Saved His Life.

[...] Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, [...] 1902: "I want to tell you I [think] Ballard's Snow Liniment saved [my li]fe. I was under the treatment of [two d]octors, and they told me one of [my lu]ngs was entirely gone, and the [other] badly affected. I also had a lump [in my] side. I don't think that I could [have l]ived over two months longer. I [was in]duced by a friend to try Ballard's [Snow] Liniment. The first application [gave] me great relief; two fifty cent [bottles] cured me sound and well. It is [a wond]erful medicine and I recommend [it to s]uffering humanity." Sold by W. [...]

WASTING AWAY

It's the small but constant loss of flesh that indicates physical waste—the gradual slipping away of healthy flesh, pound by pound, which no ordinary food seems to restore. Scott's Emulsion will restore it. This Emulsion is the greatest flesh builder obtainable. Scott's Emulsion first stops the wasting—that's one gain. Then when it supplies new flesh and takes one back to normal strength and weight, that's another gain and a big one.

YOUNG MAN HAD THREE WIVES.

Arraigned in Police Court on Charge of Bigamy—Wives Testify.

New York, Oct. 12.—Accused of having had three young wives living simultaneously in the same flat building in Eighteenth street, each of whom believed that she was the only wife, Rob knowing that Benyicker was main and arraigned in court today on a complaint made by two of them. He is 25 years and and a painter.

The woman who claims to be his first wife, Norma, 19 years old, and Emily, 20 years old, who says she is the second Mrs. Benyicker, told the police that a third wife was now in Lowell, Mass., and that the two, while still ignorant of each other's relations to Benyicker, were persuaded by him that the Lowell girl was his sister. They said they both supplied money which recently sent her back to Lowell.

The woman who says she is the first wife, corroborated the story and said that after her husband left her and went to housekeeping with a second wife in Eighteenth street, she herself moved to the same house without knowing that Benyicked was maintaining another wife there.

Emily, who claims to be the other wife, corroobrated the story and said furthermore that she and Norma had been acquainted with each other before their marriage. When they met again in the Eighteenth street house they say they discovered hat Benyicker was the husband of both of them.

Astonishing Incident.

It was, to all her friends, an astonishing incident that Mrs. I. B. Hunt of Lime Ridge, Wis., was cured of her dreadful sickness. "Doctors," she writes, "had given me up; friends were ready to bid me the last farewell; clouds of despair darkened my horizon, and I was a wreck on the shores of despondency, when I began to take Electric Bitters for my frightful stomach and liver complaint. To the astonishment of all, I was benefited at once and am now completely and miraculously restored to health. At all drug stores; price 50c; guaranteed.

BELIEVE A CLEW IS FOUND.

To a Posoffice Robbery Which Occurred Fifty Years Ago.

Oakland, Ca., Oct. 12.—What is believed to be a clew to a postoffice burglary that ocurred 52 years ago in Alameda county, was discovered today by workmen engaged in demolishing an old building at East Twelfth street and Twelfth avenue, Near Oakland.

In 1853 the building was occupied by the Clinton postoffice and an express office. In December of that year burglars robbed both offices, taking several thousand in gold slugs. The government mail sack was rifled and its contents disappeared.

The thief was never apprehended nor was the mail recovered. Today a moldy bundle of letters and papers was fund when a wall of the old building was torn down. There was a draft for $100 addressed to Francis Sized, from the New Orleans banking house of Horne, Ames & Co. It is dated Sept. 30, 1853, and never paid. The draft was drawn on Jacob, Little & Co., New York.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Fry, Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it, and after taking three bottles I began to get better, and continued to improve until I was entirely well." J. W. McKinstry & Co.

CONNECT PACIFIC AND GULF.

New Railroad Projected Between Galveston and San Francisco.

San Francisco, Oct. 12.—President E. P. Ripley, of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railway has decided to build a new road which will give San Francisco another direct rail connection with Galveston, Tex. He has just incorporated the Gulf, Santa Fe and Northern railway.

The latter company is to build three hundred and fifty miles of road from Brownwood Northwest to Texico on the Texas and New Mexico boundary. Texico is a point on the North and South Pecos Valley line of the Santa Fe railway. From Texico to Rio Puerce on the Santa Fe and Overland line, 20 miles west of Albuquerque, the distance is 275 miles, and a road is being built there by eastern New Mexico and Santa Fe company, by means of the new piece of road from Rio Puerco to Texico, and thence north over the Pecos Valley line, the Santa Fe will have a second and shorter overland line to California.

Cures Winter Cough.

J. E. Gover, 101 North Main street, Ottawa, Kan., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall I got her a bottle of Horehound Syrup. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stop the cough, and she is able to be up and well." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Henpecked.

"I can attend to that divorce case for you, if you like," suggested his friend, the lawyer.

"I'm sorry, old man," replied the western Benedict, "but the fact is, I promised the case to a friend of mine before I was married."—New York Press.

Building Rome.

Teacher—Tommy, when was Rome built? Tommy—In the night. Teacher—How came you to make such a mistake? Tommy—You said yesterday Rome wasn't built in a day.—School Board Journal.

All other knowledge is hurtful to him who has not honesty and good nature. —Montaigne.

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unconcerned About It.

Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserable of both sexes, to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.
