NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Matters of General Interest Gathered by Our Reporters.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL ITEMS

What Has Happened and What is Going to Happen Told in Short Paragraphs So That "He Who Runs May Read" It in The Sun.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun:

Mrs. Chas. Eddy of Orange Heights was shopping in the city yesterday.

Mrs. J. D. Neel of High Springs is in the city, a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. E. Dow.

James Bailey of Newberry was among those who spent yesterday in this city on business.

J. W. Craver, a well-known citizen of the East End, was transacting business in this city yesterday.

Dosha Burnett has gone to Hague, where he will remain as the guest of relatives for the next two or three days.

Miss Amelia Villipigue, a charming young lady of Camden, S. C., is in the city on a visit to Mrs. B. F. Jordan, North Oak avenue.

F. P. Henderson has returned from Orange Heights, where he has been for the past few days engaged in the budding of pecan trees for Dr. J. B. Curtis.

Misses Lois Nesmith, Pearl Smith and Jessie Deas of Lake Butler, after a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Prevatt in this city, have returned to their home.

G. T. Kennard, formerly of this city but now residing at Newberry, where he is engaged in the livery business, was among those who spent yesterday here.

Hon. P. G. Ramsey of Wacahoota was in the city yesterday. Mr. Ramsey has announced his candidacy for sheriff and feels greatly encouraged from reports from various sections.

A. U. Hilleary of Micanopy was among those who spent yesterday in this city. Mr. Hilleary's friends are urging him to make the race for county commissioner from the fourth district.

Miss Dorothy Wagner, after spending the past few weeks delightfully here, has gone to New York City, where she will remain for some time. It is understood that Miss Wagner will study voice culture in New York.

Mrs. V. P. Hodges of High Springs is in the city, a guest of her daughter, formerly Miss Hattie Hodges, now Mrs. L. W. Denham. Mrs. Hodges resided here for some time, and her numerous friends are always delighted to welcome her.

Major J. W. Tench left yesterday for Palatka, where he will be engaged for the next few months as superintendent of sidewalk construction. W. R. Thomas of this city has the contract for the construction of these walks, which are now being laid.

The Dutton Bank has a change of advertisement in this issue to which the attention of the public is called. This old and reliable institution is growing popular in favor every day, being supported by some of the most conservative business men in the State.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Settle and son, H. M., have arrived in the city from Jacksonville, and have decided to make this their future home. Mr. Settle is a contractor, and his confidence in the future of Gainesville induced him to move here. They will be gladly welcomed.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Prewitt, who have been residing for some time at 801 East Union street, have moved into the home at 400 East Union street, recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wainwright, where they will be at home to their friends within the next two or three days.

PLEASE CALL

At our Bank and secure one of our Pocket Savings Banks—open an account, and begin saving a portion of your earnings. We pay Four Per Cent Interest, compounded quarterly.

Gainesville National Bank
Savings Department.

Warning—I, S. B. Cullen, hereby warn all persons not to trade for, purchase or accept, under any consideration, certain notes bearing date February 26th, one for $85 payable to J. L. Shaw, and one for $255 payable to E. R. Ward, both notes signed by me, as I will positively refuse to pay said notes on maturity, there being no legal consideration received therefor. —S. B. Cullen.

Col. and Mrs. J. B. Lloyd of Shoals, Indiana, who have been here for the past few weeks, expect to leave for their home today. They expected to have remained longer, but Col. Lloyd was called suddenly home on business matters which prevents. Col. and Mrs. Lloyd have been regular winter visitors to Gainesville for many years, and their friends here are always glad to welcome them.

From Wednesday's Daily Sun:

Blank warrants for justices of the peace for sale at this office.

Mrs. J. H. Dye of Micanopy was shopping in the city yesterday.

James Skinner of Archer was a business visitor to this city Monday.

F. E. Cellon and daughter, Miss Murray, were in the city from Hague Monday.

Wm. P. Boulware of Orange Heights was transacting business in this city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Chitty of Micanopy spent yesterday in this city with relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. Lucius Montgomery of Micanopy favored Gainesville with a visit Monday.

