hecho el [illegible] de un 42, y el médico le ha prohibido que los 53. 15 ha recetado 35 en pequeñas dosis.

Los domingos vamos a misa y el 41 canta en 52 con las muchachas, haciéndonos reír mucho.

El encargo del 40 1235 que me hiciste no ha podido ser, porque no lo encuentro.

Tuya que te quiere,

Cada cifra, en la carta anterior, como ustedes comprenden, equivale a una sílaba.

Los premios serán: 2 entradas a la corrida bufa de mañana por la tarde, que a juzgar del dicho de Pepe del Pino, será poco menos que el "sursum corda", para la más ingeniosa solución, y una idem a la función de Eldorado o el Cecilia para la primera que llegue. Como ya les he dicho no tienen para qué molestarse ni molestarme hay que ser francos preguntando quién ha ganado. Mañana lo anunciaré y los agraciados pueden venir a recoger sus premios. Una vez más aseguro que en estos concursos se juzga con la más absoluta imparcialidad.

Las soluciones se reciben en esta oficina hasta las 12 del día de hoy, y en Colón hasta las 2 de la tarde.

Lino Tipo.

La Asamblea...

Viene de la Página 16

ley hecha, que a renglón seguido y por razón de su propio ser, pasa a formar parte de ese "andamaje"...?

El respeto a la ley, el respeto a la Carta Magna que justifica el funcionamiento de un Estado—aún más su existencia con su andamaje natural de legalidades, debe ser inicial para un gobernante.

Mas el señor Secretario de Hacienda llegó a hacer esta importante declaración: "Menos constitución y más beneficios..."

¿Adónde llegará esta fórmula llevada a su límite?

Es muy aventurado hacer suposiciones.

La otra faceta del discurso del señor Secretario de Hacienda tuvo un aspecto sumamente agradable y que es digno de loa sin regateos. La razón de los números es suprema razón en el adelanto de un país.

El Informe del señor Morrell Sub-agente Fiscal indica al mismo tiempo la necesidad de intervenir con mano enérgica, como es la del actual Mandatario, como es la del señor Secretario de Hacienda, en esas organizaciones Municipales interioranas que andan conforme al decir vulgar, manga por hombro.

¿Y cómo no va a merecer en esto todo el apoyo de la Asamblea Nacional, el Poder Ejecutivo...?

Eso es preciso, no admite demora.

Por los párrafos leídos y comentados del Informe del señor Morrell por el Secretario de Hacienda, se llega al convencimiento del estado de los Concejos Municipales de las Provincias, lamentabilísimo.

¿No se pudieran intentar las reformas necesarias ineludibles bajo el amparo del manto sagrado de la Constitución, sin retóricas ni felañas?

Ese será el punto a dilucidar en el segundo debate, pues en el primero quedó en pié.

E. R. V.

Estimado señor:

Cumpliendo la promesa que hice, comunico a usted que la velada con que la "Sociedad Cervantes" celebrará el quinto aniversario de su fundación se llevará a cabo el sábado 6 del presente a las 8.30 p. m.

Suplícole se sirva hacerlo conocer así al público y aprovecho la ocasión para expresarle la consideración y aprecio con que soy de usted atento servidor, Presidente de la Sociedad Cervantes.

Se reconsidera una multa.

El Pesador Celador de las Rentas Municipales ha reconsiderado la resolución en la cual impone una multa de B. 5.00 a Telmo Araúz, expendedor de carne en el Mercado Público como infractor del Acuerdo sobre pesas y medidas, y ha rebajado dicha multa a B. 1.00 por conformarse con la pena que la falta cometida por Araúz apareja.

Se ha hecho acreedor al extrañamiento

Joaquín Woo Lee, asiático que fue sorprendido por la Policía fumando opio en la casa número 11 de la Calle 13 Este de esta ciudad, ha sido declarado por el Alcalde del Distrito infractor de la Ley 19 de 1916, y de consiguiente acreedor a la pena de extrañamiento.

Esta decisión será comunicada a la Secretaría de Gobierno y Justicia para los fines consiguientes.

Multado con B 200.00.

Eulogio Vela, sujeto sorprendido infraganti por la Policía vendiendo billetes de la Lotería Nacional de Lima, Perú, ha sido sentenciado por el Alcalde del Distrito a pagar una multa de B. 200.00 a favor del Tesoro Municipal, y al decomiso de los billetes que fueron ocupados en poder de las personas a quienes los vendió, los cuales serán remitidos a la Lotería Nacional de Beneficencia.

