TURKISH SULTAN DEPOSED BY NATIONALISTS

CALIPH OF MOSLEM WORLD TO BE ELECTED HEREAFTER WITHOUT TEMPORAL POWERS

Angora Assembly Decides That It Is Invested With Sovereign Rights and That Nationalist Government Is Keystone of the Caliphate—Indications Are That Sultan Will Dispute Legal Character of Angora Government's Decision—Nationalists Announce All Pacts Entered Into Since March 16, 1920 Are Null and Void

LONDON, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press).—An Exchange Telegram from Constantinople advises that the Angora National Assembly has passed a law suppressing the Sultanate of Turkey and the law of succession to the throne. Such action is taken to mean that the Sultan has been deposed.

According to dispatches, hereafter the Caliph in Turkey will be periodically elected, without government or prerogative, all power being in the hands of the National Assembly.

Keystone of Caliphate.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press).—The Angora Assembly unanimously decided at this morning's session, that it is invested with sovereign rights and that the Turk Nationalist Government is the keystone of the Caliphate. The newspapers this morning carry large headlines declaring: "The Ottoman empire has collapsed. The Sultanate has been abolished." The decision of the assembly was announced by a salute of one hundred and one guns.

The Assembly also passed a resolution that the Caliphate was vested in the imperial family of the Osman dynasty. The selection of a caliph will be made by the National Assembly which will choose that member of the imperial family who is best instructed, the most honest and wisest.

Condemn Nationalists Act.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press).—The Sultan presided this afternoon at an extraordinary council of the ministers, the Grand Vizier Newfik Pasha and his colleagues renewed their pledge of loyalty and expressed the utmost indignation at the Angora Government's action in proclaiming the end of the Sultanate. There is good reason to believe that the Sultan will dispute the legal character of the Angora Government's decision.

The Turkish afternoon papers announced that the Sultan's abdication is only a matter of hours, but the Sublime Porte and the ministers do not take such a pessimistic view inasmuch as the Sultan's resignation according to tradition is handed to members of the imperial family and no crown council was called today at the Yildiz palace.

Repudiate Treaties.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press).—The Nationalist Government at Angora announces that it considers null and void all treaties and conventions concluded since March 16th, 1920 by the Constantinople administration.

Split in Cabinet.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press).—The Nationalists anti-Sultan decree has caused a split in the Cabinet. Tewfik Bey, Minister of Finance and Said Bey, Minister of Education, resigning.

The heir-apparent and other members of the imperial family held a conference and decided that none will accept the throne if offered without temporal powers. General Pinia and the Sultan have ignored the Angora Government's decisions and the dissenting ministers refused to attend a conference at the palace. The Sultan devoted his time at the Mosque as usual.

NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM PLANNED FOR BALBOA HGTS.

H. B. Johnson, Taxidermist and Bruel Styles of Police Force Authorized To Collect and Mount Specimens of Isthmian Jungle and Marine Life

A Natural History Museum will be installed in the Administration Building, at Balboa Heights by February it was learned yesterday. Harry B. Johnson, taxidermist of New York and Miami Beach, Florida and Bruel Styles of the Canal Zone police force, have been authorized by the Governor to collect and preserve interesting groups of Isthmian jungle and marine life.

The first rare specimen of the mammal family, a full grown deer pale brown in color and no larger than a jack-rabbit of the Northwest was secured yesterday in the vicinity of Arraijan. It was shot by Johnson and will be mounted for the museum.

The collection will be invaluable for educational and scientific purposes as it is proposed to provide each subject exhibited with a brief history of its life, habits, haunts etc.

The following was given out yesterday by Mr. Johnson:

The Marine Group.

"The 'Marine Group' to be prepared first, will embody such game fish as a Tarpon, Barracuda, Dolphin Pompan, Snapper, Jack, etc. One or two deep sea monsters, mounted on red pedestals, may probably be added; such as an Octopus, Devil-fish, Sting-ray, Seabat, Saw-fish, or a Hedges shark. The Ichthyological group will also contain many of the smaller species of beautiful, queer, and freakish fish; such as Tang Moon fish, Globe fish, Angel fish, Trigger fish, Needle fish, Seahorse, Sea-robin, Sea-urchin, etc.

"Queer frogs, crabs; and some sea turtles are included, especially a Hawk's-bill turtle whose valuable 'tortoise shell' is made into so many beautiful things. The loggerhead, leatherback, and great Galapagos, largest turtle in the world, will, if captured, donate their heads to complete the turtle group.

The Mammal Group.

"For the 'mammal Group' there are in the cat family carnivora the spotted Jaguar; black Panther; fulvous [illegible]gar; stripped Ocelot; grey-black Jaguarondi; [illegible] cat; and [illegible] cat. The largest of this group will be the powerful Jaguar conspicuous in his flaring rosettes of yellow and black. He is the 'King of Beasts' in the Central and South American jungles, and like his Asiatic brother, the Snow Leopard of the Himalayas, he kills cloven-footed animals much larger than himself, then feasts on the most tender parts of their flesh. Tapir, deer, and domestic stock, are his smartest victims when stalking for a big kill.

The Rodent Group.

"The 'rodent group' will be enlarged with such small mammals as the raccoon-like Conti; bushy-tailed Chickaree; water Opossum; nine-banded Armadillo; beaver-like Coypu; herbivorous Kinkajou; Cavy

Twenty Five Killed By Tornado In Texas Y'day.

TULSA, Okla., Nov. 4. (By the Associated Press.)—It is reported that at least twenty-five persons were killed and many injured in a tornado which swept Drumwight early this evening. The tornado was followed by a terrific rainstorm.

IRISH PACT TO GET A FAIR TRIAL

Bonar Law In Speech At Leeds Asserts That Root of Britain's Foreign Policy Will Be Co-operation With France and Italy—Square Deal For Irish

LONDON, Nov. 4. (By the Associated Press.)—The week's campaigning closed with a brilliant country-wide burst of oratory. Bonar Law gave an address at Leeds and Lloyd George at London. The new Premier reiterated that the Irish treaty would be given a fair trial and that the root of Britain's foreign policy would be co-operation with France and Italy. Lloyd George stressed the necessity for a middle ground policy.

Will Encounter No Opposition

LONDON, Nov. 4. (By the Associated Press.—Fifty-seven parliamentary candidates, including Lloyd George will be returned unopposed. Of these, thirty-two are conservatives, ten are Ulster unionists, five liberals, five national liberals, four laborites and one nationalist.

RAIN FRIDAY FAILED TO PREVENT RACES BEING HELD

Panama Jockey Club Complies With Avowed Intention of Holding Races Rain or Shine Though Afternoon Rain Converted Track Into Sea of Mud

Despite the heavy rain which fell Friday and which provided ample excuse for calling the races off, the Panama Jockey Club went right ahead and fulfilled its program, thus complying with its avowed intention to hold the races announced, rain or shine.

During the morning just enough rain fell to make the track right for any kind of a race, but at about half past one there was a devastating downpour that made the track a sea of mud.

There were some glorious finishes but it cannot be said that the favorites romped home with the money.

Nothing much will be said in this column about the technical features of the session since they are treated at length in another part of this paper, but it must be recorded that the public was not thoroughly sat-

NOV. 3 OBSERVED IN U. S. AND GERMANY

Minister Alfaro Holds Reception In Washington and Minister Arias Tenders Banquet In Berlin—Harding Sends Congratulations

WASHINGTON (Nov. 3. (By the Associated Press.)—The National Anniversary of Panama was observed in Washington today. Panaman Minister Alfaro received the congratulations of the diplomatic corps and officials of the State Department and the flag of Panama was hoisted at the Pan-American Union. This afternoon Minister Alfaro held a reception at the Legation which was attended by under-Secretary of State Phillips, Mr. White chief of the Latin American Division of the State Department, Director General Rowe of the Pan-American Union and virtually all Latin American diplomats in the city.

Harding's Congratulations

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3. (By the Associated Press.) President Harding today cabled cordial felicitations to President Porras on the anniversary of Panama's independence. [illegible] pleasure in extending to your Excellency cordial felicitations on the anniversary of the independence of Panama and assurances of this Government's best wishes for the continued prosperity of your country. I beg of your Excellency also

BENZ SEEKS NEW TRIAL IN ANCON AGAINST ANDRES

Motion For New Hearing Asserts Recent Verdict "Contrary To and Subversive To Law of Canal Zone"—Question Now Under Advisement

The motion for a new trial in the damage action of Louis A. Benz, policeman, against Henry A. Andres, Captain in the U. S. Army, stationed at Ft. Clayton, was heard yesterday morning at Ancon.

This action grew out of the collision between the policeman's motorcycle and the Captain's automobile at Ft. Clayton, in which smash-up the policeman was severely injured about his right leg, and he sued for $10,000. The jury found both to have been negligent and would allow nothing. Attorney Porter on behalf of the police officer argued for a new trial on the ground that the verdict was contrary to and unsupported by the evidence and the weight of the evidence, and that it was not the unanimous verdict of the twelve jurors.

On the question of the application of the law which does not allow a plaintiff to recover where there is contributory negligence, or where both parties are negligent, the motion alleges:

Contrary to C. Z. Law.

"Said verdict is contrary to and subversive of the law of the Canal Zone, in that neither the common law, nor any rule thereof, is applicable in the Canal Zone, and no law or rule of law of the United States is applicable to the Canal Zone, unless specifically made to apply in the Canal Zone, and the only pertinent law of the United States applicable in the Canal Zone specifically provides that contributory negligence shall not bar a recovery for personal injury, but that the damages therefor shall be diminished by the jury, and the only pertinent law of the Canal Zone

RELEASE OF MORE SHIPS SEIZED BY "DRY" NAVY IS FORECASTED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4. By the Associated Press).—The release of additional foreign vessels held by customs officials after seizure by the prohibition navy, was forecasted today at the Treasury Department. The officials indicated that preliminary inquiry had failed in some cases to develop sufficient evidence to warrant the seizure. The ships affected are understood to have been seized outside the three mile limit.

ITALY'S UNKNOWN DEAD HONORED BY KING

Ceremonies Made More Touching By Premier Mussolini's Sense of Imagination and Fervid Patriotism—Premier Greets Italians Abroad

ROME, Nov. 4. By the Associated Press.)—[illegible] thousand bells throughout Italy pealed a song of jubilation when King Victor Emmanuel, first then Premier Mussolini, members of the Government and the entire people reverently knelt down before the tomb of the unknown soldier, in the celebration today of the fourth anniversary of Italy's victory in the world war. The ceremony was preceded by a mass and thanksgiving by Monsignor Giovanelli in the inspiring Church of Santa Maria de Gl'angeli, which the genius of Michael Angelo created from the ruins of ancient Rome.

For the first time the celebration of the victory was publicly and officially held, and was made more touching by Premier Mussolini's sense of imagination and fervid patriotism.

BURGLAR WHO RAIDED BLACKBURN HOME NOW IN TOILS

James Eastwick, Barbadian, Caught By Plainclothes Man While Trying To Dispose of Clothing Stolen From Magistrate's Residence

James Eastwick, Barbadian, is held in jail at Balboa in default of $1,000 bond and must stand trial before Judge Wallingford in the Ancon District Court on a charge of first degree burglary.

Eastwick is charged with having broken into the house of Judge J. W. Blackburn at Balboa Heights, and stealing several articles of wearing apparel. To enter the Judge's home the burglar cut a hole in the screen in the rear of the house.

Eastwick was arraigned before Magistrate Blackburn at Balboa yesterday and bound over to the District Court.

Plain clothes officer Temistocles Rivera of the Canal Zone police force arrested Eastwick while he was trying to sell a pair of pants and two shirts stolen from Judge Blackburn.

The rest of the stolen articles have not yet been recovered but the Canal Zone police are working on the case and expect to recover them shortly.

GERMANY ASKS REPARATIONS COMMISSION TO PERMIT HER TO FLOAT 500,000,000 LOAN

Loan Would Be For Purpose of Stabilizing Mark—Surprise Is Expressed At Continued Fall of Mark Despite Negotiations Now Underway Between Germans and Allied Representatives—Germany Presents Memorandum Today Requesting Suspension of All Gold Payments For At Least Two Years and Limit Coal Deliveries

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—The German delegates today submitted to the Reparations Commission, Germany's proposals for the stabilization of the mark and the floating debt. Surprise was expressed at the continued fall of the mark despite these negotiations and the Bourse was so overwhelmed with buying orders that the brokers were obliged to close their offices. Prices again soared later in the day, most of the buying was done on foreign accounts.

Wants Half Billion Loan.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—A Central News' dispatch from Berlin says that the German Cabinet has asked the Re[illegible] 000,000 gold marks, for the purpose of stabilizing the mark.

To Submit Demands.

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press.)—The German Government on this Sunday will deliver to M. Barthou, president of the Reparations Commission, a memorandum containing demands for such amelioration of the reparations obligations as it deems necessary to accomplish a complete reorganization of Germany's finances. The memorandum it is understood, will request exemption from all gold reparations payments for at least two years and restrictions in the deliveries of goods in kind to the requirements for building the devastated regions. The Government also desires to limit the present coal deliveries to sufficient quantities for off-setting the shortage of prewar production in northern France. The Reparations Commission will also be asked to negotiate a foreign loan of 500,000,000 gold marks for balancing the budget and proposes to finance the deliveries of goods by an internal loan.

R. R. EXCEPTIONS TO M'GRATH DAMAGE SUIT UPHELD

Action Was Not Brought Within Time Allowed By Law Defense Council Claims—Case Ended Unless Plaintiff Appeals

In the action of Anna R. McGrath versus the Panama Railroad Co. for damages, the exceptions filed by Walter F. Van Dame on behalf of the Railroad to the amended complaint were sustained yesterday by Judge Wallingford, and unless an appeal is taken therefrom by De Tolrán, counsel for plaintiff, the case is thereby terminated. The exceptions were to the effect that the action was not brought within the time allowed by law.

Miss McGrath is a resident of New Jersey, and was visiting her brother James T. McGrath, of the Dredging Division, during the year 1920. She returned by one of the P. R. R. boats about June of that year, and between Cristobal and Hayti, while sitting on deck in her steamer chair, was hit by a wave and knocked out of the chair on the deck, and from which she suffered severe injuries, according to her complaint, and was laid up for some time. She charged negligence on the part of the company and brought action for $25,000 damages. The company disclaimed all responsibility, and charged that the plaintiff herself was negligent.

THE AMERICAN LIPSTICK.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Lipstick exports from the United States are increasing because of the new freedom enjoyed by Turkish women, who formerly were harem inmates, declares Trade Commissioner Gillespie.

GOVERNOR MORROW'S PRIVATE SECRETARY RETURNS TO ISTHMUS

Governor, Mrs. Morrow and Daughter Scheduled To Have Sailed Last Thursday But To Date Balboa Heights Is Without Official Advices Regarding This

M. B. Stevens, Private secretary to Governor Jay J. Morrow, who went to the United States with the Governor to appear before the Director of the Budget and present Panama Canal estimates for the forthcoming year, has returned to the Isthmus.

