The Baird Hardware Company has something of interest to say to those contemplating using paint, which may be found elsewhere in this issue. This firm guarantees the paint on top of the guarantee of the manufacturers, which should be sufficient to induce you to buy—if you are in the market for paint at all.

E. P. Rentz and Gus Haley of Ocala were in the city yesterday. Mr. Rentz, who is an extensive lumber manufacturer, and Mr. Haley came in the former's twenty-two horse-power touring car, making the time from Ocala to Gainesville, a distance of more than fifty miles by the turns of the road, in two hours and forty minutes. They returned in the afternoon.

Mrs. Joseph Taylor, formerly Miss Cussie Beville, arrived in the city from Ocala Friday, and will remain near the city as a guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Beville, for a few days. Mrs. Taylor was quite popular here as a young lady, where she was employed for a long time as a saleslady in the store of The G. W. Hyde Company. Her friends are glad to welcome her home again, if only for a short time.

A Surprise Party.

The friends of Mrs. Lizzie Dorman gave her a delightful surprise party on Friday evening, which was well attended, and at which merriment reigned supreme for a while.

While the party was a real surprise to the lady who was honored, she proved equal to the occasion, and made the guests feel at home in every way, and glad that they came.

At a late hour the guests departed, after having been cordially invited by the clever hostess to give her another surprise.

Hyde's Removal Sale.

As the advertisement tells you elsewhere, Hyde's grand removal sale is now on, and this enterprising and reliable firm is making great sacrifices in every department, in order to reduce the stock before moving into the new Hill building.

There are bargains of all kinds galore at this sale, and the ladies who miss this opportunity will probably have cause to regret their indifference.