Vela es de nacionalidad colombiana, y comerciante; como no satisfizo el valor de la multa dentro del término señalado por la ley, le ha sido convertida en arresto.

Un robo al pugilista Sam Mc. Vea

Al medio día de ayer se presentó a la Oficina de Pesquisas el pugilista Sam Mc. Vea, bastante conocido en esta localidad, a dar parte que de tres baúles que tenía en el "Santa Ana Athletic Club" le habían sustraído algunas piezas de vestir y otros objetos cuyo valor estima en la suma de B. 87.00.

Menor atropellado por un soldado

Víctor Borisas, soldado americano que presta servicio como mensajero de correspondencia en Balboa Quarry Heights, atropelló con la motocicleta que montaba al menor de 9 años de edad Manuel Suárez, en la Calle B I, ocasionándole una herida en el pabellón de la oreja izquierda.

Borisas infringió además las reglas de tráfico por haber recorrido el tramo de la Calle B comprendido entre la Calle 12 Oeste y la Avenida Central, cuya bajada por allí está prohibida.

Un exceso de maldad

El chofer Gilbergando Díaz dio parte a la Central de Policía que a eso de la 1 a. m. dejó su carro automóvil parado frente a la casa número 10 de la Calle 10a. a donde tuvo necesidad de subir a cobrar un dinero.

Que encontrándose arriba de la casa mencionada algún mal intencionado le abrió el breque al carro, circunstancia por la que, éste bajó la pendiente formada por dicha calle, yendo a chocar violentamente contra el edificio de la "Farmacia Central."

La licorería de los señores Escobal y Vásquez es robada

Tres pilluelos, de los cuales uno ya se encuentra en poder de la Oficina de Pesquisas, venían haciendo de tiempo atrás no despreciable sustracción de licores del establecimiento que los señores Alfonso Escobal y Claudio Vásquez tienen en [illegible] que, justo es decirlo, es uno de los mejor servidos actualmente ya había olido el tocino y tenía varios cabos atados, cuando ayer mañana se presentó a ese Despacho el señor Vásquez a dar parte de la sustracción.

Muy satisfactorio seguramente fue para el Capitán Solís el poder conducir al denunciante a un sitio de su oficina, y allí el último reconociera con no poca sorpresa parte de los artículos robados.

Uno de los autores del hecho en referencia lo es Charles Ghalie, un jamaicanito de 17 inviernos; este pequeño tunante junto con sus compañeros tiene establecida su guarida en el camino de esta ciudad a Corozal en un matorral; allí fueron ocupadas más de treinta botellas de licores de diferentes clases; en su mayor parte estas botellas estaban rotas y otras vacías, y por ello es de suponerse que los chicos alzan el codo o mantienen amplio negocio con los soldados de Corozal.

Se concede una licencia

Ha sido aceptada por la Secretaría de Gobierno la solicitud hecha por el señor Amador Ponce para separarse del puesto de Juez de Policía por el término de quince días renunciables.

Por tal causa ha sido llamado a encargarse del Juzgado el Secretario de dicho Juez, como Suplente ad-hoc.

Nombramiento insubsistente

Por Decreto número 22 de fecha 4 de los corrientes, se ha declarado insubsistente el nombramiento hecho en el señor Ferdín R. Ortega para el puesto de Administrador Principal de Correos de Chitré.

Los Médicos Dicen Que La Mayor Necesidad de la Mujer Contemporanea Es Mas Hierro en la Sangre

PARA FORTIFICAR SUS NERVIOS Y COLOREAR SUS MEJILLAS.

Toda Mujer Que se Canse Con Facilidad, Esté Nerviosa o Sea Irritable, Esté Pálida, Agotada, Cansada, Debe Tomar Hierro Nuxado, Que dá Maravillosas Fuerzas Juveniles y Hace Parecer las Mujeres Muchos Años Mas Jóvenes.