Governor Morrow is supposed to have left New York Thursday on the Grace Line steamer, in which case he should reach the Isthmus today.

However, officials at Balboa Heights yesterday were without any [illegible] from Governor Morrow [illegible] ascertain whether or not [he w]ill arrive today as [illegible] he is on the boat.

DISSATISFACTION FEATURES CLOSING SESSIONS OF LABOR CONFERENCE.

GENEVA, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press).—The International Labor conference closed this evening in a general disharmony. Mr. Ferreira the Portuguese delegate, protested against Portugal not being placed on any commission, notably on the immigration, and Mr. Branco, of Brazil, supported his contention. Chairman Barnhum said that the sessions were less than those of previous years, but helpful and expressed the hope that at next year's Pan-American conference in Chile, both the League of Nations and the Labor Bureau would be well represented and receive fair and equitable treatment.

GERMANS QUIT CONFERENCE.

GENEVA, Nov. 4.—(By the Associated Press).—The German representatives left the International Labor conference here this afternoon, owing to differences concerning the use of the German language.

It was the largest excursion from the Pacific end in recent times. The program was carefully planned and carried out in perfect order and without a hitch.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

A CORRECTION.

La Boca, C. Z. November 3rd, 1922.

Star and Herald, Ancon, C. Z.

Dear Sir:—Please publish the following in the columns of your widely read journal in order to correct the impression made against my reputation:

Under the heading "Officials' Servants Fight Over Authority" there appeared on the front page of your issue of yesterday an article showing that the undersigned and Mrs. Federica Atherley, who works for the Governor of the Panama Canal, were fined $2.50 for disturbance ... were state that Mrs. Federica ... not work for the ... Panama Canal, and also that the fight was not for authority, but that the undersigned had brought a charge against the said Federica Atherley for using abusive language to her and that she alone had been fined $2.50 by Judge Blackburn.

Respectfully,

TERELLA JENKINS.

LONDON MAN'S WILL RAPS WIFE'S IDEAS OF MONEY

LONDON, Nov. 4. In the will of a Welsh shopkeeper, the latter directs, in making provision for his wife, that the benefit to her shall be doled out to her in sums of five to ten shillings at a time, as his trustees may see fit.

"I have always found through my married life that she has no value of money, or can she keep it when she gets it," the will reads.

BOCAS DEL TORO NEWS NOTES

BOCAS DEL TORO, Oct. 30. In the formation stage among thoughtful Panamanians in this community, is a limited banana company to operate in the Big Lagoon of this Province. The project is based on 5,000 shares at $2.50 gold per share and will be managed by a directorate consisting of a president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer to which positions the most prominent citizens and ablest brains of the locality will be selected. It is the intention to sell the fruit to a concern already in the business, the big corporation which has been operating here since twenty years ago preferred. The correspondent learns that accordingly, a letter on the subject has been addressed to the management of the United Fruit Company and the reply awaited with much interest.

Farewell For Espinel

Sunday night, 29th inst., was the auspicious occasion of a farewell banquet to ... Luis Espinel ex-chief clerk of the U. F. Co's accounting department at Almirante and Costa Rican Consul here, who is going to Cuba to fill a higher post after twelve years faithful service in this division. The spread was laid in the mess room on South Avenue in this town and thirty persons sat around the replenished festal board. Several toasts were given and the beautiful expressions evidenced the warm appreciation and high estimation of his friends and colleagues towards "Don Luis," their commingled joy at his well merited promotion, and their kindliest wish for his continued success in the land to which he goes. There was, however, a touch of regret on having to part with one

HANDSHAKING.

Handshaking on any and all occasions is one of the kindly customs of Latin-America that is quickly acquired by Americans of any considerable residence south of the Mexican border. Of course, they never acquire the grace of the Latins, but they become so well trained that they perform the rite almost naturally. In fact it becomes so much a habit with them that it often becomes embarrassing when on vacations in the States they insist on shaking hands with people more accustomed to keeping their hands in their pockets we won't say on their pocket-books.

Now according to the Times-Picayune a group of doctors in the eastern part of the United States, where manners are distant and formal, have taken up the cudgel against hand-shaking.

Professional opinion in this charmed circle is that the practice is insanitary, that it spreads germs and causes many of those who indulge to suffer from nervous disorders. It has been suggested that a substitute be found for this popular form of greeting and in view of the dangers of the handshake as enumerated by its critics, perhaps this should be done.

However, we do not take to Mrs. Enoch Rauh's suggestion that instead of shaking each other's hands we shake our own after the manner of ancient Orientals. That would only improve the comedy. Nor do we endorse a certain physician's idea to salute like a soldier. That would be too formal and stiff. We are slightly better impressed with the suggestion that we carry wax hands for the purpose or else step on each other's toes solemnly or gleefully, according to the spirit of the occasion. But even these last-mentioned plans lack much of being entirely satisfactory.

Two methods of greeting are recalled that might win the "okeh" of the anti-handshakers. One is that of the Andaman Islanders and the other was practiced by certain Indians on the Mexican Gulf. The Andamanese, we are told, blow into each other's hands with a "cooing" sound, while the Mexican Indians blow into each other's ears. Either plan should be acceptable, although for the sake of variety it would be well to adopt both. Gargling a solution of carbolic acid before each greeting likely would be an advisable precaution. The gargling could be made an impressive part of the ceremony. There were tribes of North American Indians who greeted their friends by patting them on the shoulders and hitting them in the stomach, but that was about as idiotic and menacing to health as shaking hands.

Handshaking is an expression of friendliness and courtesy and it must be genuine and without fear or suspicion of infection or all of the charm is lost. A crusade has also been started in the States against kissing, but it has never gone very far. The politicians will never give up their right to grasp the gullible ones by their right hands to squeeze out a vote or two, hence it is not likely that there will be a law placing handshaking on the "verboten" list in the U. S. A.

More Summer Shows In New York.

(By J. B. M.)

A moving picture for a change! We followed the crowd in to see "Nero" and watch him for some time wallowing in his wickedness, for in this screen drama he had no more virtue than had the Turks among the Armenian maidens in that propaganda picture once shown in the Canal Zone Clubhouses. These rulers of old and William Hohenzollern were hard ones, we'll say. In the Old Testament, it required the Hand of the Lord to knock 'em cold; today, miracles having ceased, the Allies were necessary to suppress the [illegible] of divine right.

But what is the psychology of a [illegible], this following [illegible] of [illegible] have? The house was jammed at Broadway prices to see "Nero." Is it because angels wings do not [illegible] Don Juan [illegible] today; Cleopatra the mother of all vampires, is immortal. The [illegible] "Faust" is the devil, and so is he of Milton's "Paradise Lost." Does a single spectator have a thought for Micaela the maiden when Carmen the strumpet [illegible] in Bizet's red-blooded opera? Who wants to give to [illegible] his watch, his gold [illegible] his all, once she [illegible] from siren to saint? ..... We've started something. Let the [illegible] for the propagation of [illegible].

It was a hot night that we saw A. A. Milne's Comedy "The Dover Road" which had run through all the dog days, a night so full of [illegible] at [illegible] the [illegible] of Panama which we had [illegible] ungratefully forgotten, and vivid [illegible] when [illegible] mosquitoes and flies made their [illegible] appearance. But discomfiture combined could not prevent us from enjoying the brilliant epigrams, the irony, the humor, and the situations. For once the play was the thing. We'll go to see it again if there's a chance.

"Dover Road" is not only a play of sentiment. It is a play of disillusionment. When the eloping lovers on their way to the continent unwittingly are stopped for a few days at a house on the Dover Road they begin to see themselves as others see them. They soon get tired of each other. One lover catches cold and sneezes like [illegible] whereupon his atom [illegible] declares that she had never before heard him sneeze; and they go their ways..... Another lover, who is named by a magazine as one of the reasons "why young girls leave home on Saturday afternoons," becomes so fondled and petted by his sweetheart it was her custom, too, to read for one when sick "The Decline and Fall of the Roman Empire," not sparing even the footnotes that he bolts [illegible] with the precipitate haste of Bernard Shaw's Superman..... a disenchantment!

"The National Institution Glorifying the American Girl." That is the advertisement for the Ziegfeld Follies which we attended at the New Amsterdam. It was enjoyable too, with the exception of Gallagher, Shean and Will Rogers, their comedy work being misplaced here and belonging closely to vaudeville along with the trained animals and other roughnecks. Joseph Urban, who painted the scenes, and Victor Herbert, who composed most of the music, know their business and know how to please. We were much taken with "The Frolicking Gods," a ballet composed and directed by Michel Fokin after the manner of Pavlova. This was a thing of beauty to the eye and a [illegible] to the ear, for the music was Tchaikowsky's. There is a legend that the marble statuary alone in the museums at night, and tired of their eternal position and come down from their perches to join in the dance. That's what these did. Among the notables shaking wicked legs we noted Venus of Milo, now whole again, her arms restored; Apollo Belvidere and Hercules; some fauns and satyrs and bacchantes; and some caryatides who did not hesitate to forsake the walls they were supporting to join the truants. We enjoyed the steps so much we were rather sorry when the keeper of the museum came in and all the marbles scampered wildly back to their places. But it was a relief to see the caryatides under those walls again.

Where did all these girls of such surpassing pulchritude come from, we wonder? We sat in the tired working man's row at this Ziegfeld show to get a close up of this feminine beauty. Does polygamy repose in the hearts of all? Yes, now we believe in polygamy. And always we have had sympathy for the Turks. And always Salt Lake City has had its lure.

To Advertise Panama

Arturo Prado, a prominent Latin American journalist, is at present sojourning on the Isthmus as the representative of the publishing company, Ibero America, at present engaged in carrying out a publicity campaign abroad in favor of the nations of Latin America.

The Panamanian government [illegible] in this publicity campaign and has taken a few pages in the interesting book which will be published on [illegible] expects soon to have all its "copy" in the hands of the publishers.

The aim of the publishers is to place before the foreign nations official sources of information regarding Latin America to attract foreign capital to these countries through an exposition of the natural riches which abound in these territories, especially as regards agriculture, mining, etc., which at present are practically intact because so little is known about them in the outside world; to attract the visit of tourists and indicate to them the facilities available to travel through these countries and the attractions they contain and to [illegible] commercial [illegible] of the inhabitants actively engaged in the Republic to facilitate the obtainance of information necessary for the smooth running of their business with foreign firms.

The interested governments will select their own propaganda material preferable that dealing with the natural riches of the country and will explain what they expect from foreign capitalists whose coming is desired and for this purpose will also include the most important laws dealing with the protection of the rights of foreigners, the principal articles of the Constitution and anything else which with one indication would serve as propaganda [illegible] in Europe.

It is understood that the National government is nearing the completion of its "copy" which will soon be turned over to the publishers representative here.

Mr. Prado will take advantage of the few days he will spend in the city to finish the gathering of data with regard to local commerce.

SHRINE'S CEREMONIAL HELD NOVEMBER 3 DESPITE RAIN

Affair At Mosque Declared Snappiest on Record By Old-Timers. Rain Failed To Stop Parade From Masonic Temple To Mosque

Despite the rain which somewhat delayed proceedings, Friday Shrine ceremonial at Abou Saad Temple's Mosque on Ancon Hill was the snappiest in the history of the local Shrine, according to many of the oldest Shriners.

Yesterday about sixty more men proudly wore the Shrine's insignia in their coat lapels for the first time, while on their faces they wore the expression of satisfaction and joy which always follows the lecture "for the good of their souls."

Paraded Despite Rain.

Rain did not prevent the parade and shortly after the hour set for its commencement, the long march from the Ancon Masonic hall to the Mosque began.

The special train from Cristobal brought over all the Atlantic side Nobles and the novices as well as the Atlantic Patrol. The Pacific Patrol and the wrecking crew were out in full force too.

Illustrious Potentate William F. Foster yesterday expressed his satisfaction with the way the parade and ceremonial were carried out.

Lunch was served at the Mosque after the work of initiating the candidates was completed.

WHAT'S DOING ON THE ATLANTIC SIDE

Governor Arosemena's Message On Panama's Independence Day.

Don J. D. Arosemena, Governor of Colon, at the request of the Star and Herald gave the following inspiring message on the occasion of the 19th anniversary of the independence of the Republic:

"The independence of Panama is, because of its consequences the most important event on the American Continent during the present century. The Panamanian people, re-assuming their independence, made possible the realization of one of humanity's secular dreams: the union of the two great oceans, first thought of by a visionary Spaniard of the dark days of Charles V and carried out in the days of liberty and progress by the genius of Roosevelt as the legitimate representative of a great nation.

"The glorious and bloodless movement of November 3, did not signify only the redemption of an oppressed and exploited people but was also a great stride in Universal progress. Therefore, the World has consecrated with its approval the noble action of the Isthmians and History will pay a worthy tribute of admiration and respect to the authors of that transcendental transformation."

ATLANTIC SIDE PARS

CRISTOBAL, Nov. 4.—Mr. A. H. Kingsbury is delighted with the response over the Thanksgiving Day visit to the Darien Indian country, and said today that already a great many of the reservations on the Augusta Victoria had been taken. The vessel will leave the Marina landing in Panama City on the evening of November 29 and will not return until the evening of December 3, in time for the 6 o'clock train for the Atlantic side.

Mr. Kingsbury, who planned the successful trips to the San Blas country last year, said that it was planned to go to the Chucunaque River as far as the boat would take them, and this means the country where the extra wild Indians live and which has been visited by very few white people.

It looks like one of the most interesting visits to the interior of the Republic which has ever been planned, and Mr. Kingsbury and Mr. Scott are certainly the men to run it to the satisfaction of all.

Mr. William Ewing, British Consul to Colon, has received word from the Foreign Office of his transfer to Germany, and expects to leave the Isthmus within the next few weeks.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Ewing will be very much missed, and the British colony in particular will be sorry to know that Mr. Ewing is to be transferred for few members of the consular service of Great Britain have been more liked than he.

The November number of the Pulse of Panama will make its appearance on Armistice Day and is to be an American Legion number.

Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Endres upon the arrival of a bonny baby girl, who is to be called Dorothy Deborah. Inquiries at the Colon hospital today found that Mrs. Endres and little Dorothy were doing fine.

Judge Wallingford and a party of friends will spend Sunday in Colon harbor on a day's fishing trip. Those making the party will include J. A. Mitchell, F. A. Howard, W. A. Stevenson and Frank Wang. The trip is to be made on the Polaris which flies the flag of Panama.

The only Scots' flag flying on the Isthmus yesterday in honor of Independence Day was flying from the Hotel Astor in Colon.

Mr. Fleming had it specially sent from Glasgow and it was selected by Mrs. Hugh McCrindell of Colon.

The handball tournament will commence on Tuesday with games at the playshed at New Cristobal. It will be an open handicap with medals for the winners and is being arranged by Mr. Homer Baker.

The many friends of Dr. Vergne Crosbie will be glad to hear that he is back again at his surgery on Market street, after undergoing an operation for appendicitis at the Panama hospital. Dr. Crosbie speaks very highly of Dr. Herrick's treatment.

Thomas Meighan in "A Prince There Was," a seven reel Paramount picture, will be the attraction at the America theatre this Sunday evening.

"The Branding Iron," a Goldwyn picture, is coming to the America on Wednesday and Thursday.

General Snow, chief of the U. S. Field Artillery, was an arrival from New York on yesterday's transport on a visit of inspection to the Panama Canal Department.

Another passenger was Colonel Oury, commanding the 14th Infantry at Fort Davis, back from leave of absence in the States.

Colonel J. C. Gilmore, Jr., the new coast defense commander for the Atlantic side, arrived on yesterday's transport.

Colonel Gilmore comes to the Isthmus from Camp Eustis, Virginia and is interchanging with Colonel H. E. Cloke, the former Coast Defense Commander at De Lesseps.

Don Juan Rodriquez, leader of the Colon Bomberos band has every reason to be proud of the showing which his band made for the Independence Day festivities. It is hoped that at an early date this band will give a Sunday evening program in the Colon Plaza.

On Thursday evening a most enjoyable dance was given at the Olintidas Club, Colon, in honor of the national holiday, and President G. A. Goravya was the host to a great many visitors.

FLAPPER CRAZE BASIS OF NEW UNIVERSAL FEATURE AT STRAND TODAY.

"We are flappers today and flappers we'll stay, and there breathes not the man who shall dare say us nay." Thus goes part of the war chant of the modern girl aimed at the stiff and starched reformers who are trying to stamp out our most beloved type of femininity.

The stuff of which the modern girl is made is plainly illustrated in the Universal attraction, "The Married Flapper," starring Marie Prevost at the Strand Theatre today. Miss Prevost is ideally fitted for the flapper role to materially aid the "cause" of the sweet things of sixteen.

Lives are held in the balance from Pamela Billings' tiny kitchenette to the motor speedway where she wins a thrilling victory in the greatest classic of the year.

The story is from the pen of Bernard Hyman; Stuart Paton, who directed Marie Prevost in many of her past successes, was the director.

Included in the cast are Kenneth Harlan, Philo McCullough, Frank Kingsley, Kathleen O'Connor, Lucille Rickson, Tom McGuire, Hazel Keener, Martha Mattox, Burr on Wilson and William Quinn.

E. V. TROTT AT TABOGA.

COLON, Nov. 4.—E. V. Trott of the Royal Cleaners and Dyers, Market Street, has been spending a few days at Taboga indulging in the new sport of kings—shark-fishing. He reports having caught a good-sized specimen.

LANCASTER, O., Nov. 4.—A. L. Winders, farmer, took 100 pounds of honey from a bee tree and placed it in his barn so that some bees that were still in the comb might escape. They did, and returning with their whole swarm, carried every ounce of the honey back to the tree.

Ports of call outward will be Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Panama Canal, Rio de Janeiro, Montevideo and Buenos Aires. The homeward itinerary will include other South and Central American ports as business offers, with particular attention devoted to the coffee trade.

Wilford and McKay, Inc, are Swayne and Hoyt's agents at the Panama Canal.

The Luckenbach Steamship Co. has sold their steamers Mattie Luckenbach and Pleiades to the Spanish-American Steamship Co. They will be transferred to the Spanish flag, re-christened Primero and Segundo, and operated between New York and the Mediterranean. The Pleiades was the first private merchant steamer to pass through the Panama Canal, and it was probably for sentiment in this connection that the Luckenbach Line refrained from following in her case their usual custom of christening their steamers with family names.

Lawyers Disagree

The fires of ancient animosity between two forefront lawyers in this community topped the crater on Monday afternoon, 23rd inst., when Señor Ernesto Escalante C., Panamanian; and Señor José W. Barranco R., Colombian, had a close quarter encounter at Government House, in which umbrella, lantern, a bit of scantling, and a broom stick were used. The affair began in the rooms of the First Circuit Court when, as it is said, Mr. Escalante made an insinuating remark relative to Mr. Barranco in the conducting of a case in which they both are opponents. It is further said that Mr. Barranco rejoined to Mr. Escalante in offensive speech and that the Panamanian then challenged the Colombian to a settlement by combat, the first blow being struck in the passage outside the court room. Judge Navalo intervened and scene one closed. Barranco went off to the Municipal Court and on emerging so says the story, he was met at the top of the staircase of exit from the upper floor by Escalante who again challenged him. They wrestled and they tussled till they fell to the concrete pavement below, and this time the police closed the scene. Both men were bailed in $25 gold each to appear the next morning in the Alcalde's court. Mr. Escalante by Tiburcio Lopez and Mr. Barranco by R. B. Dyett. Before Señor Feliz Tenza P. on Tuesday morning the two rivals were bound over each in the sum of $250 gold to keep the peace for one year, José Santos Justavino, Panamanian, as security for the Panamanian, and Henry H. Hollingsworth, Barbadian, for the Colombian. In addition, Mr. Barranco was ordered to pay $1.50 gold the cost of the lantern smashed to pieces in the fray.

Cutting Affray at Zeglo

At Zeglo on the Changuinola River, a serious wounding affray occurred on Wednesday night, 18th inst. It is stated that at a dance there, Emiliano Sanchez, Panamanian, 28 years old, tripped across José de los Santos Morales, aged 26, and a quarrel ensued. The allegation says that Morales slashed Sanchez across the abdomen with a razor, inflicting a wound twelve inches long. The wounded man is in the Almirante hospital and the other in jail.

Big Things For Xmas

As told abroad, Dr. C. Alfred Vaz is promoting a great Xmas fete to come off in this town on December 24 and 25, as a benefit in aid of the Government hospital. There are many proposed attractions, but the principal features of the forthcoming jollification are horse racing on the Sandfly Bay beach and masquerade dances both days in Bolivar Park. Three committees composed of prominent townsmen are formed to carry the program through with Dr. Vaz as president of the fete, and Mr. W. H. Poston, treasurer.

Benefit Union Re-organized

The Bocas Industrial and Commercial Benefit Union which lapsed over eight years ago at the death of its then president, the late Albert St. Sylvester Brown, is again re-organized. As the result of the interested activity of Henry B. Ogilvie, Panamanian, its first secretary and a shareholder, a meeting of shareholders, in response to an advertisement and circulars, was held in the Union hall on September 15 last, when officers were elected in accordance with the bye-laws of the society. Mr. Ogilvie was returned president unopposed, and Jonathan S. Rankine, who did not attend on the occasion, was unanimously voted secretary, which he accepted on intimation. On October 3, Mr. Ogilvie registered the proceedings of the meeting of September 15 before the first Notary Public in Panama City.

Sued For Assault

This morning Evadino Burney, a Panamanian negress appeared in the Alcalde's court against F. G. Haberman, a white American, for assault and the loss of an earring bought in Managua, Nicaragua, since 1895, the pair valued at $25 gold. Mr. Haberman was fined $5 gold and ordered to pay the cost of the lost earring valued by a local jeweller at $5 gold. The affair occurred at German Point after ten o'clock last night. Mr. Haberman is employed by the U. F. Co. at Almirante.

HERE AND THERE

Independence Day for Panama has again come and gone, and with it one of the most beautiful parties ever given at the Union Club. Who ever has charge of the decorating for these affairs is a genius and never that fact has been more proven than on Friday night. The balconies along the front of the building were draped with flags and bunting and myriads of lights were festooned in graceful ropes of red, white and blue from the very roof giving a brilliant welcome to the hundreds who attended this gorgeous ball. Inside the effect was even more stunning, for the three rows of inverted lights which run the length of the ball room were cleverly covered, one row with red, the other with blue, and the center row with the three colors [illegible] showing in the bottom of the bowls, while all of them had long streamers of paper in the national colors hanging from them. The same lighting arrangement which was used in front of the club prevailed on the [illegible] porches on the rear, which were also filled with ferns and palms. In the banquet hall was a huge round table, holding in the center [illegible] a mass of greenery with [illegible] held on lofty [illegible] scattered throughout. The [illegible] piled high with all kinds of [illegible] and [illegible] with tiny flags and ribbons and above [illegible] the most exquisite chandelier presenting a softly glowing cascade of delicate lined [illegible]. The supper which was served late in the evening was a [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] orchestra and [illegible] playing a [illegible] a wonderful [illegible] gorgeous gowns of the women were alone worth going [illegible] the most interesting part of the whole affair was [illegible] [illegible] of the National Hymn [illegible] National [illegible] being considered by many as second only to the [illegible] when it is interpreted by one of the country's most [illegible] daughters, led by Panama's quisite Queen of the Carnival [illegible].

Mr. Donald Rodgers, who [illegible] on the 9th of the month was the guest of honor at a wonderful dinner given before the ball by Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Arias, at their beautiful home. The whole house was decorated with the National colors, flags and ribbons being used in profusion, and dainty bouquets [illegible] of [illegible] were at the women's places, while corsage bouquets of [illegible] tied with red, white and blue ribbon were given the women. [illegible] serving scarlet [illegible] provided the lights for this delightful [illegible] which was composed of native dishes, all novel and delightful. Mr. and Mrs. Arias had [illegible] Admiral [illegible] [illegible] Mrs. Castellan [illegible] Mrs. Patterson and Mr. [illegible]

Apologies are due M[illegible] Calvo for the omission of the names from the list of the dinner given by the Hon. Constantino [illegible] last Wednesday night.

From the Washington Post comes an interesting article telling of a particularly delightful dinner party given by Mrs. Richmond Day [illegible] of Dr. and Mrs. Alfaro.

Another item which is of peculiar interest to Panama, relating [illegible] to that most popular couple Sir Claude and Lady Mallet, is included here.

Sir Claude Mallet Is Envoy

Sir Claude Mallet, who has been appointed special ambassador of the British Empire to Buenos Aires on the occasion of the inauguration of Argentina's new president, Don Alvear, and who [illegible] to remain there as [illegible] [illegible] a year Envoy and Minister Plenipotentiary, has spent the whole of his official career, which began nearly forty years ago, as Vice Consul at Panama, on this side of the Atlantic. His name is familiar in the United States, for he was not only a witness but [illegible] a friendly factor in the various incidents and negotiations which culminated in the collapse of the De Lesseps Panama Canal concern, the acquisition of its wreckage by the United States, which brought the enterprise to a brilliantly successful issue. This called him frequently to Washington and New York. In fact, he was the British Government's expert authority on everything relative to that great waterway between the Atlantic and the Pacific ocean.

Knows All About Latins

He has been Minister Plenipotentiary at Montevideo, was formerly Chargé d'Affaires at Buenos Aires and now returns thither with increased rank, salary and prestige. He has a very gracious Spanish-American wife, talks Spanish with the soft South American accent and what he does not know about the Latin portion of the western hemisphere is not worth knowing. It is not often that a young vice-consul assigned to what in 1884 was justly regarded as one of the most pestilential seaports of the New World rises to the rank of special ambassador, and every one who knows Sir Claude Mallet will be glad to hear of his most recent promotion.

ANCON AND BALBOA

At the Balboa Heights Baptist Church this morning Rev. Roberts will speak on the subject "The Quest of the Wise Men." Dr. McGillvray will play a trumpet solo and Mrs. Barton will sing.

In the evening Rev. Roberts will feature a story sermon, "The S[illegible] of the Fathers, and the Issues of Life." Mesdames Phillips, Humphrey and Barton will sing and Mrs. Phillips will sing the offertory.

Among the many recent happy events on the social calendar was a beautiful party given by Mr. W[illegible] [illegible] Craig, of Ancon, in honor of his youngest daughter Margaret on Friday, which by chance [illegible] upon Panama's Independence Day, Nov. 3rd.

Most beautiful invitations were sent to Margaret's many friends which are not confined to children alone, for Margaret is a general favorite and her party list included many of mature years. The house was attractively decorated by Miss Julia Margaret's sister, and the young Misses Ayers, who also spent an enjoyable morning hanging festoons from the walls, chandeliers, and arranging flowers. Lovely vases of roses were the center pieces used for the tables and [illegible] was gracefully [illegible] about, here and there upon the snowy linen. The usual donkey was burdened with [illegible] anywhere and everywhere, except in just the right place. How Bell Clark was very clever [illegible] made the small animal look better by nearly locating the natural place, thus balancing the tail [illegible] hung from its mouth, making the poor beast look quite embarrassed. The prize was a pound jar of candy. Punch was served throughout the party. Dancing by victrola music gave high light to the occasion. The girls were dressed in dainty frocks of many hues, made a pretty ensemble. Much fun was caused by trying to blow out all the candles on the birthday cake at one breath. The tables were arranged on the long porches. The popping of snappers was the [illegible] of course, then the children and older ones enjoyed [illegible] nuts, Neapolitan ice cream, delicious cakes and when all [illegible] justice to this feast of go[illegible] Mr. Craig appeared with a mass of fire crackers and fancy fireworks and a lively time was enjoyed on the lawn and about the street, making cheers and making noise for another half hour. Then the youngest ones and some of the older ones bade Margaret good night, wishing her many happy returns. An invitation was extended for those who wished to stay on for supper and dance, so in honor of Julia the intermediates enjoyed a lovely evening tripping the light fantastic.

Margaret received many lovely gifts, even bachelor friends sending her pretty remembrances. This little lady has grown up on the Isthmus and is known as a dear little friend to everybody. Those enjoying her party were: Mr. and Mrs. Ayers and Zona, Margaret, Frances, Elinor and Grace Ayers, Margaret Montgomery, Betty Montgomery, Ida Ruth Hammer, Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. Clark, Miss Wilson, Mrs. [illegible] Shigley, Virginia and Winifred Ewing, Dorothy and Lillian Day, Stella and Peggy Price, Marjory A. Tone, Adella Willett, Ann Olson, R[illegible] Porras, [illegible] Willett, Douglas and Andrew Johnson, John Lamb, Jack and Bob Chelf, John Olson, Joe McKay, John and Joe Byrnes, Charlie Polaco, Urbano Vengoechea, Elias Anastacio, and the little hostess Margaret, and her sister Julia and father Mr. Craig.

Capt. and Mrs. D. L. Robertson, of Ancon Hospital, entertained a few friends with a bridge supper Monday evening. The quarters were tastily decorated with autumn foliage and yellow asters, giving a glowing effect. The tables were attractive with ferns and gold [illegible], with place cards to correspond with a black cat for good luck.

A delicious menu was served.

Three lovely linen handkerchiefs were won by Mrs. Brooks [illegible] Mars[illegible] [illegible] received a white belt, gents' prize, the consolation [illegible] won by Mrs. Holmes. The guests included Capt. and Mrs. Anderson, Capt. and Mrs. Brooks and Miss [illegible], Major and Mrs. Holmes, [illegible] M[illegible], Capt. Bryant, Capt. [illegible] and James Perry. Capt. and Mrs. Robertson are most charming [illegible] and the evening was delightfully spent.

