GENOA CONFERENCE OPENS TODAY

DOMINANT QUESTION FACING ALLIES IS RECOGNITION OF RUSSIA'S RED GOVERNMENT

All Discussions Begin and End With Russia Whose Problems Will Probably be Given First Consideration Immediately After Formal Openin—Russia and Baltic States Known to be Opposed to Consortium Plan Proposed by Allies Believing it a Move to Infringe on Their Sovereignty.

GENOA, April 9.—(By the Associated Press). —The recognition of Russia which is the dominant question of the conference will probably be the first matter considered, after the formal ceremonies attending the opening of the conference tomorrow. All discussions today begin and end with Soviet Russia.

The Supreme Council's resolution at Cannes, adopted January 6 from which the Genoa gathering grew, announced that steps must be taken for the economic reconstruction of Central and Eastern Europe in order to restore international commerce and develop the resources of all these countries which clearly include Russia.

The Conference's agenda, while superficially dealing with financial and commercial questions, seems impossible of discussion without consideration for the basic political problems.

Article One of the Agenda provides for, "An examination of the best methods for the execution of the principles contained in the resolution passed at Cannes by the Supreme Council, January 6." The Italian delegation which was entrusted with the direction of the conference, explains that this is the pivot on which the Conference's work must turn referring, as it does, especially to Russia and her recognition.

To Oppose Consortium

The consortium plan mentioned at Cannes, will be stoutly resisted by Russia, Poland, Esthonia and Latvia who have pledged themselves to stand for Russia's recognition and to unitedly oppose the consortium.

Opposition to the consortium by the Russian states, is based on the belief that the great powers contemplate infringing on their sovereignty through financial control.

Article two of the Agenda provides for the "establishment of European peace on a solid basis," and it is in this section, according to the Cannes agreement that the discussion aims "at finding means whereby the controversies between nations can be solved without recourse to the barbarous use of arms." It is this article which will naturally develop into a discussion of land disarmament which was impossible at the Washington conference owing to French opposition.

Russia expresses willingness to reduce her army if Japan evacuates Siberia and Rumania evacuates Bessarabia and guarantees for the security of her boundaries are given.

Article three of the Agenda provides for the creation of "the essential conditions for the establishment of confidence without affecting the existing treaties," and this according to present discussions refers to the interallied debts which were not mentioned because it was feared that it would prevent the Americans from participating. The clause referring to existing treaties was insisted upon by France to prevent the revision of the reparations provisions of the Versailles treaty.

Article four of the Agenda provides for the discussion of Financial questions as follows: First: currency; Second: the establishment of central banks; Third: Public finance in connection with reconstruction; Fourth: The Exchange Firth: The organization of public and private credit.

Article five of the agenda provides for the discussion of economic and commercial questions, as follows: First: Facilities and guarantees for the exports and imports of commerce; Second: Legal guarantees for the resumption of commerce; Third: Protection for industrial, literaty and artistic property; Fourth: Consular regulations; Fifth: The admission and status of foreigners in connection with their participation in trade; Sixty: Technical assistance in the work of reconstruction.

Article six deals with the question of transportation.

All minds are concentrated on Russia, since a commercial reopening with Russia is deemed tantamount to the later recognition of the Communistic Russian state and her formal admission into the council of nations. Europe is grimly determined to set its house in order if possible without the assistance of the United States. The conference is organizing into action knowing that the United States must eventually ratify its main achievements. If these prove durable, the United States influence even if not expressed at Genoa will undoubtedly be obtained as a strong phychological force.

The French Government which is chagrined at the American conception that she is militaristic, after the Washington conference, appeares determined to maintain an army of sufficient strength for any emergency, to exact reparations from Germany and to assist in her own reconstruction, while reports from Germany allege the existence of a strong popular feeling against France. It is admitted that only slight difference exist between Italy and France, largely due to the Italians feeling that France's moral support of Jugo - Slavia nad other smaller states in their attempt to mold a defensive alliance against Germany is inimical to Italy's national intersts.

All interested in Outcome

The Little Entente, so - called Balkan Entente and neutral states headed by Spain, all have interests to further, while England with Lloyd George staking all on the results of the conference, stands forth as a dramatic actor in the deliberations. Everybody plainly realizes that the economic restoration of Russia is obligatory to the salvation of Russia. Britain wants a market there. France seeks to recover her debts, while Italy imperatively needs Russian wheat which she probably could purchase fifty times cheaper than she now does from the United States.

Despite the unemployment in England and famine in Russia, the eve of the conference shows that the great middle classes of Europe are the biggest suffers in the present paralyzation, with the strictest economy necessary, while the gravest enxiety prevails in all classes in all countries. Various panaceas find expression in official and

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.— (By the Associated Press).—Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Whitehurst, defense witnesses in the third Arbuckle manslaughter trial, were subpoenaed yesterday to appear before the Grand Jury on Monday evening in connection with the testimony they gave at the trial. The women testified that Miss Rappe was taken ill a number of times in Chicago and Mrs. Warren said that she attended the late actress on the occasion of the birth of a child.

The prosecution produced several witnesses who contradicted in rebuttal the women's testimony saying that Miss Rappe enjoyed good health during the years they knew the actress and that they never new she became a mother.

The prosecution concluded its rebuttal of the testimony by calling to the stand the two attorneys for the defense McNab and Brennan as also its own witnesses. They also asked that the circumstances surrounding Mrs. Whitehurst's deposition in which she was credited as saying that Miss Rappe was ill a number of times at her home but later declared that Miss Rappe was ill only twice, must be changed.

Attorney O'Neill attached to the Police Department took the stand and stated Arbuckle's weight to be 226 pounds. Minister Loucher said that money should be based not on the gold standard, but on the actual purchasing power within the country, thereby Germany could balance her budget and pay the reparations, and added that Germany's 25,000,000,000 paper marks ought to be transformed to five or six billion new marks.

BELGIUM HAS 3 BILLION FRANCS DEFICIT IN TRADE BALANCE

BRUSSELS, April 9.—(By the Associated Press).— A three billion francs deficit in the commercial trade balance of Belgium for 1921, is shown to be due to the excess of imports from the United States of 1,400,000,000 francs over exports from Belgium to the United States also a 600,000,000 francs similar excess with Argentine. Premier Theunis explained to the Chamber that the other billion francs was made up by the depreciation of the mark and the French protective tariffs. The Premier expressed the opinion that it is impossible to reduce the imports from the United States and Argentine as these imports consists of wheat, cattle and other foodstuffs.

Dominant Question—

unofficial spokesmen assembled here. Some idealists even demand a creation of a European confederation similar to the United States as a remedy, believing that great men will soon emerge and show the way to save Europe from future schisms. The primal feature of this dream would be the abolition of the great armies now being kept by the various states. Others preach the wisdom of the so called Latin alliance, morally if not actually backed by the South American countries in order to unitedly preserve Latin institutions, customs and culture from the movement for Anglo-Saxon domination anticipated by the Latin peoples.

Far East Menace

Advices from Tokio attribute to Japan the ambition to strengthen her grasp by all legitimate means on the economic life of Siberia whose mineral resources are practically inexhaustible. Prior to the Washington conference Japan believed that one of the result of the conference would be a disposition in her favor for her economic growth in the Far East. Moreover, with Korea still unassimilated and China disorganized, it is believed that Japan follows with supreme interest any movement signalizing the rebirth and might of Russia against whom many Japanese are convinced Japan may have some day to engage in another test of arms.

How to prevent the forthcoming conference from losing its economic aspect and becoming purely political conceive precarious in its possibilities, is admitted as the supreme danger, as the delegations foregather. This it is believed forms the rock on which the conference may succeed or split. Th publicists assembled here openly insist that the conference will inevitably and fundamentaly be political jealousies of the countries of Europe, also the national and racial ambitions arising from th solving up in Europe of new states.

Victor to Send Message

Genoa, April 9. By the Associated Press). Premier Facta of Italy will read a telegram from King Victor Emanuel of Italy, at the opening of The Conference tomorrow, wherein the King expresses hopes that the conference will be a complete success and greatly contribute toward restoring normal conditions in Europe.

It is possible that King Victor will come to Genoa shortly to extend a personal reception to the delegates.

Will Feel U. S. Influence

GENOA, April 9. — (By the Associated Press).—With arrangements completed, and many of the most important delegations already here, the opening of the international economic conference tomorrow is awaited on all sides with hope for a definite advance towards a solution of Europe's economic difficulties. If the eve of one of the greatest conference in history, including as it does, friends as well as foes of yesterday and also neutrals, in an attempt to prevent Europe's paralyzation, and degenerating into irreparable disaster, shows the existence of serious conflicts of national interests, the hope prevails that sincer necessity for common action in the interest of all will induce sacrifices on the part of all participants so as to permit the building up of the economic machinery.

Allies Delegates Meet

GENOA, April 9- By the Associated Press). — Premier Lloyd George and Secretary Evans for England, Barthou and Barrere for France, Hayashi and Ishii for Japan, Theunis and Jaspar for Belgium and Premier Facta and Minister Schanzer for Italy, met this morning and afternoon to discuss the mode of procedure at the conference and the attitude which the allies will adopt toward the leading questions.

As a result of this conference it was decided that each of these five countries will be represented by five delegates the same privilege being extended to Germany and Russia owing to their large populations and their size and political importance. All other countries will be allowed only two delegates.

Inaugural speeches will be delivered by Premier Facta in Italian, Lloyd George in English and Barthou in French.

The inaugural meeting will be adjourned with the appointment of several commissions, one for the verification of credentials, one for the Russian question and one each for the finance, economic and transport questions.

There seems to be a great diversion of opinion regarding the composition of the Russian commission. The allies desire that only England, France, Italy, Germany and Russia be represented so as to obtain quick action. However, Japan, the Baltic States and the Little Entente are dissatisfied with this suggestion, claiming that their relations with Russia are of more importance than those of some of the allied countries.

Hard Work, George Says

GENOA, April 9 By the Associated Press). "I am glad to be here at the eve of the conference which I obstinately sought while others vainly tried to wreck it," Lloyd George told the Associated Press today. "With the same obstinacy I will work for the success of the conference whereof I am fully confident.

"It is impossible to predict exactly what will be accomplished, but one thing is certain, we have come here to work with all our energy and earnestness and not waste our time in amusements.

"One point whereof I am sure all the delegates will agree is that we will reach agreements which will prevent any renewal of International conflicts thus re-establishing general peace and reciprocal confidence between states on the basis of economic prosperity."

U. S. Ambassador Arrives

GENOA, April 9- (By the Associated Press). United States Ambassador Childs arrived today in an unofficial character for the purpose of keeping Washington advised as to the proceedings of the conference.

It is understood that he has declined the offer made to give him a seat with the delegates.

As the Foreign Minister of Italy is now in Genoa, practically all the diplomats accredited to Rome will come to Genoa.

French Delegates Arrive

GENOA, April 9—(By the Associated Press).—The arrival of the French delegation occasioned a public demonstration of Franco-Italian amity, the applauding crowds at the station and the inspiring notes of the Marseillaise adding to the enthusiasm.

The spokesman of the French delegation told the Associated Press that the French delegates had come with a perfectly open spirit toward all questions and were determined to do their utmos, to accomplish the needed reforms for Europe.

He admitted that the Russian question towered over all others in importance.

To Appeal to Conference

LONDON, April 9 — By the Associated Press). — The Genoa conference carrying 800 signatures representing the most salient members of the United Kingdom's Finance, Shipping Trade and Industry, will be dispatched this Monday. In this appeal the conference is urged not to merely recommend the removal of all post-war restrictions on the freedom of trade but also to agree on such further measures as will ensure the progressive liberation of trade and commerce throughout the world as one of the chief means for assuring economic prosperity.

WILL DECORATE U. S. WORLD WAR VICTIMS' GRAVES MEMORIL DAY

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 9.—(By the Associated Press). Graves of American soldiers, sailors and marines, who died in the world war will be visited on memorial day by comrades in the American Legion both at home and abroad, according to plans announced today at Legion national headquarters.

Legion posts in every community in America will take charge of Memorial Day ceremonies and decorate the graves of all veterans it was said. While thousands of communities thoughout this country are honoring the soldier dead in their midst the distant graves in France England Italy and Russia will not be neglected.

It has been the custom of Legion national headquarters for the last two years to collect a fund from the 11,000 posts for this purpose. The committees are established to take charge of the funds in France and England, composed largely of Legion men acting in conjunction with the similar bodies of officials and citizens of the countries co-operating with these committees will see that the grave of every American who perished overseas while in the service is decorated it was said.

In order to prevent confusion and duplication in decorating the graves in this country on memorial day the Legion has asked all posts to organize a Central Graves Registration Bureau in every county for the purpose of properly recording graves of veterans of all wars and assigning such graves to the individual posts for proper decoration.