"No puede haber mujeres sanas, bonitas y fascinadoras sin hierro," dice el doctor, Ferdinand King, de Nueva York, autor médico. "En mis recientes conferencias a médicos sobre las graves y fatales consecuencias de la falta de hierro en la sangre de las mujeres, he insistido sobre la conveniencia de que los médicos receten mas hierro orgánico—Hierro Nuxado—a sus pacientes femeninos, mujeres pálidas, nerviosas, agotadas y envejecidas prematuramente. Palidez es signo de anemia. La piel de la mujer anémica está pálida, la carne es fofa. Los músculos carecen de tonicidad, el cerebro decae y la memoria falla y con frecuencia se debilitan, haciendose nerviosas, irritables, apáticas y melancólicas. Cuando el hierro falta en la sangre de las mujeres, los colores huyen de sus mejillas.

"Como he dicho mas de cien veces, hierro es el gran productor de fuerzas. Si la gente tomara Hierro Nuxado cuando se sienten débiles y agotadas en lugar de tratarse con drogas nocivas, que llegan a constituir un hábito, estimulantes y bebidas alcoholicas, estoy convencido que evitarian su padecimiento evitando que se haga orgánico en miles de ocasiones y así podrian salvarse las vidas de millares de personas que mueren todos los años de pulmonia, grippe, desarreglos de riñon, higado y corazón y de otras enfermedades peligrosas. La causa real y verdadera de sus padecimientos no fué otra que la mayor o menor debilitación de su organismo producida por falta de hierro en su sangre.

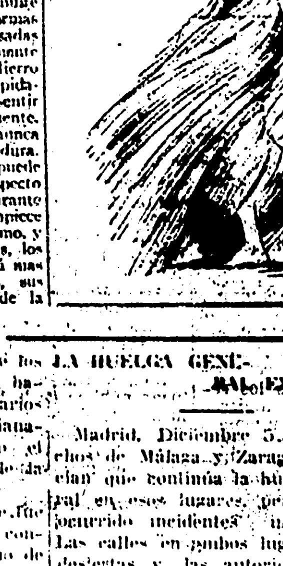
"A causa de la naturaleza especial de las mujeres y las pérdidas sufridas por su organismo en ciertos periodos, necesita hierro en mayor cantidad que el hombre para reponerse. Las antiguas formas de administración del hierro usadas hasta el dia, eran muy deficientemente asimiladas por el organismo. El Hierro Nuxado, por el contrario, pasa rápidamente a la sangre y se hace sentir aumentando las fuerzas vigorosamente. Esta forma de hierro no afecta nunca al estómago ni ennegrece la dentadura. Se ha probado varias veces que se puede mejorar la fuerza, la salud y el aspecto individual en un 100% tomando durante quince dias Hierro Nuxado. Empiece a tomar Hierro Nuxado hoy mismo, y pronto verá aumentar sus fuerzas, los tejidos se afirmarán, la sangre será mas rica, los ojos le brillarán mas, sus mejillas adquirirán los colores de la salud y gozará por completo de la dicha de vivir, de amar y ser amado."

Otro testimonio de los excelentes resultados obtenidos con el uso de Hierro Nuxado es el del doctor Carlos F. Arroyo de la Facultad de Medicina de la Universidad de Madrid y de otras universidades de Europa, miembro de Columbia University de Nueva York. El doctor Arroyo dice: "Hierro Nuxado es un reconstituyente ideal. Hombres débiles que habian abandonado toda esperanza de recobrar la vitalidad perdida, que carecian de energía para trabajar y gozar de la vida, fueron completamente transformados después de un corto tratamiento con Hierro Nuxado. Volvieron dandome las gracias por la feliz idea de haberles prescrito tan maravilloso remedio. Mujeres cuyas mejillas habian palidecido a causa de la pobreza de su sangre, que les producia un estado de nerviosismo constante, que les hacia la vida cargada, se vieron rejuvenecidas y sus nervios calmados, después de tomar hierro nuxado. Yo, mismo, tomo Hierro Nuxado y como consecuencia encuentro mi trabajo mas fácil y me fatigo mucho menos que antes de tomarlo. Cuantos hombres al verse debilitados física y moralmente, cuantas mujeres al ver desaparecer su juventud, buscan consuelo y olvido en el alcohol y la morfina u otros venenos, que si bien contribuyen a hacerles felices durante breves instantes, haciendoles olvidar la miseria de su existencia, empeora su mal haciendolo irremediable. Esos hombres debilitados, esas mujeres envejecidas prematuramente no tienen mas que falta de hierro en su sangre. Tan pronto como su sangre reciba el hierro que necesita la vida volverá a sonreirles. Se encontrarán capaces de trabajar y de gozar todos los placeres que la vida pueda ofrecer."

