Bushnell landfill opens

The landfill provides a facility where a diverse range of refuse can be dumped including industrial, household, commercial and agricultural wastes.

BOB REICHMAN

After years of preparations, red tape and community concerns, ACMS, doing business as Heart of Florida Environmental, recently opened its Class 1 landfill last week near Lake Panasoffkee.

The landfill opened for business on Wednesday, May 8, according to Marilyn Connell, business development manager. "We're still getting the word out but we expect volume to grow every day."

The landfill provides a facility where a diverse range of refuse can be dumped including industrial, household, commercial and agricultural wastes. The facility also is accessible for dumping by commercial sources inside and outside of the county. The initial permit is for a 58.8 acre site.

The facility is located near the county's refuse transfer facility but the entrance to the ACMS landfill is located off County Road 529A.

One of the landfill's biggest customers is Marion County.

Back in 2011, the Marion County Commission voted to contract with ACMS to dispose of its county's waste at the facility, located within the city limits of Bushnell, off County Road 470.

The agreement was the boost that the company needed to proceed with the landfill project. Marion County agreed to pay $20 million for 2.5 million tons of disposal capacity at the site at a guaranteed rate of $8 per ton.

The site is projected to provide enough space to accommodate about 20 years worth of Marion County waste, depending on the amounts deposed each year.

The landfill site was initially within the county's jurisdiction but the land was annexed into Bushnell's city limits.

Sumter County's recently named Teacher of the Year was selected last week as one of 10 teachers in the state to receive the Governor's Shine Award.

Melynda Shea, of Bushnell Elementary School, received the state honor during a special ceremony held by Gov. Rick Scott last week in Tallahassee.

Shea was recently selected as the Sumter County School District's Teacher of the Year from other teachers throughout the county who also received the Teacher of the Year honor from their individual schools.

Shea has been teaching for nine years and currently teaches science to fifth graders at Bushnell Elementary.

Shea is attributed with creating a culture for learning where abstract ideas come to life though real-world investigations.

"It is my hope that through giving my students a strong foundation in science education, they will look forward to future science classes and pursue a career in the field," said Shea.

Scott honored the 10 recipients and applauded their commitment to improving Florida's education system.

"The Governor's Shine Award is a way that we can recognize Florida teachers for the hard work that they do every day to ensure that our students are prepared to move on to a college or career," Scott said. "I believe future generations of Floridians should have access to a high-quality education and Florida's commitment to our teachers plays a critical role in preparing the workforce of tomorrow."

Shea's state recognition brought praise from Sumter

Bushnell says no to fluoridation

BOB REICHMAN
Editor

No way!

More than half the respondents of a Bushnell city water service survey said they do not want fluoride added to their water.

Basically, it's the cost of the water treatment that has them balking.

Most customers who responded to a city-conducted survey querying if they want the city to begin adding fluoride to their water said they did not.

For the most part, those objecting voiced concerns about the additional cost they'd have to pay for fluoridation. That cost is estimated at about $1 a month per household.

With more than 1,100 water customers, surveys were sent to every one of them along with their April billings. Responses were compiled at the end of the month.

The city received 284 responses from the survey with 145 saying they were opposed to fluoridation and 139 supporting it.

Last week, the Bushnell City Council discussed the results of the survey and agreed in a 4-to-1 vote not to add fluoride to the city water supply at this time. Council member Warren Maddox cast the only opposing vote.

Maddox said he believes the issue should be given additional consideration.

Wildwood rolls on with special night

BOB REICHMAN
Editor

OK, so maybe you're not used to the idea of grabbing a bite to eat at Wildwood City Hall but that could change.

Starting Friday, May 17, and continuing once a month, you'll be able to chow down on a variety of offerings at Wildwood's Family Food Truck Night right at Wildwood City Hall, 100 N. Main St.

Things get under way at 6 p.m. and continue until 9 p.m.

You'll be able to enjoy a variety of cuisines from truck vendors with offerings from Hula Dog, Monsta Lobsta, Gator Country BBQ, the Hollywood Café, Sugar Britches Cupcakes and Philly's Best cheese steaks.

Entrees and desserts are priced from $5 to $10.

The feeding frenzy is the brainchild of Jenny Hudson, the city's director of the Parks and Recreation Department.

Hudson said the idea came from a similar program offered by the city of Leesburg.

"We're looking at things that we've never had before to generate excitement and bring people into the city.