SINKING OF THE "NELLIE"

A radiogram was flashed from Venezuela by Mr. Francheschi, merchant in Port of Spain, stating that the vessel Nellie had been sunk. The message which was signed by the Captain of the vessel, was as follows: "Nellie sunk last night, 4th: Porlamar, Margarita: All on board saved."

The Nellie it may be mentioned is a vessel of 65 tons net. She left Port of Spain harbor for La Guayra on the 1st March with sundry packages merchandise. It may be gathered from the telegram that the Nellie must have been some miles off the land, on the way to La Guayra. This craft was owned by Mr. William Bushe.

It may be recalled that the Nellie was bought from the United States of America for the late Mr. Ellis Grell, some years ago for the special purpose of deep sea fishing. After Mr. Grell's death the industry was continued for a time and the Nellie was afterwards sold, changing ownership couple of times.

LETTER TO EDITOR

LETTER TO EDITOR

Ancon, Canal Zone,
April 8th 1922.

Editor Star and Herald,
Panama city, Rep. de P.

Sir:

Attached is copy of a letter written to Mr. R. C. A. Cadogan by Mr. John H. A. Davis General Secretary of the Independent Order of Foresters of Lebanon at New York City U. S. A., which was forwarded to me by Mr. Davis and I beg that you give publicity to same to refute the statement made by that gentleman appearing on page 8 of your paper on March 28, 1922 claiming to be the "Sole Originator" of this Order.

Thanking you in advance, I am Respectfully yours,

JEROME A. CONWAY.

Independent Order of Foresters

Of Lebanon.— Office of the General Secretary.— 372 West 126th Street.—New York City.—March 25th 1922.

Bro. R. C. A. Cadogan,
Box 805, Cristobal, C. Z.

Dear Sir and Bro:

The favors you did us under date of February 16th 1922 and March 13th respectively are duly received.

Referring to letter under date of February 16th I am directed to inform you that nothing has admitted in the rituals of the Order that the Council has not the original data for the comment reason that it may and can be easily used to the prejudice and disadvantage of the Order. During the interim from Feb. 16th to March 13th 1922, the attention of the Council was directed to an article in the Star and Herald and one of the same in the Workmans of the City of Panama over your signature, and communicated in and by your letter of March 13th to this Office.

I am instructed to inform you that the Council view your action with disdain, and begs to inform you that that body thinks that it is the duty of every member of the Order if they are agreived over any action of any person against the Order it is the duty of such agreived member to forthwith report same to the proper officer of the Order who will have same corrected. If you were dissatisfied with Bro. Conway's action your duty was to notify the General Secretary who would have the matter put to the Council. This should be done because they are the representative of the people who can bind the people with their actions and not every member trying to vindicate the honor of the Order in his or her pet way.

Referring to your exception to Bro. Conway's notice in the Star and Herald, I beg to say that it is very peculiar after you have acknowledged receipt of my letter to you under date of Nov. 21, 1921, in which copy of the letter to Bro. Conway was enclosed. You will understand that it is very noticeable that Bro. Conway had put another notice in the papers some time ago through which Mr. A.A. Steer was recommended to you and there no exceptions taken to that which was the first to have appeared on the Isthmus.

The statement "The sole Originator" is preposterous and if the Officeers of the Council were looking for, Notoriety they would have published the entire record of the Order which would prove the origin of the Order. We will invite your recollection to the fact that you were invited to one of our meetings when you came to the City of New York. The fact your letter spoke of your expenses to England and America cause us to regret the free hearted receptions that we extended to you.

Regarding the rituals a etc. The Council admits with truthful pride that you had submitted a typewritten document to a committee of two Viz Woodruffe and Davis. The committee had informed you after the examination that this document that there was one item that could be used in connection with order Viz the benifits to be derived from Friendly Socities, which you forwarded to us a few days ago (March 13th 1922.)

The council concurs in the inference that "All the operators are in New York" in as-much as you fear the truthfuness of that and hope that you will find it possible to see it that way.

The statement you made that you are in possession of the Rituals and ceremonies IS NOT TRUE and is very damaging and is duly bound to request that you withdraw such a statement.

You can easily remember if you so desire that at the initiation when you were made a member of this Order, your rituals and ceremonies referred to were in your trunks which were that time on the P.R.R. pier North River N. Y. City. You will find that we have spoken very plainly in this matter and that you had not expected less as such is the fundamental principle of prosperity and success. Now we must inform you that we do not relish any statement that tends to establish the spirit of antipathy, for we war against this.

Your recommendations in the letter under date of March 13th 1922 have been considered and found inadmissible.

Trusting this will find you enjoying the best that health affords yourself and sister Cadogan, I beg to be yours,

In F.L. & F.,
(Signed.

J.H.A. DAVIS.

Russian Opera Singers Prefer Gifts Of Wood, Bread And Meat To Flowers.

ODESSA, April 8.—(By the Associated Press).—Presents of wood, bread, or meat are more welcome than flowers to Odessa's grand opera singers. Among the gifts to the orchestra conductor of the famous play house at a recent benefit in honor of his twenty-five years service, was twenty five pounds of firewood. The singers receive salaries the best of which, 1,500,000 rubles monthly, will pay for only a pound and a half of bread daily. Many of the best singers have left, but there are still 35 principals, with a chorus and ballet. Several performances a week are given. Many of the seats are free, and a box for six persons costs only the equivalent of twenty-five cents.

Madame Marie De Ribas, Coloratura, soprano has contracted tuberculosis but frequently sings leading roles. She is a granddaughter of the general, De Ribas who was delegated by Catherine the great in 1791, to build a city here.

The voice of M. Kalechan, well known as a tenor, has recently changed to baritone, due to nervousness growing out of lack of food. His salary is 13,000 rubles a day, the price of half a pound of bread.

MOORS BOMBING ALHUCEMAS

MADRID, April 9.— By the Associated Press.— It is officially reported that the Moors are still bombarding the city of Alhucemas and the Velezgomers fort, but with negative results. The Spanish troops took Darquebdani and other positions after breaking the resistance of the Moors, with only small losses. General Berenguer is now considering an important operation with the object of occupying Kubyle and Beni Said, hoping that the political results will easily permit the occupation of Monte [illegible]

ROMANONES MAKES STATEMENT

MADRID, April 9. (By the Associated Press).— Former Premier Romanones writing in the Diario Universal, expressed regrets that he was unable to attend the meeting of the Liberal groups. He proclaims himself in accord with the greater part of the program, which is essentially liberal and promises to vote with the combination should the occasion arise. In commenting on Marquis Alhucemas' speech he declared it was a perfect speech. Other writers termed the speech, a "fearless radical address" and, "a revelation from above".

Deputies close to former Premier Romanones, hint that he intends to support the present Cabinet, especially relative to the Moroccan problem. The former Minister is of opinion that the collaboration of all parties is necessary for a solution of the tangle, and he holds its political life in his hands.

DEMOCRATIC MISGIVINGS

In the last eight years people all over the world have had more government thrust upon them than they ever expected to endure. Millions of those who never before had had [illegible] to do personally with government [illegible] found that their [illegible] affairs were in [illegible] with bureau[illegible] and that they were supposed to feel worshipful about the governmental machine.

There was bound to follow a revolt against the thousand and one different kinds of conscripting and taxing and regulating and inspecting and licensing and spying and interfering and dictating and filling out questionnaires and standing in line which belong to the administration of war. A time was bound to come too when the European ecstasy, that phase of war feeling which comes before the casualties and the boredom and the taxes, turned into the mood of the morning after. Bound also to come was the time when people grew disgusted at that "[illegible]ation of opinion" which degenerates so readily into the bamboozlements of organized propagandists.

It is not surprising that in the letdown after the war there should have spread over the world a distrust of politics accompanied by even deeper misgivings as to the future of democracy itself. Some sceptics, to be sure, there have always been, even in the days before the war when the progress of democracy seemed like an irresistible march into the millennium. There have been sincere aristocrats who were never convinced, and always found reasons for not being convinced, by gazing upon the glaring contrast between the ideals of popular government and the inanities and corruptions of democratic politics. Tammany Hall has long been the aristocrat's best argument. But besides the criticism from the right, there was before the war an attack from the left. It was to be found in the writings of certain European intellectuals who, in the name of what they called the "labor movement," advocated the dictatorship of a conscious minority as a substitute for majority rule. Since 1917 this thought has guided the masters of the Russian revolution.

But neither the aristocrat nor the Bolshevik has seriously persuaded any great mass of people in the West. The new misgivings are not inspired either by the extreme right or extreme left. They are of a different sort and ultimately perhaps of greater importance, because these doubts of democracy appear in the great middle party of the constitutionally minded.

For this party Dean Inge is speaking when he says in the current Atlantic Monthly that "democracy still holds the field for want of rivals. But it is no longer worshipped or even highly respected." It is for these middle people that Mr. Alleyne Ireland is speaking in the Century Magazine when he writes that "we are confronted not only by various forms of protest adopted by those who wish to destroy existing institutions of government but also by a growing sense of helplessness and exasperation among those who wish to preserve them." The same idea echoed so persistently through the last utterances of Lord Bryce that only by an extreme act of faith could he remain hopeful.

Democracy's best friends are in doubt about its future. They are asking themselves whether the ideal of popular government, which arose so triumphantly in a small nation of independent farmers and moderate towns, can work successfully where the voters are counted by the tens of millions, where the farm and the city are out of balance, where the city is swollen and congested and a source of feverish excitement. They recognize that two radical changes have happened in the world since the honeymoon of democracy came to an end. The number of people who wield power has multiplied enormously; the problems of government have complicated themselves, it seems, beyond the powers of any human mind.

This is a condition which confronts all citizens of free states. That there is no quick and easy answer to it we may be sure. For a problem which arises because civilization has become so complicated will not disappear when somebody has a happy thought, hires a hall, forms a committee and collects dues paying members and endowments. But in principle and as a beginning Mr. Alleyne Ireland is surely right when he insists that no progress is possible until more and more of the issues in politics are removed from "the field of controversy, conjecture and surmise" and are discussed in the light of a comparative analysis of the actual operations of modern government. Until there are at least experts who can understand and explain what is going on in the world, the busy man reading a daily newspaper can hardly hope to find his way through the modern maze.

The question of how to find the experts, how to train them, how to protect them against partisanship, how to spread their findings, how to make their findings interesting to free men who cannot be compelled to like dull reading, the question of how men are to tell an expert from a quack—all these questions lie in the future and belong to the time when we know much more than we do at present about education, journalism and the psychology of public opinion. They are questions which concern everybody who reads even a little between the lines.—N. Y. World.

Pearl Island Outing.

A large crowd of excursionists boarded the Panama Canal Yacht Gold Star, for a trip to Taboga and the Pearl Islands yesterday, and on returning last night voted the outing a great success and a credit for the Bureau of Clubs and Playgrounds, under whose auspices it was held.

The Gold Star left Balboa at approximately 7:15 a. m. going direct to the Pearl Islands, where purchases of pearls were made and swimming indulged in after a hearty lunch served on the sandy beach.

At approximately 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the return trip was started, making Taboga Island at approximately four o'clock. Quite a rousing reception was accorded the visitors when they reached "Malloy's pier," opposite the Aspinwall Hotel, as it is here that the Balboa High School Seniors are spending a few days' vacation after their successful comedy drama at the Cecilia Saturday evening.

After a stay of about an hour at the Aspinwall, the Gold Star's party re-embarked and returned to Balboa.

During the trip out to the Pearl Islands, the excursionists were treated to many unique sights such as schools of whales, sharks and dolphins playing around in the crystal clear waters of the Gulf of Panama.

RED CROSS SECY. GIVES INSIDE DOPE ON WORK

If everybody could spend a morning or a few hours with the Executive Secretary of the Red Cross in her office in the Courthouse at Ancon, the solicitors for the Hunger Campaign would have an easy time and no refusals.

From thirty to seventy five and as many some times as a hundred people come there in a single day for help, and this happens day after day, week after week, and has been happening for months. Of course, the number is increased by the fact that the Red Cross gives out small doles of food in order that there may be no possible chance of waste. Lately, however, the doles have been reduced from necessity, because the funds are so limited.

Mrs. Ewing was telling of her work when a woman appeared at the door. She was poorly dressed and plainly underfed. Her arms were thin and the bones around her neck were prominent. She looked ill, and her eyes had a pitiful look in them that comes from helplessness and loss of hope.

"There's a woman at the door: ask her in and see what she wants."

She timidly approached the desk and in a voice that was piteously thin, timed and dull, asked for help. The big book came open and the history was taken—name, etc., then, "How many children?"

"Five," in a tone weakly apologetic.

"What are their ages?"

"Oldest ten years and youngest ten months, please mum."

"How long has your husband been out of work?"

"More than eight months he don't have no job."

"How have you lived?"

"Caledonia soup kitchen;" there was shame in her voice this time, "but the baby too small to live on soup."

"How has the baby lived?"

"You help me before, mum, but I sick and can't come."

"I thought I knew you. You had a sore hand."