El doctor M. L. Catrin, de Paris, famoso especialista, dice haber encontrado Hierro Nuxado de gran utilidad para las mujeres débiles, pálidas, sin apetito, con pobreza de sangre y desarreglos generales. El doctor Catrin dice: "Toda mujer, necesita de vez en cuando un tónico poderoso y nada de lo conocido hasta el día produce los resultados del Hierro Nuxado como reconstituyente enriquecedor de la sangre y creador de fuerzas. Toda mujer puede hacer la prueba en pocos días. Hierro Nuxado es inofensivo aún para las más delicadas. En quince dias mejorará su constitución un ciento por ciento."

El doctor Schuyler C. Jaques, antiguo cirujano del Elizabeth's Hospital, de Nueva York, ha dicho: "Nunca he dado información médica de ninguna clase para su publicación, porque generalmente no creo en esas cosas. Pero hay tantas mujeres que carecen del hierro necesario padeciendo las infinitas enfermedades que dimanan de la falta de ese elemento como debilidad, irritabilidad nerviosa, melancolía, indigestión, músculos atónicos y fofos, etc., y como consecuencia de esto se encuentran expuestas a contraer las mas graves dolencias, que considero mi deber recomendarles que tomen Hierro Nuxado. Yo mismo lo he tomado y se lo he recomendado a mis pacientes con los resultados mas sorprendentes y satisfactorios y todo el que tenga deseos de mejorar sus fuerzas y resistencia lo encontrarán un remedio extraordinariamente eficaz."

¡Ay, Mis Nervios!!



NOTA.—Hierro Nuxado, prescrito y recomendado mas arriba por los médicos en tan gran variedad de casos, no es un remedio secreto, sino uno que es bien conocido por los farmacéuticos y cuyos componentes de hierro son ampliamente prescritos por los médicos mas eminentes de Europa y América. Se diferencia de los antiguos compuestos de hierro, por ser fácilmente asimilable, no ataca los dientes ni los ennegrece, ni estropea el estómago; éste bien, por el contrario, es un remedio potente en casi todas las formas de indigestión [illegible] que en los casos de [illegible] Hierro Nuxado está de venta en casi todas las boticas del mundo.

La fiscalización de los Municipios

La sesión de ayer de la Asamblea Nacional transcurrió íntegra en la discusión del proyecto de ley sobre fiscalización de los Municipios. Nosotros insistimos en creer que el tal proyecto debe retirarse de la consideración de la Asamblea Nacional, porque constituye una redundancia desde luego que ya esa misma Corporación autorizó, por medio del artículo 7º de la ley 30 del presente año, al Agente Fiscal para que ejerza sus funciones sobre la vida económica de los Municipios. Lo que en esa materia resta hacer, como lo hemos dicho anteriormente, es cuestión de reglamentación y detalle, puramente administrativa.

Los opositores al proyecto alegan, fundándose en el artículo 130 de la Constitución Nacional, que aquel es contrario a ésta. A nosotros no nos lo parece. De haber algo, lo inconstitucional sería el artículo 7 de la ley 30, anteriormente citado, pero en ningún caso este nuevo proyecto de ley, que es una ampliación, un complemento, una consecuencia, una explicación de aquel. Vamos a tratar de demostrar las razones en que fundamos nuestro parecer.

El artículo 130 de la Constitución dice a la letra:

"Los Distritos Municipales son autónomos en su régimen interior, pero no podrán contraer deudas sin autorización de la Asamblea Nacional."

Muy bien. Y el artículo 131 de la misma Carta Constitucional establece:

"Corresponde a los Concejos Municipales ordenar, por medio de acuerdos propios O REGLAMENTOS DICTADOS POR JUNTAS O COMISIONES TECNICAS, LO CONVENIENTE PARA LA ADMINISTRACION DEL DISTRITO; votar las contribuciones y gastos locales, CON LAS LIMITACIONES QUE ESTABLEZCA EL SISTEMA TRIBUTARIO NACIONAL; y ejercer las demás funciones que las leyes les señalen."

Tenemos, primeramente, que como el sistema tributario nacional que actualmente rige en el país, dispone que el control de todo el sistema esté en las manos del Agente Fiscal, y los Municipios, según el artículo 131 de la Constitución que acabamos de citar, no deben votar sus contribuciones y gastos locales sino con las limitaciones que establezca el mismo sistema, es claro que, desde luego y por disposición constitucional, el Agente Fiscal tiene plena autoridad para ejercer sus funciones sobre la vida económica de los Municipios. Desde este punto de vista, es todavía mayor redundancia el proyecto de ley que nos ocupa.

