ing instituted more than three months after the publication of said notice, and a copy of the entry of any such lien in the Street Improvement Lien Book, certified by the City Recorder, under the corporate seal of the city, shall constitute prima facie evidence of the amount and existence of the lien upon the property described. Any person owning, or interested in, or having a lien upon any property subject, under the provisions of this act, to a lien for any part of the cost of any work done prior to the passage and approval of this act, which lien is under the provisions of this act, entered up in the Street Improvement Lien Book shall have the right, by a proper bill in chancery, filed within thirty days after the first publication of notice of the entry of such lien in said lien book, upon a proper showing of illegality of the claim or the invalidity of the lien, to enjoin the claim or assertion of such lien against such property; but no such injunctional order shall be granted without reasonable opportunity to the city authorities to be first heard. In no event shall the validity of any liens claimed by the city against more than one piece of property, unless owned by the same person, be questioned in one proceeding instituted for that purpose, whether such lien be claimed for work done before or after the passage and approval of this act.

Copy of entry in lien book prima facie evidence.

Injunction may be obtained.

The Mayor and City Council are hereby authorized to issue street improvement certificates or bonds, based upon said liens, upon the following terms and conditions: Provided, That the total amount of such bonds or certificates outstanding shall not at any time exceed 1 per cent of the assessed valuation of property within the city according to the city tax rolls, and the proceeds of any certificates issued against liens outstanding at the time of the passage of this act shall be used exclusively for the taking up of existing indebtedness of the city on account of paving: At any time more than sixty days after the publication by the Board of Public Works of said notice of the completion of any such work and the entry in said Street Improvement Lien Book of the liens claimed therefor, the Mayor and City Council may, by ordinance, provide for the issuance of street improvement certificates or bonds against any lien or liens so entered in said Street Improvement Lien Book for amount not exceeding the amount of the unpaid liens held by the city so entered in said Street Improvement Lien Book, and may pledge the proceeds of said liens to the payment of said certificates or bonds, but said certificates or bonds shall be sold after notice published at least fifteen days at not less than par and accrued interest, and shall be payable as may be provided by ordinance, but not less than 10 per cent of the said certificates or bonds shall be payable Street improvement certificates or bonds.