DRANK BAY RUM AND DIES.

Latimer Ate Baked Beans and Canned Pork.

Toccoa, Ga., April 1.—An unknown man, whose name is said to be Henry Lattimer, died here Friday night in convulsions, every indication showing that his death was the result of poison of some kind.

The dead man reached Toccoa Friday morning with another stranger, Thomas Long. They had beat their way over the Southern railway from Gastonia, N. C., to Toccoa on a freight train.

Long had never known Lattimer until they met in Gastonia Friday night and does not know where Lattimer's people live, but says Lattimer told him he lived at Caroline, or Henrietta, N. C. From appearances it was easily ascertained that Long and Lattimer had been drinking.

Long says they drank bay rum during Friday night and ate canned Boston baked beans and canned pork and peaches. Lattimer was taken violently ill about noon and died about 7 o'clock. Neither Long nor any one in Toccoa knows anything of Lattimer's home. The city has taken charge of the corpse.

Lattimer is apparently about 24 years old, clean shaved, about 5 feet 8 inches in height and weighs about 140 pounds. On the right arm is tattooed an American flag and on the left the image of a man and under one an anchor. If the friends of Lattimer are not found by the city authorities the remains will be buried here.

Why

Have a torpid liver when Herbine, the only liver regulator, will help you? There is no reason why you should suffer from dyspepsia, constipation, chills and fever, or any liver complaints, when Herbine will cure you. F. C. Waite, Westville, Fla., writes: "I was sick for a month with chills and fever, and after taking two bottles of Herbine am well and healthy." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Investigation Undertaken.

St. Paul, April 1.—An investigation of the alleged coal combination in the soft coal field will be undertaken by the federal grand jury which meets in Minneapolis next Tuesday. It is understood that the inquiry will also go into the operations of the Northwestern Coal Dealers' associations to some extent, as it may be found to affect the coal market; but the inquiry is to be directed particularly toward the producing and jobbing of soft coal and the probe will go into every nook and corner of the coal question.

Hurls Infant Into Sea.

New York, April 1.—Crazed by sickness Mrs. Filomena Aquilla, a passenger on board the steamer Koenig, which arrived here Friday from Naples, threw her infant daughter into the sea last Wednesday, where it perished. The woman tried to follow the infant to death, but was restrained. The boat was stopped for half an hour while search was made for the child.

ECZEMA COVERED HANDS 11 YEARS

Cracked and Bleeding in Many Places—Became so Bad that Nail Came Off Finger—Tried Many Remedies and Consulted Three Doctors, but Got No Relief—Now Cured and Is Very

PROUD OF HAVING TRIED CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I had eczema on my hands for about eleven years. The hands cracked open in many places and bled. One of my fingers was so bad that the nail came off. I had often heard of cures by the Cuticura Remedies, but had no confidence in them as I had tried so many remedies, and they all had failed to cure me. I had seen three doctors, but got no relief. Finally my husband said that we would try the Cuticura Remedies, so we got a cake of Cuticura Soap, a box of Cuticura Ointment, and two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent Pills. Of course I keep Cuticura Soap all the time for my hands, but the one cake of Soap and half a box of Cuticura Ointment cured them. It is surely a blessing for me to have my hands well, and I am very proud of having tried Cuticura Remedies, and recommend them to all suffering with eczema. Mrs. Eliza A. Wiley, R. F. D. 2, Liscomb, Iowa, Oct. 18, 1906."

ITCHING PIMPLES

Resulted from Poisoning. Cured by Two Sets of Cuticura Remedies.

"My husband got a blood disease from wearing woolen underwear. He was all full of pimples, and he had an awful itching. He took a good many so-called blood remedies and nothing did him good. Then we saw in a newspaper about Cuticura Remedies, and they cured him after using in all two sets of Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment, and Cuticura Resolvent, and now I wouldn't do without Cuticura Soap. Mrs. Harner, 1050 Benners St., Reading, Pa., Jan. 25, 1906."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of Infants, Children, and Adults consists of Cuticura Soap (25c.) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50c.) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50c.) (or in the form of Chocolate Coated Pills 25c. per vial of 60) to Purify the Blood. Sold throughout the world. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass.

Fainted in Witness Chair.

Chicago, April 1.—Leonard Leopold, one of the defendants in the Margaret Leslie murder trial, was called to the stand again Saturday for cross-examination but before many questions could be asked of him he fainted and fell from the witness chair and the court proceedings were postponed to await an improvement in his physical condition. Leopold fainted Friday after making a sudden rush from the witness stand. He was ill the greater part of the night, but Saturday said that he felt able to take the stand.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

An Obliging Man.

Heine (at the village barber's)—I say, do you know why this man's shop is hung all over with sacred pictures? Beine—Oh, yes: that is for the convenience of his customers, so that they may call on all the saints when he shaves them.—Metzgendorfer Blatter.

An Exception.

She (superstitious)—I should never propose to a girl on Friday. It's unlucky. He (cynical)—Not always. I once knew a fellow who did it, and the girl refused him.

Sorrow.

"Herr Huber, come home immediately. Your wife has suffocated herself with gas." Huber—Heavens! There'll be a nice gas bill to pay!—Wiener Salonwitzblatt.

Good Judgment

Is the essential characteristic of men and women. Invaluable to good business men and necessary to housewives. A woman shows good judgment when she buys White's Cream Vermifuge for her baby—the best worm medicine ever offered to mothers. Many, indeed, are the sensible mothers who write, expressing their gratitude for the good health of their children, which they owe to the use of White's Cream Vermifuge. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

DIET AND HEALTH.

Use Foods That Will Give the System the Oil It Demands.

Every person requires a certain amount of oil in his food in order to be healthy. Our ancestors lived to a large extent on olives, filberts, chestnuts and other nuts containing oil. The present generation uses too little oil in its diet. This can be taken in the shape of the pure expressed olive oil, as an emulsified salad dressing or by eating nuts, olives, etc. It may be a matter of choice how the system gets its oil, but a certain amount is essential to the enjoyment of good health. The good results of the habitual use of the above articles in the diet are soon shown, especially when persons are inclined to colicky indigestion and constipation. Doctors will do well to instruct their patients to use pure olive oil in moderate doses, also as dressing for salads. Various kinds of nuts have a high dietetic value because of the oils which they contain and can be used to advantage. When patients incline to consumption, pure cod liver oil ranks at the head of oily substances, but the lesser oils also can be taken in moderation.

Nature furnishes many cures for the successful treatment of diseases if we will but study her methods instead of following fads. The result will be a greater progress in building up resistance and immunity from disease.—Washington Star.

The Bank Clerk.

It is the duty of the clerk to be zealous. The low spirited has no place in a bank. Neither has the frivolous. The man who works for a bank is respected in his community because it is known that the character of his work is important and particular. He must not only be direct and speedy in what he does, he must not only be faithful and constant in all that he does, but he must go a step further and do what he does with a will, and a good will at that. Zeal requires interest and enthusiasm. One of the troubles with the bank clerk is that his senses and his buoyancy are apt to be dulled by the endless repetition of details. There is no way to shirk it. No bank clerk can go home at night with his work unfinished.—C. W. Stevenson in Bankers' Monthly.

Stomach and Liver Trouble Cured.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures stomach and liver trouble as it aids digestion, and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating these organs like pills and ordinary cathartics. It cures indigestion and sick headache and chronic constipation. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Ponce De Leon Celebration—St. Augustine.

On account of the Ponce De Leon celebration at St. Augustine, Fla., April 2nd to 4th, 1907, inclusive, the Atlantic Coast Line railway will give a special rate of one and one-third first-class fares for the round trip.