En segundo lugar tenemos que los municipios pueden según el mismo artículo de la Constitución, ordenar lo que crean conveniente para la administración del Distrito, por medio de simples reglamentos dictados por comisiones técnicas. Lo más conveniente que puede haber para la administración de un Distrito, es el buen manejo de sus rentas, esto es, la creación y cobro estricto de impuestos y la inversión cuidadosa, útil y honrada de lo que tales impuestos produzcan. Y la Oficina de Fiscalización Municipal adjunta a la del Agente Fiscal, puede considerarse rectamente como una comisión técnica a la que cada uno de los Municipios nacionales encarga la dirección de sus finanzas. Y no por proceder de esta manera pierden en modo alguno los municipios su autonomía interna, establecida y garantida por el artículo 130 de la Constitución.

Como los Municipios deben ceñir su administración fiscal, según acabamos de ver, al control del Agente Fiscal Nacional, éste necesitaría tener un sub-agente o comisionado suyo en cada uno de los Municipios, para que desempeñase las respectivas funciones sirviendo de intermediario entre él y aquellos. La lógica indica que como a quien beneficiarían los servicios de estos empleados sería a los Municipios, éstos deberían asignarles sueldos, como lo hace con cualesquiera otros de sus servidores. Estos comisionados no serían en modo alguno empleados nacionales, sino municipales, como lo son el Tesorero y el Secretario del Concejo.

Pero como resultaría en la mayoría de los casos que el sostenimiento de tales empleados, que necesariamente deberían ser personas aptas en cuestiones fiscales y de la entera confianza del Agente Fiscal, habría de resultar demasiado dispendioso para los Municipios, se ha pensado con muy buen acierto crear una Oficina Central de Fiscalización Municipal, bajo la inmediata dependencia del Agente y sostenida por los Municipios, sea una junta de comisionados de todos los Municipios, esto es, DE EMPLEADOS MUNICIPALES, para la fiscalización de sus respectivas vidas económicas. Y como no se trata de empleados nacionales, no se requiere para su creación más que la anuencia de los respectivos Concejos, que están obligados constitucionalmente a crearlos para cumplir con lo que ordena el artículo 131, de someter sus rentas y gastos al sistema tributario nacional.

Como lo hemos sostenido desde el principio, todas estas cuestiones no necesitan autorización expresa de la Asamblea Nacional, que implícitamente las autorizó ya por medio de la ley 30 de 1919. Todas estas cuestiones son de pura competencia del Poder Ejecutivo, puesto que se trata simplemente de la manera de EJECUTAR una ley ya en vigencia y absolutamente dentro de las prescripciones constitucionales.

Demás estará decir que nuestro concepto es completamente desapasionado y absolutamente sereno. No nos ciega ninguna pasión política ni ningún interés particular. Emitimos nuestro parecer únicamente de acuerdo con nuestra conciencia.

ASAMBLEA NACIONAL

(SESION DEL 5 DE DICIEMBRE.)

Orden del día: Elección de la Comisión de Justicia Interior: Primer debate del Proyecto de ley de "Fiscalización de los Municipios."

A despecho del artículo 98 del Reglamento, sin cumplir tampoco el 112, el Presidente agita la campanilla a las 3 menos veinte: 24 diputados responden a la lista: más tarde se hallan ocupados todos los pupitres. La barra está concurrida. Tres señoritas taquígrafas las señoritas Carmen i Hortensia Remón y las hermanas Ardilas, ocupan asiento en las mesas correspondientes. Se lee el acta anterior y se aprueba. Se pasa al "Orden del Día." El Secretario de Hacienda se encuentra en el Salón.

El diputado Dutari propone: "Altérese el Orden del Día y dése primer debate al Proyecto de "Fiscalización de los Municipios" ya que se halla presente el señor Secretario de Hacienda."

Aprobada.

El Secretario de la Cámara lee el proyecto de ley aludido y se abre la discusión.