Ira J. Carter and F. D. Tompkies of Newberry were among those who spent Monday in Gainesville.

Mrs. J. D. Neel of High Springs returned to her home yesterday, after a brief visit to relatives in this city.

A. D. Chester, a well-known resident of the LaCrosse section, was in the city yesterday for the purpose of paying his taxes.

W. A. Snowden and Dr. W. C. Johnson, two well-known citizens of Micanopy, were among those who spent yesterday in Gainesville on business.

Miss Fay Settle of Jacksonville arrived in the city yesterday, and will make her future home here with her parents, who recently removed from Jacksonville.

J. W. Thomas, an extensive and very successful farmer of Alachua, was in the city yesterday, having come on business connected with the office of County Tax Assessor W. W. Colson.

S. T. Thomas, a successful farmer of the LaCrosse section, was among those who spent yesterday in the county capital. He reports the majority of the farmers busy with their crops just now.

C. C. Ivy and family, who have been residing at 402 West Main street N., have removed to 107 North University, where they are now pleasantly located and will be glad to welcome their friends.

Mrs. Finch and grand-daughter of Ohio have arrived in the city and will make Gainesville their future home. It is hoped they will be well pleased here. They have temporary quarters with Mrs. Thos. Roebuck, 304 West Church street.

Dr. and Mrs. R. A. Caswell of Alachua and Jas. Day and J. C. LeCount of High Springs passed through the city yesterday en route to the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, at St. Petersburg. The gentlemen will represent their respective lodges.

W. J. Matthews of Trenton, who has served the people efficiently for many years as County Commissioner from the second district, will make the race for county treasurer at the primary on May 19th. His formal announcement will appear in a few days.

Mrs. J. G. Harrold and daughters, Miss Annie and little Miss Martha, have returned from Pensacola, where they have been for the past ten days on a pleasant visit to the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Morey, and taking in the sights of Pensacola's Mardi Gras.

Robt. L. Barton of Rocky Point, J. M. Turner of Lake View, and R. S. Bradley and daughter, Miss Claudia, of Wacahoota, were in the city yesterday. Mr. Bradley states that his wife, who has been quite ill, is improving, which will be gratifying information to friends.

G. T. Kennard was in the city yesterday. He was en route home from Waldo, where he was summoned on account of the illness of his uncle, S. J. Kennard. While here Mr. Kennard took advantage of the opportunity to purchase two pair of fine mules for his livery business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Smith, formerly of Tioga, but now residing in West Florida, have arrived in the city having been called on account of the sad death of the latter's father, Rev. E. I. D. Pepper, which sad event occurred on Monday afternoon. Friends of Mrs. Smith deeply sympathize with her in this affliction.

M. J. Cannon has purchased what is known as the Mayfield property, North Gainesville, and expects to remove to that place in a few days. The tract comprises seven acres of fertile land, upon which is located a twelve-room house. Being directly on the Gainesville-Paradise rock road, the location is most desirable.

J. F. DeSha and Miss Daisy Hicks of Waldo were in the city for a few hours yesterday. They were en route to St. Petersburg, where the former will represent Waldo Lodge, Knights of Pythias, and the latter the Pythian Sisters, at the session of the Grand Lodge. They joined the Gainesville delegation here.

The Baird Hardware Company has a change of advertisement in this issue in which they devote the entire space to base ball goods. They are now well stocked with a standard line, and offer lovers of the great national game the very best that money can produce in everything in the base ball line. See the display in their window.

Percy M. Padgett and son, Master John, are in the city from New River. Mr. Padgett states that there have been several mad dogs running at large in his section, one of which was killed a short time ago. Mr. Padgett lost a fine Berkshire hog by rabies as a result from the bite of one of these dogs, and several cows in his section have suffered the same fate.

From Thursday's Daily Sun:

Miss Mary Manning of Micanopy was shopping in the city yesterday.

Use Plank's Chill Tonic, 25c per bottle; guaranteed. Sold by all druggists.

Labor contracts for sale at this office; 50c per dozen, or $2 per hundred.

Friends of Mrs. Helen Chesnut will regret to learn that she is suffering from lagrippe.

