GIANTS AGAIN KINGS OF BASEBALL WORLD

McGRAW'S SLUGGERS WIN 1922 WORLD SERIES YESTERDAY WITH 5 TO 3 SCORE

As in Two Previous Games Giants to Fore in Late Innings And by Batting Rally Drove Offerings of Yankee Pitchers to Three Corners of Diamond Taking Lead Which Opponents Failed to cut down.—Joe Bush and Art Nehf Opposing Pitchers— Series Cinched in Eight Inning

Final Standing.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Giants	4	0	1.000
Yankees	0	4	.000

The Giants are again the champions of the baseball world. For the fourth time the Giants defeated the Yankees yesterday afternoon at the Polo grounds by a score of 5 to 3 thereby bringing the series to a close, having won four out of the five games played, the second game resulting in a 3 to 3 tie after 10 innings of play.

As in two previous games the [illegible] late innings and by a batting rally drove the offerings of the Yankee picthers to the three corners of the lot taking a commanding lead, which the Yankees were unable to overcome.

Only once before has the record of winning four games out of five been bettered, the once being in 1914 when the Boston Braves took four straight from the Athletics, and only once before has the Giants' record of this year been equalled, that being in 1907 when the Detroit Tigers were able to secure a solitary tie game out of the five that were played with the Chicago Cubs.

Manager McGraw, by being the manager of this year's Giants, has broken his own record of world series games participated in and his win of yesterday gives him a record of having won three out of seven series that he has taken part in.

This year's win by the Giants gives them victories in each of the four series that these two teams have taken part in, they being the victorious in the city series of 1907 and 1910 and in he world series of 1921 and 1922.

Each of the Giant players, for their share of the gate receipts, will split a pot of about $145,000 giving each Giant player a check for over $5,000 or $1,000 a game while the Yankee players will whack up about $96,000 and must be satisfied with about $3,800 each.

In yesterday's battle the Yankees had the best of the battle until the fatal eighth, but the Giants' murderers now opened up on Bush in the eighth inning, getting three solid hits, which with a base on balls, netted them three runs, which was enough to win.

As in the first battle Joe Bush and Art Nehf were the opposing pitchers. As in the first game also, the Yankees held the lead until the eighth only to have the Giants score three runs, just as they did in the first game, giving them the game and the series.

The Yankees scored a run in the first inning on two hits and a sacrifice, but the Giants took the lead in the second when they scored two runs on three hits. Bush worked himself out of a bad hole in this inning when, with the bases full and only one out, he forced Bancroft to line out and Groh to fan. The Yankees tied the score in the fifth on two hits and a base on balls, and went one run in the lead in the seventh by playing good baseball. Meusel, after getting a single, was sacrificed to second, went to third on a wild pitch, and scored on another sacrifice hit. The Yankees held this lead until the Giants' half of the eighth. It is a coincidence that the eighth inning should have proven the undoing of Bush in yesterday's battle in almost the same manner that it did in the first battle. Bancroft started the trouble on Wednesday, but it remained to Groh, who follows Bancroft in the batting order, to start it yesterday. However, instead of leaving all the batting to be done by the top of the order by the regulars, as was done Wed[illegible] being in the game for the first time, took a hand in the proceedings. George Kelly, the firstbaseman, brought fame upon himself and placed himself solid in the hearts of the Giant fans when with Meusel and Frisch anxiously waiting to be scored from second and third, he sent a timely single to center putting the Giants in the lead. Lee King then came up and put the game safely on the right side with a single which scored Young.

Consternation reigned supreme in the Yankee camp after the eighth and they went through the ninth as men in a trance, the game being soon over and the Giants again the world's champs.

The story of the game, play by play, follows:

First Inning.

Yankees Rain started as Witt was walking to the plate to take his turn at bat. Witt lined to Bancroft. Dugan singled past Bancroft. Ruth's bunt in front of the plate was gathered in by Snyder and tossed to Kelly for the out, the Babe being given credit for a sacrifice. Pipp scored the first run for the Yankees when he sent Dugan home with a single to left center. Frisch took Meusel's grounder and touched second, forcing Pipp.—One run, two hits.

Giants Bancroft's roller was taken in by Dugan, who retired him at first. Groh made his eighth hit of the series, when he singled to right. Frisch ended the Giants' chances when he hit into a double play, Bush to Scott to Pipp.—No runs, one hit.

Second Inning.

Yankees. Schang flied to E. Meusel. Ward went out on a long fly to Cunningham. Bancroft threw Scott out at first.—No runs, no hits.

Giants The Giants showed their ability to come from behind in this inning. E. Meusel opened the inning by beating out a roller in the infield. Pep Young walked, later events showing that Bush was taking no chances with him. Kelly moved Meusel and Young along when he rolled to Bush, who ran to the base line and touched Kelly as he went by. Cunningham singled over second, scoring Meusel and Young and putting the Giants in the lead. Snyder singled to left, Cunningham stopping at second. Nehf walked, filling the bases. With Bancroft and Groh coming up it looked bad for Bush and the Yankees. Bancroft lined one between

Rockefeller Gives London Medical School

LONDON, Oct. 8. Through the generosity of John D. Rockefeller, London is soon to have one of the finest medical schools in the world. Work has already begun on the first part of the building program, on which more than $1,000,000 is to be spent. This includes provision for a new nurses' home for the University College Hospital, an obstetric building of six stories, and an enlargement of the medical school.

Houses in University Street and Huntley Street are shortly to be pulled down in order to make room for this large scheme. Later an open-air ward for septic cases and further research laboratories are to be built. The project will reach completion some time in 1925.

METHODIST SPEAKER DEPLORES RETURN OF LIGHT WINES-BEER

If it Should be Legally Permitted in U. S. Nation Would have Drink Bill of Five Billion Dollars a Year, Reverend Deets Pickett, Research Secretary of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals Board of Methodist Episcopal Church Declares at Genesee Conference.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 8. (By the Associated Press). "If the use of beer and light wines should again be permitted in this country, we would have a national drink bill of $5,000,000,000 a year; the saloon would be with us once more; [illegible] we would have a new evil in the wide-spread drinking by women". These statements were made here by the Reverend Deets Pickett, research secretary of the Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in an address to the delegates assembled for the Genesee conference of the church.

Supporting his allegations Dr. Pickett said in part:

"When the nation closed the saloons our drink bill was nearly $2,500,000,000. The present drink bill in Great Britain, with about 40,000,000 people, is £470,000,000, or approximately $2,250,000,000, which, we understand, is practically double what it was before the war. With increased prices and greater consumption due to after-war tendencies, there is no doubt that our liquor bill would be $5,000,000,000 annually, not including the incidental losses to the people caused by the renewed traffic. According to Charles Lenon, of the American Federation of Labor, the working men of the United States contributed 70 per cent of the drink bill in pre-prohibition days. What would it mean to lower the standard of living of our people, particularly of our working classes, to the tune of $5,000,000,000 at one time.

"The American saloon was a beer saloon, not a whisky saloon. All of its institutional evils, including its brothel accompaniment, its gambling hells and side-entrances for women introduced by the brewery-owned saloon, would thrive just as well if not a drop of whisky were sold. You cannot open 200,000 saloons in this country and keep

ST. THOMAS COLONIAL COUNCIL DISSOLVED BY ADML. KITTELLE

Paragraph in New Judiciary Bill Objected to by Governor Who Considered it Reflected Upon Honesty of Judges and Caused Dissolution.

CHARLOTTE AMALIA, St. Thomas, V. I., Oct. 8. (By the Associated Press). Differences of opinion arising over a council committee report on a new judiciary bill have caused a political situation in the Virgin Islands which is causing a considerable amount of local comment.

The situation became so acute early in the present month that Rear Admiral Sumner E. W. Kittelle, retiring Governor of the Islands and personal representative of the President of the United States, issued a proclamation dissolving the Colonial Council of St. Thomas and St. John and announcing that elections would be held for the selection of new council members. Admiral Kittelle, who had been ordered back to sea duty as commander of the destroyer division of the Atlantic Fleet before the differences arose, will be succeeded in the Virgin Islands by Captain H. H. Hough, U. S. N.