He was at home reading when word came that he was to go to sea to make his next picture. Dustin flung his book into the air, dashed out of the room and proceeded to roll about the lawn like a six-year-old boy.

At Cecilia Today

Pierre Landis made the greatest mistake of his career as a Romeo when he allowed the seeds of distrust to enter his mind. If he had only stopped to reason it out but Jealousy wreaks unhappiness to action. When Pierre came home after a jaunt on the trail and found that his wife had entertained the district parson, he didn't wait for her to explain that the parson's horse had picked up a pebble and he could go no further. Instead he heated his branding iron and in the height of his rage plunged its ... prongs into his wife's fair, white flesh. "That will show the world who you belong to," he snarled. This amazing incident forms the basis of plot in Goldwyn's feature picture, "The Branding Iron." Around it moves a story of swift action, told amid scenes of wondrous beauty by a cast of genuine artists in which Barbara Castleton stars as Joan Carver. It is a story of big hearts and big deeds with never a let up in the suspense from beginning to end.

"The Branding Iron" will be the stellar attraction at the Cecilia in Panama today, and the movie fan should not forget that if it's at the Cecilia it's the best show in town.

Don't Do It

"Don't Doubt Your Wife," the Associated Exhibitors feature starring beautiful Leah Baird at the America Theatre to-morrow night, is full of good advice for the nearly wed, newly wed, never wed, and forever wed.

For instance, if you love your wife, tell her so. It's one phrase that bears repeating.

Jealously wreaks unhappiness but a little bit of it, tactfully and discreetly displayed, is the spice of romance.

Don't deny your wife the friendship of the man she didn't marry. Deny no woman anything that only makes her want it!

If you doubt your wife, keep it to yourself until you get the facts. If you tell her first, and then get the truth, she will have cause to doubt your love for her.

Don't doubt your wife—it leads to misunderstanding, divorce and after divorce, what?

GOULASH

It occurred to me when I woke up on Saturday morning that I had celebrated the Third of November with excessive enthusiasm. If I am here next year I shall be more conservative.

After the races Mitch and I got mixed up with Tex Cummins from Pedro Miguel. Tex is the village goat. Every time some respectable married man out there strays from the straight and narrow, Tex gets blamed for it. He's just naturally subject to suspicion.

Tex had been doing something mystic and oriental and apparently alcoholic with the Shriners. As Mitch is a Knight of Columbus and I am a member of the Young Men's Hebrew Association, that made us all lodge brothers.

I don't know who suggested the cabarets. I never did it. We only visited two of them, but on top of everything else it was too many.

Jimmy the Greek and his satellites at Kelly's thought it was a whale of a joke because I carried in my felt hat and sat on it instead of giving it up to the [illegible] bandit at the door. I made a [illegible] case when I did not continue to sit on it, for later, when I had sat down on a chair and turned my back for a minute they carried it away to the pound and I had to redeem it on the usual terms. If I wish that down again I am going to be bareheaded.

At the American we were entertained by the Lady from Philadelphia. She is a woman of unusual intelligence, which she demonstrated by deserting us after a brief interval for the Navy.

Mitch made sketches in his notebook of various celebrities whom we encountered during the course of the evening. We are going to use them for purposes of blackmail.

A number of people at Juan Franco and in cabaret society assumed that Mitch was Mitchell Hedges. Out of respect for the reputation of the noted explorer and deep sea fisherman I took pains to correct this error. If you should ever have any difficulty in distinguishing between them, just remember that the sober one is Mitchell-Hedges.

Yes, alcohol is a terrible curse. I realise that now. It is even causing trouble in the Rotary Club. In announcing that the weekly luncheons would be transferred from the Exclu[illegible] to the Central, the committee urged the members to refrain nevertheless from alcoholic stimulants, and that precipitated a row. One member wanted to know whether the Rotary was the hope of the world or a branch of the Boy Scouts, and a majority expressed their intention to take a drink if they felt like it. But it is dangerous nevertheless. Somebody may get soused and tell the truth.

I do not know whether booze had anything to do with the impeachment of President R. S. Brady of the Union Club for malfeasance in office, but it probably has been at the bottom of most Union Club activities.

J. K. B.

THE RACES

It is now a matter of history that [illegible] heavy rain on the morning of November 3rd. It was also raining between one and two o'clock when people thought of starting for Juan Franco, and it rained at intervals throughout the afternoon. Consequently, the track was heavy and the attendance was small compared with what it might have been on a fine day.

The first race started late, but the lost time was made up, and the meet was over by 5.30. Credit for this is due in the main to Bob Martin, clerk of the paddock, who knows how to deal with dilatory jockeys and trainers. Allen's method of starting them also helped main[illegible] the schedule. He gets them away as soon as they reach the barrier and he is not allowing jockeys to maneuver and hang back and deliberately provoke false starts, as was so common at the old track. They are not getting away with that stuff now, and if they fail to bring their horses up to the barrier in reasonable time, they are left at the post, as they ought to be. Friday's record for adherence to the time schedule left little to be desired.

In fact, things are running very smoothly at the track. The Jockey Club is not only bent on doing the right thing, but the management seems active and efficient.

There was only one incident on Friday that made a bad impression. On the old track there was a pony racing under the name of "Memory" that could always be depended on to finish last in any company. There was also a pony named "Boscan," a frequent winner. This "Boscan" was registered with the present Association as "Memory," entered in the first race with "Pegaso" and "Wild Life," and won. When the pony was recognized as "Boscan" there was a good deal of [illegible] case where an owner apparently put something over on the Jockey Club and the public, and no real responsibility attaches to anybody but the individual concerned, but it would be a good idea if whenever a horse that has raced here before is entered under a new name, the old name were printed after it in brackets on the program. Mr. T. G. Duque has always done this in the case of his "Niagara Bisas."

The pari mutuel pool paid unusually well, the prices on the seven races in their order being $4.70, $7.00, $9.10, $6.00, $7.60, $[illegible] and $3.90.

The second race (six furlongs) and the sixth (one mile), both won by Mr. Raul Espinosa's "Cortez" were the most sensational of the day. In the second "Cortez" led all the way, but "Chagres" challenged gamely in the stretch and looked for a few seconds like a winner. In the sixth "Quien Sabe" led to the stretch, when "Cortez" came up from behind and won by a length. In both of these races Mr. de la [illegible] "Chagres" [illegible] riders and [illegible] dissatisfaction with the handicapping. Mr. T. G. Duque's "Niagara" finished third on each occasion.

The inside dope on the cattle pony race went wrong. A man who had ridden all of them picked one as a sure winner, and this particular goat, carrying what should have been the wise money, finished last in a field of eight.

"Capitana" Devotion, a young Jamaican thoroughbred owned by Mr. T. G. Duque and running for the first time on the Isthmus, beat First American. Mr. Espinosa's "Super Gloria" was left at the post.

Joe Williams' "Ace of Trumps" won easily against "Inglaterra," "Merry Morton" and "Morita."

The track was heavy, and no new records were set except for the mile. "Cortez" covered this distance in 2.04, clipping four seconds off his own record of 2.08 on a similar muddy track at the opening meet.

A detailed chart of the meet will be found in the Spanish section.

TRONCOSO AND CAMPBELL WIN AT THE EXCELSIOR

At the Excelsior Theatre last night, Kid Troncoso, fighting for the first time since his return from Peru, clearly outpointed Kid Costa of Fort Clayton in a ten round bout. Costa put up a good fight and took some hefty wallops without weakening, but he was never in the running. Troncoso appears to have graduated definitely into the bantam class. He weighed in at 11[illegible]

In the semi-final, Kid Campbell knocked out Kid Garrido in the second round. If Campbell had gone after Sailor Patchett as savagely as he went for Garrido, he might now be flyweight champion of the Isthmus. But that is another story.

Kid Gifford won a decision over Kid Clarence, but his superiority was not marked.

Young Fitzsimmons and Kid Stanley opened the show with a good four round draw.

BASEBALL TODAY AT BALBOA

The baseball game between the Pacific side civilians and the Corozal team, which was scheduled originally for November 3rd, but postponed on account of rain, will be played this morning at 10.30 o'clock at the Balboa Stadium. Pacific side players are requested to report at 9.30.

The announcement that Mr. Homer Murray was elected manager of the Pacific side team was in error. Mr. Joe Curtis will manage the team.

Winner Will Meet Jim Briggs, Heavyweight Champion of the Isthmus.

SOLOMON MEET BRATHWAITE TODAY

This afternoon at the Colon Athletic Club, Eddy Solomon will appear in the ring for the first time since his return from Peru. For a man who has fought so seldom, Solomon has an unusual reputation. His backers claim that he is a natural fighter and that his career will not be limited to the Isthmus.

His principal achievement to date has been the defeat of Sailor Grande, still a dangerous man although long past his prime. That battle, according to those who saw it, proved that Solomon could hit and that he could take punishment. His opponent this afternoon, Fitz Brathwaite, will test his ability. Fitz is a tough nut. He lasted ten rounds against Jim Briggs two months ago, and he recently knocked out Soldier Read, who appeared to be a very promising light heavyweight.

The winner of this fight will, sooner or later, be matched with Jim Briggs, and probably with Italian Joe Gans.

Soldier Gallagher and Soldier Barton are matched in the semi-final, and Soldier Humphrey and Soldier Meyers in the preliminary.

The fight starts at 2:30.

The two Chilean thoroughbred mares SONRISA and RAMBALINA are offered for sale by their owner, CARLOS DE LA CERDA.

For particulars apply to owner at Quintero Farm, near Race Track.

LETTERS TO THE SPORTING EDITOR

Sporting Editor, Star and Herald:

Dear Sir,—Will you kindly publish in your worthy paper that I Kid Kelly, thank my loyal friends and above all my buddies from Fort Amador who backed me in the last bout with Young Carpentier, for the bantamweight title.

My dear editor, as you understand when a boxer loses he produces an alibi. I am not trying to produce an alibi, but on the other hand, the promoters and my opponent knows that I entered the ring with a sprained ligament of the right hand, to verify my statements in my possession I have a doctor's certificate to prove that I am not trying to misrepresent my last statement regarding my hand which was broken in the second round. Rather not to disappoint my friends, I went through with the match.

My many friends who have seen this last bout thought the very worst I should have had was a draw. Therefore, Mr. Editor, through your worthy paper, I challenge Young Carpentier for a return match to satisfy my friends and my loyal buddies with a referee who is impartial.

Thanking you with your kind efforts in publishing this letter, I am

Yours for fa rplay,

KID KELLY.

Cow Ponies' Race Interesting.

Perhaps the most interesting race of the season was that of the Red Cross cow ponies; in this race there was practically no choice though one American who claimed that he had ridden all of the horses entered picked a loser. In the first race McLean on Delfin pulled home when he started his mount under the whip.

As has been mentioned the weather was bad, nevertheless all of the directors and officers excepting those who are absent from the Isthmus were present. Among those noted were Raul Espinosa, T. G. Duque, Enrique de la Guardia, V. A. de Obarrio, Mr. Allen, A. A. Duque, Bob Martin, Ernesto de la Guardia and Eric Barham.

Rudolfo Bermudez, the judge of the track, was relieved and during his absence J. T. Lovell acted in that capacity. Edward Chiari was the presiding officer of the stewards who were present. Fred. Jewl, Capt. John Redman, Theo. McGinnis, H. T. Boone, R. K. Morris and J. P. Pereira.

In the boxes and stand the following well known people were seen: Mr. and Mrs. A. Villegas, Mr. and Mrs. Edwards, Capt. Clifford Payne and party, Dr. Valiarino and wife, Miss H. T. Valiarino, Dr. Dodson, Mr. Sala, Mrs. Blank, Deputy Chief, Deputy Arias, Mrs. Fowler, Mr. Birkely and party, Comdr. Valentine, Mrs. Davis, Carlos de la Paz and party, Carlos Klein and son, Pinto, the Fresse family, Mrs. Mrs. Maldonado, the Espinosa family, Francis Nelson, Dr. Pasquel, Carlos Lopez Duque Arjona, E. de la Guardia, Mr. Del Valle and Dr. Grant.

Banquet in Berlin.

BERLIN, Nov. 4. (By the Associated Press.) Panama's desire for immigrants and foreign capital in furthering the development of her natural resources was emphasized by Minister Tomas Arias at a banquet tendered to an illustrious gathering of diplomats, members of the government and commerce association, on the occasion of the celebration of Panama's independence anniversary. United States Ambassador Houghton attended as well as other diplomats including the representatives of Brazil, Chile, Mexico, Japan, China, Austria, Hungary, Germany and members of the Panamanian colony in Berlin.

BLOSSOM TIME AND SALLY SALLEY WIN PIMLICO FUTURITY

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4. (By the Associated Press.) Blossom Time and Sally Salley won in the second Pimlico Futurity which was run in two divisions this afternoon, owing to the numerous entries. Borges morning in an attempt to cross the and Little Cell came in second and third behind Blossom Time, while Martingale and Mycon finished in the money behind Sally Salley. The distance was one mile. Both winners will split the purse which is believed to be the richest ever offered for a horse race.

Some things to remember about Goodyear Carriage Rubber

In the early days of the vehicle industry, Goodyear's famous Carriage Rubber—its first product—met with immediate success and achieved an overwhelming popularity.

Later, Goodyear successfully developed a much lighter, but more durable and resilient rubber that revolutionized all methods of carriage tire manufacture.

This and other improvements, firmly established Goodyear as a foremost builder of Good Carriage Rubber for leading carriage manufacturers.

Thoughtful repairmen, too, prefer Goodyear Carriage Rubber for its high quality, its long wear and the fact that its light weight makes it cost less to use.

Owners of horse-drawn vehicles expect and deserve the comfort that Goodyear Carriage Rubber provides over a long, long time.

Un resumen de las festividades del día 3 de Noviembre: el saludo a la Bandera por el Exmo. Sr. Presidente Dr. Porras

LUJOSA RECEPCION EN EL CONCEJO: CONDECORACIONES A LOS BOMBEROS

RECEPCIONES EN EL SALON AMARILLO Y EN EL PALACIO DEL MUNICIPIO

Las festividades patrias se desarrollaron durante todo el día 3 de los corrientes de manera feliz, habiendo participado las mismas toda la población capitalina, poniendo en ello el entusiasmo y la alegría de siempre juntamente con marcada dosis de cultura ciudadana. Relataremos los diversos actos cronológicamente en el orden en que se realizaron.

El saludo a la bandera

Como lo anunciamos, nada menos que desde columnas editoriales, el Excelentísimo Presidente de la República, doctor Belisario Porras izó en persona el pabellón nacional a las ocho en punto de la mañana; el acontecimiento se desarrolló en la Plaza de la Independencia, donde se habían dado cita algo así como ocho mil personas. Apenas el reloj de Catedral comenzó a dar las ocho, se apercibieron los seis mil alumnos congregados alrededor de la plaza para hacer el saludo simbólico y significativo; segundos después resonaron los acordes del Himno Nacional por la Banda Republicana y entonado por los niños todos, mientras el doctor Belisario Porras izaba poco a poco pausadamente nuestra gentil bandera de las dos estrellas. Este acto simpático del Jefe del Poder Ejecutivo ha sido muy favorablemente comentado en toda la Capital; nosotros consignamos nuestra voz de aplauso para el Primer Mandatario. Entre las personas que rodeaban al doctor Belisario Porras se hallaban además del benemérito General Esteban Huertas los Honorables Concejales de la ciudad y varios funcionarios con voz en las deliberaciones del Concejo: H. H. Dr. Carlos L. López, don Tomás Gabriel Duque, don Ignacio Noli B., don Nicolás F. Casís V., don Félix Estripeaut, don Macario Solís, Dr. Daniel Chanis Jr., Coronel Enrique Yeam Gabrega, don José Matilde Pérez, General Nicanor A. de Obarrio y don Luis Felipe Clement; el Gobernador de la Provincia, Tesorero Municipal, el director de Obras Públicas Municipales y el Secretario de la Corporación.

Habla Su Excelencia

Terminado el saludo a la bandera, todos los alumnos se congregaron alrededor del kiosco eléctrico, acompañados de sus profesores y maestros naturalmente, los que se [illegible] dentro de la plaza se replegaron hacia las calles y aceras vecinas; [illegible] bajo la mirada vigilante de [illegible] el doctor Méndez Pereira; de las señoritas de la Escuela Normal [illegible] Instituto [illegible] por su [illegible] don Nicolás Victoria J. ## Don Tomás Arias celebra con un gran banquete el 3 de Noviembre

Asistieron a él muchos diplomáticos: un discurso del señor Ministro que fue muy bien comentado

Berlín, Noviembre 4. El deseo de Panamá de recibir emigrantes y capital extranjero para el desarrollo de sus recursos naturales, fue el punto a que más importancia dió don Tomás Arias, Ministro de Panamá, en un discurso pronunciado en un banquete que dió ayer a un muy selecto e ilustre grupo de diplomáticos y miembros del Gobierno con motivo de la celebración del aniversario de la independencia de la República de Panamá.

Asistieron al banquete el Embajador de los Estados Unidos, Mr. Houghton, y muchos otros diplomáticos inclusive los representantes del Brasil, Chile, México, Rusia, Japón, China, Noruega, Austria y Hungría y miembros de las colonias latino-americanas en Berlín.

Interesantísima carta del Sr. Guillermo Andreve al Rector del Instituto Nacional

UN PATRIOTA QUE SABE PENSAR SOBRE EL PORVENIR DE LA PATRIA

Tiene la carta el aroma del espíritu selecto de su autor

Villa Osborne, Berck Plage, P. de C., 4 de Octubre de 1922.
Señor Rector
del Instituto Nacional
Panamá.
Mi querido señor Rector:

Le acompaño a la presente, con destino a la Biblioteca del Instituto, una obra sobre la última guerra europea, escrita por hombres de letras e ilustrada por artistas, quienes al llamamiento de la Patria en peligro soltaron sus plumas y sus pinceles para empuñar las armas y pelear rectamente en defensa de la cara tierra de sus afectos, de sus recuerdos y de sus esperanzas. Estos artistas y estos escritores han creído hacer un servicio a sus conciudadanos, y a todos los hombres, relatando lo que vieron, lo que hicieron y lo que sufrieron en esos terribles días, en que el hambre y la angustia, la crueldad y la muerte, conducidas por la ira y por la soberbia, devastaron los campos, invadieron los aires, se sumergieron bajo las ondas para acabar con la vida, arrasar la propiedad, arruinar el mundo y entorpecer los progresos de la civilización.

Para mí tengo que esa gran lucha,

En Washington se celebra el tres de Nvbre de modo solemne

El doctor Ricardo J. Alfaro dió una recepción en la Legación que fue muy concurrida.

Washington, Noviembre 4.— El aniversario de la independencia de la República de Panamá fue celebrado ayer en Washington. El doctor Ricardo J. Alfaro, Enviado Extraordinario y Ministro Plenipotenciario de Panamá, recibió las felicitaciones del cuerpo diplomático y de los funcionarios del Departamento de Estado y la bandera panameña estuvo izada en el edificio de la Unión Pan Americana. En la tarde el Ministro Alfaro dió una recepción en la Legación a la cual asistieron el Subsecretario de Estado [illegible] Phillips, el jefe de la división latinoamericana White, el Director de la Unión Pan Americana Dr. Rowe y casi todos los diplomáticos latinoamericanos que se encuentran en Washington.

El Presidente Harding envió un mensaje de felicitación al doctor Belisario Porras, Presidente de la República de Panamá, con motivo de la celebración de la fiesta nacional panameña. El mensaje del Presidente Harding al doctor Porras dice:

"Me es muy placentero enviar a Vuestra Excelencia mis felicitaciones cordiales con motivo de la celebración del aniversario de la independencia de la República de Panamá y darle las seguridades del deseo de este Gobierno de que continúe la prosperidad de vuestro país. Ruego también a Vuestra Excelencia que acepte mis votos personales por su felicidad y bienestar."

LA HERMOSA FIESTA DE LOS ROTARIOS EN EL UNION EL 3

UN DISCURSO MEMORABLE DEL MAYOR BOCOCK EN PRO DE PANAMA

Una improvisación del doctor Méndez Pereira que emocionó al auditorio

¡Magna fiesta fue la del 3 de Noviembre de los Rotarios en el Club Unión!

Pocas veces —por mejor decir ninguna— se ha arreglado una mesa tan elegante, tan chic, tan digna del acontecimiento que se celebraba.

Dispuesta en forma de óvalo con un precioso jardín en el centro: una canastilla de flores iluminada pendiente del techo; los colores nacionales venían del centro del telón en guirnaldas y sobre el mantel se combinaban los propios colores. En los puestos de honor las rosas rojas temblaban entre luces eléctricas.

Merecen, Gilberto Brid, el actual vocal de turno del Unión, a cuyo cargo estuvo el arreglo entero de la mesa y el señor Carlos Navarro, factotum del centro, sus sinceras felicitaciones.

El menú que se sirvió a los rotarios y a los huéspedes, excelente.

Ocupaba la cabecera de la mesa el Presidente del Club Rotario de Panamá Mayor E. Bocock que sentaba a su derecha al Presidente del Club señor Raúl Espinosa.

El resto de asistentes era: señores Dr. A. S. Boyd, Carlos M. Arias y señora, Leopoldo Arosemena y señora, G. V. Barrill y señora, J. A. Guizado y señora, I. S. Pereira y señora, Luis E. Alfaro y señorita Hortensia Alfaro, S. Brandon y señora, A. J. Lindo, J. C. Wright y señora, J. D. Wallingford y señora, José de Lemos y señora, C. F. McMurray y señora, W. H. Grant y señora, Thos. Lombard y señora, Albert Lindo y señora, Eric Barham y señora, doctor O. Méndez P. y señora, doctor E. R. Vernacci y señora, Hall Ridenour y Miss Kelly, E. F. Brown y señorita Guizado, J. M. Chiari, S. J. Lindo y señora, Lee Ying, C. D. Levy, M. S. Cordua, Gilberto Brid, K. D. Gardner, Lieu. J. F. Brinson, R. K. Vibert, José Padrós, Ernesto Arosemena, Mr. Brower y doctor J. A. Ríos.

La orquesta durante la comida actuó, bailándose por varias parejas vals, fox-trot, danzas, etc.

Un huésped de los Rotarios cantó preciosas romanzas que fueron muy celebradas.

A la hora de la champaña se levantó el doctor Bocock y pronunció el siguiente memorable discurso que por las ideas que refleja debemos considerar todos los panameños con respeto y con cariño:

Discurso del Mayor Bocock

Señores y colegas Rotarios:

Hacen hoy diez y nueve años que de la broma de la revolución y la guerra civil surgió en el Istmo de Panamá la naciente República que estaba destinada a asumir un puesto prominente en la Federación de Naciones y a desempeñar un papel importante en las actividades del comercio internacional, formando como puente obligado entre los dos grandes continentes que le quedan al Norte y al Sur y [illegible] más íntima y una corriente de simpatía [illegible]

En Cuba se espera buena cosecha de azúcar. El tabaco se vendió todo

Casi 4 millones de toneladas de azúcar se han molido este año. Se establece nuevo record

Washington, Noviembre 4.— Informes de la Habana recibidos por el Departamento de Comercio dice que son muy favorables las perspectivas que se presentan en Cuba de otra buena cosecha de azúcar. Ya se terminó de moler la cosecha de este año, llegando el total a casi cuatro millones de toneladas o sea un aumento de 60,000 toneladas sobre la cosecha anterior y un record.

Los informes también dicen que se han vendido la mayor parte de las cosechas de tabaco de este año.

Discursos cruzados entre nuestro Ministro en Alemania y el Sr. Presidente del Reich en el acto de presentación

DON TOMAS ARIAS

Actualmente Enviado Extraordinario y Ministro Plenipotenciario de la República de Panamá ante el Gobierno de la República de Alemania. Fue recibido en tal carácter oficialmente, en Berlín, por el Presidente del Reich y altos funcionarios del Estado Alemán, el día 2 de Octubre último. A continuación corren publicados los discursos de presentación y recepción del Ministro panameño. Según informa el señor Arias, este acto fue sencillo hoy en los días de la República, pues ya se ha abandonado el aparato de los días del Imperio.

Discurso de don Tomás Arias

Señor Presidente:

Cábeme la satisfacción, para mí muy grata por cierto, de poner en vuestras manos las Letras Patentes, por medio de las cuales el señor Presidente de la República de Panamá me ha honrado acreditándome con el elevado cargo de Ministro Plenipotenciario y Enviado Extraordinario ante la República Alemana, cuyo Gobierno tiene Vuestra Excelencia el alto honor de dirigir.

Al cumplir este delicado deber, debo informaros también de que he recibido encargo muy especial del Primer Magistrado de mi país, para significaros que allí se tiene por la República Alemana concepto muy elevado y profunda admiración, debido a las múltiples dotes de laboriosidad, energía y confianza en sus propias fuerzas que la han conducido, sin duda alguna, a grande altura en el concierto universal.

En la República de Panamá, nación a la vida independiente hace cerca de cuatro lustros, radica una pequeña colonia de [illegible] notable contribución al comercio y la industria, la que recibe de parte de mi Gobierno y del pueblo panameño, toda la protección oficial y consideraciones sociales que ella merece por sus hábitos de trabajo, prudente proceder y respeto a las leyes del país.

Muy placentero es para mí, señor Presidente, haceros estas manifestaciones, que llevan a vuestro ánimo cuán sincera es la amistad que afortunadamente une hoy a la pequeña nación que me honro en representar, con la muy grande y poderosa que Vuestra Excelencia dirige con notable acierto y admir[illegible]

Por lo que [illegible] personalmente me refiero en el cumplimiento de mi misión, aprovecho gustoso esta oportunidad para ofrecer muy respetuosamente a Vuestra Excelencia, a sus honorables Ministros y colaboradores, por cuya personal ventura hago fervientes votos, así como expreso iguales sentimientos o mayores si caben, por

LO QUE DECIDIO LA ASAMBLEA DE ANGORA. PROTESTA ENERGICA DE LOS PODERES ALIADOS

EL IMPERIO OTOMANO HA CAIDO: EL SULTAN HA SIDO ABOLIDO"

Londres, Noviembre 4.—La Exchange Telegraph ha recibido un despacho de Constantinopla en que se informa que de Angora se anuncia que la Asamblea Nacional nacionalista aprobó una ley suprimiendo el Gobierno del Sultán de [illegible] y otra declarando la [illegible] del trono.

Esta acción significa que se considera al Sultán derrocado.

"El imperio otomano ha caído"

Constantinopla, Noviembre 4.—La Asamblea Nacional de Angora decidió por unanimidad que está investida de derechos soberanos y que el Gobierno nacionalista turco es la base del Califato.

Esta mañana los periódicos publican títulos grandes que dicen: "El Imperio Otomano ha caído. El Sultán ha sido abolido."

La decisión de la Asamblea nacional fue anunciada al pueblo con una salva de cien cañonazos.

Constantinopla, Noviembre 4.—El Gobierno nacionalista de Angora ha anunciado que considera nulos y sin valor todos los tratados y acuerdos firmados desde el 16 de marzo de 1920 por el Gobierno de Constantinopla.

División en el Gabinete

Constantinopla, Noviembre 4.—El decreto en contra del Sultán de Turquía promulgado por el Gobierno nacionalista ha causado una división en el Gabinete, habiendo renunciado Tewfik Bey, Ministro de Hacienda, y Said Bey, Ministro de Instrucción Pública.

El heredero a la Corona y todos los otros miembros de la familia imperial tuvieron hoy una conferencia en la cual decidieron que ninguno de ellos debe aceptar el trono si no se conceden también los poderes temporales. La opinión general es que el Sultán ignorará las decisiones del Gobierno de Angora.

En un Consejo de Ministros extraordinarios celebrado ayer tarde y presidido por el Sultán, el Gran Visir Tewfik Pachá y sus colegas que no han renunciado reiteraron sus promesas de lealtad al Gobierno y manifestaron gran indignación por la acción del Gobierno de Angora de declarar suprimido el Gobierno del Sultán. Hay razones para creer que en la reunión el Sultán disputó la legalidad de la decisión de la Administración de Angora.

No irán a Lausana

Constantinopla, Noviembre 4.—El Gran Visir informó al Alto Comisario aliado en Constantinopla que el Gobierno local ha decidido no enviar delegación alguna a la conferencia de paz de Lausana.

Una proclama

Constantinopla, Noviembre 4.—Shakir Bey, el nuevo Gobernador de Tracia, ha lanzado una proclama invitando a los mahometanos a que formen pandillas debido a la insuficiencia de la gendarmería. Los turcos están apelando a la ley de las confiscaciones con respecto a la propiedad abandonada y también han secuestrado grandes cantidades de licores.

La proclama también hace un llamamiento para que se denuncie a los individuos culpables de traición o por maltratamiento de mahometanos.

Una exigencia a Angora

París, Noviembre 4.—Los poderes aliados han enviado enérgicas protestas al Gobierno de Angora, exigiendo que cumpla a la letra el convenio de Mudania, como resultado del descubrimiento hecho por oficiales franceses en el Cercano Oriente de intentos de los turcos para ocultar fuerzas [illegible] que se calculan en [illegible]

Actuación del Sr. Marcos A. Salazar el 3 de Novbre. de 1903

Panamá, 16 de Septiembre de 1922.

Señor don [illegible] Jiménez,
Diputado a la Asamblea Nacional.
[Estimado] amigo:

Suplico a usted se sirva decirme lo que usted sepa y le conste con respecto a mi actuación el 3 de Noviembre de 1903.

