THE CITY COURT

The Mayor is Determined to Drive Houses of Ill Fame Outside the Town Limits

There was a big time and much doing in the city court this morning, and Mayor McConathy raked in the shekels to the city treasury to the tune of $110 and costs. Among the cases, eleven in number, there was one for using profane and indecent language, three for being drunk and disorderly and seven for frequenting houses of ill fame, three of these being women. The fines ranged from $25 down to $5, most of them being cash bonds estreated.

When the cases had all been tried except one drunk, which was continued until tomorrow morning, the mayor caused a ripple of excitement by asking officer Dean to stand up and be sworn. The mayor then asked Mr. Dean if he knew of his own knowledge of the existence within the city limits of Ocala of any houses of ill fame, and Mr. Dean said that he did. He was then instructed to give the city attorney the names of the keepers of these houses, which the officer did, and the mayor then told the city attorney to make out warrants for the arrest of the five, have them served and either bring the women before him tomorrow morning or take a hundred dollar cash bond in each case, and nothing less. The mayor says he is determined to close these houses within the city limits as the inmates are getting entirely too bold and objectionable.

Whose Say-so is Best?

With nearly all medicines put up for sale through druggists, one has to take the maker's say-so alone as to their curative value. Of course, such testimony is not that of a disinterested party and accordingly is not to be given the same credit as if written from disinterested motives. Dr. Pierce's medicines, however, form a single and therefore striking exception to this rule. Their claims to the confidence of invalids does not rest solely upon their makers' say-so or praise. Their ingredients are matters of public knowledge, being printed on each separate bottle wrapper. Thus invalid sufferers are taken into Dr. Pierce's full confidence. Scores of leading medical men have written enough to fill volumes in praise of the curative value of the several ingredients entering into these well-known medicines.

Amongst these writers we find such medical lights as Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennet Medical College, Chicago; Prof. Hale, of the same city; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati, Ohio; Dr. Grover Coe, of New York; Dr. Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College, of Pa., and scores of others equally eminent.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the worst cases of female weakness, prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion and corrects irregularities, cures painful periods, dries up disagreeable and weakening drains, sometimes known as pelvic catarrh and a multitude of other diseases peculiar to women. Bear in mind, it is not a patent nor even a secret medicine, but the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated physician, of large experience in the cure of woman's peculiar ailments, who frankly and confidingly takes his patients into his full confidence by telling them just what his "Prescription" is composed of. Of no other medicine put up for woman's special maladies and sold through druggists, can it be said that the maker is not afraid to deal thus frankly, openly and honorably, by letting every patient using the same know exactly what she is taking.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free. All correspondence is guarded as sacredly secret and womanly confidences are protected by professional privacy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

How to preserve health and beauty is told in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. It is free. For a paper-covered copy send Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps to cover mailing only; in cloth binding 31 stamps.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets cure constipation.

Beer Is a Food of High Quality

It Refreshes and Strengthens the Body With Predigested Nourishment.

As a strengthening, nutritious food, physicians and scientists now agree that there is nothing, perhaps, more beneficial than pure beer. Rich in the food extractives of malt and the tonic properties of hops, pure beer nourishes the whole body.

Many people unable to take solid food have been built up by Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer. And it is just as good for the well as for the sick. Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer with your meals tones up the whole system. Taken in moderation it cannot have other than helpful, up-building, strengthening effect, free from false stimulation.

Purity and cleanness are essential for healthful beer, just as they are essential for any other healthful food. And purity and cleanness are watchwords in the great Pabst brewery at Milwaukee. Only the finest of malt and hops are used, and the whole Pabst process is a revelation of scientific progress, the result of sixty years' pursuit of all the best known methods in the science of brewing. A most important feature of the Pabst Brewing process is the Pabst method of making malt. It requires eight days and doubles the expense of the old four-day method, still used in many breweries, but the eight-day Pabst process is the only process by which perfect malt, containing all the nutritious food qualities of barley in predigested form, can be made.

Absolute cleanliness distinguishes the entire Pabst process, and the Pabst Blue Ribbon label is a guarantee of purity. The name Pabst always stands for purity, cleanliness and the best beer brewed.

If your food doesn't taste just right, or if your digestion is a little "off," or your appetite is poor, drink Pabst Blue Ribbon beer before or with your meals.

S. L. and Leon Griggs of Oxford and Summerfield were in town today and made the Star an appreciated call. Mr. S. L. Griggs said the Oxford truckers won out on their truck crops, hands down. Never in the history of this delectable farming and trucking section has everything conspired to aid the tiller of the earth to come to a happy issue as has been the case this season. Everybody is happy, everybody has money, and the merchants' tills are filled to bursting with old-time bills being paid. Just now all Oxford is enjoying a love feast and getting ready for the big August picnic and barbecue. The Messrs. Griggs sold over a dozen cars of melons and not one netted them less than $100 at the depot.

IN THE FISH NETS

Messrs. Hutson and Bishop returned this afternoon from a raid on a party of violators of the fish law at Dexter, on the Oklawaha river. They brought back four men, John Marshall and his stepson, Wells, and Pedacy. They captured a steam yacht, a boathouse, three rowboats, and a whole wagon load of fishing paraphernalia. They had over 300 lines sunk in the river and a whole lot of fish nets and traps. These are said to be the parties who wrote Judge Bell a note defying the court and the officers. The men will be tried as soon as Judge Bell returns from Citrus county.

JAMES IS IN JAIL

William James, the long, lanky colored barber, who has had a shop in the Union block for the past several years, is in serious trouble. Last night about 8 o'clock he and Cicero Mitchell, the drayman and mail carrier between the postoffice and the S. A. L. Ry., both of whom were drunk, had a fight on the stairway and James knocked Mitchell down, the latter falling down several steps and striking the back of his head a fearful blow on the pavement on the outside, where he lay unconscious until he was taken up and hauled home in a wagon, bleeding profusely. James was arrested and placed in jail, and Dr. Powers administered to Mitchell's injuries. Mitchell, at noon today, was still in bad shape, in shrdl shrdlu hrdlu still in a semi-conscious condition. Dr. Powers thinks the man is badly injured, but the wound is not necessarily fatal. James had a stick of stove wood in his hand but it is said that he did not strike Mitchell with it. James, for many years, has been a regular patron of the police court and an occasional contributor to the county funds, but the charges were usually drunk and disorderly and an occasional fist fight, and this is his first serious offense.