The chief cause of the misunderstanding seems to have arisen over a paragraph in the council committee report concerning the judiciary, which was submitted late in August. The section to which Governor Kittelle took exception was as follows:

"We do not deem it advisable for one judge to sit and determine appeal cases passed upon by a coordinate judge. It is to be expected, and we know it is the practice for judges of coordinate rank to sustain each other, and especially would this be true here where each judge would be sitting on the other's cases. We are afraid it would resolve itself into a demonstration of the old adage: 'You scratch my back and I will scratch yours.'"

Commenting upon this paragraph in his proclamation, Governor Kittelle said that it reflected upon the honesty of judges and inferred that they would sustain each other's decisions "without regard to law or justice or their oaths of office."

The proclamation dissolving the council was based on a refusal of the councilmen to meet, it is stated, and on the ground that no quorum could be obtained.

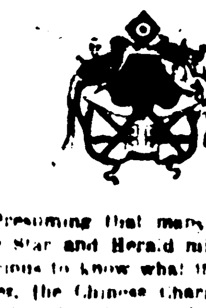
CHINESE DIPLOMAT EXPLAINS CHINA COURT-O-ARMS

[illegible] Describes different Heraldics Appearing on Chinese Court of Arms, Printed on Invitations to Oct. 10. Fete.

The reporter's curiosity was stirred yesterday when he received a card inviting him to attend the reception to be given at the Union Club by the Chinese Charge d'Affaires Tuesday evening, October 10. The cause of this curiosity was the following emblem which supersede the text of the invitation.



Presuming that many readers of the Star and Herald might also be curious to know what it meant, Mr. Suez, the Chinese Charge was interviewed and he explained that it was the court of arms of the Chinese Republic.

Questioning Mr. Suez still further for an explanation as to its meaning, he said:

"Our court-of-arms consists of fourteen objects. The center piece or shield on which is the China-be indicated by five ears of grain on stalk & signifying bounteous crops and which is the National emblem of the Republic of China. The twelve other emblematic symbols are: The sun, the moon and the stars which stand for light; the mountain for command; the Dragon for changeableness or adaptability; the flowery fowl for beauty; the sacrificial cup for filial piety; the aquatic grass for purity; the flames for brightness; the grains of rice for nourishment; the hatchet for decisiveness; and the zig-zag symbol for distinction.

"The foregoing is contained in the 'Book of History' (20th century B.C.) and on it is based the scheme of embroidery on Chinese garments.

"Behind the shield is the hatchet on which rice grains are scattered and above everything is the Sun.

"Below the shield is the mountain whose outline is formed by the ribbon and further below is the zig-zag symbol of distinction.

"On the right of the hatchet is the Dragon, with the moon above its head, flames on its back and a sacrificial cup held in the claws of its left forefoot.

"On the left of the hatchet is the flowery fowl with the stars above its crest, aquatic grass on its back and sacrificial cup in the claws of its right foot.

them from selling whisky. The saloon never obeyed any law framed for its regulation except the law compelling it to pay a tax and the excesses of the were notorious.

"We would have a new evil in widespread drinking by women," Dr. Pickett declared. "The American woman was kept out of the American saloon. The American man considered her too good for the debauching influence of beer. Very few 'respectable' women drank at all in America in the old days. But the old standards of conduct for women are passing away under the influence of the new feminism and we have not yet had time for the establishment of new standards. In this transition time the influence of the saloon and the trade urged by an economic motive and pushed by every method of trade promotion would be perilous to American womanhood."

Fifth Inning.

Yankees.—The Yankees tied the score in the fifth. Ward was given a base on balls. Scott made his second hit of the series, managing to get a hit by Frisch, who had robbed him on several previous occasions, Ward going to second. Bush [illegible] his own game when Ward scored on his single to right, but Scott was cut down when he [illegible] third, Snyder getting the out. [illegible] second while they were [illegible] Scott. McMillan was sent to bat for Witt and was thrown out, Nehf to Kelly.—One run, two hits.

Giants.—McMillan went to center field for the Yankees. Nehf was walked for the second time. Bancroft hit into a double play, Ward to Scott to Pipp. Pipp handled Groh's roller unassisted.—No runs, no hits.

Sixth Inning.

Yankees.—Dugan went out, Bancroft to Kelly. Ruth's best was a roller to Nehf, who tossed him out at first. Heinie Groh turned in another wonderful catch when he [illegible] high into the air and too[illegible] Pipp's liner, robbing the latter of a sure double and retiring the side.—No runs, no hits.

Giants.—Frisch singled past Dugan. Emil Meusel lined out to Ruth. Young forced Frisch at second, Bush taking his roller and tossing it to Scott. Kelly then forced Young at second, Scott to Ward.—No runs, no hits.

Seventh Inning.

Yankees.—The Yankees took the lead in the seventh. Bob Meusel [illegible] Nehf, singled [illegible] Groh to Kelly. [illegible] Meusel [illegible] third [illegible] Ward walked [illegible] one down [illegible] sent a long sacrifice fly to Cunningham, scoring Meusel. The [illegible] around the plate [illegible] Meusel at the plate but their kicks availed them nothing. Frisch threw out Bush at first.—One run, one hit.

Giants.—Earl Smith went to bat for Cunningham and Bush fanned him on three pitched balls, showing that [illegible] pinch hitters. Bush showed that it was no mistake by fanning Snyder. Nehf, who had been walked [illegible] popped to Ward.—No runs, no hits.

Eighth Inning.

Yankees.—King, playing center field for the Giants. Groh threw out McMillan at first. Dugan was hit by a pitched ball. For the 2nd time during the series Ruth was [illegible] Kelly [illegible] taking the Babe's hard smash and tagging him as he came down the line, Dugan going to second. Pipp went out at first, Frisch to Kelly.—No runs, no hits.

Giants.—As in the previous game the eighth inning proved to be the deciding point of the game. The Giants at this time brought forth such [illegible] of hits that they completely drove the [illegible] from the [illegible] and won the game. [illegible] opened the inning by bringing the fans to their feet when he made one of the most wonderful stops of the series of Bancroft's drive and beat him to the bag. Groh spent his second hit of the game and his [illegible] of the series, a single over second. Frisch sent a long double to left which put Groh on third. Scott [illegible] Meusel's grounder and [illegible] Schang ran Groh down between third and home, Schang getting the putout, E. Meusel taking second, and Frisch third on the play. Bush again passed Young to first purposely, filling the sacks. Kelly, the fourth member of the famous Giant infield, who has not been receiving so much publicity during the series due to the wonderful showing of Groh, Bancroft and Frisch, came to the bat with a chance to become the hero of the series. It did not take him long to decide what to do. He picked out one of Bush's fast ones and sent it on a line over second base into center, Frisch and E. Meusel scoring, Frisch with the run that tied it and Meusel's putting the Giants one to the good. Young went to second on the play. King came to the bat for the first time during the series and scored Young with a Texas Leaguer to left, Kelly taking second. Snyder ended the inning by flying out to McMillan.—Three runs, four hits.

Ninth Inning.

Yankees.—The Yankees were a sad and dejected lot as they came in from the field to take their last turn at bat. Bob Meusel popped to Bancroft and Pep Young, who has been a thorn in the sides of the Yank pitchers, had the honor of bringing the game to a close when he gathered in the long flies of Schang and Ward, ending the game and giving the world's title to the Giants.—No runs, no hits.

PENNANT WINNERS STEADY THROUGHOUT SEASON

Records of the pennant winners of both leagues, month by month, show that they deserve the title which they hold.

The records show that throughout the season there was only one month when either team let their record drop below the .500 mark or when they lost more games than they won. In June the Yankees were able to win but 11 of the 26 games played. This was the month of the first western invasion by the eastern teams and the Yankees suffered eight straight defeats from June 12 to June 19, inclusive. From June 13 to 24 it was hard sledding for the American League winners. Beginning on June 12 they dropped two to St. Louis, four to Detroit, and two to Cleveland. They then managed to beat Cleveland on June 20 and 21 but on June 22, 23, and 24 they dropped four straight to the Red Sox.

The Giants hold the record for greatest number of games won consecutively with two runs of eight games. From June 10 to 17 they won eight straight four each from Cincinnati and Pittsburg and again from September 9 to 16 they took eight straight one from Philadelphia, one from Brooklyn, two from Boston, three from Chicago, and one from Cincinnati. The Yankees hold the record for losses, with the eight straight referred to above.

Pittsburg was the only club to take four straight from the Giants while Detroit and Boston both took four straight from the Yanks while Chicago and Detroit took three straight.