"That well, now mum."

"Well, I'm not supposed to give you anything, unless I see the baby."

"That right, mum," came the hopeless reply.

"Why didn't you bring the baby. Can't you bring the baby?"

"Caledonia far, mum."

"Well, I'll give you something this time, but the next time you must bring the baby. I want to see it."

"Yes, please, mum."

"How are the other children?"

"Well, mum, but they cries at night."

"Take this order to the Ancon commissary," said the Secretary, "and they will give you two tins of milk and two pounds of sugar for your baby."

"Thank you, mum," and the woman shuffled out of the room.

"That isn't very much," apologized the Secretary, "but it is the best we can do now. Her other children should have help. They cry at night because they are hungry. The soup kitchens do their best and I don't know what we would do without them, but a piece of bread and coffee at ten in the morning and a piece of bread and a bowl of soup at two in the afternoon is not enough for growing active children."

"You're right," we agreed. "But think of a woman with five children and a husband with no work for eight months—and think of two tins of milk and two pounds of sugar."

"But it is the best we can do now," the Secretary replied seriously.

WHAT'S DOING ON THE ATLANTIC SIDE

ATLANTIC SIDE PARS

R. H. STEARNS ELECTED HEAD OF COLON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

After Two Years Service to Atlantic Side's Commerce as President, J. J. Henriquez Declines to Be re-elected.

COLON, April 9.—A full attendance of the Colon Board of Commerce was present Thursday when Pres. J. J. Henriquez called the twelfth annual meeting of that body to order in its headquarters.

As the election of officers took place at this session the only other business transacted was the reading and approval of the reports of the auditing committee, treasurer and secretary of the work and business done by the Board during the past year, besides a letter from William Ewing, British consul in Colon, to the secretary advising that Mr. W. S. Fisher, chairman of the Canadian Manufacturers' Delegation, had requested the consul to convey to him and the Board of Commerce the warmest thanks of the delegation for their reception and entertainment accorded them while in Colon recently.

The Board gave a vote of thanks to Mr. Henriquez, the retiring president, for the valuable services he has rendered it during his three terms. Mr. Henriquez was unable to accept a re election as he is about to leave on a trip to Europe, where he will spend several months.

After the meeting was over the members enjoyed a smoker for which Mr. Henriquez furnished the cigars, Mr. Thiriwald the beer, Mr. MacMurray the ice and Mr. Alberga the glasses and other equipment.

The Colon Board of Commerce, organized in 1911, is the oldest commercial body in the Republic of Panama, and has a membership of forty-nine. It maintains an office in the heart of the city, where it has several hundred works of reference on the trade and industry of all parts of the world which are of great assistance to the business men of Colon in extending their connections with foreign manufacturers and exporters.

The following are the officers elected by the Board of Commerce for the ensuing year:—

President, R. H. Stearns; Vice-President, C. F. MacMurray; Secretary, J. J. Enderton; Treasurer, W. C. Haskins; Sergeant-at-Arms, J. V. Delgado; Directors, S. Chenalloy, J. J. Henriquez, L. F. Phillips, Frank Scott, Geo. M. Guerin, Clarence Alberga and R. F. Lam.

WOMEN CLUB HOLDS ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Mrs. A. D. Fisher Selected As President With Mrs. Dario Melendez As New Vice President —Enjoyable Musical Program At Gilbert House.

CRISTOBAL, April 9.—Mrs. A. D. Fisher was unanimously elected as president of the Cristobal Woman's Club at the meting held at the Gilbert House and Mrs. Dario Meléndez was selected as the new vice president.

Mrs. Sauerkein, the president of the club, was in the chair and the meeting was opened by an exquisitely rendered piano solo by Mrs. Maitland Bottoms, of Fort Randolph. Mrs. Bottoms' first number Chopin's "Ballade in G. Minor," was so masterfully interpreted and so delightfully received that Mrs. Bottoms responded to an encore with Chopin's "Prelude in F." Mrs. Wilhite, whose songs have given so much enjoyment to her fellow members, gave two delightful solos, "Because of You," and "The Bubble."

Mrs. Wilhite was accompanied by Mrs. Bliss.

Mrs. Frank Mack, Recording Secretary, then read the minutes of the meetings of the past month, after which the President made a few announcements.

Mrs. Sauerwein outlined clearly the sources of the club's income and the manners in which this income was disbursed in defraying the expenses of the various departments of the club's activities.

Colon Free Clinic

The Free Clinic gets its main support from the receipts of Gilbert House lunch room; the soup kitchen by donations to the Philanthropy Dep't. Membership dues, being but a small part of the income, are used only for the entertainment and incidental expenses of the club proper. No part of membership dues is used for the carrying on of the club's charitable projects.

Mrs. Sauerwein announced that the club has received two very generous cash donations. One was a gift of $25 from Mr. Ewing, the British Consul at Colon and the other, a gift of $28, from the Cristobal Union Church. Donations of this sort, show that there are good hearts in the ough sympathy with the work of the Woman's Club

Mrs. Chas. Banks was appointed Secretary at Gilbert House to succeed Mrs. Meléndez, whose resignation took effect on April 1st.

Annual Reports

The President then called upon the officers and chairmen of the various committees for their annual reports, as follows:

Report of Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Fank Washabaugh Chairman of Music Committee Mrs. Eberenz; Program Com., Mrs Osborne; Auditing Com., Mrs. Forstrom; Social Com., Mrs. Doyle, and Mrs. Savage; Librarian, Mrs. Firestine; Purchasing Agent, Mrs. Cousineau.

Mrs. Meléndez, Gilbert House Secretary and Club Treasurer, gave a splendid report of her work, embodying in it the report of the Philanthropy Dep't., Mrs. Henriquez Chairman.

After the reading of the reports of the various committees, the election of officers for the coming year was held.

Election of Officers

The result of the election follows:—

President, Mrs. A. D. Fisher; 1st. Vice Pres., Mrs. Dario Meléndez; 2nd Vice-Pres., Mrs. W. W. Warren; Recording Secretary, Mrs. C. J. Firestine; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. F. E. Williams; Treasurer, Mrs. Chas. Banks.

A unanimous ballot was cast for Mrs. Fisher as President and also for Mrs. Meléndez as 1st. Vice-Pres.

At the close of the routine of business, Miss Agnes Gibson gave two most enjoyable vocal solos, "For All Eternity" and as an encore, sang "Philosophy."

Mrs. De Merritt accompanied on the piano.

After congratulating the officers elect, Mrs. Sauerwein in her own gentle, gracious manner, told of her appreciation of the work that the club has accomplished during her two terms of office. Modestly disclaiming her share of the successful work, Mrs. Sauerwein paid tribute to the officers and members of the club, stating that it was only through their willing and helpful co-operation with her, that plans were executed and splendid results attained.

During Mrs. Sauerwein's presidency, the Woman's Club has broadened to such an extent, that today with its various activities such as Gilbert House Lunch Room the Woman's Club Free Clinic, and the Soup Kitchen, it is a vital force in the community.

The women of Colon and Cristobal should deem it an honor and a great privilege to be affiliated with an organization which exists for mutual sympathy, counsel, general literary and philanthropic work.

At the close of the business session, the members tendered a reception to Mrs. Charles Cousineau one of the club's best loved members.

Mrs. Cousineau, whose heart and hand are ever ready and willing to serve the club, has done so much to make the club a power for good in the community. Mrs. Cousineau who leaves for the States in a few days, will carry with her the best wishes of every member of the club.

SENIORS' BLACK FEATHER PLAY SCORES HIT

High School Students Make Creditable Showing in Interesting Comedy— Drama of Love and International Intrigue.

Before a large crowd which Packed the Cecilia theatre, Saturday night the Balboa high school senior class of '22 presented its four-act comedy-drama "The Black Feather," an interesting story of love and the Secret Service well acted by a cast of talented students who proved more than capable of successfully carrying out their respective roles and demonstrated the painstaking care and study each of them had put into their parts as well as the able direction of their instructors.

With Miss Marjorie Earle Gerans playing the leading feminine role of Evelyn Thornton and Horace Clark as the hero, playing the part of Dick Kent of the British Secret Service, Miss Florence A. Wells, under whose personal direction the production was staged, proved her remarkable ability in picking those most suitable for playing the stellar parts. In fact, every player was well selected for his or her respective role, and each member of the cast did exceedingly well.

Miss Margaret Montgomery as Countess Wanda von Holtzberg of the Austrian Secret Service fulfilled her part perfectly, as did William Sergeant, in the role of Sir George Caxton of the British Embassy. Steven Slack as Baron Earnest von Arngiem of the German Secret Service fulfilled most capably his difficult role, which, in addition to the some clever acting, required that he speak with a German accent throughout the play which was as near perfect as possible. Robert Engelke, playing the part of Jack Thornton, a diffident role, did his part to perfection, as did Ellen Roberts in the role of Lady Venetia Coxton.

Harold Cahalin as Paul Hogue, the German spy; Wayne Banton as the gatekeeper and Fred Newhard as Barnes the chauffeur played each of their respective parts to perfection and added greatly to the success which the production turned out to be.

Beryl Ilgen and Fred Newhard were stage directors and left nothing to be required and in addition to this Beryl Ilgen had charge of the architectural settings while Fred Newhard looked after the lighting effects.

The popular Cecilia orchestra, under the able direction of Sr. Tito del Moral furnished selections between the acts.

THE NEW BOXING CODE

The Panama Boxing Commission has drawn up a complete code of rules to govern boxing matches in this city. It is an adaptation of authoritative rules in force in the United States and England with certain modifications required to meet local conditions. The code in Spanish was published in yesterday's Estrella de Panama. An English translation will be published in the Star and Herald as soon as one can be obtained. Every fighter second, referee and promoter should be familiar with it. So should the fans. In devising this code the Boxing Commission has done a piece of constructive work of the greatest value.

SUPERSTITION OF DICE.

A gambling case next engaged the Court's attention. Two of the leisured class neither toiling nor spinning, had transgressed against the Queen's proclamation with respect to vice and immorality, and had been caught in fact in the throes of the fascinating game of dice known as "sebbe lebbe." The prosecuting police officer had confiscated the dice which are familiarity and various designated as follows:—de instruments, de articles, de articles of my belief, chil'r'n, dead man bones me own own people; each playe using the term of endearment most dear to his superstitition. The first three terms are used when the dice are spoken of, and the last three when spoken to. It is amusing to stand by and hear the players apostrophizing. "Come on, chil'r'n, don' be unruly, come do papa, chil'r'n obey you' parents. Come chil'r'n answer when you are call; what smatta wid dead man bones, to-day? de ghost mus be vex. Bones, bones meb you' se'f useful, me own people forsake me not don't be led astray, but come when I call you—me own, own people, gi'e me a helpin' han' in de hour of tribulation."

The officer said he had caught the boys red handed "in a ya'd in Carmichael" Street, dey does call "Pay me-fus!"

A conviction followed.

HIGH SPOTS IN A BALBOA FLAT.

A great deal has been said of the "witching hour." Some have it that this hour is at midnight; others affirm that two A. M. is the witchiest time. You pays yo' money.... Singers may sing and poets may pote, but I stand firm for the hour tween six and seven. It has long been my sweetest solace to wake at six, take a swift look at Big Ben and cuddle deeper to my Ostermoor. A whole hour till seven! At seven I must dash out and connect the ole perk, dash into the shower, dash into my clothes, dash a few pins into my hair, dash on a dash of powder, dash out and dash a few dishes onto the table, dash to the ice chest for an orange, dash a few slabs of bread onto the toaster—all in short bathe and dress and have breakfast ready by 7.20. (It can be done!)

But six o'clock! The air is crisp and cool. The goose-feather pillow I brought from home was never so downy as now. Deep into the depths—but why rave? Mere words cannot paint the bliss of this hour! What matter if the man of the family below in our four family flat did snore at the beginning of the night? (You know the walls are thin!) What matter if the baby across the hall did have the colic at four A. M.? Ah yes, I know the bridge party in the other half below didn't break up until long after midnight, but what of that? All is calm and peaceful now. The witching hour approaches. I open one eye an eighth of an inch. I knew it. 'Tis six o'clock!

"RIPE ba-NAN-as! RIPE ba NANas!! RIPE ba-NAN as!!!" Good lord! The animal has parked herself right under my window as per usual. It's no good burying myself my head in my pillow—the nasal whine follows to the very depths. Whyinell does she have to stay right in this block? DOES anyone buy bananas at six in the morning? But this is the star soloist. Now the others take up the refrain. Sometimes it varies slightly as "FINE ripe bananas!" No other one has quite the same piercing drone as the first. But then she practices so thoroughly and so often. Sometimes she begins as early as half past five. There's a boy with a shrill soprano chant that never varies a shade in time or accent. The words are cut off short and yet run together. Do you follow me? All together. Sharply accept the first two words and run the others together. "RIPE BANANAS! ten cents a-dozen!" "RIPE BANANAS! ten cents a dozen!" But these are allowed to hold the center of the stage for only a short time. Now there is a duval chorus. For the luvamike! What ARE they calling? Sounds like "Stah an'held." The first word is long drawn out and the last two are shot together. "STAHHHHHH an'held." Finally it percolates. The Star and Herald. Personally, I buy it by the month and have it delivered without all this fuss. But then some are fond of the blare of trumpets and that sort of thing.