El primero en tomar la palabra es el Diputado Filós entrando en seguida en materia. Dice que el proyecto es obra de tres abogados: el señor Gil R. Ponce abogado consultor de la Oficina de Fiscalización, que entre sus deberes tiene el de dictaminar sobre estos proyectos, el General Santiago de la Guardia y el doctor Belisario Porras; y entre sus cláusulas las tiene inconstitucionales, las esenciales, e innecesarias las accidentales.

Fundamenta sus declaraciones atacando el artículo primero del proyecto en su ordinal tercero con el artículo 35 de la Constitución que alude a las infracciones a la Carta Fundamental por los funcionarios públicos.

El artículo 2º del Proyecto lo ataca con los artículos 130 y 131 de la Constitución agregando que sobre los Acuerdos Municipales con esta ley va a tener más poder el Agente Fiscal que el Presidente de la República. Por otro lado la ley al disponer que los Municipios se han gravado para atender a los gastos que supone la oficina de supervigilancia Central se ataca directamente la Disposición del Código Administrativo que dice que las rentas municipales de ningún modo se destinarán a objetos nacionales. Prosigue el doctor Filós en medio del mayor silencio y atención su documentada disertación asegurando que el Ejecutivo quiere asumir todos los poderes el legislativo y hasta la vida Municipal. "Además el Proyecto, prosigue Filós, no está de acuerdo con el Reglamento de la Cámara: infringe el artículo 158." Este artículo 148 se refiere a que se han de anotar los artículos del Código y leyes que quedan derogadas, adicionados o reformados con la nueva ley.

También el doctor Filós insistió en el punto de que cuando en otros países la tendencia es a favorecer la vida municipal dándole más facilidades, aquí se la restringe y empequeñece.

A continuación el diputado orador alude al Agente Fiscal, atacándolo. Dice que no se ha visto su labor. Ha ampliado los gastos, dejando las mismas rentas. No ha rendido ningún luminoso estudio, y el público enterado de la ley que creó este puesto debe saber qué es lo que ha hecho. Lee trozos del Mensaje con que fué presentada la ley creando este puesto por el Ejecutivo y deduce que se está como en aquel momento: sin ideas concretas y sin reformas capitales. El diputado Filós habló por más de media hora y su discurso fué escuchado con gran atención.

El Secretario de Hacienda pide la palabra, y comienza por una explicación en la que asegura que él no fué descortés a la Cámara que considera la más importante corporación patria. La explicación satisface. Entra luego a defender el proyecto indicando que es un desarrollo de la ley 30 de este año, que no se pudo hacer por decreto por el gravámen que se le impone a los Municipios que precisa la Asamblea. Dice que "el distinguido señor Filós" ha hecho una serie de cargos complicada que él no puede contestar en una improvisación. Habla de la Autonomía Municipal diciendo que no hay tal autonomía. No está preparado el país para eso: se está organizando el país: se está haciendo patria: no hemos llegado al estado perfecto de nación. Precisa "moralidad, sensatez aunque haya que transigir con actos dolorosos para el patriotismo." "Los Municipios tienen grandes defectos aun los de la capital": "La autonomía Municipal es un mito." El estudio del Subinspector Morrell sobre los municipios anteriores es a continuación el tema del discurso del Secretario de Hacienda. En él consta que hay Municipios en que se preparan antes los gastos que los ingresos. Lee varios absurdos detalles. El Municipio de Chitré tiene seis o siete partidas de ingresos que no se cobran: a pesar de que los gastos suben a los ingresos, se votó un crédito adicional de 3,000 pesos para arreglar el Parque.

En Coclé hay Municipios como el de Olá cuyo presupuesto anual es de 70 Balboas (!) y el Juez Municipal cobra un Balboa mensual. ¡Qué municipios! En Penonomé hay diez ex-Tesoreros acusados de irregularidades en las cuentas. El proyecto que se discute no se debe a Mr. Ruan, sino al Presidente de la República en su anhelo de hacer patria. Para esto hay que despojarse del "andamio de las legalidades." Sigue el Secretario narrando "preciosidades" de los Municipios interioranos.

Luego defiende a Ruan denodadamente.

Dice que es preferible un poco menos de Constitución y algo más de beneficios. La moralidad y la honradez son las bases en las que se debe de fijar el público.

Alude al progreso del Banco Nacional, al plan de caminos que el Presidente de la República en unión de Mr. Ruan con tanto calor protegen destinando a él el 75% de las economías. En el Banco Internacional hay 506,000 balboas de Superavit...

"Compárese esta situación inconstitucional pero con el Gobierno subiendo a la del año anterior (Aplausos.)