Won 8 Straight

Giants — June 10 to 17, stopped by St. Louis on June 18. June 9 to 16, stopped by Cincinnati in the second game of a double-header on the 16th.

Won 7 Straight

Giants — June 30 to July 7, stopped by Pittsburg on July 8.

Yankees. — April 20 to 25, stopped by Philadelphia on the 2..th. August 26 to September 2, stopped again by Philadelphia in the second game of a double-header on September 2.

Lost 8 Straight

Yankees. — June 12 to 19, broke it by winning from Cleveland on the 20th.

The Giants had three winning streaks in which they won five straight, two of six each and one of seven, while the Yanks had three runs of six wins and one of five. The Giants lost five games in a row on two occasions.

The work of the teams by months is shown below:

SAILOR PATCHETT WINS OVER KID CAMPBELL

Sailor Patchett was given the decision over Kid Campbell after a well fought 15 round battle at Colon yesterday afternoon.

In the semi-final Fija Braithwaite knocked out Sailor Boyd in the fourth round. The preliminary resulted in a knock out in the first. Buddy Ryan refereed all the fights and the house was worth about a thousand balboas.

McGRAW'S SLUGGERS

the betting being 5 to 4 in favor of the Yankees. It was admitted that they had the best batting, fielding and base-running team, but it was thought that the Yankee pitchers would overcome this, but in the series the Giants showed the Yankees how the game should be played and the Giant pitchers outpitched the much touted Yankee twirlers at every turn. They are a great team, playing a great game, under a great manager and are worthy of the great title which is theirs for another year.

The man who had been doubling his bets on the Yankees in the hope of winning back his jack all on one win will have to eat snow for the rest of the year.

The Yankees' alibi will be that there was too much Groh, Bancroft and Frisch, but they might as well include Kelly, Young, Meusel and the pitchers, not forgetting that McGraw also had a hand in the downfall of the American League contenders.

The Giants' showed that they were better at sliding around in the mud than their opponents. The last two games were played on a wet and muddy field, but it did not seem to bother the Giants.

The Giants went through the series with the same batting average that they had at the end of the pennant race, .312, while the Yankees' average was a flat .200. And to think that the Red Sox in 1912 won a world series against the Giants by hitting .186.

In three out of the four games the Giants came from behind and won the game in the late innings. In the third game they didn't have to come from behind, they were ahead all the way.

Babe Ruth again failed to get the ball out of the infield. McGraw must have known what he was talking about when he said that his pitchers would have the Babe's number.

The minor members of the Giants had a hand in yesterday's victory. Cunningham, who relieved Stengel in center-field when the latter was hurt in the second game, put the Giants ahead in the second inning, when his single over second scored Meusel and Young. In the memorable eighth it was King's Texas Leaguer, on his first appearance in the games, that scored Young with the run that gave the Giants a margin of two at the end. Truly, every member of the Giants played like champions, each doing their duty at the right time but oh, you infield.

The series is now over and the [illegible] League will begin operations at an early date. J. K. B. can now give room for some of his good [illegible] which he claims to have. We thank him for the use of his typewriter and assure him that we will try to raise our batting average as a prognosticator in the next series.

BLAME IT ON FRANCE.

It has become a [illegible] to [illegible] everything [illegible]. Woodrow Wilson [illegible] responsible for [illegible] United States during [illegible] second [illegible] President [illegible] to the [illegible] France [illegible] to [illegible] of [illegible] at Washington [illegible] comparatively little has [illegible] done to carry [illegible] out. [illegible] says that the treaty cannot be ratified [illegible] that [illegible] until it has been approved by her neighbor to the North.

Japan, England and the United States have completed ratification of the treaties [illegible] abroad and now [illegible] they will take active steps to carry out the provisions of the [illegible] way of naval reduction [illegible] of the delay of France [illegible] is claimed that France's [illegible] by [illegible] from any [illegible] on the [illegible] be detrimental to [illegible] three countries even after [illegible] have restored [illegible] ment. This is a [illegible] and it has been [illegible] the suggestion has been [illegible] to hasten action [illegible] France.

We doubt whether [illegible] the present time as France is waiting for the guarantee of protection from Germany, and [illegible] possible that France has not forgotten the long delay over the [illegible] of the Treaty of Versailles.

Furthermore, Clemenceau [is co]ming to the United States [as an un]official representative [illegible] talk to the American people [illegible] awakening of the French [illegible]. He will not be [illegible] of the artificialities of [illegible] diplomatic usage and as has been his practice he will talk [illegible] straight from the shoulder.

It is hoped that his frankness will be met with equal frankness in [re]ply and that with the diplomatic [illegible] cleared away a real [under]standing between the people [of th]e two nations may be reached [and the] governments will not be slow [to act] on any results that may come from such an exchange, and it is not likely that the government of France will take any action on the Washington Treaty until the results of Clemenceau's visit has become known.

In the meantime we shall see whether England, Japan and the United States will go ahead with the reduction of naval armament in accordance with the Washington Agreement.

Bases on balls: off Nehf [illegible], off Bush [illegible], off Barnes [illegible], off Shawkey [illegible], off Scott [illegible], off Hoyt [illegible], off Mays [illegible], off McQuillan 2. Struck out: By Bush 6, by Ryan 2, by Hoyt [illegible], by Barnes 6, by Shawkey [illegible], by [illegible] 2, by McQuillan [illegible], by Mays [illegible]. [illegible] Shawkey and Nehf. Double plays: Scott to Ward to Pipp 2; Frisch to Kelly; Ward to Pipp; Frisch to Bancroft to Kelly; [illegible] to Scott; Bush to Scott to Pipp; Ward to Scott to Pipp.

What the Averages Show.

Before the games it was expected that the Yankees would outhit the Giants and that the Giants would outfield the Yankees. Just the opposite happened. The Giants outhit the Yanks 3 to 2 while the Yankees were guilty of but one error, that made by Ward in Friday's game.

The first four of the Giants batters scored 15 of the [illegible] runs made by their team.

Bob Meusel was the high man of the Yankees with an even [illegible] outhit brother Emil this year by [illegible] points and had more chances in the field.

Ward made two hits during the series, both of them being homers over the left field stand.

Scott had a shade on Bancroft at short, Scottie accepting 30 chances at short with his usual smoothness.

Both Kelly and Pipp played [illegible] games at the first corner, the former having [illegible] and the latter [illegible] chances which were handled perfectly. Each man had one assist.

Babe Ruth was a big disappointment in the batting line. He was [illegible] trips to the plate and his batting average was the lowest of any regular on the team.

Ward and Frisch were busy men at second, Ward accepting 31 out of 32 chances and Frisch 29 out of 30.

Scott, the Yankee shortstop, took part in every double play but one made by his team, six of them.

There were but three stolen bases in the five games. Two by the Yankees and one by the Giants.

MUSIC
(By KATHRYN DANIEL.)

A writer in the "Herald and Examiner" of Chicago has unearthed [illegible] indexing 25,000 operas. [illegible] the writer says:

"A patient, industrious, unecle[illegible] gentleman residing, I hear, [in] a West Virginia city, gave years [illegible] to compiling an index [illegible] and then published it at [his] own expense. He assembled [illegible] more titles, and his cross-indexing combined with various [illegible] of [illegible] at least [illegible] distinc[tion] [illegible] incredible [illegible] has been the [illegible] years old [illegible] art-form [illegible] years old [illegible] to the most [illegible] aspects of what we call [opera], that is, the drama with either related or purely incidental songs.

"How many operas do you know? How many by actual acquaintance does any one man or woman know?

"'Ernani,'" says H. E. Krehbiel, "is the oldest opera in the American repertoire. No critic can remember when he has not been familiar with it."

Until Jan. 28, 1903, the walls of the Metropolitan Opera House had never echoed to the strains of the opera, for when old Sylvia [illegible] Elson has [illegible] in the spring [of] 1883 we fancy it was there was no Metropolitan Opera House in existence, and Italian opera was staggering about like Sinbad the sailor under the weight of three managers—Mapleson at the Academy of Music, Strakosch at Booth's Theatre and Abbey with Patti at the Germania Theatre. Patti, we believe, did sing the role of Elvira in November, 1883, when the Metropolitan first opened the doors, but she [illegible] and Carrington were the last representatives of the unlucky [l]ove of the princely bandit until Sembrich blotted out the memories of two of them at least in Jan. 1903.

