A HISTORIC HOUSE.

Fine Old Mansion Built by the Father of Molly Stark.

[Special Correspondence.]

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 19.—The little village of Dunbarton, five miles from Concord, is one of the most typical of the old New England settlements whose quaint houses, with their historic atmosphere, carry us back to the nursery day of the republic.

None of Dunbarton's many colonial houses has a more interesting record than has the old Stark mansion. This house was built over a hundred years ago by Caleb Stark, son of the Revolutionary general, and stands now as it did when he lived in it.

It is an imitation of an English manor house, built of wood, two and a half stories high, with twelve dormer windows, a gambrel roof and a large two story L. In front of the house are two rows of stately elms in a well kept lawn surrounded by a painted iron fence.

A wide hall runs through the center of the house. On the walls of this hall are hung the trophies of the chase collected by the present master of the place, Charles F. Morris Stark, who is an ardent sportsman. The large square rooms which flank the hall are filled with priceless relics of the Stark family. Over the old fashioned wine cooler in the dining room hangs a note in George Washington's handwriting acknowledging courtesies extended to him by members of the Stark family. The rich silver and mahogany of the dining room testify to the old time glories of the place. In the parlor the portrait of Major Caleb Stark, builder of the house, painted by Professor S. F. B. Morse, the artist inventor, looks down from the high wainscoated wall. It is a picture of a noble man. The strong features, the deep set blue eyes and the high forehead speak of intelligence and courage. Beside it hangs a beautiful picture of the first mistress of the house. General Stark, painted by Miss Hannah Crowninshield, and Gilbert Stuart's "Miss Charlotte Stark" are among the other portraits which fill the parlor.

Besides the portraits there are many choice and valuable antiques, twelve busts of Napoleon I., presented to Major Stark by Lafayette; a cane presented to General Stark for valiant conduct in the defense of Fort William Henry, a fan once used by Lady Pepperell, a sunbonnet worn by Molly Stark and other memorabilia too numerous to count.

Modern Surgery Surpassed.

"While suffering from a bad case of piles I consulted a physician who advised me to try a box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve," says G. F. Carter, Atlanta, Ga. "I procured a box and was entirely cured. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is a splendid cure for piles, giving relief instantly, and I heartily recommend it to all sufferers." Surgery is unnecessary to cure piles. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure any case. Cuts, burns, bruises and all other wounds are also quickly cured by it. Beware of counterfeits. Wilson & Son.

The founder of Dunbarton, originally Starkstown, was Archibald Stark. Another of the original proprietors was Caleb Page. It was his daughter who became the wife of John Stark. Her name was Elizabeth, but she has come down in history as "Molly" Stark, one of the brave women of the Revolution.

Caleb Stark was the son of General Stark and Elizabeth, his wife. He was born at Dunbarton Dec. 3, 1759. While only a lad he was with his father at the battle of Bunker Hill. He ran away from home to join the colonial troops. He later became his father's aid-de-camp and by the time the war was over was himself a major, although he was then only twenty-four years old.

Soon after the war was ended the young major came into the Dunbarton estate and in 1784 began to build in the pleasantest part of his estate his now famous house. It was finished the next year, and to it he brought his bride, Miss Sarah McKinstry, a daughter of Dr. William McKinstry of Taunton, Mass.

Besides building the family homestead Caleb did two other things which served to distinguish him. He built the family fortune, and he entertained Marquis Lafayette. Both of these things he did at Pembroke, where he had established great cotton mills. The date of the entertainment of Lafayette was, of course, 1825, when the Frenchman made his tour of New Hampshire after the laying of the cornerstone of the Bunker Hill monument.

The second Caleb, who inherited the estate in 1838, was a Harvard graduate and a writer of repute. He collected many of the family relics which one sees now in the collection at the Stark house.

When he died in 1865, his sisters, Harriett and Charlotte, succeeded him in the possession of the estate. Charlotte died only recently, leaving the estate to Charles F. Morris Stark, an heir who has the traditions of the Morris family to add to those of the Stark, being on his mother's side a lineal descendant of Robert Morris, the financier of the Revolution. His wife is the representative of still another noted New Hampshire family, being the great-granddaughter of General John McNeill, a famous soldier of the Granite State.

The Starks have never made their home a public show place, but to those who are privileged to visit this old mansion, unchanged for a hundred years and still occupied by the family for which it was built, it is more interesting than the ancient castles of Europe.

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR.

"Something New Under The Sun."

All doctors have tried to cure catarrh by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up the mucous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of catarrh, has at last perfected a treatment which, when faithfully used, not only relieves at once, but permanently cures catarrh by removing the cause, stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches the afflicted parts. This wonderful remedy is known as "Snuffles, the guaranteed catarrh cure," and is sold at the extremely low price of one dollar, each package containing internal and external medicine sufficient for a full month's treatment, and everything necessary to its perfect use.

"Snuffles" is the only perfect catarrh cure ever made, and is now recognized as the only safe and positive cure for that annoying and disgusting disease. It cures all inflammation quickly and permanently, and is also wonderfully quick to relieve hay fever or cold in the head.

Catarrh when neglected often leads to consumption—"Snuffles" will save you if you use it at once. It is no ordinary remedy, but a complete treatment which is positively guaranteed to cure catarrh in any form or stage if used according to directions which accompany each package. Don't delay, but send for it at once, and write full particulars as to your condition, and you will receive special advice from the discoverer of this wonderful remedy regarding your case without cost to you beyond the regular price of "Snuffles" the "guaranteed catarrh cure."

Sent prepaid to any address in the United States or Canada on receipt of one dollar. Address Dept. C626, EDWIN B GILES & COMPANY, 2330 and 2332 Market street, Philadelphia.

The Yellow River.

The Yellow river is styled the "Sorrow of China." During the last century it changed its source twenty-two times and now flows into the sea through a mouth 600 miles distant from that of a hundred years ago. It is estimated that its floods in the nineteenth century cost China 11,000,000 lives.

Adolph Bluner, Grand Mound, Iowa, writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar in my family and think it is the best cough cure on the market. I would not be without it in my home as there is nothing so good for coughs and colds." Wilson & Son.

Fooling the Sheep.

On an Australian sheep run, when it is desired to foist a motherless lamb on a ewe whose own lamb is dead, the defunct lamb is skinned, and the skin is sewed upon the orphan. After a little suspicious smelling the ewe welcomes the latter as her lost child.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF
DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE
by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable.
HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.
F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

BALTIMORE, Md., March 30, 1901.

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.

About five years ago my right ear began to sing, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.

I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.

RIPANS

Thousands of people the country over are using Ripans Tabules every day. They use them because of the beneficial results they have received. The Tabules have been tested and proved the standard cure for digestive disorders.

They relieve the most severe case of indigestion or any kindred trouble at once. They are a scientific compound and in their action benefit both the nervous and physical organism.

Ripans Tabules never leave the system weak and exhausted. On the contrary, they build up faster than the bodily waste occurs, and thus gradually a high plane of health is reached. It may take time to permanently overcome a digestive disorder which perhaps is of years' standing, but Ripans Tabules will do it if persistently taken in accordance with the directions given.