Entra el Secretario de Fomento.

El Secretario de Hacienda prosigue diciendo que lo que se desea es "una reforma honda en la vida municipal sin fijarse en palabra más o menos." Hay que moralizar el país prescindiendo de "andamios o telarañas legales." Al Presidente Wilson y al Presidente suizo se les ha dicho muchas veces inconstitucionales pero sus países van para arriba.

El Secretario quiere que el país siga subiendo a pesar de que se le moteje de inconstitucional...

La charla en la Pagina 14....

Venero habla de las autonomías absoluta y relativa y hasta de las colonias inglesas y de la India.

Jiménez (E.) habla de lo bien que va el Banco Nacional con los consejos del Sub-agente Morrell, y dice que la vida municipal de mal en peor.

(Vidal E. asume la Presidencia). Afirma que el Agente Fiscal ni cumplió con lo pactado y que solo el restablecimiento del crédito ya es muchísimo. Dice que el caballo de batalla es el célebre artículo 11 y que él votará por la ley.

Arias P. después de aludir a la explicación del Secretario de Hacienda sobre su falta de ayer a la sesión dice que no se contestaron los argumentos de Filós. Se extraña del desprecio por la Constitución que siente el Secretario de Hacienda, afirmando que eso conduce al desprestigio: "está bien curar al enfermo, pero no darle una medicina que le mate" y eso quiere el Secretario de Hacienda: matar los Municipios.... según Arias P.

El Secretario de Hacienda habla de las fórmulas retóricas de Arias P. y dice que si afirmó que él prefería "menos Constitución y más beneficios" no es por que él creyera el proyecto inconstitucional. "No quiero matar al enfermo pero sí emplear con él el cuchillo salvador del cirujano... Que muera el Municipio, sino mejora." Nada de "[illegible]" constitucionales ni de [illegible] hace referencia por sport... y "hacer un sport de las cuestiones constitucionales [illegible] (Risas.)

Valdés [illegible] hay que traer el Proyecto [illegible] la Constitución: que es cuestión de estudio y habilidad. "Parece que la Constitución ya no tiene valor en este país." Hay falta de práctica "y falta de estudio." Por lo visto tratar aquí de la Constitución es una tinterillada.

Arias P. asegura que ya sacó la espada el General: "Acaba de decir que la Asamblea votará por él." (El Secretario: "Supongo") "La Asamblea es un ejército, un ejército de línea... No quiero creer que haya perdido por completo su indiferencia... Les invito a todos a ser "sport"... (Aplausos y Risas.)

Dutari, mesuradamente apoya al general de la Guardia..... y habla del artículo 11.

Jiménez (E.) dice que se lea el trozo de acta en el que Arias P. prometió voto afirmativo en primer debate y que no se pierda tiempo.

El Secretario lo lee.

Arias P. dice que dará el voto pero que no está obligado.

Venero lee una opinión de don Ricardo Arias contraria a la autonomía municipal y llama a don Ricardo "Jefe del Liberalismo istmeño" en unión del doctor Belisario Porras.

Se cierra la discusión: se discute un "tiquimiquis" reglamentario entre Filós y la Presidencia (tenía razón Filós) y por fin se aprueba en primer debate el proyecto con ocho votos en contra.

El Secretario de Gobierno y el de Fomento presentan varios proyectos y a las 5.30 se levanta la sesión.

BREVES COMENTARIOS.

Fiscalización de los Municipios.

Ha pasado ayer en primer debate este proyecto de ley de indubitable importancia para la vida municipal.

Dos discursos realmente interesantes hubo en la discusión: uno de franca oposición que correspondió al diputado Filós y otro del señor Secretario de Hacienda.

La oración del doctor Filós le [illegible] formidable fuera: en lo que principalmente basaba su ataque el diputado por Panamá era en la inconstitucionalidad... del Proyecto presentado. El artículo 130 de la Constitución "la autonomía municipal" se pasaba por alto.

El señor Secretario de Hacienda negó la base de los argumentos de Filós partiendo de que la autonomía municipal es un mito.... ¿Qué argumentos se le podrían proponer al señor Secretario de Hacienda...?

Si a los preceptos constitucionales se les califica de "telarañas constitucionales... ¿Qué decir...?

El "andamiaje" de la legalidad es el lógico para hacer las leyes.

¿Qué respeto nos merecerá una