It is only a quarter of seven, but I can bear it no longer. The witching hour is all unwitched.

ANOTHER OLYMPIC CHAMP TO SOON VISIT CANAL.

CRISTOBAL, April 8.—Lieut. Alexander Riggin, U. S. N. aboard the Capella which went through the locks yesterday on its way to California, was a Canal Zone visitor for several days. Lieut. Riggin is none other than the proud father of Miss Aileen Riggin, the famous Olympic Champion Diving star.

Arrangements were made for Miss Riggin to make a tour of the Canal Zone late in the summer.

While the Capella was docked at Coco Solo, Lieutenants Riggin, Brown and Hamilton were guests of Homer Baker and many interesting sight seeing trips were made. The visitors saw the coal plant, Gatun locks, hydroelectric station and many other interesting sights. Messrs. Ward, Tufts and Naler explained the operation of the hydroelectric station and Gatun locks.

SPORTDOM

VIVA LOMBARDO!

The wise guys got badly fooled yesterday. The truth of the matter is that Soldier Perlow behaved very badly. That boy was invited over here to make a Panamanian holiday on the distinct understanding that he was to get licked and get licked quick. He can not plead ignorance as an excuse, because I have been explaining the thing to him in these columns for the past four weeks. It was he who was to get knocked out at six rounds at the most. He knew that as well as anybody else, but instead of doing the right thing he deliberately hung on for fourteen rounds, to the disgust and bitter dissappointment of some of our most prominent and patriotic citizens who had wagered good money in large amounts on his early elimination. That is not right, and the Boxing Commission ought to do something about it.

The two boys stepped into the ring at four fifteen, but twenty minutes were required to tape their hands and get the gloves on, and the fight did not start until four thirty five. In the first round both men were playing a cautious game, and there was not much action, but on the only occasion when they did mix things up Lombardo proved that he was the harder hitter and had the best of the exchange. It was an uneventful session, but it should be scored up to the credit of Lombardo. The second round was Lombardo's by a wide margin. He had Perlow covering up, and was pounding him to a pulp when the gong rang. It looked like the next round would be the last, but that was a mistake. Perlow came back strong, and while Lombardo won the third his advantage was not marked. From that time on until the thirteenth one round was very much like another. I would give them all to Lombardo except the ninth which I would score as even, for he was doing all the fighting and Perlow's tactics were wholly defensive. Lombardo, however, did not shine to the same extent as in his previous battles. He was in prime condition, and he had the fight in hand at all stages of the game, but he was as wild as a Sioux Indian. Half of his blows landed on nothing more solid than the atmosphere.

It has been generally believed that Lombardo was an infallible judge of distance. That idea now requires some modification. Either Perl was too quick for him or else he is not so infallible as we supposed. Early in the seventh round Perlow appeared groggy, but he came back again. In the tenth it looked as though Lombardo might have finished him by pressing his advantage, but he let the opportunity slip by. While he never lost the upper hand he appeared to have a wholesome respect for his opponent and was taking no rash chances. He was relying mainly on a left jab, which landed frequently but not invariably.

The thirteenth round was the beginning of the end. In this session Perlow was knocked through the ropes, but crawled back within a count of five or six. Shortly afterwards he was down for a count of nine, and then for a second count of the same length. Then the bell rang.

In the fourteenth round Perlow attempted nothing but to cover up, and he was down five times for counts of eight, nine, nine again, seven and eight. At this stage of the game the Boxing Commission interfered and stopped the fight, Lombardo getting the decision. There may be some argument over this, as Perlow was obviously trying to hang on for the full fifteen rounds to save the money that had been bet on his lasting until the finish. He might succeeded in this by going down whenever he was hit and taking a full count, although it is doubtful. My own opinion is that the action of the Boxing Commission was entirely proper. But I have heard it argued that the conduct of the fight should have been left to the referee and the two judges. Perhaps Perlow is entitled to credit for giving Lombardo a harder fight than he has ever had before. His gameness too is beyond question. But he did not make himself look like a winner at any stage of the fight. Neither did he do any material damage to Lombardo, and the question as to whether the Panama boy can take punishment is still unsettled. But Lombardo has the featherweight title, won beyond question in a fair fight. Viva Lombardo!

The preliminary were not of great interest. In the curtain raiser K. Campbell outboxed Kid Vargas for two rounds, whereupon Vargas quit. The Boxing Commission barred him from participation in any future fights. These boys fought at 103 pounds.

The fight between Pedro Gordin of Gatun Gaillard and Soldier Sloe of Fort Clayton went the full six rounds. Both boys showed gameness without either science or condition. Gordin had the first round, knocking Sloe down twice; but in the second the tables were reversed and Sloe knocked Gordin down. Sloe had the third, Gordin the fourth and fifth, and Sloe the sixth. Both men were exhausted long before the finish. These men are welterweights and weighed in at 145 pounds.

The semifinal was a fliver. Sailor Johnson, who substituted for Wolf, was announced as weighing 145 pounds, but he did not look it. Karp weighed 150. In the first round Karp came out with a rush, but, stepped into something and became more cautious. In the second round he put Johnson down for a count of nine and kocked him out who he got up. Johnson never had a look in. There may be something to this fellow Carp. He seems to have developed a midicum of speed and cleverness.

Frank Cavanaugh refereed the preliminaries and the semifinal, and Dr. Vasquez the main event.

There was a shower of challenges. Sailor Jo Jo challenged Bob Fox. Kid Marshall challenged Young Harry Wills. Soldier Rivera issued an open chalenge at 134 pounds. Eddy Ryan was introduced and got a tremendous ovation. If the reception accorded to him is a criterion, the public wants to see him fight again. I did not hear what Harry Dockery had to say about Eddy (I presume it was a challenge to Fox), for about that time a patriot started a reasonable if noisy demonstration for announcements in spanish as well as in English, and would not desist until he got his way. As I say, he was right about it. This is a Spanish speaking country. Carl Roche challenged Eddy Ryan, Harry Wills challenged Jimmy Ryan, Bob Fox challenged Cavanaugh, and Jimmie Steven challenged the winner of the Lombardo Perlow fight. All this should provide hosailities enough to last us for some time to come.

Before closing I may remark that Lombardo or his trainer is entitled to credit for the splendid condition he was in. He was as fresh at the end of the fourthteenth round as when he stepped into the ring. Once more, Vova Lombardo.

GOOD POLICE WORK AT THE FIGHTS

In spite of the fact that the Pan American Athletic Club was packed to capacity yesterday afternoon with excitable and excited fight fans perfect order was maintained and the crowd was even handled. Credit for this is due to the Pan-aama Police.

THE RACES

They are at of 1.45, thus proving that H. F. P. is at least approximately truthful.

First Race-Selling three furlongs. Won Nell, one of Bob Morris' cow pomies. The pool paid $3.90.

Second race-Minor Lilliputians four furlongs. Won by Jessie another-Morris entry. The pool paid $4.70. This race was started at 2.30.

Thrid Race-Six furlongs. After her two defeats last Sunday. Risas, superbly ridden by Valencia came through for her backers. The pool paid $3.40. The race was started at 3.15.

Fourth Race five furlongs. Won by Glorita with Valencia up. The pool paid $3.00. The race was started at 3.55.

Fith Race.—This was a one mile race, and the horses were all strangers. Cortez was the favorite and wont the race, but many people think that if Mittie had tried a little harder he might have won on Oh Pah. The pool paid $2 50 Start at 4.35.

Sixth Race.—Equatorian sprint four furlongs. Won by Lord with Valencia up. The pool paid $2.80 Start at 5.20.

Seventh Race.— Red Cross Sweeptakes four furlongs. Won by No. 2 with Valencia up. Viva Valencia. Four winning mounts in oe day is worth a cheer. The pool paid $3.00. Start at 5.55.

Eighth Race.—Mior Lilliputians five furlongs. Won by Roxie with Ben up. Although this race was run a little late, (at 6.35) it was one of the best of the afternoon. According to the most reliable dope it seemed to be between Cricket and Sampson. But "litle old Roxie" sneaked under the wire first and caused the pool to pay $29.70. I wasnt on Roxie, but I met a couple of pretty good strangers (their names were "Big Four" and Sgt. McDougle (of the Army) who were.

Our official starter, Dave Cardoze, is to be commended on his work.

JIM BRIGGS AT THE EXCELSIOR TUESDAY NIGHT

On Tuesday night there are to be some bouts at the Excelsior Theater in which Jim Briggs will be the star attractions. Jim's opponent will be ex-Sailor Williams. Jim will also give an exhibition of training methods. He claims to have a piece of equipment that he uses in training that is not familiar to any other fighters with the exception of Jack Dempsey and Jack Johnson. This mysterious apparatus will be on Tuesday night. On the same occasion Young Eddie Ryan will fight Young Fred Fulton, Kid Slammer meets the Fighting Ghost, and Young Zulu Kid will try his luck with Soldier Lewis.

BASS-BALL

Fort Amador defeats Balboa Ancon 4 to 0

In one of the fastest games seen at the Stadium this season the Forth Amador ball club scored a shut-out victory over the Balboa Ancon tossers yesterday afternoon. The final score was 4 to 0. For the first six innings neither side was able to come near the home plate, and some sensational support was accorded both pitchers. Hollingsforth for the winners and Burkholder for the locals were pitching gilt-edged ball up to this time, but Balboa - Ancon wobbled a bit in the seventh, and before the fire was out Amador was in possesion of three runs.

They made it sure by putting across another in the eight. Several times the locals threatened to score, but Hollingsworth came through each itme and averted danger by some marvelous box-work, aided by brilliant support on the part of his mates. To sum up the game, the Amador outfit looked like the best aggregation that has appeared against the locals so far, and Hollingsworth gave a display of pitching that has not been equalled at the Stadium in a long while. But two hits were made off his delivery, one of these being of the infield variety.

It is very likely that a series will be arranged between the two clubs an if so the fans can look forward to some good entertainment for their Sunday afternoons. More about the game with the line-ups in tomorrows issue.

EL PROGRAMA DE LA CONFERENCIA DE GENOVA

LA UNION DE LOS GRUPOS LIBERALES EN ESPAÑA ES UN HECHO CUMPLIDO

NOTABLE DISCURSO DEL MARQUEZ DE ALHUCEMAS; LA DEMOCRATIZACION DE ESPAÑA

Asistieron a la reunión ciento sesenta Senadores y Diputados liberales.

Madrid, Abril 9.— La unión de los grupos liberales fue confirmada el sábado durante el curso de una sesión del Senado bajo la Presidencia del Marqués de Alhucemas. Asistieron a esta reunión 170 senadores y diputados y estaban también presentes los señores Alba, Gasset, Alvarez y Alcalá Zamora, además de un gran número de ex-Ministros, y las galerías estaban llenas de senadores y diputados de los otros partidos.

Habla Alhucemas

El Marqués de Alhucemas pronunció un elocuente discurso en el cual explicó su programa y declaró que consideraba que recaía sobre él una responsabilidad enorme en relación con este movimiento, pero que tiene fe y entusiasmo en este momento histórico. Agregó: "El problema de Marruecos es la labor más importante que tiene delante España. Es indispensable tener un ejército eficiente allí, pero la fuerza debe ser pequeña con tropas de reserva listas en España; así no se excitará la juventud de la nación. Debe establecerse en Marruecos el protectorado con la administración civil." Declaró además el señor Alhucemas que desde la terminación de la guerra mundial mientras brilla una ligera libertad en los otros países, España está en manos de los reaccionarios. Declaró que los intentos de los gobiernos heterogéneos han fracasado debido a la disparidad de ideas de los diferentes elemntos.

Esta concentración de las fuerzas liberales se debe al deseo de solucionar los problemas que actualmente se le presentan a España. El poder público, dijo el señor Alhucemas, debe actuar con justicia, los sindicatos deben ser reconocidos y la participació de los obreros en las ganancias de los patrones debe ser legalizada y a la vez deben crearse propietarios pequeños a expensas de los grandes. La reforma educativa y la reconstrucción nacional deben ser emprendidas, deben negociarse tratados comerciales e iniciarse las reformas para proporcionar alojamientos a los obreros. La revisión constitucional debe ser realizada, pero sin violencia; debe establecerse la libertad de conciencia, democratizarse el Senado y hacerse independiente el poder judicial.

Concluyó el señor Alhucemas declarando: "Bajo la bandera de Alfonso XIII, a la sombra de la cual son posibles todas las conquistas, nos proponemos democratizar a nuestra querida España."