Now, though we have no representative of Elvira to compare with Elviras of old, we have "Ernani" again. Are we possibly reverting to admiration of the operatic style of seventy-five years ago?

The chronological record of first performances in New York, for which we do not vouch, but give "on information and belief," as they say in the low courts, reads thus: "Ernani" 1846 or 1847, "Il Trovatore" April 1855, "La Traviata" 1856, etc., all works preceding "Ernani" are dead to the trans-Alpine world at least."

The Sistine Choir is now touring Australia, demonstrating how the music of Palestrina, Allegri, Vittoria, Benardi and others should be sung.

Florence Macbeth, prima donna of the Chicago Opera Company, and pupil of Yeatman Griffith, started October 2 on a coast to coast concert tour. She has been vacationing with the Griffiths in the Catskill Mountains, where they have entertained, among other friends Daniel Mayer (Manager).

Marcel Dupre, master organist, has returned to the United States from a tour of England and the Continent, and played his first recital in Montreal, Oct. 5th. In ad[illegible] [illegible] the Boston Symphony and Philadelphia Orchestra, Dupre has already been engaged in for recitals in more than thirty states and provinces in the United States and Canada. One English critic exclaims: "There is but one Bach, and Dupre is his prophet!"

The recital for yesterday afternoon at Orchestra Hall, New York City, was to be given by Alexander Akinoff, assisted by Miss Dafne Edwards, a gifted young pianist.

John Philip Sousa and his famous band were playing at the Auditorium, Chicago, both afternoon and evening yesterday. Sousa's concerts are always events of the first magnitude; for some they are the only concerts of the year that really "count" for the great bandmaster has solved the problem of reaching the "man of the street" as well as the music lover. Among the novelties on the programs are "The Gallant Seventh", one of Mr. Sousa's newest compositions.

Frederick Stock has returned from his search through Europe for novelties for the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, and several new works by contemporary composers will be heard this winter as a result of his efforts.

To the International News Service representative Mr. Stock said:

"European nations are very sick in a musical way as well as industrially.

"The prestige the many European capitals enjoyed as musical centres has passed to American cities.

"America has the best singers, the best violinists and the best directors.

"Although many came from Europe, they will remain here and hereafter be regarded as American artists."

Margaret Matzenauer, my favorite contralto, will open Portland's musical season Tuesday evening, October 10, under the direction of the Elwyn Concert Bureau.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The Editor Star and Herald.
Sir,

Having observed from the columns of your paper that a couple of Ex-Methodists (as such they sign themselves) have very suddenly become so interested in the late John Wesley, his life and the characteristics of the society of which he was the founder, as to be constantly clamoring for newspaper articles on these subjects, I am tempted to ask of what benefit to them will be the information they seek? If as one-time Methodists they failed to posses themselves of a knowledge of these things, what is the use of worrying now that they have so long been separated from the ranks of Wesley's followers? Why not continue to stand on the same ground of christianity as that on which they have stood ever since that separation took place?

If, however, they are as anxious as they claim to learn of these things, why not purchase themselves a copy of "Life of John Wesley" which is just as easily obtainable as "The Harp of the God" or "Millions now Living will never Die" or any such books with which the market is now flooded! I am of opinion that a good deal more information could be gathered from that source than that from which they are requesting it.

In conclusion, I beg leave to suggest to these Ex-Methodists that they concern themselves more with a study of the life and teachings of the Blessed Redeemer as set forth in the good Old Book and shape their lives thereby as neither the most perfect knowledge of the life of John Wesley nor the writings of any Methodist clergyman will save them when the time comes.

Thanking you for space.
Yours,
W. C. DeDier.

COLORED SCHOOL TEACHERS PRAISED BY SUPT. LANG.

A. R. Lang, late Supt. of Canal Zone schools, before leaving the Isthmus sent the following letter to the colored school teachers:—

"All Teachers:—

"As I am terminating my services with the Canal Zone schools after the close of the present school year, I desire to express to you my deep and sincere appreciation for your co-operation.

"This has been a most pleasant and a most successful school year. While the good of the service would not always permit me to follow my personal inclinations and to favor some of your individual desires, yet this has usually been appreciated by those concerned and a fine professional spirit has been displayed.

"It is only by the loyal and faithful work of the teachers that a system of schools can be maintained at the high standard which obtains on the Canal Zone. Accordingly the credit for the present high standing and efficiency of the Canal Zone schools is truly yours.

"It has been a real pleasure to work with you. I wish you continued success.

"Please extend to all the pupils my best wishes.

"I wish for each one of them happiness, and a useful and successful career.

There was a rush at the last moment before his departure to obtain medical treatment and at the same time to say good-bye to him and there were many sad hearts and tear filled eyes when they wished him bon voyage and continued success.

ATLANTIC SIDE ROTARIANS CALL ON TRAFFIC REGULATION COMMITTEE FOR DEFINITE REPORT SOON

Rotarian Judge Wade Defends Colon Humane Society and Eulogizes Work Which Womenfolk Are Doing Today In Caring For Horses —Lack of Report From Traffic Committee Forces President Frank Thompson To Ask That Action In Matter Be Taken Without Further Delay—Change Meeting Day To Friday

CRISTOBAL, October 8.— A vigorous defense of the Colon Humane Society, approval of its action and the opinion that the Colon coach horses were in better shape today than ever, by Rotarian Judge Richard A. Wade, was the feature of yesterday's weekly luncheon of the Cristobal-Colon Rotary Club over whose destinies Rotarian Frank Y. Thompson is now presiding while the president, Rotarian Louis F. Phillips is away on vacation in Jamaica.

The Rotary Club has for months been attempting to get an improvement in the Atlantic side traffic regulations, but so far little progress has been made, and the situation has become acute at the very entrance to Front Street the Gateway to the Atlantic City. Rotarian Joe Delgado chairman of the Traffic Committee gave positive assurance of action before another meeting.

Must not Temporize

"I do not want to hurt anybody's feelings over this important matter", said Rotarian Gerald D. Bliss, "but I do feel that we have been temporizing long enough and that we should have a report or something tangible by this coming Saturday from the committee.

"The tourists are soon coming and Front Street at Eleventh Street is the gateway of the city of Colon and the traffic conditions there are little less than deplorable. We must get to the bottom of the question and determine who is to blame in this matter. We have already gone to great expense in the shape of having the street widened and now we find that every inch of available parking space on this improvement is being used for a few cheap looking jitneys".

The chairman, Rotarian Frank Thompson suggested that Rotarian Delgado go over the traffic regulations with the Governor.

Rotarian O'Hearn spoke of the present lack of regulations or the enforcement of the regulations and mentioned cases where considerable trouble had been caused.

"We want to help the Governor all we can", he said "and we are sure that he will do all he can for us".

Rotarian John G. Gill motioned that the club should do all in its power to assist the authorities in framing the new regulations.

Disreputable Coaches

Rotarian Quinn Gray spoke of the disreputable condition of the horses and coaches in the city and spoke of two he had seen outside the hospital and said that their condition was a disgrace to the community. "There are in the city," he said three or four coaches and horses which were a positive disgrace to the community.

"These horses are fit subjects for a humane society and I think that there should be some regulations drawn up. Why has not the city an inspector?"

Rotarian Frank L. Scott: "There is an inspector."

Rotarian Quinn Gray: "Then the matter should be reported upon".

The chairman: "I will appoint Rotarian Quinn Gray as a committee of one to report on the matter to the Secretary and we will then take action".

Wade Defends Cocheros

Rotarian Judge Wade said that five years ago there were horses and coaches which were not very creditable to the community but he claimed that today there was to be seen a very big change.

"We have the Colon Humane Society", said the Judge, "and I can assure you that the ladies who are running that society in the interests of the community are very industrious and persevering workers with their hearts in the work and I am quite satisfied that if cases arise and they are reported to these ladies that they will take the necessary action in the matter. The ladies make weekly visits and they are earnest and conscientious workers. I myself have noticed a great improvement of late in the matter. If you see a horse in bad condition and report it to the Colon Humane Society I will guarantee that you will get some action".

Ralph Osborn Suports

Rotarian Ralph Osborn supported Judge Wade and gave many instances of the good work of the Colon Humane Society. He mentioned Mrs. Weaver, who was always on the alert looking for coachmen who illtreated their horses.

"She is constantly on the job" he said "That lady works night and day for the horses."

Change Meeting Day

The Chairman made reference to the meeting day of the club and suggested that as Saturday did not seem to meet with the approval of many of the members that he would like to hear an expression of opinion over the matter.

Rotarian Wade said that Saturday was not very suitable for Rotarian Calloway and himself and Rotarians Scott and Bliss also said that Saturday was a very busy day for them.

Rotarian Osborn suggested Sunday. Rotarian Lee Kelso suggested Friday.

Rotarian Bliss then moved that Friday be the day effective from the following week and it seconded by Rotarian Wade it was put to the gathering and carried unanimously.

Tribute To Guerin

A most impressive tribute to the love and esteem in which Rotary's Treasurer the late George M. Guerin, was held by his fellow members was given at roll call when the Secretary, Rotarian Gerald D. Bliss called "George M. Guerin" with no response, whereupon the secretary announced that death had for the first time entered the ranks of the Rotary Club of Cristobal-Colon and removed from around the table their beloved Treasurer and there were no dry eyes when the chairman called the club to stand with bowed heads in loving tribute to his honored memory.

Rotarian Bliss later made motion that the charter of the club be draped in black for 30 days and that Rotarian John G. Gill, the father of Isthmian Rotary, draw up suitable resolutions to be inscribed on the minutes and a copy sent to the relatives of the late Treasurer, which upon being seconded by Rotarian Hebe Stearns was carried unanimously.

ATLANTIC SIDE PARS

CRISTOBAL, Oct. 8.—The Atlantic side is to be honored this week by a visit from the Bracale Opera Company, who have selected the America Theatre to give Faust and La Boheme. It has just so happened that this great company will be in Colon for two days awaiting a boat and they have listened to the urgent appeal of music lovers on the Atlantic side and Signor Bracale decided to give two operas here. This means that the Atlantic side will have an opportunity of hearing two of the most famous operas that have ever been writen, the masterpieces of Gounod and Puccini and it means that the acid test is to be put to the Atlantic side as to whether it is metropolitan or imbued with small town stuff. Time and again we hear the demand for grand opera, again and again when Bracale visits the National Theatre in the capital petitions are gotten up asking him to come to Colon and now the opportunity has arisen it behoves us one and all to give Bracale the support that he and his company so much deserve.

This opportunity may never occur again in Colon. If the America Theatre is packed on these two nights it will mean one of the biggest advertisements the city has ever had, for opera singers talk and when they have a recollection of appearing before a packed house in a 30,000 population town they always have a warm spot in their hearts for that town.

The America Theatre must be packed on Friday and Saturday evening next. It will mean that the Atlantic side really has a soul.

Mrs. E. G. Mettke, mother of Mr. Arthur Mettke, sailed on the transport St. Mihiel Saturday for San Juan Porto Rico, to visit her daughter Mrs. W. P. Smallwood.

On Sunday, October 15, there will be a sacred concert at the morning service of the Cristobal Union Church at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Richard Whitcomb, back from Colombia, was present at Saturday's gathering of the Rotary Club.

Those sailing on the Transport St. Mihiel for New York included Colonel H. E. Steel, of the Coast Defense Corps, Colonel Herbert O. Williams of the General Staff, Major J. M. Markley, J. A. G. D., Colonel Joseph Wheeler, Jr., A. G. D., Colonel George P. Howell, Captain C. Gordon Day, Major W. H. Lanagan, Major B. W. Wills, Captain A. L. Morris, Major Guy L. Qualls, former superintendent of the Colon Hospital, but of late at Empire and Lieutenants R. E. de Merritt and Paul R. King.

The arrivals on the Carrillo from New York included Signor Piero Civalleri, a distinguished member of the Italian army and attache at Washington, on a vacation trip; William Buggie, en route to Valparaiso, and for the Isthmus Henry Brown, Fred Haberman, George Bala, William Dierden and Harry Gerrano.

Arrivals from Kingston included Don Rafael Fuegles.

Mr. Des Jardins, who has been acting Secretary of the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. at Cristobal for the past few months, has been transferred to the "Y" at Balboa. Many tears are being shed by the boys of the Cristobal "Y" as Mr. Des Jardins has endeared himself to everyone here with whom he has come in contact. Mrs. Des Jardins and the children will be sadly missed from the Sunday evening song services. No more bright eyed little Des Jardins girls to pass the cake and the song books. No more young John Des Jardins to teach the neighbors boys to play ball. No more of those interesting, yet earnest and sincere addresses, that Mr. Des Jardins has been in the habit of delivering of a Sunday evening.

Well, what is a loss to us is a gain to Balboa and we have to all learn to live and let live.

USE COCOANUT OIL FOR WASHING YOUR CHILD'S HAIR.

If you want to keep your child's hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just plain Mulsified cocoanut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply put two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water, then moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. The hair dries quickly and evenly and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut oil at most any pharmacy, drug or perfume store and barber shop. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your chemist gives you Mulsified. Beware of imitations. Look for the name Watkins on the package.

INTERESANTISIMA MEMORIA DEL SR. SEC. DE HACIENDA PRESENTADA A LA ASAMBLEA NACIONAL

OFRECEMOS EL IMPORTANTE DOCUMENTO A NUESTROS LECTORES

En los momentos presentes es la más exacta exposición de nuestras finanzas

(Continuación)

El resultado de esa actitud de los mismos panameños que en ocasiones expresan públicamente la sorpresa de que el país carezca de moneda nacional, es que hoy no circulan, desde un confín al otro del territorio, sino billetes de bancos de los Estados Unidos, algunos de ellos desconocidos en el país, billetes de la Junta de Reserva Federal, monedas de plata de los Estados Unidos del valor de un dollar, cincuenta, veinticinco y diez centavos, monedas de níquel de cinco centavos y monedas de cobre de un centavo.

Tal situación es completamente anómala desde el punto de vista de nuestras leyes escritas. El Código Fiscal, reproduciendo en [illegible] lo que dispuso la Ley 84 de 1904, establece que el dollar de oro de los Estados Unidos de América y sus múltiplos serán de curso legal en la República al igual que nuestra moneda de plata, de níquel y de cobre, como tampoco a los billetes bancarios extranjeros cualquiera que sea su procedencia. En el convenio monetario celebrado en Washington el 20 de Junio de 1904, entre los representantes panameños y el entonces Secretario de Guerra Honorable William H. Taft, se aceptó el mismo principio que no ha sido alterado por ningún arreglo posterior.

Pero aun hay más. El artículo 531 del Código Fiscal prohibe la introducción al país de monedas de plata y de níquel que no sean emitidas dentro de los límites fijados en la ley, y si eso es imperativo aun tratándose de las monedas de plata y de níquel panameñas, con razón mucho mayor debe serlo respecto de monedas de otros países.

[illegible] la sanción legal un estado de cosa [illegible] a conflictos civiles en las Cortes de Justicia.

El hecho de usar nosotros en Panamá todos los diversos instrumentos de cambio y todas las monedas de los Estados Unidos de América lejos de ser un perjuicio es una gran ventaja para el comercio, para la industria y para el pueblo panameño. Tenemos, merced a esas circunstancias, un cambio estable como no lo tiene hoy ningún otro país del mundo, pues el dollar es actualmente la moneda dominante en todas las transacciones comerciales, pero reconociendo el hecho debemos legalizarlo y complementar nuestro convenio monetario con los Estados Unidos a efecto de establecer quienes responden, en qué forma y hasta qué límites de los billetes que hoy circulan aquí, emitidos por Bancos desconocidos, sin ninguna agencia en Panamá.

La permuta de carne humana por cerales es la nota del día en Rusia

Por el diario "Chicago Tribune" se trasluce que la permuta de carne humana a cambio de cereales, en Rusia, es el plato del día. Dicho diario publica un despacho de Riga diciendo que han sido robados, asesinados y devorados por los famélicos, varios niños rusos que el comité americano de socorros atendía y alimentaba.

Dice el citado diario que los actos de canibalismo se repiten, a pesar de la ley que castiga con pena de muerte la antropofagia; pues en Pufatchy, gobierno de Samara, se abrió hace poco un restaurante que por la excelencia de sus platos de carne se hizo célebre en pocos días; pero las autoridades bolsheviques, para averiguar la procedencia y abundancia de esas carnes, practicaron un registro, encontrando en la cueva los cadáveres de los niños recientemente descuartizados, por lo cual los propietarios del restaurante fueron encarcelados y luego fusilados. Agrega el diario que en Gontchina se ha vendido carne humana a cambio de cereales.

Los Gigantes tienen el campeonato Mundial de Base-ball: derrotan a los Yankees en el cuarto juego por 5 a 3

El record de los Gigantes ha sido una única vez superado por los Boston Braves en 1914

Los New York Giants son nuevamente campeones de Baseball. Por cuarta vez los Giants derrotaron los Yankees esta tarde en el Polo Grounds por 5 a 3, poniendo fin a la serie ganando cuatro de los cinco partidos jugados, la segunda de las cuales resultó un empate siendo suspendido el juego después de diez innings.

Como en dos de los juegos anteriores de la serie, los Giants después de verse con desventajas, por un violento ataque con el bate pegaron hits a todos lados del diamante en los últimos innings, tomando la ventaja, entristeciendo a los Yankees y haciéndoles perder todo interés y continuar jugando solo por terminar la serie.

Los Yankees hicieron una carrera en el primer inning con dos hits y un sacrificio, pero los Giants tomaron la delantera en el segundo cuando hicieron dos carreras como resultado de tres hits. Los Yankees empataron el score en el quinto de los hits y una base por bolas y en el séptimo se pasaron a sus contrarios con una carrera, mantuvieron esta ventaja hasta el octavo en que flaqueó Bush y permitió a los Giants suficientes para ganar.

La siguiente es la relación del juego por innings:

Primer Inning

Yankees.—Comenzó a llover al acercarse Witt al home plate a batear. Witt pegó una línea a Bancroft. Dugan pegó un single que pasó cerca de Bancroft. Ruth puso un bunt frente al home plate que fué recogido por Snyder a tiempo para sacar a Ruth en primera, pero a éste siempre se le acredita el sacrificio. Pipp le dió a los Yankees su primera carrera cuando pegó un single al centerfield, con el cual entró Dugan. Frisch cogió el roller de Meusel y tocó la segunda, sacando a Pipp. Una carrera, dos hits.

Giants.—El roller de Bancroft fué recogido por Dugan quien sacó al bateador en primera. Groh entonces pegó su octavo hit de la Serie, un single al right field. Frisch puso fin a la oportunidad de los Giants en este inning cuando pegó para un double play, Bush a Scott a Pipp. Ninguna carrera, ningún hit.

Segundo Inning

Yankees. Schang pegó un fly que cogió Meusel. Ward pegó otro fly largo a Cunningham. Bancroft sacó a Scott a primera. Ninguna carrera, ningún hit.

Giants. En este inning los Giants volvieron a demostrar que saben sobreponerse a las desventajas. E. Meusel comenzó el inning cogiendo la primera con un roller al infield. Pep Young fué boleado. Kelly ayudó a Meusel y a Young a avanzar en las paradas con su roller a Bush, quien corrió y alcanzó a Kelly antes de que llegara a primera. Cunningham entonces pegó un single sobre la segunda base con lo cual entraron Meusel y Young, dándole a los Giants dos carreras. Snyder pegó un single al infield y Cunningham llegó hasta segunda. Nehf fué boleado, quedaron llenas las bases. Bancroft llegó entre primera y segunda, pero tuvo a tiempo Ward en recoger la bola. Groh terminó el inning. Dos carreras, tres hits.

Tercer Inning

Yankees.—[illegible] Kelly pusieron todos los outs en la primera mitad de este inning, saliendo en su orden Bush, Witt y Dugan por la vía shortstop a primera base. Ninguna carrera, ningún hit.

Giants.—Los Giants salieron con rapidez en este inning. Pipp recogió el roller de Frisch y puso el out en primera. Emil Meusel pegó un fly que cogió Ruth y Young otro que le tocó a Pipp. Ninguna carrera, ningún hit.

Cuarto Inning

Yankees.—[illegible] Pipp pegó un fuerte roller a Frisch quien lo sacó en primera. Bob Meusel siguiendo el ejemplo de Ruth [illegible]. Ninguna carrera, ningún hit.

Giants.—[illegible] con la oportunidad de los Giants entrando en doble play, Bush a Scott a Pipp. Scott puso fin al inning cogiendo el fly de Snyder.

Quinto Inning

Yankees.—[illegible] score en este inning. Ward recibió base por bolas. Scott pegó entonces su segundo hit de la serie logrando hacer pasar una línea por cerca de Frisch, quien en ocasiones anteriores le había robado hits seguros, avanzando Ward hasta segunda. Bush pegó un single al rightfield con el cual entró Ward, pero Scott fué cogido entre home y primera al pasarse a la base, poniendo el out Snyder. Mientras lo ponían el out a Scott Bush cogió la segunda. McMillan entró entonces a batear por Witt pero salió con un out Nehf a Kelly. Una carrera, dos hits.

Giants.—McMillan fué a jugar en el centerfield por los Yankees. Nehf, el primer bateador de los Giants en este inning, fué boleado por segunda vez. Bancroft entonces pegó un double play, Ward a Scott a Pipp. Pipp recogió el roller de Groh y puso el out sin asistencia. Ninguna carrera, 0 hits.

Sexto Inning

Yankees. Dugan salió. Bancroft a Kelly. El esfuerzo de Ruth solo le sirvió para un roller a Nehf quien lo sacó en primera. Heinie Groh hizo una soberbia cogida cuando dió un salto altísimo y cogió la línea de Pipp robándole a éste un two base hit y poniendo fin al inning. Ninguna carrera, ningún hit.

Giants.—Frisch pegó un single por tercera. Emil Meusel pegó una línea que cogió Ruth. Frisch salió en segunda cuando pegó Young un roller que fué recogido por Bush, quien lanzó a Scott para el out. Young salió del mismo modo cuando pegó a Kelly y se puso el out Scott a Ward. Ninguna carrera, ningún hit.

Séptimo Inning

Yankees.—Los Yankees volvieron a tomar la delantera en este inning. Bob Meusel el primero al bate pegó un single. Schang se apuntó un sacrificio Groh a Kelly. Estando Ward al bate Meusel avanzó hasta tercera con un wild pitch. Ward fué boleado, quedando dos hombres en base con un out. Scott hizo un sacrifice fly a Cunningham y entró Meusel en carrera. Los Giants se reunieron alrededor del home plate para protestar de la entrada de Bob Meusel y en sus protestas nada le sacaron. Frisch sacó a Bush en primera. Una carrera, un hit.

Octavo Inning

Yankees.—King entró a jugar centerfield para los Giants. Groh sacó a McMillan en primera. Joe Dugan fué a primera al pegarle a Groh. Kelly recogió un fuerte roller de Ruth y puso el out en primera sin asistencia, avanzando Dugan hasta segunda. Pipp salió en primera, Frisch a Kelly. Ninguna carrera, ningún hit.

Giants.—Como en juegos anteriores, el octavo inning resultó ser el decisivo. En este inning los Giants atacaron un bombardeo de hits tal que hicieron más de las carreras necesarias para ganar el juego. Pipp dió un contenazo sensacional al inning haciendo una de las mejores cogidas de la serie con la cual logró poner out a Bancroft en primera. Groh pegó su segundo hit del juego y un two base hit al leftfield con el cual avanzó Groh hasta tercera. Scott recogió el "grounder" de Meusel y con la ayuda de Schang le pusieron el out a Groh entre tercera y home. E. Meusel llegó hasta segunda y Frisch hasta tercera en la jugada. Bush volvió a darle a Young una base por bolas intencionalmente, llenando las bases. Kelly, el otro miembro del famoso infield de los Giants a quien no se le ha dado tanta publicidad durante la serie debido al juego admirable de Groh, Bancroft y Frisch, vino al bate con la oportunidad de volverse el héroe de la serie. No tardó mucho en decidir lo que debía hacer. Recogió uno de los fuertes strikes de Bush y envió la bola sobre la segunda base hasta el centerfield, entrando con carreras Frisch y Meusel. Frisch con la carrera completaba el juego y Meusel con el 4, cual tomaban la delantera los Giants. Young llegó hasta segunda en la jugada, la cual tomaban la delantera los Giants por tercera vez en la serie y pegó un Texas leaguer al leftfield con el cual entró Young con carrera, y Kelly fué hasta tercera. King entonces vino a batear por primera. Snyder terminó el inning. [illegible] fly que cogió McMillan. Tres carreras, cuatro hits.

