W. M. VanSickel of Eaton, Ga., has arrived in the city. Mr. VanSickel is a photographer, and if a suitable building can be secured here he proposes to make his future home in Gainesville, which he declares to be one of the best little cities he has ever visited. His family will arrive in a few days.

Roland R. Duke, a well-known young man of Santa Fe, was in the city yesterday, having come to consult Dr. Alderman in regard to some dental work. He is a son of Hon. T. A. Doke, for many years a member of the school board, and last term a representative in the lower house of Florida Legislature from Alachua county.

Deputy Sheriff Wynne of Newberry was in the city yesterday, having come to bring Lillie Belle Johnson, a negro woman convicted in Justice Carter's court upon a charge of malicious mischief, and sentenced to four months in the "gang." The woman took away and rode a horse belonging to Joe Kennedy, another negro, without the owner's permission, and it was for this that the warrant was sworn out against her.

Among the prominent out-of-town folks who spent yesterday in this city was W. A. Strickland of Paradise, who owns and operates one of the most successful farms in the county. Mr. Strickland states that he will begin his annual cane-grinding about November 20th. The crop will fall a little short this season, but he declares that this will not prevent his friends coming out and "filling up" on juice, and he extends all an invitation. Mr. Strickland is master of one of the most hospitable homes in the county, and an invitation to his house means an invitation for a good time.

Had a Picnic.

The "overflow" pupils of the sixth and eighth grades, Gainesville Graded and High School, participated in an enjoyable ride to Hogtown creek yesterday afternoon, being chaperoned by Miss Kate Tomkies, one of the efficient teachers.

There were quite a number, and all who went report "a great big time." Miss Tomkies is quite a favorite among the pupils.

Arrested for Concealed Weapons.

Deputy Sheriff Bruton made a short trip to Kanapaha Tuesday for the purpose of arresting and bringing back to this city a negro by the name of Joe Lumpkin. The negro is wanted in Starke on a charge of carrying concealed weapons, and Deputy Sheriff Jerry Wills left for that point on the afternoon train with the prisoner.

WEDDING AT BATESBURG.

Dr. Guy Mixson, of Florida, Weds Miss Theora Bodie.

The following account of the marriage of Dr. G. C. Mixson of this city to a popular young lady of South Carolina is taken from a paper published in that State:

"Batesburg, Oct. 17.—Special:—On Tuesday, at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Bodie, the marriage bells rang out sweetly in honor of Dr. Guy Mixson of Gainesville, Fla., and Miss Theora Bodie, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Bodie. The bride was handsomely gowned in a cream messaline satin, with Irish point trimmings, and she never looked more beautiful than on this auspicious occasion. She and the groom stood under a beautiful bell made of lovely flowers as they plighted their vows, in the presence of the large assemblage, who had come from near and far to do them honor. The Rev. S. O. Canty, the bride's pastor, made them man and wife, and used the beautiful ceremony of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. R. F. Stokes of Newberry, Fla., acted as best man, while Miss Earline Bodie, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor. In addition to the maid of honor, the happy couple were attended by Miss Hassie Smith of Micanopy, Fla., and Mr. Elize Lagrone of Johnston, S. C. After the ceremony refreshments were served the guests by the following young ladies: Misses Ethel Godman, Nellie Wright, Estelle and Lillie Bushardt, Patra Wright, Lizzie Riley, Rosa Ridgell and Bessie Steadman.

"The bride is one of the most popular and petite young ladies of Batesburg, and the groom should feel happy in gaining such a jewel for a life partner.

"Dr. Mixson, the groom, is a native of Gainesville, Fla., and is a rising young dentist of that prosperous city.

The Sternbergs Return.

Mrs. S. Sternberg and children, Misses Katie and Pearl, and Masters Abraham and George, arrived in the city yesterday to join Mr. Sternberg, who has been here for several days. They come direct from New York, where they have resided since leaving here about three years ago.

Mr. Sternberg was for several years engaged in the mercantile business here, later removing to New York, where he entered the manufacture of ladies' skirts. He has returned to his "first love," however, and says he will be content to stand behind the counter on Wall street, where he has again opened, and enjoy the friendship of the people of Gainesville and Alachua county for the remainder of his life. Friends are glad to welcome the family back again.

WILCOX ITEMS.

WILCOX, Oct. 19.—W. J. Wilson's mother and sister of Alachua visited him this week.

Mrs. Arthur Chouse is visiting her father, D. T. Trammell. Miss Iva's many friends were pleased to see her.

Mr. Brown, representing the Brown-Jenings Hardwood Co. of Gainesville, was here this week looking after some business.

Dr. W. L. Lancaster made a business trip to Bell and Branford this week. He reports the farmers and merchants well pleased with the business prospects.

We would like to see one of "Dukes' Drizzles," or that is, a gentle shower without combination of cyclone or hail, as the gardens and hogs are not doing very well on acount of the drought.

Midnight Doctors

are the most unwelcome visitors—even the doctor himself curses the luck that compelled him to leave his comfortable bed. Suppose you try our method, and keep a big 35c bottle of Perry Davis' Painkiller in the house, and let the doctor stay in bed and enjoy himself.