Lombardo campeón de los pesos plumas

El muchacho panameno logra arrebatar el titulo a Perlow despues de brillantes 14 rounds

LOMBARDO SE CINE ADEMAS EL CINTURON DE LOS CIGARRILLOS HERBER TAREYTON

Enormes manifestaciones de júbilo en la ciudad: los aplausos para el campeón

El 9 de abril debe considerarse fecha clásica en los anales deportísticas del Istmo. Y ello se lo debemos a los promotores Ansel y Duque. Por primera vez en la historia del boxeo panameño, un verdadero hijo del pueblo se ciñe la faja de Campeón y ese afortunado mortal responde al nombre de José Lombardo.

Acontecimiento extraordinario, grandioso, inconmensurable que nos toca en suerte reseñar.

Desde tempranas horas de la tarde se nota por Santa Ana un inmenso hormigueo de personas. Unos entran al Pan-American hasta llenarlo de bote en bote, al extremo de que muchos concurrentes puestos de rodillas observan la pelea.

Otros, los curiosos, se agrupan en las inmediaciones al Club, ávidos de recoger las noticias que se escapan respecto a la lucha.

Entre los ringsiders, hay muchos personajes connotados, están don Narciso Garay, Ministro de R. E., doctor South, Ministro de E. U., Mr. Robinson, Secretario de la Legación Americana; Col. Cruse, Attaché Militar de la misma Legación, doctor Carlos Brin, doctor J. J. Vallarino, doctor Alfonso Preciado y muchos otros.

Concluida el semi-final, aparecen a un mismo tiempo Lombardo y Perlow.

El primero lleva de padrinos a los conocidos expertos: Arosemena, Fortich, Simons, Oller y Alfaro; y el colonense a Buddy, Ryan, Juck Dowdy y dos desconocidos.

Lombardo tiene por único atavío unos pantalones negros y un jeasey carmelo; Perlow va abrigado con un bañal de color verde-bajo.

Dickery presenta a los contendores y ambos son aplaudidos ruidosamente. Lombardo entrelaza las manos y juntas las sube por sobre la cabeza, condensando en este gesto un general saludo al público y la expresión sincera de su gratitud por la confianza en él depositada.

Suena la campanada y la lucha se entabla.

Primer round

Ambos muchachos se muestran cautelosos. Se respetan mutuamente. Perlow es el primero en acometer y arrolla a Lombardo contra las sogas. Lombardo marca dos jabs a la cara y erra con su famosa derecha. El round es draw.

Segundo round

En este asalto, Lombardo da muestras de su extraordinaria agilidad, ataca a fondo con decisión y energía y asesta jabs a la cara y un right-hook a la cabeza que pone a Perlow en peligro.

Round a Lombardo.

Tercer round

Del round tercero al noveno no hay nada extraordinario que apuntar. La pelea es monótona. Lombardo usa jabs izquierda a la cara de su contrario y Perlow corresponde con swings con la misma mano, logrando golpear rara vez. Puede observarse que el soldado se cuida en exceso de la derecha de Lombardo y que

Tuvimos ocasión de ver hace pocos días en esta capital al señor Administrador de Aduana de Cartagena don Enrique Méndez P. y al Capitán Rodríguez, hermano de nuestro amigo el doctor Ballesteros Rodríguez.

Estos caballeros llegaron a Colón en los cañoneros "Bolívar" y "Magdalena" en donde se encuentran actualmente y partirán para Colombia dentro de pocos días.

Parece que estos señores han sido enviados por el Ministro de Guerra colombiano, en los citados cañoneros, con el fin de hacer reparar estos y agregarles algunas piezas de artillería.

EL CASO DE LA REVOLUCION DE LAS COMPAÑIAS DE VAPORES

Washington, Abril 8.— Continuando hoy su declaración sobre la proyectada subvención a las compañías de vapores particulares, Mr. Lasker, Presidente de la Junta de Navegación, dijo a los miembros del Comité del Congreso que cree firmemente que dentro de diez años las ayudas indirectas serán suficientes para sostener a la marina mercante norteamericana y no se necesitará más la ayuda directa del Gobierno. Por esta razón favorece los contratos de diez años con los dueños de barcos en lugar de los contratos de quince años que desean algunas compañías. Agregó que quedaría sorprendido si dentro de quince años los créditos anuales de la Junta de Navegación llegan a más de medio millón de dólares.

ENTRE CARLISTAS Y SOCIALISTAS

Viena, Abril 8.— El Ministro Schoeber y los otros miembros del Gabinete que asistieron a la misa de requiem por el descanso del alma del ex-Emperador Carlos, fueron atacados por los socialistas de la Asamblea, quienes los acusaron de estar traicionando a la República. La explicación de Schoeber de que actuó como particular y que como tal tenía el derecho de honrar la memoria del ex-soberano, a quien había servido, fue recibida con risas y burlas de los izquierdistas. Una manifestación realista que se llevó frente al Parlamento dió lugar a que se arrestaran a 21 manifestantes.

Las mujeres de la aristocracia han hecho arreglos para celebrar otra misa de requiem el lunes.

Más tropas de E. U. se retiran de Alemania

Ha quedado reducido a 2.600 hombres todo el ejército.

Coblenz, abril 9.—Otras seis unidades de tropas norteamericanas acantonadas en Alemania, que ascienden a un total de 1.150 oficiales y soldados, partieron hoy para Estados Unidos vía Amberes. También partieron 85 soldados con sus esposas y 28 niños, el número mayor de soldados casados que ha partido desde que salió el "destacamento de la luna de miel" en el mes de mayo del año pasado.

Con la salida de las seis unidades hoy el ejército norteamericano del Rhin ha quedado reducido a 2 mil seiscientos hombres o sea una sexta parte del total que se encontraba aquí el año pasado.

EL PRESIDENTE OBREGON HACE ELOGIOS DE CHILE

CHILE ES "UNA NACION QUE NO HA PODIDO SER AFECTADA POR PROTECCION EXTRAÑA."

Otras frases del Presidente de Méjico acerca de puntos .... de interés.

Ciudad de México, Abril 9.—En un discurso pronunciado durante un banquete que dió en la noche del sábado el Ministro chileno Bermúdez para celebrar la concesión reciente de la Cruz del Mérito chilena al Presidente Obregón, al Ministro de Relaciones Exteriores Pani y a don Antonio Caso, Rector de la Universidad Nacional, el General Obregón se refirió a Chile como una "nación que no ha podido ser afectada por las influencias o la protección extranjera y es dueña absoluta de sus propios asuntos." El Presidente elogió la acción de Chile de reconocer al Gobierno mexicano "mientras algunos gobiernos poderosos continúan creyendo que México presenta todavía un problema muy serio."

Dice Obregón

El Presidente Obregón, después de expresar su reconocimiento del honor que le confería Chile, continuó: "Cuando México surge de diez años de revolución; cuando México comienza a orientarse y a determinar sus políticas extranjera y doméstica propias; cuando México es calumniada por sus explotadores y cuando algunas naciones poderosas se niegan a restablecer sus relaciones con México, Chile viene a honrar su personalidad y su autonomía, echando a un lado todo prejuicio y toda sospecha de lo que podría resultar de este gran acto. Es un gran honor para México el que recibamos estas condecoraciones, pero es mayor el honor para Chile, pues ha demostrado que está absolutamente libre de toda influencia extranjera. Creo que esta ocasión es prueba que los pueblos de los dos países marcharán como hermanos en lo futuro para la realización de sus destinos."

También pronunciaron discursos el Ministro Pani y el señor Bermúdez.

UN NUEVO PARTIDO POLITICO SE ESTA ORGANIZANDO EN LA REPUBLICA CUBANA

EL SENADOR RICARDO DOLZ ES EL PRESIDENTE DEL COMITE NACIONAL

La forma parlamentaria de Gobierno persigue el nuevo partido

Habana, abril 9.—Se ha anunciado la organización del Partido Republicano co nel Senador Ricardo Dolz como Presidente del Comité Nacional.

Los fundadores del partido incluyen a algunos ex-miembros del Partido Conservador y otros que, según el programa adoptado, no han podido ejercer la debida influencia en los partidos a los cuales pertenecieron debido al "comportamiento tiránico de los comités nacionales."

Los planes del nuevo partido incluyen la instalación de la forma parlamentaria de Gobierno, la supresión de los juegos de suerte y la introducción progresiva del sufragio.

DECLARACIONES DE LLOYD GEORGE A PROPOSITO DE LA CONFERENCIA

Otros interesantes detalles de la Conferencia que hoy comienza

Génova, Abril 9.—"Me place mucho estar aquí hoy, en la víspera de la conferencia por la cual he abogado tan obstinadamente mientras otros trataban en vano de disuadirla", declaró el Premier Lloyd George esta tarde durante una entrevista con el corresponsal de la Associated Press". El Premier británico agregó: "Con la misma obstinación trabajaré por el éxito de la conferencia, en lo cual tengo plena confianza.

Es imposible pronosticar exactamente lo que se realizará, pero hay algo cierto; hemos venido aquí a trabajar con todas nuestras energías y con toda sinceridad, no a gastar tiempo en diversiones. Hay un punto sobre el cual creo que todos los delegados están de acuerdo; este punto es el de llegar a acuerdos que evitarán la reanudación de los conflictos internacionales y así restablecer la paz general y confianza recíproca entre los estados basado en la prosperidad económica."

El Premier Lloyd George está alojado en la hermosa Villa de Albertis, en Tibardo, a cuatro millas de Génova.

Llega el embajador norteamericano

Génova, Abril 9.—El Embajador de los Estados Unidos en Italia, Mr. Childs, llegó hoy a esta ciudad en misión extraoficial que tiene por objeto mantener al Gobierno de Washington informado sobre los sucesos que aquí ocurran durante el período de sesiones de la conferencia económica.

Como en la actualidad se encuentra en Génova el Ministro de Relaciones Exteriores italiano es muy probable que también vengan a esta ciudad todos los representantes diplomáticos acreditados en Roma.

La cuestión Soviet

Génova, Abril 9.—El Reconocimiento del Gobierno del Soviet ruso será el factor dominante en la conferencia económica de Génova y probablemente será el primero asunto que se discuta. Todas las discusiones comienzan y terminan con el tema del Soviet ruso. La resolución aprobada por el Consejo Supremo en Cannes el 16 de enero, de la cual resultó la conferencia de Génova, anunciaba que tendrían que tomarse medidas para la reconstrucción económica de la Europa oriental y central para restablecer el comercio internacional y desarrollar los recursos de los países "aliados" que indudablemente incluyen a Rusia. Aunque superficialmente trata de cuestiones financieras y comerciales, parece imposible la discusión de los puntos contenidos en el programa de la conferencia sin tomar en consideración los problemas políticos del día.

El artículo 1 del programa de la conferencia dice: "El estudio de los métodos para dar cumplimiento a los principios contenidos en la resolución aprobada por el Consejo Supremo en Cannes el 6 de enero." La delegación italiana, a la cual se

UN CHOFER CASI APLASTADO POR SU PROPIO CARRO

Anoche a las once frente al Hotel Internacional ocurrió un suceso lamentable que puede traer lamentables consecuencias al principal individuo que intervino en él.

El italiano Benedicto Martin al recibir dos pasajeros que salieron del Hotel, dió "crank" a su carro "Oldsmobile" teniendo conectada la palanca de las velocidades por cuyo motivo, puesto el motor en marcha, imprimió andar el carro que se llevó por delante al pobre Martin, cogiéndolo contra la parte trasera del auto de Julio Aparicio que estaba parado unos metros más adelante y que sufrió por esta causa la rotura completa de una de sus ruedas de ese lado.

Cogido entre los dos carros forzosamente tenía el infeliz italiano que sufrir fuertes golpes en el abdómen. Varios compañeros que presenciaron el accidente cuya rapidez no dió tiempo a la intervención de nadie, recogieron a Benedicto y lo llevaron al Cuartel Central de Policía junto con Aparicio que aúnque irresponsable del accidente hubo de comparecer ante las autoridades policivas.

El Oficial de Guardia en la Central, Teniente Samaniego, después de haber hecho examinar por el practicante Falconette al golpeado y visto su estado de gravedad, ordenó su traslado al Hospital Santo Tomás donde lo asistió el doctor Morgan, quien ordenó fuera llevado a la Sala 7, cama número 9.

POR ABANDONAR A SU HIJO

El Agente F. Herrera condujo ayer a la 1 p. m. a la Central a Laris Clarch, jamaicana de 22 años, quien se halla a órdenes del Corregidor de Santa Ana.

A Laris se le acusa de haber abandonado en plena Avenida Central a su hijo de 4 años de edad, dando lugar a verse casi atropellado por el auto 1965, atropello que logró evitar la magnífica competencia del chófer.

UNA GRESCA

Alfredo Rodolpho se hallaba ayer en Calle B-5, a la 1 y 20 p.m., se encontraba trampudo, pero parece que éste gusta poco del norteamericano Thomas Rossell quien al pasar cerca a aquél, lo injurió con palabras que pocos aguantan.