Noveno Inning

Yankees. Triples y cabildeos estaban Yankees al salir del field para su última oportunidad al bate. Bob Meusel pegó un fly muy alto a Bancroft. Pep Young tuvo el honor de un fly al terminar el juego cuando cogió los flys de Schang y Ward. Terminado el juego y saliendo los Giants con el campeonato mundial en su poder. Ninguna carrera, ningún hit.

SE INTENTO EL ENVENENAR A LOS ASESINOS DE WALTER RATHENAU

SE DICE QUE FUE UN ATENTADO PARA EVITAR CIERTAS DECLARACIONES

Se les dieron pastillas de chocolate que contenían gérmenes del tifo

Leipzig, Octubre 8. La enfermedad repentina de varios de los acusados en el juicio por el asesinato del Ministro Rathenau, enfermedad que se dice fue producida por chocolate envenenado, ha causado gran alarma.

Se cree que es un atentado de los nacionalistas extremistas para matar a algunos de los acusados cuyas declaraciones tienden a comprometer a varios de los más prominentes líderes del movimiento reaccionario.

El lugar de la corte donde se ventila el asunto no havía sido un caso de envenenamiento intencional, pero en la actualidad tres de los acusados están gravemente enfermos.

Varios médicos están examinando las pastillas de chocolate que causaron el daño, las cuales se cree que contenían gérmenes del tifo.

LA SEÑORA PROHIBICION

UNA ORDEN DE DECOMISO DEL PROCURADOR GENERAL DE LOS ESTADOS UNIDOS

Una demora en la orden de decomiso del Procurador General

Washington, Octubre 8. De acuerdo con la orden dictada por el Procurador General ayer, hoy se enviaron instrucciones a los capitanes de los barcos pertenecientes a la Junta de Navegación de los Estados Unidos para que decomisen y entreguen a los agentes del Departamento de Hacienda todos los licores alcohólicos que se encuentren abordo de sus barcos.

La orden del Procurador se aplica tanto a los barcos administrados por la Junta como a los que están al servicio de empresas privadas.

Declarada ilegal

Washington, Octubre 8. El Procurador General de los Estados Unidos, Harry Daugherty, dió hoy una opinión declarando ilegal el transporte o la venta de licores a bordo de los barcos norteamericanos dondequiera que se encuentren bien sean de propiedad particular o del Gobierno, o abordo de los barcos extranjeros que se encuentren dentro del límite de las tres millas de la costa de los Estados Unidos.

Se cree que pronto se presentará demanda para que determine finalmente el asunto la Corte Suprema.

A los barcos norteamericanos que se encuentran actualmente en el extranjero se les dará la oportunidad para que regresen a sus puertos en este país antes de que entre en vigencia la nueva orden.

Una demora

Washington, Octubre 8. El Departamento de Hacienda anunció anoche que la orden del Procurador General sobre la aplicación de la ley de prohibición antialcohólica a bordo de los barcos norteamericanos en todas partes y de los extranjeros en aguas americanas, no se aplicará en el caso de los barcos extranjeros que hayan salido de sus puertos de procedencia antes del 14 de Octubre o de los barcos norteamericanos que salgan de puertos extranjeros antes de la misma fecha.

La demora en la aplicación de la orden en estos casos se debe a una carta enviada ayer por el Presidente Harding al Secretario de Hacienda Mellon en la cual se insinuaba lo poco práctico que resultaría tratar de hacer efectiva la nueva orden inmediatamente.

Sin embargo ninguna demora semejante se ha concedido en lo relativo a los barcos norteamericanos que se encuentran o se encontraban en los puertos de este país en la fecha en que se dió la orden del Procurador; abordo de esos barcos se tuvo que suspender la venta de licores inmediatamente.

Esta noche en el Teatro Nacional se lleva á a efecto la velada que ofrece el poeta Cisneros a los Asilos

Hoy es el día de la gran velada que con el fin netamente benéfico, sin tantos por cientos bajo cuerda ni habilidades engañadoras, ofrece el poeta Luis Fernán Cisneros en el Teatro Nacional, conducido de la mano hasta la batería del escenario por el ilustre Don Samuel Lewis y al son mágico de un piano cuyos secretos lanzarán a la luz las manos y el corazón de pianista tan gentil como lo es la señorita Angela Prieto.

Un lleno completo

Las localidades están ya casi agotadas, no es broma, ni decir por decir, es la verdad: escasamente quedan treinta lunetas y algunos palcos y la galería puede el público acercarse a la barbería del amigo Londoño y se convencerá de lo [illegible]. Por la noche en el teatro brillantísimo se demostrará ello por completo.

El orador y la artista

El programa ha interesado sobre manera.

El primer término el discurso de Samuel Lewis. Es extraordinaria la curiosidad que hay en la ciudad por escuchar al primer orador istmeño. Su frase que sabe ser afiligranadamente política, es también rudamente combativa [illegible] a los espectadores [illegible] el señor Lewis hay el timo [illegible] flor, la voz la inteligencia, el dominio del verbo... ¡Por algo Don Samuel goza de fama incuestionable sin discusión!

La señorita Prieto en los intermedios, acompañando al poeta Cisneros en la [illegible] de Schubert nos llevará [illegible] ¡Qué inspiración [illegible] gentileza!

Los otros

¿Y el poeta? ¿Y Luis Fernán Cisneros?

Luis Fernán Cisneros ha dividido su velada en tres partes; la primera la dedicada a los poetas de América... Los nombres de Rubén Darío, de Nervo, de Gutiérrez Nájera, de Gabriela Mistral y sobre todo de la otra femenina de las poetisas Juana de Ibarbourou llenan esta parte.

La segunda es la de los poetas del Perú; entre ellos el ilustre padre del poeta Luis Fernán Cisneros, el genial Santos Chocano, el inmenso D. Ricardo Palma, el modernísimo Yerovi...

Lo suyo...

Y la tercera parte es la suya: nosotros hemos tenido ocasión de escuchar algunas composiciones de las que va a declamar Cisneros: es lo mejor de su lira, es admirable [illegible] de gran [illegible] "Tu olvido es mi [illegible]" que atenaceaban; y tres piezas de su tesoro de letras clara de la mujer limeña graciosa gentilica.

Ustedes lectores recuerdan aquella "Mi novia" que tanto gustó. Pues más pimpante, más fácil que "Mi novia", son "Muñeca limeña", "Mercedes", "Señorita"... Tres notas de color, tres filigranas, tres caprichos...

Para esta noche

De modo que esta noche a las 9 el Teatro Nacional será un ascua de oro que hará brillar la velada de arte, del poeta grande y bueno que tiene la ilusión de ofrecer atavíos a los niños del Asilo de la Infancia, a los ancianos del Asilo de Bolívar, que sabe producir el alma maravillosa, el alma insuperable, de [illegible] ciudad [illegible] Esmeralda Hermosa.

Un Aniversario Ecuatoriano

Hoy se celebra en el Ecuador y muy especialmente en Guayaquil una de sus efemérides más significativas. La proclamación de la Independencia de Guayaquil, que trajo la Independencia del Ecuador, como consecuencia inmediata. El gesto noble de los patriotas del 10 de Agosto de 1809, no obtuvo el éxito a que era merecedor, y vino el 9 de Octubre de 1820, a dar facilidades a Sucre, para que armando un Ejército, subiera la cordillera de los Andes y después de combatir en Huachi, Ambato, etc., presentara a los realistas batalla formal en las faldas del volcán Pichincha.

Sucre, el más virtuoso y más soldado de los tenientes de Bolívar, marchaba con su ejército, para unirse al Libertador, que venía de Pasto, y así, ya ambos juntos, combatir a los españoles. Sin embargo, la maniobra, arriesgada en sí misma, se volvió imposible cuando la guarnición española de Quito, se puso en contacto con el ejército libertador y lo obligó a dar combate. La victoria de Sucre fue el resultado y con ella la libertad efectiva del Ecuador, de su muy digna madre patria, la noble nación española.

Guayaquil fundado por Juan Francisco de Orellana, en 1537 tiene hoy cerca de 100.000 habitantes, y constituye uno de los pueblos más interesantes de Sur América, por sus virtudes cívicas y su ennoblecedor hábito del trabajo.

El obrerismo ampliamente desarrollado, dentro de numerosas organizaciones de gremios, toma parte activa en la vida de la ciudad, en sus manifestaciones varias; sin que tienda a engrandecerse por manifestaciones bolsheviquistas, tan en boga en nuestros tiempos, sino más bien por sus aspiraciones de cultura y enseñanza. Mientras que el capital, se encuentra ampliamente respetado y protegido: así es que casi todos los bancos de Guayaquil giran con dinero nacional, con un capital total de unos 40.000.000 de sucres cuyas ganancias naturalmente no emigran, sino que vienen a incrementar la riqueza del lugar.

Sin tomar en cuenta la exportación de los diversos artículos tropicales, y otros productos andinos, podemos decir que la sola venta del cacao a los mercados extranjeros, trae anualmente al Ecuador, vía Guayaquil, 35.000.000 de sucres.

Durante mucho tiempo, la ciudad tuvo que luchar contra su mal estado sanitario, hoy día gracias a una colaboración, estrecha entre nacionales y extranjeros, no solamente se ha logrado exterminar la fiebre amarilla, sino que también se ha formado un personal nacional para la reforma sanitaria en el resto del país, que ofrece los mejores augurios para el futuro.

Aprovechamos esta ocasión unos reverentes nuestro más cordial saludo al señor Cónsul del Ecuador en nuestra República nuestro querido amigo el señor Colón Eloy Alfaro, cuyo nombre unido al recuerdo de su admirado y heróico padre constituye una gloria de la América latina amante de la libertad.

Señor Gobernador de la Provincia. Panamá.

SAILOR PATCHETT SOSTIENE SU TITULO

Ganó por decisión a Kid Campbell

Ante una concurrencia de lo más numerosa que invadió el local del Central American Stadium de Colón, se llevó a cabo anoche el tan anunciado final de boxeo entre los hábiles pugilistas Sailor Patchett, de Coco Solo y campeón [illegible]weight del Istmo y Kid Campbell, de Panamá y aspirante al título que posee Patchett.

El encuentro fue reñidísimo; los contrincantes demostraron ser verdaderas estrellas pugilísticas poniendo en práctica sus conocimientos técnicos del arte que profesan.

La tensión nerviosa que se apoderó de los espectadores fue una sola desde el primer asalto hasta el décimo quinto, no pasaba segundo alguno sin que los contrincantes dejaran de acometer. Patchett con sus certeros "jabs" y Campbell con sus poderosos "swings" que arrancaban frenéticos aplausos de los simpatizadores de uno y otro contendores.

El "bout" fue sensacional interesantísimo; las apuestas se cruzaban a menudo; los contendores se portaron a la altura.

No se pudo exigir mejor demostración boxeril.

A pesar de los esfuerzos que Campbell hizo por salir victorioso su contendor Patchett a juicio del Referee quien le dio la decisión logró apuntarse a su favor mayor número de asaltos.

Los contendores fueron grandemente ovacionados al bajar del "ring."

En el semi final, Brathwaith dió K. O. a su oponente Soldier Hood en el cuarto asalto de los diez a que estaba concertada la pelea.

El preliminar entre Kid Telia y [illegible] Beckett fue asunto de dos segundos; pues este puso fuera de acción a su contendor en el primer asalto de la lucha.

El boxeador Buddy Ryan actuó de Referee en todos los encuentros.

Frases sentidas y sinceras de Ramón Arosemena acerca de José Lombardo

La [illegible] tarde de [illegible] el [illegible] promotor M. Everardo Duque recibió carta del popular ídolo panameño Ramón Arosemena campeón de peso ligero de la [illegible] de Panamá en la cual se expresa de una manera sincera entusiasta y patriótica acerca de las habilidades de nuestro orgullo José Lombardo, campeón de los plumas de Centro y Sur América, quien estaba para partir hacia la Habana a tener varios encuentros de boxeo con boxeadores de fama reconocida acompañado del promotor Everardo Duque, quien actúa como representante del popular boxeador Lombardo [illegible] manager han desistido del viaje [illegible] quebrado la mano izquierda.

El [illegible] nacional en su último encuentro con Jimmy Stewart, que se llevó a cabo en Colón el 23 de Septiembre, habiendo cedido dejar dicho viaje para más tarde cuando piensa alejarse de nuestras playas en busca de buenos contendores que no le quedan ya en el Istmo, y donde sin duda sabrá poner muy en alto el nombre de nuestra pequeña República que será muy bien representada por sus puños terribles y su habilidad invencible en el ring.

He aquí parte del texto de la carta de nuestro "Kid Mac Koy".

"Mi querido Everardo:

"Según he leído en un periódico pronto debes partir para la Habana en compañía del Chato. Me alegro mucho, muchísimo y espero que aquella tierra no les sea tan ingrata como a nosotros nos ha sido esta. Ya era hora que nuestro común amigo saliera en busca de horizontes más amplios en donde pueda desarrollar sus habilidades poco comunes; yo le auguro muchos triunfos: la gloria ha de sonreírle nuevamente, y nosotros, sus amigos auténticos, a los que no nos seduce el brillo de sus triunfos y no lo halagamos con miras interesadas, sentiremos desde lejos, las lógicas sensaciones de orgullo, que producen el que un compatriota nuestro marche a playas extranjeras, frente hacia la gloria. Su fama con razón justa, traspasó los lindes de la patria chica, y ha repercutido en ecos gloriosos más allá del continente.

Ramón Arosemena,
Panama Kid Mac Koy.

Expresiones como las anteriores nos llena de satisfacción y orgullo al ver que nuestros boxeadores tienen ante todo el nombre y representación de la Patria a que están llamados a representar al subir a un ring en el Exterior.

Las frases contenidas en estos párrafos que reproducimos de la carta de nuestro gran Kid Mac Koy son muestra encantadora de compañerismo y sinceridad que es la base esencial que debe acompañar a los que hoy se reparten las glorias y las alabanzas de todo una nación, y todo un pueblo más bien enloquecido de patriotismo, que cegado de afición.

Los rumores que se corrían en la ciudad de un probable encuentro entre Ramón y Lombardo pues, quedan hecho trizas con la reproducción anterior, un encuentro entre estos dos favoritos de los panameños es una cosa imposible habiendo ambos saboreado los sinsabores del principiante y ambos se han regocijado igualmente de los triunfos del uno y del otro.

Casi al mismo tiempo comenzaron estas dos estrellas nativas su profesión en las cuales han adquirido tanto renombre y tanta fama, ambos se han entrenado en numerosas ocasiones para cada encuentro que han tenido, y siendo como hermanos en su profesión, habiendo en diferentes ocasiones demostrado esta sinceridad no es posible que después de tantas exhibiciones se llegara a conseguir poderlos hacer luchar como dos enemigos por la insignificante gloria de una victoria que vendrá a redundar en una derrota para uno de los dos boxeadores que hoy son representación legítima de nuestra raza y si se quiere el único orgullo y entusiasmo en nuestros sports.

Lombardo y Arosemena tendrán que ir siempre de la mano hacia la gloria que es imposible que les deje de sonreír pues tanto el uno como el otro se necesitan. El uno es tan necesario como el otro para adquirir sus ruidosos y ruidosos triunfos que se convierten en triunfos nacionales.

Yo abogaré hoy y siempre porque estos dos excelentes púgiles lleven eternamente una amistad íntima e infranqueable hasta el término de sus respectivas y gloriosas carreras.

PIVOT.

El equipo de Polo de la Argentina derrotado por segunda vez

Westbury, N. Y., octubre 8.—El team de polo Meadowbrook "Big Four", con Cooley jugando de sustituto por Stoddard, ganó hoy su segunda victoria sobre el equipo argentino por un score de 5 a 4.

Durante los últimos 15 segundos de juego el Capitán Lacey, del team argentino, perdió una excelente oportunidad de empatar el score con una jugada libre desde la línea de foul., la pelota fuera lanzada fuera y no pudido ser arrojada dentro antes de que sonara el pito el timekeeper.

Con este juego concluyó la serie de matchs internacionales.

El juego de hoy lo presenció una gran concurrencia, entre la cual se encontraban los más altos representantes del mundo social norteamericano.