Lo anterior que así de u respuesta el día que convenga a mis intereses.

De usted atento y seguro servidor,

Marcos A. Salazar.

Panamá, Octubre 12 de 1922.

Señor Marcos A. Salazar.
Presente.
Estimado amigo:

Con muchísimo gusto, correspondo a la súplica que su petición entraña. Recuerdo perfectamente bien los acontecimientos que se desarrollaron el día 3 de Noviembre de 1903 y la participación importante que le tocó desempeñar a usted en esa fecha. Conozco los hechos ocurridos y los personajes que figuraron bien o malamente en tan peligrosa empresa, y declaro sinceramente que su actuación fue ejemplar. Es mi concepto, que gracias a su valor y sangre fría al igual de otros dos oficiales, logró el Benemérito General Esteban Huertas triunfar en su noble empeño de darnos patria libre.

En la Plaza de la Independencia nos encontrábamos congregados los señores Polinario Arango, Juan J. Méndez, Eugenio Cevalier y mi nunca olvidado amigo el Coronel José Agustín Arango Jované, acompañando al ilustre Prócer de nuestra Independencia, don José Agustín Arango, uno de los factores principales del movimiento separatista, cerebro y brazo del Centro Revolucionario. Esperábamos el avance del pueblo panameño, reunido en varias secciones de Santa Ana a las órdenes del General Domingo Díaz, para marchar sobre el cuartel de Chiriquí y apoyar al General Esteban Huertas. Eran las cinco de la tarde cuando aparecieron grupos de ciudadanos con el General Díaz y otros a la cabeza, con dirección al cuartel de Chiriquí, por la Avenida A. El Coronel Arango y yo corrimos a unirnos con el pueblo, pero de pronto apareció una escolta,—rifle en balanza comandada por usted, custodiando a los Generales Juan B. Tovar, Ramón G. Amaya y otros oficiales de alta graduación. Arango y el suscrito trataron de entrar a las filas de la guardia a su mando, pero usted nos rechazó espada en mano, ignorando las intenciones que teníamos de apoyarlo. De nuevo intentamos romper las filas y al grito de viva el General Esteban Huertas logramos conseguir que nos permitiera acompañarle en tan delicada misión, hasta las puertas del Cuartel Central de Policía, donde fueron entregados los prisioneros al entonces Comandante del Cuerpo don José Fernando Arango y Capitán Félix A. Alvarez. Inmediatamente después desplegó usted su guardia en línea de batalla y nosotros dirigimos nuestros pasos hacia el Cuartel de Chiriquí, a ponernos a las órdenes de los Generales Huertas y Díaz.

En aquella memorable jornada de gratos recuerdos para los que tomamos participación activa en el movimiento, demostró usted todo lo que vale, y sus amigos a la fecha no tienen [illegible] por lo que me duele verle hoy triste, enfermo y abatido, buscando de aquí y allí el sustento para su esposa e hijos siendo en verdad la Nación deber ayudarle a mejorar su suerte.

Créame su amigo y admirador,
(Fdo.)

J. A. Jiménez.

Me adhiero a los arriba conceptos del señor J. A. Jiménez.
(Fdo.)

Federico Boyd.

Señor Mayor
Marcos A. Salazar.
Presente.

Doy respuesta a su atenta esquela por medio de la cual solicita usted de mí, le certifique lo que sepa y me conste acerca de la participación que usted tomara en los acontecimientos que tuvieron lugar el día 3 de Noviembre de 1903 y que dieron por resultado la Independencia del Istmo, de la República de Colombia.

Fuí testigo de esos acontecimientos en compañía de los señores Belisario Arango, José Agustín Arango Jr. (q. e. p. d.), Juan Antonio Jiménez y Eugenio J. Chevalier, quienes nos encontrábamos ese día en el Parque de la Catedral, acompañando al Prócer don José Agustín Arango, factor principal del movimiento en unión del doctor Manuel Amador Guerrero. Aguardábamos el contingente del pueblo que debía venir de la Plaza de Santa Ana encabezado por el General Domingo Díaz, cuando comenzaron a aparecer grupos de ciudadanos por la que hoy es Avenida A, en dirección al Cuartel de Chiriquí. Luego pronto apareció un núcleo de conscripción a órdenes del General Díaz y momentos después vimos aparecer una escolta, comandada por usted, la cual llevaba en calidad de presos a los Generales Juan B. Tovar, Ramón G. Amaya, Caicedo Albán y otros. Al pasar frente al edificio de la Municipalidad el General Luis María Terán y el Coronel Luis Carlos Morales se acercaron a la escolta, e hizo presente Tovar que a su tío no le llevaran preso, acto de protesta que fue repelido por usted no dejándoles entrar, espada en mano, al retiro de la mencionada escolta, conduciéndoles también, como a los anteriores nombrados, hasta el Cuartel de Policía, donde los entregó al Comandante señor José Fernando Arango. El señor don José Agustín Arango me hizo presente que permaneciera a su lado, y así lo hice, con el fin de servirle de Secretario para dar principio a la organización del nuevo Gobierno que se iniciaba, por lo que nos dirigimos al Hotel Central de los señores Ehrman y Cía., en cuya oficina se nos facilitó todo lo necesario al efecto.

Es indudable que su actitud al secundar al General Huertas y obedecer sus órdenes —las que cumplió usted a satisfacción general— dió por resultado que no se torcieran los planes del General y que la Independencia quedara asegurada, pues presos los Generales del Ejército colombiano nada debía temerse por el momento.

Bien merece usted, Mayor, las consideraciones y aprecio de todos los panameños, tiene usted derecho a ser atendido eficazmente en cuanto sus necesidades demanden, y no debe usted olvidar que para sus hijos será siempre timbre de orgullo su conducta en esa hora difícil en que el General Huertas le escogió a usted, como bueno, para llevar a cabo el fin deseado y cuyas órdenes bien impartidas fueron exactamente ejecutadas.

Créame siempre su servidor y amigo,
(Fdo.)

[illegible] Méndez.

Estimado amigo:

Con mucho gusto digo a usted lo que sé y me consta con respecto a su actuación el 3 de Noviembre de 1903, como me lo pide en su esquela de ayer.

En la tarde del día 3 de Noviembre de 1903, día de nuestra independencia, recibí instrucciones del doctor Manuel Amador Guerrero, de ponerme al habla con el General Huertas que se hallaba en el Cuartel de Chiriquí y combinar con éste la manera de llevar a efecto el movimiento separatista. Con esta precisión me fuí a rondar por las inmediaciones del Cuartel y a poco rato me encontré en "Las Bóvedas" con el General Huertas acompañado por usted que recuerdo estaba uniformado. En su presencia conferenció con el General y después cuando junto con el pueblo me dirigía al Cuartel, lo encontré de nuevo a la salida de la Plaza de Chiriquí al mando de la escolta que entre dos filas conducía prisioneros al General Tovar y demás Jefes hacia el Cuartel de Policía. Recuerdo que intenté dirigirle la palabra, pero usted, desconociéndome y con ademanes y palabras enérgicas se abrió paso entre la multitud.

Nada puedo decir respecto a su actuación al momento de aprisionar a los generales colombianos, porque conocido como era yo del personal del Batallón "Colombia" como liberal revolucionario, busqué imprudente acercarme al Cuartel.

Puede hacer de ésta mi respuesta el uso que a bien tenga.

Mi estimado amigo:

Respecto de la actuación de usted el día 3 de Noviembre de 1903, me consta que cuando fuí a las cercanías del Cuartel del Batallón "Colombia" a averiguar el resultado de la conferencia de los Generales Tovar, Amaya, etc., con el General Huertas, estando yo en la Plaza de Armas frente a la puerta del Cuartel, salió usted por esa puerta al mando de una escolta dentro de cuyas filas llevaba los dichos Generales Tovar, Amaya, etc. La actitud de usted era tan gravemente enérgica que comprendí lo que acababa de consumar el Benemérito General Huertas. Dejo así contestada la pregunta de usted.

Su affmo. amigo,

[illegible] Valdés.

Panamá, 12 de Octubre de 1922.

Señor don
Marcos A. Salazar.
Presente.
Muy señor mío:

Me suplica usted en esquela de esta fecha que me sirva decirle lo que yo sepa y me conste con respecto a la actuación de usted el memorable 3 de Noviembre de 1903; y, con el mayor gusto accedo a sus deseos, autorizándole para que haga de estas líneas el uso que convenga a sus intereses, toda vez que lo que he de decirle es lo que sabe todo panameño que se dirigiera ese día al Cuartel de Chiriquí en los precisos momentos de dar el grito de viva Panamá independiente; que usted entonces capitán del valeroso batallón Colombia, apresó y mandó la escolta que condujo a los Generales prisioneros al Cuartel Central de Policía para dejarlos bajo la custodia de don J. Fernando Arango, quien a la sazón era el Comandante de ese Cuerpo.

Me consta lo que dejo dicho, porque yendo yo por la que hoy es Avenida A hacia el Cuartel de Chiriquí en compañía de don Carlos Clement, a oportuna y prudente indicación de este amigo hubimos de detenernos, preparando nuestras armas, ante el enrejillado de la casa conocida con el nombre de "El Cable", enrejillado que formaba un recodo con las casas de ambos lados y de donde debíamos cerciorarnos si el pelotón de soldados que en ese momento volteaba de la Calle 1a. hacia la Avenida A, venía contra nosotros, es decir contra el pueblo, o si eran nuestros aliados. A poco, muy cerca de ese pelotón de soldados se oyó el grito de viva Panamá, grito que fue estruendosamente contestado de otras filas para el invicto General Huertas y para usted, valeroso Capitán al pasar delante de nosotros mandando el piquete que conducía presos a los Generales Tovar, Amaya y otros.

Con toda consideración soy del obsequiado Capitán Salazar,
Atto. S. S.
(Fdo.)

[illegible] Jurado.

LA HERMOSA

(Viene de la página diez)

entre las naciones del mundo.

Desde principios del siglo diez y nueve, cuando ese intrépido y glorioso Libertador Simón Bolívar consumó la liberación de España de las colonias de la América Central y del Sur, hasta el 3 de Noviembre de 1903, el país geográficamente aislado y completamente distinto conocido ahora como la República de Panamá fue una provincia de la nación independiente de Colombia y la mala administración de ese país sobre este territorio de Panamá fue tan pronunciada que justificaba el más decidido descontento entre los habitantes del Istmo.

Las montañas con que limitaba el Istmo por el oriente aislaban al pueblo de Panamá de toda comunicación terrestre con Bogotá, la capital, donde por espacio de cincuenta años pasó un turbio calidoscopio de constituciones, dictadores y presidentes, y sin embargo fue el Estado de Panamá el creador de una gran parte de el heredero de una gran parte de mente del gobierno propio y de la libertad podría soportar por mucho tiempo afrentas e molestias que constantemente se les hacía a los hijos de esta tierra y como ha sucedido tantas veces en la historia, la separación del poder dominador era algo deseado y que intentaron los ciudadanos oprimidos. Por treinta años el péndulo de la intentada secesión y contrasecesión giró de un lado a otro con cruel y terrible frecuencia, llegando a tal extremo que el mantenimiento del orden público en Panamá era una excepción y la guerra civil y la revolución devastadora la regla. Las ruinas humeantes de humildes hogares, las aldeas desiertas y arruinadas, las haciendas abandonadas y sobre todo las numerosas viudas y huérfanos sin hogares eran un testimonio mudo de los resultados del dominio de Colombia sobre el departamento de Panamá y del deseo ardiente de este pueblo de obtener su libertad.

Y entonces, en ese inolvidable día el décimo-noveno aniversario del cual celebramos esta noche, las cadenas de la dominación fueron rotas por los republicanos patriotas, las fuerzas del poder hasta entonces fueron sometidas, sus funcionarios fueron apartados a un lado y la Junta Provisional de Gobierno de la República libre y soberana de Panamá proclamó su independencia. El 7 de Noviembre la República de Panamá fue reconocida por la gran República hermana del Norte, los Estados Unidos, siguiendo el ejemplo con rapidez las otras naciones principales quedándose así terminada la vieja lucha de este último agregado a la familia de naciones del hemisferio occidental para imponer su derecho al gobierno propio. Dos meses después de la proclamación de la independencia, se eligió una Asamblea Constituyente que se reunió el 15 de Enero de 1904 y adoptó la Constitución y eligió para primer Presidente de la República a ese ilustre patriota doctor Manuel Amador Guerrero, quien estu[illegible] la secesión y libertad de Panamá. Bajo su administración y la de sus sucesores, la prosperidad y el progreso de la República ha sido fenomenal. Del caos y la revolución ha surgido el orden y la paz perfecta, puesto que ni una sombra de la guerra civil se ha presentado en el horizonte de la nación durante su existencia como república independiente. La indigencia y la disipación han disminuido hasta llegar al estado actual de estabilidad financiera y el saldo de las rentas sobre las necesidades imprescindibles se emplea para mejoras materiales, emplea para mejoras nacionales. El Gobierno a pesar de los pocos años que ha estado funcionando ha demostrado eficiencia y amplitud de miras maravillosas y cada año se ven correcciones radicales de detalles de menor importancia que sólo se manifiestan con el tiempo. Panamá que desde 1501 hasta su independencia tenía la fama de ser el lugar más insalubre del mundo ha sido trasformada bajo el nuevo régimen en un verdadero centro de salud, un lugar limpio y de clima delicioso. Y además de las mejoras físicas que se han realizado hay también un factor más grande de felicidad en la República un espíritu de libertad un concepto de independencia personal, de seguridad mental de que no habrá más guerras civiles y un amor patrio inspirador que es más potente para fomentar la satisfacción y adelantar el progreso que cualquiera otra influencia.

Además del espíritu de felicidad que reina hoy, es esta difusión de los resultados de la independencia y de la libertad que el Club Rotario —organización siempre lista a ayudar en pro del espíritu público— conmemora esta noche y al hacer esto quizás estemos ayudando a mantener vivo el fuego de un patriotismo igual al que hizo actuar a los fundadores de esta República al mantenerse sólidamente en defensa de los principios que forman la base de la estructura, ideal por cuya realización muchos llegaron hasta a hacer el sacrificio supremo.

Para obtener la independencia de que hoy goza la República y la libertad que todo ciudadano tanto aprecia, hubo batallas de Termópilas sin cuento y muchos fueron con los héroes que pasaron al "Reino de las Sombras" con la misma valentía y gallardía de Leónidas de la antigüedad. En memoria de esos ciudadanos que hicieron el supremo sacrificio, el Club Rotario con reverencia rinde homenaje y respetuosamente se detiene en silencio como ante su tumba abierta. A los grandes patriotas que todavía tenemos entre nosotros y que formaron parte del movimiento de secesión y fueron factores en la formación de este nuevo Gobierno independiente enviamos nuestras sinceras felicitaciones y nuestro más sentido agradecimiento, mientras que a la República, a su bandera y a su Gobierno, el Club Rotario promete su constante cooperación, su completa lealtad e inalterable devoción para los años venideros.

Señoras y caballeros: En nombre del Club Rotario brindo por la prosperidad de la República de Panamá y que sus proezas y progreso del pasado sean superados por su brillante futuro que indiscutiblemente formará una de las más bellas páginas de la historia del mundo.

La ovación más clamorosa coronó las últimas palabras del orador.

El Rotario Gardner dirigió tres ruidosos "hurras" a Panamá contestados con entusiasmo.

Después se levantó el doctor Méndez P. a contestar el discurso del Mayor Bocock. Fue una improvisación bellísima digna del cerebro del actual Rector del Instituto Nacional: una oración patriótica recogiendo las ideas explanadas por el Mayor Bocock en la definición de patria, en la expresión del sentimiento patrio. Fue rayó a altura inconmensurable... ¡Hablaba el corazón! Sentimos no reproducir el discurso que impresionó hondamente al auditorio que lo aplaudió entusiasmado.

Sin más discursos terminó el banquete modelo de organización y de supremo gusto.

LA PROPAGANDA DE LOS PAISES LATINO-AMERICANOS

De tránsito para Colombia, después de haber permanecido una temporada en el Ecuador, se encuentra actualmente entre nosotros el periodista señor Arturo [illegible], representante de la Empresa [illegible] América que como informamos en su oportunidad ejecuta la labor de dar a conocer en el exterior los países de habla latina del continente americano.

[illegible] Panamá ingresó [illegible] de propaganda [illegible] un número [illegible] de páginas que bien pudiera haber sido suministrado a vista de la importancia de la obra, y en breve entregará para su compaginación todo el material destinado a darnos a conocer en el exterior.

Como se sabe los fines perseguidos por esta combinación de los países latino americanos son entre sus objetivos principales los siguientes:

"Que haya un libro oficial de consultas respecto de la América latina.

"Procurar la atracción de capitales por medio de la exposición de las riquezas naturales diseminadas en los territorios, especialmente en la agricultura, la minería etc., que no son explotadas por falta de conocimiento de ellas.

"Intensificar la concurrencia de los visitantes extranjeros indicándoles las facilidades de que pueden disponer para recorrer los países y los atractivos que éstos encierran.

"Hacer un índice comercial de todos los habitantes que ejerciten sus actividades dentro de la República con el objeto de facilitarles en cualquier momento determinado las transacciones entre ellos y el exterior.

Los gobiernos seleccionan su material dando preferencia a la exposición de las riquezas naturales y demostrando las expectativas que tiene el capital extranjero que desee ingresar al país. Con éste fin se incluye la ley de extranjeros, los principales artículos de la constitución y todo aquello que [illegible] estudio [illegible] de propaganda en Europa y Estados Unidos.

Nuestro Gobierno terminará ya la preparación del material referido [illegible] será entregado al representante de Inter América para su publicidad.

El señor [illegible] aprovechará los breves días que permanezca entre nosotros para terminar la recopilación de los datos referentes a nuestro comercio, siendo después por terminada su labor en esta República.

"LUJO Y ECONOMIA" fueron palabras antagónicas mientras no existieron nuestros cigarrillos. Desde que éstos VINIERON A LA VIDA son sinonimas.

BOXEO

Esta tarde en el Colon Athletic Club

El local pugilístico favorito de los fanáticos al box de la ciudad del atlántico se verá esta tarde lleno de bote en bote para presenciar el interesante encuentro entre el ídolo heavy-weight colonense Eddie Salomon, quien hará frente a uno de los más afamados de su clase Fitz Brathwaite quien ya ha cosechado grandes triunfos en los círculos pugilísticos de esa ciudad.

Fitz Brathwaite es bien conocido de todos; son muchos los aficionados al box que tienen gran seguridad de su triunfo.

El que se considere a Fitz como un verdadero pugil de esos que dan de la misma manera que reciben, se debe, esencialmente, a la habilidad que desplegó en su reciente encuentro con Soldier Rood, del Fuerte Davis, y a quien venció en su primer encuentro por decisión y más tarde, en uno nuevo por K. O. En ambas ocasiones Fitz hizo excelente demostraciones pugilísticas que le han hecho acreedor al concepto que de él se tiene formado gran numero de amantes al pugilato.

Y que hemos de decir del Gran Eddie, el vencedor del técnico Sailor Grande?

Podríamos decir muchas cosas para elogiar su habilidad de pugil consagrado; podríamos colmarlos de alabanzas que bien se las merece; pero conceptuamos que Eddie es bastante modesto; no es partidario que se le elogie antes de obtener la victoria...... Considera que los elogios y las alabanzas deben venir tras de los triunfos, de las victorias...

Y por eso nosotros nos abstenemos de hacerle elogios.

Ya los haremos oportunamente. Quien no conoce a Eddie Salomon, quien no simpatiza con él? Esta tarde lo admiraremos en el "ring."

Saldrá triunfador?

Esta es la pregunta que se hacen los amantes al pugilato.

Esta tarde veremos.

Debemos manifestar que el vencedor reclamará el campeonato de peso completo del Istmo. La lucha será de 15 señidos asaltos. Soldiers Barton y Gallagher se las entenderan en el semi-final que tendrá una duración de 10 rounds. Nos aseguran que este va a ser un encuentro que gustará mucho a los concurrentes.

La pelea preliminar estará a cargo de Soldier Meyers y Soldier Frank Humphreys, quienes lucharan 6 asaltos y harán lo posible por hacerla lo más interesante.

El cartel de peleas promete ser excelente. Los Promotores Jaén y Fernández saben lo que tienen entre manos.

Las peleas de anoche

De acuerdo con el programa, se efectuaron anoche las peleas anunciadas en el ya conocido Teatro Excelsior.

El "main bout" entre Kid Troncoso y Kid Costa resultó interesantísimo; dio motivo a gran excitación en los concurrentes, pues gran número de ellos ansiosos esperaban que Kid Troncoso diera el K. O. a su contendor; mas el deseado K. O. no llegó. Troncoso marcó mejores golpes que su contendor; le propinó varios muy buenos que le granjearon merecidos aplausos.

Costa pesó 118 libras y Troncoso 113.

Kid Costa por su parte, atacó bien y una vez más demostró ser uno de aquellos púgiles acostumbrados a recibir castigo con la sonrisa en los labios. Kid Troncoso no pudo golpearlo mejor.

Costa es de gran resistencia; pero Troncoso supo castigarlo severamente.

La reaparición de Troncoso al "ring" ha gustado mucho al público; la manera como ahora pelea satisface a los fanáticos al box; se reviste de calma y sabe cuándo y como debe atacar.

Lombardo lo declaró vencedor al final del último asalto.

Lo veremos con Patchett.

El semi-final entre Kid Cambell y Battling Garrido fue un asunto sumamente corto; el encuentro solamente tuvo una duración de dos asaltos, estando concertado para ocho. Así lo quiso Campbell al darle K. O. a su contendor.

Campbell es demasiado ligero para Battling Garrido; y nada más.

El preliminar entre Kid Clarence y Kid Clifford a un peso de 118 libras y 116 respectivamente, resultó interesante; ambos contendores demostraron tener conocimiento del pugilato. La pelea duró seis asaltos. Referee Lombardo dio la decisión a Clifford.

Kid Stanley y Young Fitz Simons figuraron en el "curtain raiser" hicieron lo que pudieron para satisfacer al público. El encuentro fue declarado "draw."

José Lombardo actuó de Referee en todas las peleas.

Kid Lombardo desafió a Kid Campbell; Kid Clarence a Kid Clifford. José Lombardo y Ramon Arosemena aceptaron retos respectivos de dos box adores del "Cleveland."

LAS DEL DIA 3 DE NOVIEMBRE

Es digno de toda loa y como primer comentario queremos anotarlo, el proceder del Jockey Club el viernes 3 de Noviembre. Lloviendo desde las 11:30 de un modo tremendo, con exposición de sus intereses, se dieron para asegurar los intereses del público que acudió a Juan Franco, las siete carreras anunciadas.

Y hay que insistir en otro punto: se acabaron las carreras puntualmente, se llevó todo dentro del mayor orden, no hubo demora, ni quejas, ni incomodidades.

El Jockey Club ha hecho el milagro de en quince días terminar con todas las dificultades, arreglarlo todo con justeza y garantizar q' en el Hipódromo se puede confiar en un programa: se cumplirá.

¡En horabuena y parabienes, Directivos del Jockey Club!

No fué exenta de emociones la jornada de ayer; al contrario fué una gran fiesta.

Pensemos en las dos carreras de "Cortez": hay que rendirle honores a este poderoso caballo del señor Espinosa. Montado por Murray y no muy bravamente corrió las dos carreras la de seis furlongs y la milla triunfando en ambas y sobre todo en la última de un modo brillantísimo logrando arrebatar la victoria a "Quién sabe" en los últimos 100 metros.

El señor Espinosa su propietario merece felicitaciones. "Cortez" me- joró el tiempo en la milla en 1 segundos de 2'06" a 2'01".

Una novedad en el Track lo fué "Capitana" (ex-Devotion del Sr. T. G. Duque, que debutaba. Corrió los cuatro Furlongs bien montada por Valencia aguantada y delante de "First American." Fué muy felicitado el dueño de la potranca por este nuevo ejemplar que ha de dar que hacer y que escribir.

Plandelia triunfó fácil de Lord de Delfín, de Lady Peerline en los seis furlongs, montada por Cummings que hizo mejor monta de lo que se esperaba. La labor de la yegua si era prevista. Plandelia ha de ganar otras carreras.

El triunfo de "Ace of Trumps" en la carrera final fue muy celebrado. Ace of Trumps caballo del país triunfando sobre Inglaterra un importado del Ecuador!

Pues "Ace of Trumps ganó en cabeza montado por Blank muy bien; salió con dos cuerpos de ventaja y no fue molestado un solo momento; todo el tiempo fué contenido.

Inglaterra llegó segunda.

Reapareció Biscuit en la cancha con el nombre de "Memory". Ganó. Caballo de más categoria que Pegaso y Wild Life, no luchó.

La carrera de la Cruz Roja fué divertida. El triunfo de Pedro sobre Gorgona merecido; Pedro cada día monta mejor. En "Quién sabe" en la milla hizo otra gran monta.

Ahora repitiendo los elogios al Jockey Club véase el cuadro de las carreras:

114 PRIMERA CARRERA—MAIDEN PONY HANDICAP—4 FURLONGS. B. 64 AL GANADOR

| P. S. INDICE | CABALLOS | PESOS | MONTAS | Orden de llegada |

MUSSOLINI.....

(Viene de la página diez)

ludo y felicitación a todos los italianos establecidos en la América con motivo de la celebración de este cuarto aniversario del triunfo italiano.

Mussolini de visita

Roma, Noviembre 4. El Premier Mussolini ha dado instrucciones a todos los representantes italianos en el exterior, ordenándoles que no concedan entrevistas ni publiquen declaraciones antes de recibir autorización expresa de su Gobierno. También ha ordenado a todos los diplomáticos italianos que se encuentran en Roma que regresen inmediatamente a sus puestos en el exterior.

El Premier, acompañado por el Baron Russo, visitó ayer a varios de los Embajadores extranjeros residentes en Roma y piensa hacerle la visita a los demás tan pronto regresen a Roma. Las visitas de ayer incluyeron las de los enviados de la Gran Bretaña, Estados Unidos, Japon, Brasil y Alemania.

Cambios diplomáticos

Roma, Noviembre 4.—El Premier Mussolini ofreció al Senador Albertini la Embajada en Washington en reemplazo de Rolando Ricci, pero se asegura que Albertini ha rechazado la oferta, prefiriendo permanecer en Italia y participar en la vida política. Se informa que en lugar de Albertini irá a Washington Avezzana, a quien se tenía como candidato para la Embajada de Berlín.

Se espera que el sábado llegará a Roma el Embajador Sforza, quien ha sido llamado telegráficamente por el Premier desde París después de haber explicado Sforza que renunció solo porque deseaba facilitar la labor del nuevo Gobierno.

Hacia lo normal

Roma, Noviembre 4. Se ha anunciado oficialmente que todos los Fascisti que estaban concentrados en Roma o en los alrededores han regresado ya a sus pueblos y en la actualidad se les está desmovilizando, "observando todos orden perfecto y una disciplina digna de encomio. Las condiciones normales han sido restablecidas en todas las provincias y los servicios públicos están funcionando normalmente; también se han reanudado los trabajos en todo el país."

Ya está desapareciendo el antagonismo entre los Fascisti y Comunistas. El incidente más grave de las últimas 24 horas fue la invasión y destrucción de un correo en Catania, dando lugar a un combate en el cual fue muerto un Fascista y algunos otros resultaron heridos.

Un manifiesto socialista

París, Noviembre 4. Despachos de Chiasso para Le Matin dice que los socialistas italianos han publicado un manifiesto al país en que dicen que nada tienen que temerle al Fascismo. Aseguran que el nuevo Gobierno encabezado por el líder Fascisti Mussolini no podrá solucionar los problemas financieros con la misma facilidad como resolvieron el político.

Siete Fascisti se apoderaron de un extranjero en la agencia que en Roma tiene la delegación comercial rusa, lo arrastraron a la pared y después lo mataron a balazos. Se cree que este incidente cause un conflicto con el Gobierno de Moscú.

Varios heridos

Roma, Noviembre 4.—El Messaggero informa que durante un ataque contra los Fascisti en Adria ... con heridas gravemente tres personas. Los Fascisti destruyeron el Club Socialista del lugar y ocuparon otros edificios, pero más tarde entregaron de nuevo a las ...

... periódico dice que otras ... personas fueron muertas durante los disturbios en Catania.

El mejor premio del mundo

Baltimore, Noviembre 4. — Blossom Time y Salley Alley ganaron hoy el "Pimlico Futurity" por el cual se ofrecía un premio de 80.000 dólares, que se cree sea el premio más rico que se haya ofrecido para una carrera de caballos.

Por ser tantas las aceptaciones tuvo que hacerse la carrera en dos secciones. Donges y Little Celt llegaron segundo y tercero detrás de Blossom Time, mientras que Martingale y My Own lograron colocarse corriendo con Sally Alley. El premio se dividió entre los ganadores de las dos secciones en que tuvo que dividirse el numero de aceptaciones.

UN AGASAJO SIMPATICO.

El Honorable Diputado por la provincia de Panamá, don Juan B. Carrión, obsequió el 3 de Noviembre actual, día de su cumpleaños con una lujosa comida en los salones del Hotel Ceceé a un buen grupo de sus amigos personales, entre los cuales recordamos: el señor don Rodolfo Chiari, Secretario de Gobierno y Justicia, el doctor Eusebio A. Morales, Secretario de Hacienda y Tesoro, el Alcalde del Distrito, don Leonidas Pretelt; los H.H Diputados don Dionisio Villarreal, General Manuel A. de Obarrio, don Leovigildo González, don Julio Arjona Q., don Frederick Rose, don Eusebio V. Herrera, el Sub-Inspector del Cuerpo de Policía, don Ricardo Arango; el Coronel don Enrique Yeaza Fábrega, Edecán del Excelentísimo señor Presidente de la República, y don Samuel N. Ramos.