J. F. Futch left yesterday for Santa Fe, having been called on account of the illness of Eli Futch.

Pay your poll taxes on or before Saturday, March 14, if you desire to vote in the city election of April 14th.

E. K. Rosborough of Windsor, representing J. H. McLaurin, Jacksonville, is in the city in the interest of his house.

The Twice-a-Week Sun one year and The Farm Journal five years for $1.25. This offer is open to old as well as new subscribers.

Warranty and mortgage deeds, chattel mortgages and labor contracts for sale at this office. Price 50 cents per dozen, or $2 per hundred.

Dr. Geo. S. Waldo's Gainesville Dental Offices have a change of advertisement in this issue, to which the attention of our readers is directed.

J. M. Guinn of Alachua, one of the oldest and most successful farmers of the northern section of the county, was greeting his numerous friends in Gainesville yesterday.

Friends of Eli Futch, more familiarly known as "Grandpa" Futch, will regret to learn that he is quite ill at his home in Santa Fe. Mr. Futch is one of the oldest residents of the county, being now in his eighty-third year.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Reed left yesterday for High Springs. Mr. Reed is superintendent of the High Springs Ice Manufacturing Company's plant, but has been at his home here suffering with lagrippe for the past few days.

Miss Tillie Cook has returned from Ocala, where she has been for some time. She will remain here indefinitely with her father, Royal Cook, and will assist him in the store. Miss Cook's friends are glad to welcome her again.

The G. W. Hyde Company has a change of advertisement in this issue, in which they state that men's fine tailored suits can be ordered through that firm on Saturday, March 14, and Monday, March 16. This firm has secured the exclusive agency for the celebrated fine suits of Work Bros., Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Graves of Nebraska, who have recently completed a neat cottage at 308 West Court street, are now moving into the same from their former cottage in North Gainesville. They are very popular in that section of the city, and their numerous friends regret very much to lose them. Mr. and Mrs. Graves only make their home in Gainesville from three to four months in the year, but they would be gladly welcomed as permanent citizens.

What Shall We Have for Dessert?

Try JELL-O, the dainty appetizing, economical dessert. Can be prepared instantly—simply add boiling water and serve when cool. Flavored just right; sweetened just right; perfect in every way. A 10c. package makes enough dessert for a large family. All grocers sell it. Don't accept substitutes. JELL-O complies with all Pure Food Laws. 7 flavors: —Lemon, Orange, Raspberry, Strawberry, Chocolate, Cherry, Peach.

...WANTS...

FOR SALE.

EGGS—Pure S. C. Rhode Island Reds; $1.00 for 15, $5.50 for 100. Mrs. J. A. Barron, Evinston, Fla.

AN EVENT FOR GAINESVILLE

MEN'S FINE TAILORED SUITS CAN BE ORDERED THROUGH THE G. W. HYDE COMPANY'S NEW STORE AT GAINESVILLE, FLA.,

Saturday, March 14, and Monday, March 16

AT ABOUT 2-3 THEIR USUAL PRICE

We have secured the Exclusive Agency for the Celebrated Fine Suits to order of MESSRS. WORK BROS. of CHICAGO, ILL., known all over the South to produce the best-fitting garments and most artistic work of any tailoring firm in the United States. They employ none but skilled tailors and show only the best makes of foreign and domestic mills' goods ——and sold to you at prices that will appeal to you.——

We Want the Men of Gainesville to Know

That you can own a Handsome Tailored Suit at very little expense, and we feel sure the ladies who so liberally patronize our LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR DEPARTMENT will assist us in making this the Greatest Headquarters in the South for Men's and Women's Fine Ready-to-Wear Goods.

Mr. H. J. Work, one of the firm, will Personally Exhibit at Our Store on Saturday, March 14th, and Monday, March 16th, the Finest Collection ——of New Spring Tailorings Ever Brought to Gainesville.——

We Cordially Invite You to Inspect the Display and Have Your Measure Taken if Pleased.
——ALL WORK GUARANTEED——

THE G. W. HYDE COMPANY
THE DAY-LIGHT STORE——GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA