C. S. WRIGHT, Manager.

Life insurance is good! Fire insurance is a wise precaution! But an ABSTRACT OF TITLE is absolutely necessary when you buy property or loan money on real estate security. It would astonish the public to know the large per centage of real estate in Pensacola, the title of which has serious defects. To buy property or loan money without an abstract of title to the property is inviting trouble. The cost of an abstract is but a trifle compared to the principal involved in a real estate transaction. Our abstract books show every document pertaining to each and every piece of real estate in Escambia county that has been filed in the records since Florida has been a part of the United States. Abstracts furnished promptly at reasonable rates.

Kept That.

Madge—And so your engagement broken?

George—Yes; she returned every thing but my affection.—Pick-Me-Up.

Why Safety Matches Strike on Glass.

There are two reasons why ordinary safety matches can be struck on smooth glass. The head of the safety match is composed of a mixture of sulphide of antimony, chlorate of potassium and powdered glass. A comparatively small increase of temperature will cause this to ignite. Now, glass is a bad conductor of heat, and the rapid passage of the substance over it raises the temperature of that substance sufficiently for that purpose. When the glass is rough the friction crumbles away the loosely combined mixture before the temperature rises to the point of ignition; hence, given the composition of the match head, the two circumstances which answer the question are the comparative smoothness of the glass and its imperfect conductivity of heat.

The Tallest Men of Europe.

The tallest men of Europe are found in Catalonia, Normandy, Yorkshire and the Ardennes district of Belgium. Prussia gets her tallest recruits from Sleswick-Holstein, the original home of the Anglo-Saxons; Austria from the Tyrolese highlands. In Italy the progress of physical degeneration has extended to the upper Apennines, but the Albanian Turks are still an athletic race, and the natives of the Caucasus are as sinewy and gaunt as in the days of the argonauts.

Masters of the World.

Simple words, short maxims, homely truths, old sayings, are the masters of the world. Great reformations, great revolutions in society, great eras in human progress and improvement, start from good words, right words, sound words, spoken in the fitting time, and finding their way to human hearts as easily as the birds find their homes.—D. March.

The Landlady's View.

"They say a carrier pigeon will go farther than any other bird," said the boarder between bites.

"Well, I'll have to try one," said the landlady. "I notice a fowl doesn't go far."

Literary Item.

"They say very few authors sleep more than seven hours a day."

"But think how much slumber they furnish other people."

Soft.

Cholly — I wish that I could find something to absorb my mind. Molly—Have you thought of trying blotting paper?

Among all the fine arts, one of the finest is that of painting the cheeks with health.—Ruskin.

Cinderella.

It was in ancient Egypt that the story of Cinderella originated. Moderns, however, owe the familiar nursery story directly to the Frenchman, Charles Perrault, whose "Cindrillon" appeared at the end of the seventeenth century. Perrault took his Cinderella from earlier versions, which came no doubt from the story of Rhodopis' bath. That Egyptian beauty had prepared to bathe when an eagle swooped on one of her slippers, carried it to Memphis and dropped it on the lap of King Psammetichus as he sat administering justice. He admired it, had Egypt searched for its owner, married her and lived happy ever after.

The Painting Jeffersons.

"The Siege of Belgrade," a comic opera by Cobb, was the first new production in New York in 1796-97. For it Mr. Jefferson's grandfather, Joseph Jefferson 1st, painted the scenery, and in it he played the character of Leopold. Mr. Jefferson's father, Joseph Jefferson 2d, who, like his illustrious son, was born in Philadelphia, was more manager than actor and more painter than either. As a boy he studied architecture and drawing, and he was also pupil to the scenic artist Robert Coyle, an Englishman of repute at that period. — Francis Wilson in Scribner's.

Fresh Air.

Fresh air clears the cobwebs from the brain, puts new strength into the muscles, a new life into the blood, a new lightness into the step. It brushes away the petty ills that bother everyday life and helps one to bear with greater patience. It strengthens the shoulders for the burdens that are laid upon them. It makes the hardest work lighter and the hardest day brighter.

Easy.

"Well," pondered the new answers-to-correspondents editor: "I wonder how to answer this. Here's a subscriber who wants to know what's a good thing to take ink stains out of white flannel."

"That's easy," replied the sporting editor, "a pair of scissors."

Barred.

Baron Alderson once released from his duties a juror who stated that he was deaf in one ear. "You may leave the box," said his lordship, "since it is necessary you should hear both sides."

Blood Medicine.

"The duke's marriage to the American was a bitter pill for his family to swallow."

"That is the way with medicine for impoverished blood."

In Style.

"The railroad wants to dig a cut right through our suburb."

"And do they offer no excuse?"

"Oh, they say divided outskirts will be more modish."—Washington Herald.