El acto resultó muy simpático, habiéndose empeñado todos los presentes en hacer derroches de cordialidad y buen humor; se charló amenamente de muchos tópicos de actualidad, se comió muy sabrosa comida y se bebieron vinos exquisitos. No hubo que lamentar sino la ausencia de algunos excelentes amigos del anfitrión, quienes, seguramente, no concurrieron sorprendidos por otros actos; cosa muy natural en el día de la Patria, cuando había muchas festividades y atractivos en la ciudad.

Ofreció la comida el Honorable Diputado Carrión, en términos sentidos e impregnados de sinceridad, por lo que fue muy aplaudido; iguales aplausos se mereció el doctor Eusebio A. Morales, quien contestó, en discurso corto y expresivo, en nombre de los obsequiados.

Nuestras felicitaciones al buen amigo, Honorable Diputado Carrión.

EL CAMPEON DE LOS BANTAMS DECIDIDO

El actual campeón de los "bantams" Panamá Carpentier, nos ha manifestado que hagamos saber al público que está dispuesto a sostener su título en contra cualquier otro pugil de su categoría.

Nuestro colega J. K. B. nos informa que Kid Kelly le ha enviado una carta referente a su encuentro con Panamá Carpentier en la cual manifiesta que su pérdida se debió al haberse resentido su mano derecha. Desea un nuevo encuentro con Panamá Carpentier.

No nos parece mal la idea.

INTERESANTISIMA CARTA

(Viene de la página diez)

fecunda en enseñanzas, ha venido a demostrar una vez más que la guerra no resuelve ninguno de los problemas de la paz y que es a éstos, de preferencia, a los que debemos buscar adecuada solución. Pero también ha puesto de manifiesto que, en el estado actual de la sociedad, para poder tener toda la paz necesaria es preciso que los pueblos se encuentren dispuestos a mantenerla y preparados para rechazar cualquier intento de turbarla.

En nuestro querido país un hecho que hiere vivamente el patriotismo nos debe haber dejado saludables enseñanzas. Me refiero a los sucesos ocurridos a principios de 1921. Si un vecino a quien creíamos animado de cariñosos sentimientos hacia nosotros, como lo estábamos nosotros hacia él, no hubiera conocido que nos encontrábamos inermes, no se habría atrevido a invadir nuestro territorio. Por fortuna los panameños sabemos correr a las armas cuando es preciso y no tardamos en castigar su felonía. Y si el resultado final no nos fue satisfactorio, ya eso no dependió ni del valor ni del patriotismo del pueblo panameño. Fuerzas de otro orden intervinieron en la contienda, pero nuestro honor nacional quedó a salvo.

No despreciemos, pues, esas enseñanzas: atendamos con la más firme y cuidadosa vigilancia nuestros asuntos internacionales; y aunque seamos un pueblo esencialmente pacífico, estemos preparados siempre para la defensa, ya por la instrucción, ya por los elementos a ella necesarios. Este es un deber esencial, pues no somos un pueblo ni envilecido ni indiferente, sino un pueblo altivo y viril, que si sabe ser prudente y ecuánime, también sabe ser arrojado y valiente cuando la ocasión lo exige.

Ojalá que en el Instituto Nacional se cultiven siempre las más bellas cualidades y virtudes humanas, que elevan y dignifican al hombre y hacen noble y hermosa la existencia. En la vida, para vivir como hombres honrados y excelentes ciudadanos, es necesaria la voluntad en querer algo, la constancia para perseguir lo que se quiere, el carácter para sostener lo que se cree, la entereza para reconocer nuestros errores, la sinceridad para perseverar en su enmienda, el amor a los seres y a las cosas a que debemos cariño, gratitud o reconocimiento y el valor para defender esos seres y esas cosas, especialmente la Patria, llegando hasta el sacrificio cuando sea preciso.

Recuerdo que hace algunos años califiqué al Instituto de nido de águilas en que se crían a as y fuerza los hombres del mañana para afrontar las luchas de la vida. Hoy agrego que esas alas serán potentes y esa fuerza incontrastable con el cultivo cuidadoso y paciente de las cualidades y virtudes arriba enumeradas.

Su affmo amigo y compatriota,

Belisario Porras.

El orgullo de un destronado

Cable reciente de Holanda, inserto en la prensa local, daba cuenta de las gestiones hechas por Guillermo de Hohenzollern ante las autoridades de dicho país a fin de impedir la representación del drama bismarckiano EL ROMPIMIENTO solicitud que fue desechada, con buen acierto a nuestro modo de ver. El fin que se proponía el ex imperial huésped de los holandeses era bien patente: impedir que se reviviesen, con el relieve que dan las representaciones dramáticas, los incidentes e la retirada forzosa y deprimente que el mismo le impuso al famoso Canciller de hierro, fundador de mérito del Imperio alemán, allá por el año de 1890. El recurso es baladí, sobre todo ahora cuando aquél mismo se ha encargado de traer de nuevo al terreno de las actualidades la fisonomía de Bismarck, con la publicación de unas memorias que están provocando toda suerte de comentarios en los periódicos de las naciones que participaron de la Gran Guerra, en especial. Quienes hayan leído en nuestro colega el DIARIO DE PANAMA la relación de esa despedida del Canciller, primero, no habrán podido menos de sonreír, luego, al informarse del empeño de Guillermo de Hohenzollern, por obtener que no se llevase a la escena el drama mencionado: ¿quién no habrá visto en esto último, sencillamente un rasgo de orgullo desmesurado de alguien que en sus días de mando se creía dueño del universo, y que hoy olvida fácilmente su cautiverio actual, su decadencia presente?

Hay empero, además de esta gestión infortunada, que con buen tino descartó el Gobierno de Holanda, y de las mismas memorias referidas, una documentación preciosísima para el que quiera penetrar en la mentalidad del Emperador destronado: es el diario íntimo de su primera esposa, la que fue Emperatriz Augusta Victoria, el cual está publicando a la sazón un gran diario newyorkino, y que bien valiera la pena de reproducir en Panamá. Por lo que hasta ahora hemos podido leer, descubrimos que el rasgo saliente del último emperador germano, con todo y hallarse en exilio, es el mismo que durante sus largos años de esplendor dejó traslucir siempre y en todas las circunstancias, delante de nacionales y de extranjeros, respecto de los grandes y los pequeños: una soberbia extraordinaria, un orgullo inmenso, al extremo de llevar vida de irritación continua, de ira diaria, de indignación constante, aun cuando falten, razonablemente, los motivos para ello. "Mi esposo se indigna a veces sin razón". Esta observación motivada por decisión del Gobierno inglés, de privar de sus privilegios reales a ciertos príncipes alemanes que se habían mostrado particularmente hostiles a Inglaterra: la represalia era muy justa, en términos de añadir la ex emperatriz en sus notas íntimas que lo propio hubieran hecho los alemanes en igualdad de circunstancias. "Mi esposo no permitirá jamás que se le aconseje": esta forma impersonal contempla cierto consejo prudente que dicha dama diera a su esposo y que éste desechó. "¡Oh Dios!—reza un apunte más adelante—pero por qué ha de irritarse mi esposo y hacer insoportable la vida a los demás?

"Por qué ha de irritarse el esposo con cualquier acontecimiento que ocurra en Alemania, al punto de hacer a los demás aún más infelices?" El orgullo del que hace pocos años no más era omnipotente en Alemania parece no haberse detenido ni aun para con su propia esposa, como se verá por las transcripciones que preceden.

Insistimos en que tal vez fuera conveniente, ya que un diario de la Capital está publicando las memorias de Guillermo de Hohenzollern, que se hiciese lo propio con este diario de su difunta compañera, así en los días de dichas como en las horas de intensas amarguras.

Sesión del Concejo

A las nueve en punto se verificó la sesión solemne del Honorable Concejo de la Capital, con el programa que publicamos en días pasados ligeramente modificado, muy bien elaborado, en realidad, por la sesión ad-hoc, a la cual es preciso felicitar en razón del éxito notable que obtuvo. En la mesa grande, situada cerca de la ventana, del salón de actos del Palacio Municipal estaban el Excelentísimo doctor Belisario Porras, Presidente de la República, el doctor Carlos L. López, Presidente del Concejo, y varios Secretarios de Estado, de Gobierno y Justicia, de Hacienda y Tesoro, de Relaciones Exteriores y de Instrucción Pública. En frente en la primera hilera de sillas, los miembros del actual Concejo, y hacia la derecha y la izquierda, algunos de la Corporación, en otras épocas: allí vimos a don Enrique Linares, don Manuel Ramírez Márquez y a otros antiguos ediles. En sitio de preferencia también, el Benemérito General don Esteban Huertas. En la segunda hilera veían los Subsecretarios de Estado, los miembros del Cuerpo Diplomático y el Consular acreditados en la República y luego otras altas personalidades; observamos la presencia de don Juan Antonio Ríos, Encargado de Negocios de Chile, Mr. Constantine Graham, Encargado de Negocios de Inglaterra, Su Excelencia el Ministro de China, etc.

El punto más saliente del programa fue, después de varias piezas de la orquesta, hábilmente dirigida por el simpático maestro Gatemany y la lectura del acta del 3 de Noviembre de 1903, el discurso del orador oficial don José E. Lefevre, Ministro de Panamá ante los Gobiernos de Chile, Brasil y Argentina. Fue ésta una muy notable pieza de oratoria, llena de atinados conceptos, en los que resaltaba como nota principalísima, la unión y la concordia que deben prevalecer entre todos los panameños, hijos de una misma madre: el orador mereció aplausos nutridos y frecuentes por parte del auditorio, que llenaba todos los ámbitos del salón.

Lujosa recepción

Terminada la sesión con el Himno Nacional, escuchado por toda la concurrencia en pie, tuvo verificativo una lujosa recepción ofrecida por el Concejo: hicieron los honores los propios Concejales, ayudados del Gobernador de la Provincia, el galante Coronel don Rodolfo Estripeaut, y demás funcionarios a la vez en las deliberaciones de la Honorable Corporación. Este acto se dice se prolongó hasta las diez de la mañana.

En la Plaza de Francia

A eso de las diez y media empezaron a desfilar por la plaza de la Independencia en dirección a la Plaza de Francia, los Cuerpos de Bomberos y de Policía Nacional, ambos en trajes de parada; iban a la parada que, anualmente se celebra para recompensar a los miembros de dichas instituciones que se han distinguido por acciones nobles y de valor. Fue algo impresionante, casi feérico; allí hizo uso de la palabra el Secretario de Gobierno y Justicia, don Rodolfo Chiari, en nombre y representación del Presidente de la República. El señor Secretario estuvo inspirado feliz de todo punto el [illegible] y como acto de justicia, muy aplaudido. Don Rodolfo Chiari hizo entrega de vacas medallas a miembros del Cuerpo de Bomberos y obsequió con lujosa copa de plata al abnegado Cuerpo de Policía Nacional.

Magnífica recepción

De cinco de la tarde a siete de la noche dio el señor Secretario de Relaciones Exteriores, en unión de la distinguida señora de Garay, una recepción a las altas autoridades nacionales y municipales, al Cuerpo Diplomático y al público en general; la cual fue, en realidad, magnífica: allí tuvimos ocasión de ver a personalidades muy salientes en nuestra vida social y política, a algunos miembros de la Honorable Asamblea Nacional y del Concejo de Panamá. El señor Secretario, don Narciso Garay y su señora se mostraron agradables y exquisitos con todos los concurrentes quienes se retiraron, oportunamente, muy bien impresionados.

Iluminaciones

Como en otros años hubo iluminaciones bien dispuestas: las de la Escuela de Artes y Oficios, en verdad obra artística muy apreciable, la del Palacio Presidencial, la de la Gobernación y la del Palacio Municipal.

Comentario final

Las festividades patrias han quedado esta vez muy lucidas, casi todos los puntos fueron llenados a entera satisfacción, habiendo salido gustados de la población capitalina en general.

Contestación del señor Presidente del Reich

Señor Ministro.

Tengo el honor de recibir la carta autógrafa por la cual el señor Presidente de la República de Panamá le acredita como Enviado Extraordinario y Ministro Plenipotenciario ante el Gobierno de la República de Alemania.

Tenga usted, señor Ministro, la seguridad de que las intenciones de su Gobierno de reanudar y estrechar las relaciones amistosas con Alemania concuerdan con los deseos del Gobierno alemán. Y por lo tanto las aspiraciones de fomentar esas relaciones y las comunicaciones de ambos países, por medio de su amplia y bien comprobada experiencia de hombre de Estado, encontrarán de mi parte y de la de las autoridades alemanas la más completa comprensión y eficaz apoyo.

Es para mí una gran satisfacción saber por usted que la pequeña colonia alemana de Panamá se distingue por la conducta digna de encomio de sus miembros y que tal conducta le ha merecido la estimación tanto del Gobierno como del pueblo de Panamá. Esto me autoriza a abrigar la esperanza de que las relaciones económicas entre Alemania y su país situado en uno de los centros del tráfico internacional han de tomar cada día mayor incremento.

Indicio promisor de ese desarrollo es el hecho de que el tráfico económico entre nuestros países ha mejorado notablemente desde hace algún tiempo con el establecimiento de una línea directa de vapores entre Panamá y Alemania. Y Panamá puede contar con que Alemania tendrá siempre la mejor buena voluntad de cooperar con el pueblo laborioso y progresista que usted tan dignamente representa, en toda obra de trabajo, fecunda y provechosa para ambos pueblos.

Doy a usted, señor Ministro, mis más expresivas gracias por los sentimientos amistosos, tan entusiastamente expresados por usted por el bienestar del pueblo alemán, por su Gobierno y por mi persona y al mismo tiempo le ruego aceptar la expresión de iguales deseos de nuestra parte con respecto a su país, a su Gobierno y al bienestar personal del señor Presidente de Panamá.

Sea usted, señor Ministro, bienvenido en tierra alemana.

LO QUE DECIDIO........

(Viene de la página diez)

Aunque en el Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores se ha dicho que el incidente no tiene importancia, en círculos bien informados se dice que sólo los esfuerzos más enérgicos de parte de los aliados podrá evitar esa violación muy grave de las condiciones del armisticio por las fuerzas turcas de la Tracia Oriental.

Terminó la evacuación de Tracia

Constantinopla, Noviembre 4.—El General Harrington, comandante de las fuerzas aliadas, ha anunciado que todas las tropas griegas que se encontraban en Tracia han cruzado ya el Río Maritza, por consiguiente, ha quedado terminada la evacuación militar.