Thomas se dirigió a Rodolpho y sin entrar en reclamos le propinó un par de puñetazos en la boca que se la dejó hinchada y luego le rompió la cabeza con una barilla de hierro, por lo cual se halla en la Central a órdenes del Corregidor de Santa Ana.

ENTRE MARIDO Y MUJER

Joseph Woodruff y Beatriz Murray, marido y mujer, viven en plena contienda matrimonial celando, se mútuamente. Ayer un poco antes del almuerzo tuvieron un disgusto en la cocina de su casa, por la eterna y mala pasión de los celos, que según Beatriz, tienen a Joseph flaco de tanto celarla, en cambio ésta goza de magnífica gordura.

De las ofensas verbales pasaron a los hechos; Beatriz con un plato atacó a Joseph a quien le dió un platazo en la cara que le ocasionó una lesión cuya incapacidad dictaminó el practicante Falconette será de 3 días.

Joseph no se quede con la cara cia de su compañera, pues cuando ésta vió chorreando sangre a su cara mitad, se asustó mucho y fué a darle satisfacción, y en ese momento Joseph la cogió y le dió una muenda de golpes y un tremendo mordisco de amor en el brazo derecho que la incapacitan tres días.

Ambos se hallan en la Central a órdenes del Corregidor de San Felipe.

Aclamación de La Bella Coclesana

La señorita María de los Angeles Conte es la elegida

Efectuado en la tarde de ayer el último escrutinio del Concurso de Bellezas abierto por "La Voz de Coclé", resultó favorecida por una abrumadora mayoría de votos la gentil señorita María de los Angeles Conte. Con tal motivo el Cuerpo Directivo de la mencionada hoja, junto con un grupo distinguido de admiradores de tan bellísima dama, se dió cita en su residencia para aclamarla triunfadora del Concurso y para ofrendar un homenaje digno de tan radiante belleza.

La señorita Conte recibió a sus visitantes acompañada de la muy simpática señorita Hermelinda Calvo con la exquisita cultura que la distingue, y tuvo para todos una sonrisa llena de encanto y una mirada de gratitud que iluminaban, aun más, su bello rostro helénico.

El Director de "La Voz de Coclé" en cortas y elegantes frases, hizo entrega a la elegida de la misiva encargada de comunicarle la nueva de su victoria. Contestó la señorita Conte en una fácil y sentida improvisación. Y entre el mayor regocijo se libó una copa de champaña por la Bella Coclesana, la más bella hija del Zaratí.

DE NUESTROS CANJES

De Lima, capital del Perú, hemos recibido hasta el número 3720 inclusive de El Tiempo, correspondiente al 30 de Marzo próximo pasado. Tomamos, como de interés, los apuntamientos que siguen.

El monitor "Huáscar".—El casco de este buque de guerra famoso en la historia de la guerra del Pacífico, será trasladado desde Taicabamba donde ha estado fondeado durante varios años hasta Valparaíso; acto que se debe a gestiones efectuadas por la Junta de Progreso local de este puerto, la cual se propone conservar en tierra el trofeo glorioso en cuya cubierta murió como un héroe el insigne Grau, rodeado de sus compañeros en épica jornada.

Las dictaduras organizadoras.—El conocido poeta americano, cantor máximo de nuestras selvas bravías y lujuriantes, don José Santos Chocano, acaba de publicar una obra política, de combate, intitulada Idearium Tropical, enderezada a defender la conveniencia de las dictaduras organizadoras en la América del Sur. Es tema este caríssimo al vate que hace pocos días no más nos visitó; como que el libro actual sintetiza el pensamiento de muchos años—según frase del autor—"las opiniones que he formulado al través de las más duras experiencias, en los últimos quince años de mi vida."

De Bogotá nos han visitado entre otros colegas importantes, El Nuevo Tiempo y La Crónica hasta el 26 de Marzo último.

La Quinta de Bolívar.—En ambos periódicos se comenta el proyecto, acogido con favor en la prensa bogotana en general, de convertir la Quinta de Bolívar en Museo Bolivariano.

Es, en realidad, una idea que bien vale la pena de que se la madure con detenimiento a ver si se la lleva al terreno de los hechos. Bien por los manes del héroe epónimo de América.

MERECIDAS FRASES DE ELOGIO

En nuestro colega "La Noche" de la Habana, en uno de sus recientes números leemos el siguiente artículo inserto en una plana editorial en loor de nuestro buen amigo el Hon. señor Guillermo Andreve, Ministro Plenipotenciario y Enviado Extraordinario de nuestro Gobierno ante los Gobiernos de Francia y España:

"El Ministro de Panamá

En la tarde de ayer tuvimos el gusto de recibir la visita del Excelentísimo señor E. E. y M. P. de la República de Panamá en España y Francia, quien se encuentra de paso en esta ciudad.

Acompañábalo, nuestro muy distinguido amigo y colaborador el celebrado cuentista Febo de Limosín, con cuyas amenas e interesantes producciones solemos avalorar nuestras páginas.

El señor Guillermo Andreve es un excelente caballero y un exquisito diplomático, una de esas personas que simpatizan desde el primer momento en que las tratamos por la sinceridad de su carácter, su fineza y amabilidad. Largo rato estuvimos departiendo con nuestros ilustres visitantes y guardamos de esta agradable "causerie" un recuerdo muy grato.

Embarcará el distinguido diplomático panameño dentro de pocos días para Europa, donde le lleva la honrosa misión que va a desempeñar.

Ledeseamos entre nosotros una feliz estancia".

LOS AGENTES DE LA PROHIBICION TROTEAN AL SECRETARIO DE LA EMBAJADA PERUANA EN WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Abril 9. Se informa que se han presentado protestas al Departmento de Estado como resultado de la presunta violación de la inmunidad diplomática cuando los agentes de prohibición detuvieron a balazos a un automóvil en el cual iba el señor Beunavista, Secretario de la Embajada peruana, después de la cual efectuaron un registro del carro en busca de licores. Se dice que el incidente ocurrió en las afueras de Washington el miércoles. Ninguno de los que iban en el carro fueron heridos y después de mostrar sus credenciales se les permitió que siguieran su marcha.

El libre cambio como política económica

Un inteligente amigo nuestro nos ha enviado una serie de artículos alrededor de la cuestión tan discutida del Libre cambio. La Estrella de Panamá—su Director lo dijo en la última reunión del Club Rotario al expresar su opinión personal—no intenta aún dar su opinión sobre el debatido asunto, pero si pone sus columnas a las órdenes de aquellas personas que con conocimientos de la materia tratada deseen tratar el punto.

He aquí el primer artículo de la serie aludida:

I

El interés individual es tan fuerte, que si no fuera por la acción que toman los Gobiernos, muchas cosas convenientes no se realizarían.

El Canal de Panamá, por ejemplo, obra de progreso mundial y de engrandecimiento para los Estados Unidos, no se habrían construido nunca por esa gran nación si se hubiera atendido a los intereses de las grandes compañías ferrocarrileras interoceánicas de Norte América.

Si respecto de las necesidades de un país, se consulta a diferentes personas, cada una de ellas contestará de acuerdo con lo que a ella pueda interesarle.

Respecto a la política económica que para su desarrollo debe adoptar nuestra República, el industrial creerá que la protección a las industrias debe ser lo primero: el agricultor considerará que esa protección debe dársele a la agricultura; el comerciante dirá que es el comercio el que debe ser protegido librándolo de impuesto y de reglamentaciones para ejercer el comercio libremente; un profesional, médico por ejemplo, creerá que los impuestos deben recaer sobre las tierras, un terrateniente creerá que las tierras no deben se gravadas para atraer los capitalistas y hacer posible la producción a bajo costo, los dueños de propiedades urbanas creerán que los impuestos deben obtenerse de las propiedades rurales, los dueños de las propiedades rurales estimarán que son los dueños de las urbanas los que mayores impuestos deben pagar, puesto que son los que reciben rentas, etc., etc., y así cada cual pensará que la mejor política económica es la que eche a otros la carga directa o indirecta de los impuestos fiscales.

De entre todo ese cúmulo de opiniones contradictorias le toca a los Gobiernos, encontrar la fórmula que satisfaga los intereses generales de la nación, que no son sino su progreso y engrandecimiento. Debe resolver el problema en una forma en que, sin atacar los intereses de un gremio, se tenga en cuenta los intereses de los demás.

El Comercio de Panamá y Colón, aboga por la adopción del libre cambio como una medida salvadora para el bienestar de la República, y cree que a la sombra de ese sistema progresará enormemente la nación. Hay periódicos como el "Diario de Panamá" que abogan también por la misma política y citan ejemplos del desarrollo de otros países al amparo de lo que ellos creen un sistema libre cambista. En todo ello no hay sino cierta confusión, determinada por el deseo muy natural y lógico de progresar individualmente, o no haber tenido en cuenta los intereses de los demás y con especialidad el de todos.

El "Diario de Panamá", cita como ejemplo de los beneficios del libre cambio, lo acaecido en la República de Cuba con la introducción de ganado para el consumo que durante algún tiempo fué completamente libre de impuestos, sin fijarse que esa medida no fue propiamente una disposición libre cambista, sino el fomento de una industria que se hacia necesario, y que fué resuelta de una manera sabia; pero debe convenirse en que ello no fué otra cosa que un modo de conseguir el objeto deseado. Citado ese hecho como ejemplo, para demostrar la conveniencia del libre cambio, nos llevaría a la conclusión lógica de que para proteger la industria del cultivo del arroz en nuestra República, lo más indicado sería permitir la entrada libre de ese artículo, y esto a todas luces sería un error.

Panamá ha mantenido exención de derechos sobre casi toda clase de maquinarias, especialmente las destinadas a la agricultura e industrias y sin embargo, no ha logrado con ello que en la República se fabriquen esas maquinarias ni ha logrado tampoco, lo que realmente se proponía al establecer esa exención: fomentar los cultivos y las industrias; pero ello no ha resultado sino porque la protección ha sido incompleta.

No basta decirle al agricultor o al industrial: ustedes pueden importar sin pagar derechos su maquinaria, para que ellos se decidan a invertir sus capitales y sus energías en la Empresa, en competencia con empresas semejantes de otros países adelantados, es necesario decirles otras muchas cosas y entre ellas las principales, de que serán protegidos contra esa competencia y que se les dará garantías de toda clase. Entonces y solo entonces se logrará fomentar efectivamente el desarrollo agrícola e industrial.

Sólo a la sombra de la decidida protección acordada a la industria azucarera, es como Panamá ha podido lograr producir ese artículo para satisfacer sus necesidades locales, dejando en el país millones de pesos que antes emigraban y dando medios de vida a multitud de familias.

Los fuertes impuestos señalados a los licores extranjeros y al tabaco, si bien no con fines proteccionistas, sino de adquirir rentas castigando el vicio, han dado lugar al implantamiento de industrias como la fabricación de licores y cigarros, que dan medios de vida a millares de personas en la República. Según cuadros estadísticos publicados recientemente por la Administración General del Impuesto de Licores, en los tres últimos años, solamente las rentas derivadas por el Tesoro por impuestos de licores nativos, montan a más de cuatro y medio millones de balboas. ¿Cuántos millones representa para la circulación una industria que en sólo impuestos contribuye para los gastos del Estado con más de un millón y medio de balboas al año?

Hay alguien que en la sola ciudad de Panamá haya contado el número de cigarrerías y fábricas de cigarrillos existentes y el número de familias que derivan su sustento de esa industria.

Cuántos cientos de miles de pesos emigraban anteriormente por año de nuestro país para comprar la cerveza que hoy se fabrica aquí y cuántas familias de obreros viven hoy aquí de esa industria?

Qué justificación tendría una Asamblea que decretara el libre cambio para la República, si ello significaba la ruina y la miseria en muchos hogares?

Nótese una cosa, y es que aún los que abogan por la adopción del sistema libre cambista, convienen en que hay ciertas industrias que deben protegerse. Por qué ha de darse la preferencia a ciertas y no a todas las industrias que se pueden establecer en nuestro territorio?

El comercio como he dicho en otra ocasión podría desarrollarse con el libre cambio; pero la agricultura y la industria no. En cambio con el proteccionismo se podrían desarrollar todos.

Cuál debe ser preferido?

X.

ALREDEDOR DE UNA INFORMACION ACERCA DEL GENERAL PEDRO NEL OSPINA

No obstante la rectificación que el señor Losada, Agente Privado de Colombia, rogó se hiciera en el Diario de Panamá, y la cual apareció ayer, el reporter que la información suministró, sostiene que el señor Losada sí le dijo que el General Pedro Nel Ospina partiría el viernes para Estados Unidos en viaje directo, saliendo de Santa Marta en un vapor de la Compañía Frutera. De modo que si habló el señor Losada con un repórter nuestro, que por cierto le hizo notar su condición de periodista al solicitar la información tan zarandeada.

