Hot Springs?

NO!

If you want to get rid of money go to some springs.

If you want to get rid of disease, stay at home and take P. P. P., Lippman's Great Remedy for Rheumatism and all forms of Blood Poisoning, Dyspepsia, Catarrh and Malaria.

James Newton, Aberdeen, Ohio, says P. P. P. did him more good than three months treatment at Hot Springs, Ark.

W. T. Timmons, of Waxahatchie, Tex., says his rheumatism was so bad that he was confined to his bed for months. Physicians advised Hot Springs, Ark., and Mineral Wells, Texas, at which places he spent seven weeks in vain, with knees so badly swollen that his tortures were beyond endurance. P. P. P. made the cure, and proved itself, as in thousands of other cases, the best blood purifier in the world, and superior to all Sarsaparillas and the so-called Rheumatic Springs.

M. F. Ballantyne, of Ballantyne & McDonough's Iron Foundry, Savannah, Ga., says that he has suffered for years from Rheumatism, and could get no relief from any source but P. P. P., which cured him entirely. He extols the properties of P. P. P. on every occasion.

P. P. P. is sold by all druggists. $1 a bottle; six bottles, $5.

A SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Mr. Whaley, the old gentleman who was making a foundation for Lester's saw mill, near Silver Springs, Thursday, came near being crushed to death. He was under the boiler and was arranging to lever it into position, when one end careened over and was about to fall on him. He chanced to look up in time and threw up his arm to steady it. As it was the boiler struck him on his head, raised a big lump and seriously skinned his right arm. It wil ltake several weeks before he can use it again.

THE KINDERGARTEN PARTY

The Misses Sharpe and their assistants in charge of the Ocala Kindergarten, one of the most successful schools in the state, enjoyed a party last night at the school rooms, instead of their usual Christmas tree. It was a very enjoyable occasion. Fully sixty youths, girls and boys, made the welkin ring with their laughter and shouts of joy. Their parents and friends were well represented.

The rooms were handsomely decorated with vines, flowers, interspersed with specimens of the drawings of the pupils of the school.

Beside short, but interesting, exercises by the pupils of the school in songs and recitations, they indulged in a candy pull, under the direction of that king of sweets, Dame, and to see them ranged around improvised tables and benches, with a hunk of sweet, which they manipulated with great vigor and glee, was worth any one's time to witness.

It was an evening of pleasure for the little ones, in which their elders extracted a full share of enjoyment.

GENERAL MILES LECTURED

Last Saturday, when General Miles called at the White House, President Roosevelt, in the presence of many callers, severely lectured the general for his expression of opinion on the Schley court of inquiry. General Miles is very angry and says the incident is not closed.

QUESTIONABLE PRESENTS

Some people want to give presents, and their amiability of purpose, combined with inadequacy of action, saddens life and encumbers the earth. The kind old lady who bestowed on Sir Walter Scott eight oily, smeary landscapes, the work of an engaging amateur, was guiltless of intentional wrong-doing; yet she might have striven long and malevolently to injure the great man withut inflicting so serious a hurt.

Looked at from this standpoint of view, present giving is an engine for evil. Mr. James Payne tells a terrible tale of a lawyer who unwisely saved a client from the gallows which he should have graced. The grateful creature sent his benefactor from the West Indies a case of pineapples, in which a colony of centipedes had bred so abundantly that they routed every servant from the house and reigned with unseemly and hideous license in the unfortunate advocate's kitchen. "A purchase is cheaper than a gift," says a wily old Italian proverb, steeped in the experience of centuries.—Lippincott's Magazine.

GOD BLESS US, EVERY ONE

The daylight faded and grew dim,
The twilight had begun,
Beside the fire sat Tiny Tim—
Bob Cratchit's crippled son.
The dancing flames flashed warm and red
On faces bright with fun;
Tim's brown eyes shone—he gently said,
"God bless us, every one!"
And still when dawns the Christmas day,
Though years have come and gone,
We think of Tiny Tim, and say,
"God bless us, every one!"
—Primary Education.

Beauty is Health.

Walnut Lake, Ark., June 3, 1900. I thank you for the benefit I received from your advice and the Wine of Cardui I took in my terrible condition. My life was no pleasure to me at all and I was of no use to anybody. After receiving your advice and medicine I commenced taking it and began immediately to improve. The pains left me and the menses, which came at the correct time, continued three days. I have gained strength and my weight has increased. My husband says the medicine has made me better looking than ever before. Mrs. LIZZIE MANNELL.

Womanly health means bright eyes, rosy cheeks, clear complexion and elasticity of form This is the youth unmeasured by years—the beauty of perfect womanhood. Beautiful women are happier and get more out of life than their sisters whose faces indicate suffering Wine of Cardui made Mrs. Mannell "better looking" and infinitely happier because it cured her of those terrible pains. But she is no exception.

WINE OF CARDUI

is giving thousands of women health, beauty and freedom from the dragging pains which made their lives so miserable. Wan faces, haggard eyes and emaciated forms are the results of suffering. What suffering can compare with the torture of irregular menstruation, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb! Beauty flees quickly before the ravages of such disease. The sharp pains of falling of the womb deepen the crow tracks in the face. Menstrual irregularities rob the eye of its fire and the complexion of its transparency. Leucorrhoea drains the body of its strength, but Wine of Cardui restores the natural beauty, brightens the eye, clears the complexion, rounds out the figure and brings back the vigor of health. Every druggist in this city handles $1.00 bottles of Wine of Cardui.