Un muerto ilustre

La muerte del doctor don Antonio Zambrana, acaecida el 27 de Marzo próximo pasado, en la Habana, es acontecimiento que no puede ni debe pasar inadvertido a nuestros lectores. Efectivamente, fué aquél, en vida, una distinguida personalidad, que enderezó todas las fuerzas de su voluntad de acero y de su clarísima inteligencia a la causa de las ideas; y, aunque radicado durante casi toda la vida en Costa Rica, los productos de su extraordinaria actividad en el campo de las letras, eran bien conocidos y apreciados en todas nuestras tierras de Hispanoamérica. Hay, pues, muy fundado fundamento para que el periodismo panameño comparta el duelo literario que aflige hoy por hoy a Cuba, de donde era nativo el doctor Zambrana: La Estrella de Panamá hace suya tal nota de pena.

Publicamos en seguida dos recortes de periódicos habaneros, relacionados con la muerte del ilustre extinto, los cuales nos ha sido enviados, galantemente, por don Guillermo Andreve, Ministro de Panamá en España y Francia, a su paso por la bella capital cubana.

La Cámara rindió un tributo ayer a Antonio Zambrana. — Los representantes, puestos en pie, mostraron el sentimiento que les produjo la muerte.

La Cámara de Representantes se puso ayer tarde en pie, en señal de respeto y en homenaje a la memoria del insigne tribuno y diplomático cubano Antonio Zambrana, al dar cuenta de su fallecimiento el Presidente Verdeja, de dicho cuerpo colegislador.

Y a propuesta del propio Presidente Verdeja, la Cámara acordó traspasar a sus herederos la pensión que por acuerdo del Congreso, venía disfrutando en los últimos años de su vida el gran orador, ilustre escritor y ejemplar patriota.

Y cuando la sesión parecía propicia a continuar, el representante Félix Martínez hizo uso de la palbra, manifestando que en la sesión del día anterior, con un quorum dudoso, se había aprobado un proyecto tan importante como el de pensiones a los Veteranos, que echaba nuevas cargas sobre el país en forma de impuestos, y para evitar que pudiera repetirse, dado que tenía dudas acerca del quorum, solicitó se pasara lista, comprobándose su inexistencia y suspendiéndose por tanto la sesión.

(De "El Mundo.")

Antonio Zambrana

Con Antonio Zambrana y Vázquez, que acaba de morir en esta ciudad, desaparece una de las grandes figuras del nacionalismo y de la intelectualidad de Cuba. El insigne cubano fué un patriota excelso y un magnífico orador, un orador prodigioso. En este último concepto sólo tiene por iguales, en nuestra Historia, a Escobedo, que brilló en la primera parte del siglo pasado; a Tristán de Jesús Medina; a Miguel Figueroa; a José Antonio Cortina; a Rafael Montoro, a Antonio Sánchez de Bustamante, a Manuel Sanguily, a Arístides Agüero. La espléndida palabra de Zambrana iluminó todo el período de la revolución de 1868 a 1878. Y ese mismo verbo, avasallador, fulguró en los tiempos que precedieron a la revolución de 1895.

Orador eminente, patriota inquebrantable, siempre sirvió a su país con "alma de apóstol y fe de convencido", para emplear una bella frase del ilustre literato cubano, A. Valdivia.

El Heraldo de Cuba deposita una corona de "siemprevivas" sobre la tumba que guardará los restos mortales del eximio patriota y orador.

DOS LUCHADORES

Marcial Valdés e Ismael Ortega, panameños y ambos de 26 años, resolvieron ayer a las 5 medir sus fuerzas lo que hicieron en Calle 14 Este, pero en lugar de empeñar lucha de hombre a hombre, la que emprendieron fué de lengua a lengua.

En la contienda verbal se encontraban cuando llegó el Subteniente 72 a quien, luego que intervino atacaron a golpes entre ambos, poniéndo fin al ataque la inmediata intervención del Agente José del C. León.

Llevados a la Central fueron puestos a órdenes del Corregidor de Santa Ana, quien les impuso sendas multas de B.5.00.

ECOS DE CHORRERA

SOLEDAD BARRANCO

Cuando realizó el Centro Chorrerano la idea feliz de un Concurso de Simpatía para dar mayor esplendor a la Feria que en el presente mes se celebrará en La Chorrera, concurso que debía corresponder al doble propósito de contribuír al acopio de fondos para fines de beneficencia pública y de rendir pleito homenaje a una señorita chorrerana, digna por sus méritos del aprecio público, el nombre de Soledad Barranco se oyó sonar de boca en boca como un heraldo de triunfo, y apareció después con profusión en los escrutinios que se hacían semanalmente. No podía ser de otro modo: Sole, como la llamamos en el seno de la intimidad los que la estimamos y comprendemos, por su espiritualidad y su carácter franco y popular goza de las simpatías de pueblo: no obstante su vida de comodidades y bienestar material de que siempre ha disfrutado: cultiva la humildad como una flor preciosa y guarda siempre para todo el que tiene la fortuna de conocerla, una sonrisa de cariño y un gesto de irresistible simpatía.

Por eso el persistente rumor que venía circulando de que debido al duelo que todavía encrespona el hogar de la popular candidata, ella se vería obligada a declinar el honor de la exaltación que el pueblo le venía preparando, hizo cundir el desaliento, y a muchos se nos antojó ella irremplazable para el buen éxito de la fiesta. Se echó mano de todos los recursos; algunas familias brindaron sus hogares para que sirvieran de Centro a los festivales que en honor a la reina Sole, que sin duda lo sería electa, se hiciera; comisiones, tanto locales como de la capital hicieron gestiones para conseguir que la presunta soberana accediese de antemano, pero todo fue inútil; las razones de su negativa eran justas, desde el momento en que ella no hubiera podido sustentarse en forma alguna al ruido de las celebraciones y alegría que se derrocharía en su honor y ya lo hemos dicho, su hogar está aun de duelo. Alguien le insinuó que retirase su nombre del concurso, a lo cual ella contestó acertadamente, con una sonrisa de convicción: "No creo que tenga derecho a impedir que mi nombre se use como portaestandarte para recojer fondos en beneficio de mi pueblo"; pero sí ruego a quienes con sus votos me favorecen, procuren no llevarme al primer puesto, pues me crearían dificultades." Digna respuesta de quien, como ella, no veía en el papel que desempeñaba sino una forma de hacer el bien al suelo que la vió nacer.

Lamentamos las causas que han impedido a los chorreranos evidenciar el aprecio de que goza la espiritual Sole, haciéndola Reina de la Simpatía, con los votos de sus numerosos amigos y admiradores, en cuyos corazones no obstante, sigue ella reinando por su popularidad, su modestia y sus bien cimentadas virtudes.

Varios amigos.

UNA CONTESTACION

EL DR. BELISARIO PORRAS CONCEPTUA LEVANTADA Y DIGNA LA ACTITUD DEL JOVEN SANTIAGO D. McKAY

Panamá, 8 de Abril de 1922.

Señor don Santiago D. McKay,
David.

Mi estimado amigo:

Me es grato avisarle recibo de su atenta carta, de fecha 31 de Marzo próximo pasado, cuya lectura me ha causado viva satisfacción.

En primer lugar, el recuerdo piadoso que hace usted de su señor padre, don Oscar McKay, con quien tuve en vida suya larga y muy buena amistad, me ha emocionado en lo más íntimo de mi sér; y así, por la fuerza retrospectiva del pensamiento ha reaparecido ante mi la imagen de ese excelente autor de sus días, que fu asimismo un ciudadano muy apreciable.

Ahora, en cuanto a la actitud de usted, debo decirle que la conceptúo enteramente levantada y digna, por cuanto viene a borrar, por acto de propia reflexión y sin interés bastardo alguno, las ofensas de que yo fuí objeto, de modo injusto: reconocer los yerros y desatinos en que hemos incurrido es siempre algo que enaltece, máxime cuando con ello se repudian ataques inferidos a la reputación y al buen nombre ajenos. Usted me pide lo perdone y yo lo hago gustosísimo, en el convencimiento de que esta rectificación de que yo he sido objeto vendrá a aquilatar su carácter y a imprimirle más rectitud y nobleza en su vida ciudadana futura.

Créame servidor atento y amigo,

AVISO

El Secretario del Juzgado Tercero del Circuito, al público

Hace saber:

Que se ha señalado el día 30 de Mayo próximo, a las diez de la mañana, para que tenga lugar la Junta General de Acreedores del "Panama Banking Company".

EL ASUNTO DEL SR. VARGAS

En El Tiempo de ayer vió la luz pública un telegrama dirigido por un grupo de copueblanos nuestros al Excelentísimo señor Presidente de la República expresándole su disgusto con motivo del nombramiento del señor José Angel Vargas, para Inspector de Instrucción Pública del Distrito Escolar de Penonomé.

Imaginaciones fugaces han querido encontrar motivos distintos a la protesta aludida, y amigos del señor Vargas pretenden hacerla aparecer como cuestión política, a fin de aminorar su valor. "Un amigo", articulista que oculta su nombre, la califica de agresión temeraria e injusta y con el propósito de crear en el ánimo del ciudadano que hoy rige los destinos del país odio a nuestro pueblo menciona un telegrama—que no sabemos si existe en realidad—dirigido al Gobierno de aquellos tiempos de guerras fraticidas, por un grupo del personal visible de allá.

Repudiamos las armas que esgrime el desconocido articulista y no le compramos las ganancias, pues el doctor Belisario Porras, inteligencia privilegiada, sabe asignar a todos los hechos el valor que se merecen dada la época y dadas las circunstancias, y adivina la intención lejana de estas alusiones.

Penonomé por "indulgente y humano" como dice el articulista, que nosotros diríamos por cobarde y sumiso, ha soportado muchas imposiciones, pero ello no significa que siempre hemos de callar como esclavos; algún día habríamos de exigir que se nos trate como hermanos, que se nos oiga y se nos complazca.

Si la honorabilidad del señor Vargas ha sido discutida, dando esto origen a su separación de Santiago; si el Distrito Escolar de Penonomé cuenta con tantos penonomeños y antoneros más capaces que el señor Vargas para el desempeño del alto ministerio de que se trata, por qué se nos ha de imponer, por qué hemos de aceptarlo?

Nosotros esperamos que la Secretaría de Instrucción Pública tome debida nota y corrija este error, pues no creemos que sienta placer en imponerlo con el propósito único de humillarnos, lo que traería inconvenientes deplorables, y tal vez no lograría su objeto.

Y dejamos a "Un amigo" que otro día mida sus palabras al calificar a los demás y le hacemos saber que en Penonomé habrá quien adule en doce apostoles hubo un Judas pero que él no está autorizado para creer que los detentadores de hoy, como él llama a los inconformes, puedan ser mañana aduladores del señor Vargas ni de otro alguno.

Querríamos salvar interpretaciones erradas a esta defensa nuestra pero optamos por dejar a los malintencionados el derecho de creer y a los charlatanes el derecho de murmurar.

FAVOROSA NOTICIA

nos trae un cablegrama de New York en que se anuncia la llegada de un Ser misterioso a quien las autoridades de Londres, París, España y New York persiguen con gran interés por un sin número de crímenes cometidos en esos lugares. El motivo de los crímenes cometidos por ese misterioso Ser se ignora toda vez que se ha llegado a comprobar que no es el robo.

Sólo se ha llegado a descubrir que 24 horas antes de cometer un crimen aparece siempre una huella en la puerta de la casa de quien ha de ser la víctima y que, después de consumado el crimen se ha observado en el pecho de la víctima la palabra: Terror!

Como quiera que la fecha en que se anuncia la llegada a esta ciudad es el 10 de Abril, recomendamos al Capitán del Puerto y demás autoridades locales tomar nota de ello, pues ya las de la Zona han tomado sus precauciones.

Seguiremos informando.

NUEVA REVISTA

La simpática revista Talía, cuyo primer número circuló profusamente ayer, es órgano de la Sociedad Quijano y Cía. y está encaminada, como consta en sus palabras editoriales, a servir lo más ampliamente posible a las Compañías y a los artistas que porgan en sus manos sus intereses y al propio tiempo tiene también el objeto de ofrecer al público capitalino, en un solo haz, los juicios críticos que se hayan publicado sobre los mismos.

Amalia Molina, la sin par artista española, en su clásico traje de sevillana y que hará en la semana de Pascua las delicias de nuestro público, oría la primera plana; y luego vienen juicios críticos muy autorizados sobre la artista clásica, artículos reproducidos de la prensa local sobre teatro y una notable caricatura del artista y Administrador del Teatro Nacional, don Carlos J. Cucalón.

La revista, bien presentada como está, hace honor a la sociedad editora y augura tener el mejor éxito como es nuestro deseo.

AL MARGEN DEL DIA

AL SR. PRESIDENTE DE LA REPUBLICA DE LOS PLUMAS

Excelentísimo señor Presidente de la República de los plumas, doctor en puñografía, don José Lombardo:

Ha vencido usted sobre su competidor el bravo soldado Perlow, que por cierto no tenía muchos votos en las urnas, nadie confiaba en este candidato...

Estoy satisfecho, señor Presidente, con su triunfo que profetizé...

Insisto, Presidente Lombardo, en que unas pupilas brujas fueron las verdaderas responsables de su éxito.

Ahora bien: esas pupilas como había tanta gente aplaudiéndolo a usted en los "comicios" del Pan-American, de cuando en cuando las perdíais de vista, señor Presidente, y por ello creo que se prolongó hasta tan tarde la lucha por la banda que era un cinturón.

Fué una lástima, que por desgracia, señor Presidente, se refugió en mi bolsillo particular y creo que en muchos otros bolsillos.

Estoy seguro, señor Presidente, que si en todo momento hubierais tenido la colaboración de las brujas pupilas mi bolsillo no se resintiera a esta hora.

Pero, dejemos esto... Congratulémonos del triunfo: yo soy de sus leales, señor Presidente, elegid ahora un buen gabinete: un gabinete de concentración: de sabios elementos...

Señor Presidente, un flojo gabinete, destartalado, (rando cada uno de su cuerda, poniéndose mutuamente zancadillas, es altamente pernicioso.

¡Señor Presidente, un mal gabinete puede llevaros a una derrota!

¡Y yo no os la deseo!

¡Yo hago votos porque eso nunca suceda!

Soy incondicional de Su Excelencia, señor Presidente: no solicito empleo en su gobierno: yo confieso que no le serviría para nada.

Mas si el algo le puedo servir ¡A sus órdenes...!

¿Me concederá usted un abrazo, señor Presidente?

Yo creo que sí: es usted un Presidente demócrata! Y los Presidentes demócratas creo que hacen algo así...

Afectísimo admirador,

E. R. V.

Una modificación que se impone

La adjudicación de becas es asunto que se plantea periódicamente en los comienzos de cada año lectivo, en razón de los vacíos que, en los distintos planteles oficiales van efectuándose, con las promociones de alumnos graduados al finalizar los cursos; y es de justicia reconocer que la Secretaría de Instrucción procede siempre, sobre este particular, con absoluta legalidad, en armonía con lo estatuído en el Código Administrativo y los decretos que reglamentan la materia. Esto no quiere decir que en punto a distribución de becas hayamos llegado ya al máximum de idealidad concebible, en otros términos, que no falte nada, absolutamente, por hacer; ántes por el contrario, creemos llegado el momento de modificar un tanticó, siquiera sea muy ligeramente, el criterio determinante de tal reparto: sólo que, habida consideración del lapso de breves días no más que falta para que los candidatos se presenten al concurso es preferible proseguir este año, como en lo pasado, sin perjuicio de que las altas autoridades del Ramo tengan en cuenta la reforma que proponemos para lo sucesivo.

Por ahora las becas libres se distribuyen en cada establecimiento, por partes iguales entre las ocho provincias que integran la República, con la salvedad de que a la de Panamá, por ser la más poblada, se le da el doble que a cualquiera de las otras; pero entendemos que el Despacho de Instrucción Pública se ha movido algunas veces con cierta amplitud o alguna libertad sobre el particular, dando más becas por unas provincias interioranas que por otras. Todo ello está muy bien, pues que puede darse el caso de que en un año resulte inconveniente distribuir por igual las becas que haya vacantes: somos partidarios de que el Secretario de Instrucción Pública y la Inspección General de Enseñanza Primaria, que conocen mejor que nadie las necesidades del servicio, procedan con latitud de criterio en esta cuestión.

La modificación que nosotros proponemos estriba en darles a las provincias de Bocas del Toro y de Colón, becas en número doble que a las otras seis sin exceptuar a Panamá; y sustentamos nuestra tesis invocando como razón de peso que allí existe una gran cantidad de nativos que, por su trato diario, de todos los momentos, con jamaicanos, martiniqueños y otros elementos antillanos, han perdido el dominio completo de nuestra habla castellana. El fenómeno es tan acentuado que los de la Capital o de otras comarcas de la República nos sentimos desorientados al pisar ciertos barrios de la ciudad de Colón y casi toda la provincia de Bocas del Toro. Acaso el hábito de oír hablar mal el lenguaje oficial enfoble la sensación desagradable que esto ocasiona; pero que el hecho es así, nadie lo revocará a duda: a más de lo ya dicho ¿no es cierto que el capitalino se siente por momentos, en los sitios referidos, como si estuviese en Jamaica o en alguna otra isla de las Antillas, de idioma oficial distinto al nuestro?

Ahora, de no errar sobremanera, creemos que esa degeneración y esa proscripción de nuestro hermoso lenguaje desaparecerán paulatinamente, a medida que vayamos inculcando el amor de éste en el ánimo de los bocatoreños y los colonenses, que lo han menester: factores de primera valía, inmejorables al efecto, son precisamente los mismos nativos de ambos sexos que se gradúan en nuestras dos escuelas normales y luego van a ejercer de maestros en su propio terruño. El éxito que hoy alcanzamos con bocatoreños y colonenses en la extirpación del analfabetismo y la purificación de la lengua oficial, será doble cuando adjudiquemos por cada una de las dos provincias mencionadas también doble número de becas.

Hemos dicho ya que en los momentos presentes debemos atenernos a la práctica tradicional en la adjudicación de becas; pero acaso desde el año entrante convenga aceptar la modificación propuesta: el asunto merece, en todo caso, la pena de que se le considere y estudie debidamente.

OCHO HORAS PARA CADA UNO

DIVIDIR las 24 horas del día en 8 para trabajar, 8 para descansar y comer y 8 para dormir, da resultados admirables para la conservación de la buena salud.

Actualmente hay miles de personas que trabajan demasiado, disponiendo de muy poco tiempo para dormir y comer, y casi de ninguno para descansar y divertirse, con lo que no hacen más que quebrantar su salud.

El trabajo excesivo recarga la sangre de impurezas y de ácido úrico; los riñones son forzados al trabajo constante de la filtración de estos venenos hasta que llegan a debilitarse y, a funcionar imperfectamente recargándose con ellos la sangre.

Los síntomas de esta debilidad no tardan en presentarse; dolores de cabeza y de espalda, agudos dolores reumáticos, hinchazones hidrópicas, dolores en las coyunturas y los músculos, inflamación de los nervios, desórdenes urinarios y otras resultantes del envenenamiento de la sangre por el ácido úrico.

Las Píldoras de Foster son una ayuda poderosa de la naturaleza, vigorizan y normalizan los riñones, ayudan a la eliminación del ácido úrico, contribuyen al buen funcionamiento de la vejiga y hacen desaparecer todos aquellos síntomas y sus malas consecuencias.

Aunque Las Píldoras de Foster son inofensivas y no contienen drogas que constituyan hábito, no deben tomarse sino cuando se necesiten.

Ocho horas para trabajar, 8 para dormir y 8 para comer y descansar, y Píldoras de Foster son la mejor medicina para los riñones.

De venta en todas las boticas. Solicite nuestro folleto sobre las enfermedades renales y se lo enviaremos absolutamente gratis.

La cuestión...

le ha confiado la dirección de la conferencia, explica que este artículo es el eje sobre el cual deberá girar la labor de la conferencia, especialmente lo relativo a las relaciones con Rusia y el reconocimiento de su Gobierno.

Al plan de asociación mencionado en Cannes oponen fuerte resistencia Rusia, Polonia, Estonia y Latvia que han prometido defender hasta donde les sea posible, la causa del reconocimiento del Gobierno ruso. La oposición de estos países al mencionado se basa en la creencia de que los grandes poderes piensan violar su soberanía por medio del control financiero.

Otros artículos

El artículo dos del programa dice: "El establecimiento de la paz europea sobre bases sólidas." Esta cláusula, según las deliberaciones de Cannes, tiene por objeto "encontrar los medios para la solución de las controversias entre las naciones sin tener que recurrir al uso bárbaro de las armas." Naturalmente, este artículo dará lugar a que se desarrolle una discusión sobre el armamento terrestre, lo cual fue imposible en la Conferencia de Washington a causa de la oposición francesa. Rusia ha anunciado su disposición para reducir su ejército si los japoneses se retiran de Siberia, si Rumania evacua a Besarabia y si se dan garantías de la seguridad de sus fronteras. El artículo tres del programa se refiere a "Las condiciones esenciales para el restablecimiento de la confianza sin afectar los tratados existentes." Esto, según las discusiones de Cannes, se refiere a las deudas interaliadas que no fueron mencionadas entonces porque se temía que con mencionarlas se evitaría la participación de los Estados Unidos. Francia insiste en esta cláusula sobre los tratados existentes para así evitar la revisión de las cláusulas del Tratado de Versalles que se refieren a las reparaciones.

El artículo cuatro se refiere a "Las condiciones financieras: primero, la moneda corriente; segundo, los bancos centrales; tercero, las finanzas públicas relacionadas con la reconstrucción; cuarto, el cambio internacional, y quinto, la organización de créditos públicos y privados."

El artículo sexto comprende "Las cuestiones económicas y comerciales: primero, las facilidades y garantías para las exportaciones e importaciones; segundo, garantías legales para el restablecimiento del comercio; tercero, la protección de la propiedad industrial, literaria y artística; cuarto, los reglamentos consulares; quinto, la admisión y el estado legal de los extranjeros según su participación comercial, y sexto, la ayuda técnica en el trabajo de reconstrucción." El artículo seis del programa trata del problema de los transportes.

nuestro muchacho calcula mal las distancias: está muy corto en sus golpes. No obstante Lombardo gana el quinto y séptimo asaltos.

10 Rounds

La firme resolución, la fe inquebrantable en si mismo, que en todos susa combates ha sacado airoso a Lombardo, le invade nuevamente y lo convierte en sencillamente terrible. Acomete a Perlow con determinación y a pesar de que el soldado está agazapado y cubierto como un armadillo, siempre logra propinarle golpes cortos, repercutidos y aplicados con dureza. Desde este round y el siguiente el triunfo de Lombardo es indiscutible.

12 Rounds

Lombardo, cambia de estilo y pone el "guard" derecho de vanguardia.

Perlow se confunde con la táctica y recibe un fuerte puñetazo a la quijada. Round a Lombardo.

13 Round

Lombardo persigue apuntarse un K. O. Asesta un hook a la quijada de Perlow y el soldado cae. Se produce una expectación una ansiedad; pero fué un sueño fugaz que pasó como una ráfaga. Perlow, después de 4 segundos se pone en pie. Lombardo lo castiga severamente y Perlow recibe dos nuevas caídas de nueve segundos cada una. La campana viene en ayuda del soldado.

Ultimo round

Por cuatro veces consecutivas rueda Perlow por la lona y la Comisión de Boxeo, determina suspender la pelea y declarar a Lombardo vencedor.

Los árbitros del boxeo tomaron esa medida a causa de la intención manifiesta de Perlow de demorar la pelea y evitar un K. O

Lombardo gana el campeonato de Featherweight y también un bello cinturón con hebilla de plata, obsequio de la Herbert Tareyton Cigarette Co.

La noticia trasciende al público y se desborda el entusiasmo en vítores que ensordecen el ambiente y al paso de Lombardo por la calle se advierte el frenesí popular.

Mañana hablaremos sobre los otros encuentros.

La Policía merece un voto de aplauso por su acierto y actividad durante la tarde, manteniendo en el más estricto orden la inmensa ola humana que inundaba el local de Boxeo y la Plaza de Santa Ana. MUCHAS GRACIAS

LA REINA DE LAS SIMPATIAS

La señorita Zoila Luz Solano, cuyo retrato engalana esta página, recibió el domingo dos de los corrientes en La Chorrera las manifestaciones de aprecio de un numeroso grupo de amigos que acudió a felicitarla con motivo de haber sido elegida por una mayoría abrumadora de votos, Reina de las Simpatías en el Concurso iniciado por el Centro Chorrerano.

Toda la sociedad chorrerana desfiló por casa de la señorita Solano quien atendía a todos en unión de su señora madre, doña Clotilde, doña Abigail de Solano, del Dr. Nicolás A. Solano y don Carlos Ramos. El señor Rodolfo Arias a nombre del Centro Chorrerano hizo presente a la señorita Zoila Luz el disgusto que a todos causaría la renuncia que ella había presentado de su candidatura para Reina, máxime cuando ya el triunfo era de ella.

La señorita Solano después de consultar con su hermano el doctor Solano quien dió su aquiescencia, aceptó complacida el honroso título de Reina de las Simpatías. Después se brindó a la salud de la jefa de parte de sus coterráneos elegida y del Centro Chorrerano a cuya feliz iniciativa se debe esta bonita fiesta social.

Nosotros felicitamos a la señorita Solano digna por todos conceptos de la distinción de que ha sido objeto.