This updated composite drawing of the murder victim is based on information that the woman was older than investigators initially believed. She is believed to be somewhere between 50 and 70 years old. The drawing was provided by Erin Kimmerle, forensic anthropologist for the University of South Florida.

Murder victim died from gunshot wound

Bob Reichman
Editor

She died from a gunshot wound.

That's the latest information that sheriff's investigators have released as they attempt to determine who murdered an unidentified woman whose body was found near Wildwood.

The woman's badly decomposed body was discovered on April 22 in woods near State Road 44 and Interstate 75.

Since the discovery, investigators have been trying to uncover the woman's identity and the person responsible for her murder.

Investigators are not saying in what part of her body the woman was shot or how many times she was shot.

But they have determined some additional information about the victim with help from an anthropologist at the University of South Florida.

Doctor Erin Kimmerle has determined the victim is older than investigators initially thought, according to sheriff's Capt. Kevin Hofecker.

"We believe that she is somewhere between 50 to 70 years old," he said.

Initially, she was believed to be somewhere between 25 and 55 years old.

Because of the age change, an initial sketch of the woman has been upgraded to reflect an older age.

An additional sketch was created because the woman wore her hair in a pony tail, Hofecker said.

Additional information about the victim includes that she was between 5 foot 4 and 5 foot 9 with auburn or brunette hair.

She was wearing Danskin tennis shoes and prescription glasses with either either pink or red frames.

She was heavy set, Hofecker said.

The victim may have been in an accident sometime prior to her death.

She had multiple rib fractures on her left side and several lower vertebrate had been fused.

The woman did not have teeth and investigators did not find dentures.

Since the discovery of her body, sheriff's investigators have been following leads that have taken them from Las Vegas to Alabama, Hofecker said.

A press conference was scheduled for Thursday at the site where her body was found in hopes of helping to identify the woman.

"We're continuing to follow up on leads as they come in," said Hofecker.

Anyone with information is urged to contact the Sumter County Sheriff's Office, Criminal Investigations Division at 569-1680 or call Crimeline (800-423-8477) where callers can remain anonymous and may be eligible for a reward of up to $1,000.

Pet bereavement support offered

For many people, pets are considered part of their family and when a beloved pet dies, many people are surprised at the intensity of their grief.

Grieving is normal, but it may be difficult to describe how you are feeling, especially to those who do not own a pet.

Cornerstone Hospice and Palliative Care (http://www.CornerstoneHospice.org) now offers group gatherings for those who have lost a furry friend.

The group sessions will begin Wednesday, May 22, at 10 a.m. at Cornerstone Hospice, at 2445 Lane Park Road in Tavares. The meetings will be held weekly and are free and confidential.

For information, please call Peggy at 352-742-6812 or email psredl@cshospice.org.

About Cornerstone Hospice

Cornerstone Hospice and Palliative Care, Inc., a not-for-profit, community organization since 1984, provides comfort and care to Central Florida families experiencing life-limiting illnesses.

receiving support for the project from various sources, including the Sumter County Legislative Delegation and the Sumter County Health Department. The city would have also qualified for grants to help pay the cost of implementing the fluoridation system.

Interestingly, Bushnell is the only community in Sumter County that has naturally occurring fluoride in its water, City Manager Vince Ruano said earlier in discussions about the issue. "We've been able to detect about 4/10 parts per million. The ultimate amount is 7/10, so we'd only be adding 3/10 parts of produced fluoride – a small amount."

selling the project idea to city officials after the Sumter County Commission denied their proposal in 2008. When that proposal was discussed, numerous property owners voiced concerns about the impact the landfill would have on their property and the environment.

The facility is also beneficial to the city because it allows city haulers to use the ACMS site rather than hauling its refuse to Groveland, Bushnell City Manager Vince Ruano has said.

The city also receives revenue from the landfill by charging ACMS a fee of $2 for every ton that goes into the facility, he said.

Volunteers needed

Whether you're in northern or southern Sumter County, there is a great need for volunteers who are willing to help children in need.

The volunteers speak up for Florida's abused and neglected children as guardian ad Litem (GAL).

Are local training opportunity is scheduled for June 3 in hopes that more volunteers can be found for this important service to children.

There are about 1,700 children in Marion, Hernando, Lake, Sumter and Citrus counties, who have been removed from their homes due to alleged abuse, abandonment or neglect, who are now part of a dependency court proceeding. These children need someone who will speak up for them.

A GAL is a volunteer appointed by the court to advocate for the child. The volunteer works as part of a team with a volunteer supervisor and program attorney. He/she becomes familiar with the child and the child's case and makes recommendations to the court to help ensure a safe, caring, stable and permanent environment for the child.

To be eligible to become a GAL: Persons 21 years of age and older, who successfully complete the pre-service training program, have a clean criminal background check and are able to be objective are eligible. Young adults between 19 and 21 years of age are also eligible, working under the guidance and partnership with a certified volunteer GAL over the age of 21.

How much time must be committed as a Volunteer Guardian ad Litem? A GAL must successfully complete 30 hours of pre-service training. On average, volunteers spend 5-10 hours a month on a case. Most cases last 10 months.

How to get started! Call Lynn Sennett at (352) 274-5231 or e-mail her at Lynn.Sennett@gal.fl.gov. For more information and an application, please visit the website at www.guardianadlitem.org. The next training begins Monday, June 3, at the Oxford Assembly of God, 12114 N. U.S. 301, Oxford.

Lift up a child's voice.

What's making you happy?

Nancy Kennedy

Special to the Times

I listen to a weekly podcast on NPR called "Pop Culture Happy Hour," four people discussing movies, TV, music and other pop culture topics.

At the end of every show they go around the table and say what's making them happy that week.

The rule is that they share something in the pop culturesphere that other people, such as their podcast listeners, can participate in so they can be happy, too. They might mention a new (or old) book or movie, an upcoming event, a fun Website. Sometimes they share something personal, which is always fun because it's a chance to get to know these people a little better.

Besides, there are enough not-happy moments in life and this is a great way to end their show each week. So, I thought I'd try that this week and tell you what's making me happy.

■ Mad Men Season 6!

■ I make a really good baked eggplant dish that's tomatoey and sweet, and it makes my husband happy, which makes me happy.

■ When I leave for work in the morning I have a view of a lake between some trees. Sometimes when it's cold out there's a layer of mist on top of the water. Sometimes the sky is yellow and orange and lavender. Sometimes the water is bright blue, depending on what time I leave the house. Whatever time I leave, that view always makes me happy and I thank God that he allows me to see it.

■ A week or so ago I was bothered by something that I've since forgotten. At the time a friend suggested that I go shopping — she knows how much I love shopping. It made me happy to tell her that I hadn't bought anything other than groceries in weeks, and that I hadn't wanted to. It made me extremely happy that I was happy without shopping. It makes me happy when I realize that Jesus is better than even a sweater that's 60 percent off.

■ There's a certain color palette of grayish blues that makes me very happy. It's the color of winter or maybe the ocean on a cloudy day. It's soft and soothing, and restful to my eyes. A few years ago I found a duvet cover the exact shade of this grayish blue, so I go to bed and wake up surrounded by this restful color.

■ Being near water renews and restores me. One day at work I was having a tough day, so I finished early and went and sat on a bench in the sun by the lake near my house. I sat for maybe an hour, not thinking about anything except how water renews my soul.

■ My laptop makes me happy.

■ The giant manatee out in front of our local wildlife park makes me happy. Every holiday someone dresses it up — bunny ears for Easter, Santa hat for Christmas — and I take a photo of it to send to my daughter, who loves manatees. When she was a kid she painted a dinner plate with a Nativity scene, and baby Jesus looks a lot like a manatee. We call it the Jesus Plate — and that also makes me happy.

■ I have an apple green iPod that accidentally went through the washing machine about a year ago. It took a while to dry out in a bag of rice, but it works perfectly, which makes me happy. My husband and I listen to downloaded sermons sometimes when we're out driving. A good sermon makes me happy.

What's making you happy?

SECO honored by Arbor Day Foundation

SECO officials announced that the Arbor Day Foundation has, for the sixth year in a row, designated SECO as a Tree Line USA utility. The Tree Line USA program promotes the dual goals of delivering safe and reliable electricity while maintaining healthy community trees.

"Trees are a critical part of urban landscapes all across the United States," said John Rosenow, CEO of the Arbor Day Foundation. "Service providers like Sumter Electric Cooperative show that taking care of trees is good for business, for customers and the broader community."

Rosenow noted that SECO achieved the designation by meeting five program standards of Tree Line USA. Utilities must follow industry standards for quality tree care; provide annual training for employees in best tree-care practices; sponsor a tree-planting and public education program; maintain a tree-based energy conservation program; and participate in an Arbor Day celebration.

Dan Lambe, Vice President of Programs at the Foundation, said, "As a result of your commitment to effective urban forest management, your customers are already enjoying the numerous benefits of community trees, including cleaner air and water, higher property values and improved quality of life. Trees also conserve energy and reduce peak power demand, a crucial benefit to customers and providers alike."

Jim Duncan, SECO CEO, said, "We are gratified to have received the Tree Line USA designation for the sixth year in a row. The standards a utility must meet in order to attain this national award from the Arbor Day Foundation are stringent and ongoing. It is a credit to SECO's vegetation management program which has, itself, become a model for the nation."

Art Guild plans to celebrate

Jonni Post will be one of the artists to exhibit her works.

On Nov. 2, the Sumter County Arts Guild will have its first exhibition to celebrate the organization's 10-year anniversary.

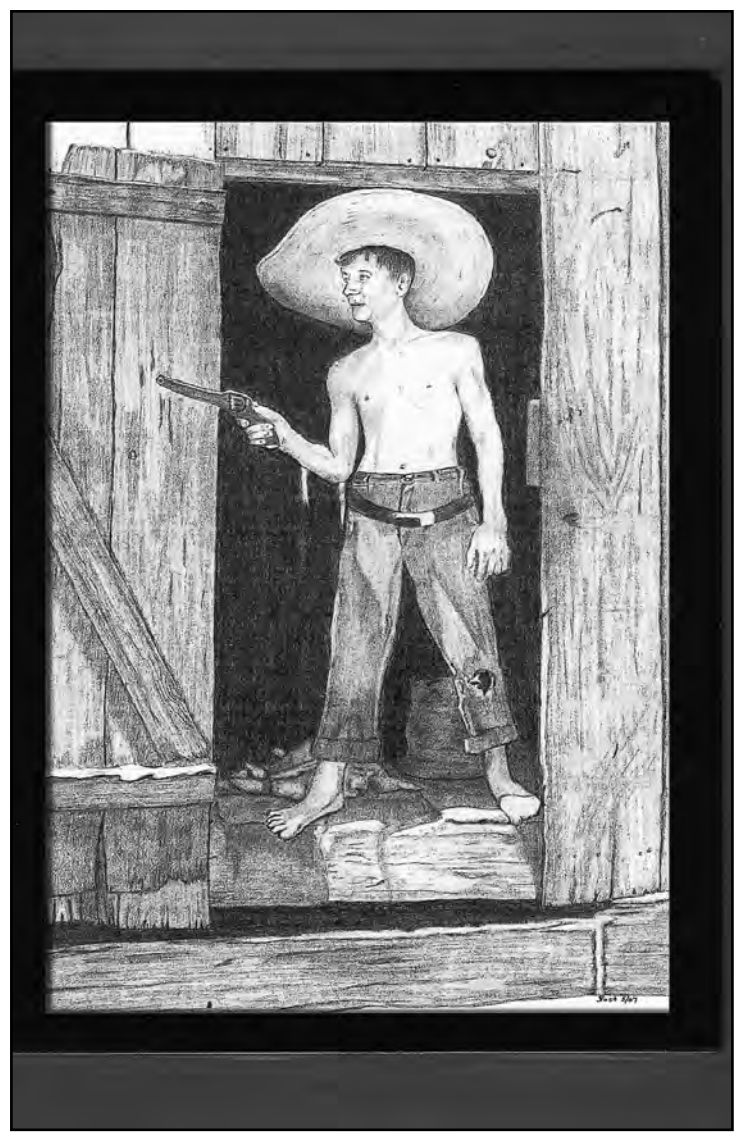
One of the members participating is Jonni J Post.

While Post "cartooned" for years, her retirement in 1999 allowed her to spend time pursuing fine arts. "My beginnings are in graphite portraits," she said.

"Since joining the Guild I've expanded to acrylic paints; and, recently clay sculpting has captured my interest." she said.

Post indicated portraits, whether a person or a pet, are available on a commission basis.

Every artist has a favorite work. She is no exception. The Cowboy completed in 2007 is hers. It's actually the second portrait of her father created from a 1934 photograph. She plans to include it in the exhibition.



The Guild meets each Wednesday, between 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. at the Sumterville Community Building. All artists are invited.

I don't want a cheap funeral, but I can save a lot of money by planning now…so why not?

I'm a person who plans ahead and I'm also pretty careful with the money I make.

Since someday my family and I will need a reliable funeral home, why not make my arrangements now and lock in a low price that I can control?

The old saying is true: you can't take your money with you. But, if I make my plans now I can make the decisions on all the details that matter to me, including the cost, and that's like leaving more money behind for my wife and kids.

LET'S TURN YOUR PRIORITIES INTO A PLAN.

Fill out and return this coupon to start working with Purcell Chapel to get your pre-planning done once and for all. Or, call us at 352-793-4531. It's easier than you imagine!

INSIDE SUMTER SCHOOLS

Students go 'APE' over Environmental Science

Editor's note:
The following story is the first part of a three-part series submitted to the Times by the Sumter County School District.

Much like a gorilla's day, the life of a typical high school student is divided by periods of rest, movement, and eating! However, AP (Advanced Placement) students stand out from their peers. Their academic diet differs greatly from the rest of the teenage species. Highly intelligent, this breed of student takes college-level classes while still in high school. A challenging course load, coupled with the opportunity to earn college credit from a passionate, hands-on instructor was enough motivation for the 22 member troop of AP Environmental Science students at South Sumter High to become Ms. Emily Keeler's captive audience for forty-five minutes per day, for two nine week periods. A veteran teacher of 26 years, Ms. Keeler has spent 25 years in Sumter County, and the last five years as a Chemistry and AP Environmental Science teacher at South Sumter High in Bushnell, Florida.

Affectionately referred to as, "The APES," students in Ms. Keeler's Advanced Placement (AP) Environmental Science class had a full-year course syllabus designed to be the equivalent of one college semester. Unlike most other introductory college-level science courses, AP Environmental Science is comprised of content from a variety of departments: geology, biology, environmental studies, chemistry and geography. While the nature of this course was interdisciplinary, there were several, major, unifying themes that provided a structure and foundation for learning, such as: science is a process; energy conversions underlie all ecological processes; the earth itself is one inter-connected system; humans alter natural systems; environmental problems have a cultural and social context; and human survival depends on developing practices that will achieve sustainable systems.

South Sumter High School students with James Morris of CEMEX and Mark Stephens of the Colinas Group.

Lee Walton of Flatwoods Consulting commented on the inter-connected nature of the course and the mining project. "The real-world experience that these students were afforded through the participation of local experts in the fields of geology, ecology, surveying, engineering, and law is not typically part of the high school academic curriculum," he said. "In fact, it is uncommon even through the college graduate school level." Alyssa Ibarra, a student in Ms. Keeler's APES class, also recognized the importance of these partnerships to her learning. "Students don't usually get opportunities like this, so to be given this chance at this age, I feel very lucky. It is something I will never forget."

Ensuring that students will be college and/or career ready upon graduation from high school has been echoed in Tallahassee through Governor Rick Scott's Senate Bill 1076 regarding Transformational Education. Through his legislation, it is hoped that Florida students will have the necessary skills to compete for jobs in a competitive, global economy. To this end, College Board, the parent company of AP, offers college admissions departments a consistent measure of coursework across high schools in different districts, states, and counties through their rigorous pre-requisites and course requirements. For AP Environmental Science, these criteria consist mainly of analyzing scientific principles through laboratory experiences, but also include discussions, written assignments and research projects. While some teachers may be tempted to simply cover the material, Ms. Keeler (who believes in depth, not breadth), took her AP Environmental Science course to a completely different level. When asked about the secret to her success, she, commented, "I am willing to ask for help from anyone who can make my students succeed. I also try to give my students multiple ways to be successful. There is more out there than just the textbook and sitting at a desk, she explained." Sydney Rodriguez, an APES student, appreciated Ms. Keeler's differentiated approach and her resourcefulness in incorporating opportunities for hands-on learning. "This project allowed us to actually experience the material, which made the class more than just reading a textbook. Material that is read is often forgotten. It's much easier to remember when you go outside and learn it."

HONOR

School Supt. Rick Shirley.

"She is a great teacher," Shirley said. "She cares a lot about her kids and she's a very humble teacher.

"She's the first one to say it's an honor to be selected," he said. "She's definitely an outstanding professional who has a fantastic amount of passion for kids."

The other 2013-2014 District Teachers of the Year winners invited to the meeting came from Brevard, Indian River, Lake, Marion, Orange, Osceola, Polk, Seminole and Volusia counties.

Each of Florida's 67 school districts selects a Teacher of the Year who is then considered for statewide recognition. The Florida Teacher of the Year is chosen from more than 180,000 public school teachers throughout the state by a selection committee representing teachers, principals, parents and the business community.

Florida's top educator is selected on the basis of the superior ability to teach and communicate knowledge of the subject taught, professional development, philosophy of teaching, and outstanding school and community service. The most important qualification is the teacher's ability to inspire a love of learning in students of all backgrounds and abilities.

Eight South Sumter Middle School students in 'Take Stock in Children'

Once again, South Sumter Middle School was well represented at the annual contract signing celebration at Lake Sumter State College. These students are on track to receive a two-year college tuition scholarship, once they complete the program and graduate high school. Out of all the participating middle schools in both Lake and Sumter counties, South Sumter had the most recipients with eight students. Those students are shown here (left to right): Justin Null, Ariel Zapata, Alissa Carneglia, Oscar Andrade, Lorena Arredondo, Aliaya Simmons. Not Pictured: Skiey Bennett, Katelyn Williams.

Joining the flock at Dade Park

Bob Reichman
Editor

It was an adventure in flying, no matter if you were bird or human.

Late last month, Dade Battlefield Park, in Bushnell, presented its first Dade Swallow-tailed Kite and Wildlife Festival.

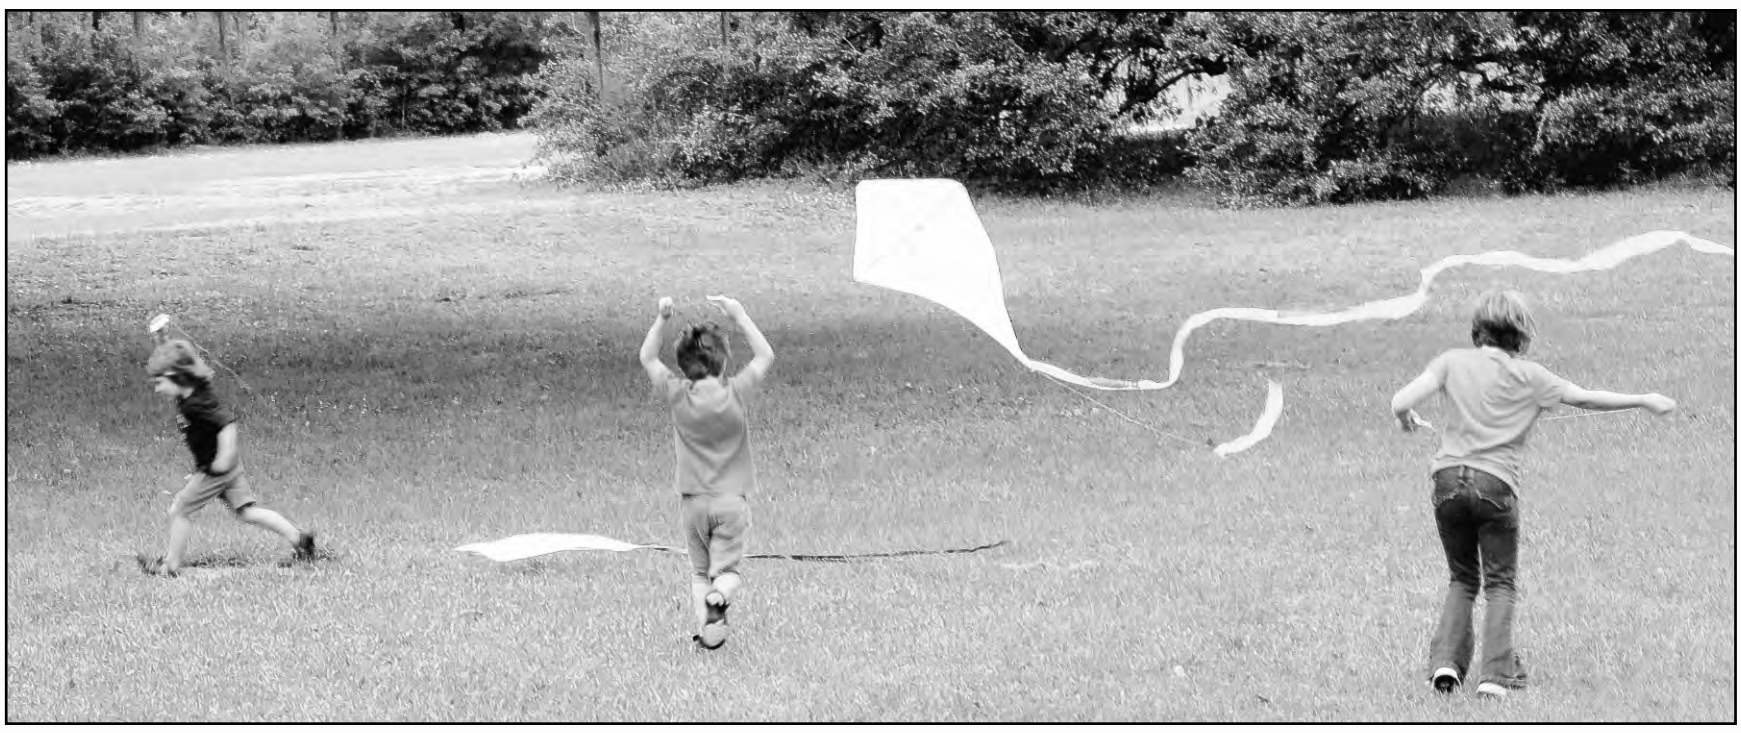
The event included both an educational overview of the swallow-tailed kite, a bird known for its long glides and ability to capture its prey from the tops of trees; and an opportunity for patrons to make their own birdhouses and fly their own kites, of the hobby variety.

Park supporters decided to sponsor the event based on the substantial amount of swallow-tailed kites that frequent the park, according to park administrative assistant Kristin Wood.

While cool and rainy weather resulted in a lower-than-hoped crowd, those who did attend said they enjoyed the day, she said.

Based on the positive comments about the event, it is expected to be held again next year.

And then there were kites … visitors were able to build their own kites to fly in the open park areas, as they took part in the Swallowtailed Kite bird festival.



There's nothing quite like flying the very kite you made.

The crowd gathered at the "kitescopes" for a look at the birds, nesting in trees around the park.

Wildwood athlete honored

Winner of the annual Wildwood Athletic Club Scholarship for 2012-2013 is Jonathan Nesmith of Wildwood Middle High School (right). Nesmith excelled in football and track, as well as academics. Club president Lester Lucas made the scholarship presentation at the school on Wednesday, May 8, during the annual awards celebration.

Hale jumps into Wildwood football

Larry Bugg
Times Correspondent

Jimbo Hale is having an odd spring.

Hale, 39, is the new head football coach at Wildwood High School and he is only there a couple of days a week.

He is still coaching up in Georgia and will be fulltime in Wildwood starting in August.

He is originally from Gainesville, Ga. He earned a degree from Trinity Bible College in North Dakota. He is two credits from a masters degree at Georgia Southern.

He is in his second year of head coaching. He has 15 years of total coaching.

Wildwood will play Thursday, May 23 at Hawthorne.

"I'm a transient coach," he said. "I am finishing up my teaching contract. It has been difficult. It could be worse.

In 2012, the Wildcats record was 4-7 and they were undefeated in the district.

He has been married for 14 years to Jessica. They have four children, Chris, 12, Matt, seven, Karlee, five and Gracie three.

Hale knows the Wildcats need some depth.

"We are very thin on the offensive line," he said. "They were loaded last year. We have to work on depth.

"We have a lot of guys who can run. Defensively, we are running three-five. We have to cross train a few guys on the offensive and defensive lines. We don't have a lot of depth.

"(Running back) Kendrick Brown is one of our best players. He had about 1600 yards rushing last year. Torre Parker is the quarterback. The competition is still on.

"At back, we have several people competing. Anthony Wong has stepped up at fullback.

"Defensively, Donte Johnson at linebacker and Marquise Mitchell is playing outside linebacker. Austin Gore has done a good job hustling. He is doing a great job."

"We have about 40 in the team."

Hale likes what he sees mentally with the Wildwood High players.

"I love the attitude," Hale said. "We have a ways to go. A lot of it has to do with my being away. I think of Wildwood as a sleeping giant.

"This is a football crazy town. I love the attitude. The staff is doing a great job of keeping the attitude.

"I really love it here."

He will be teaching weight training and physical training in the fall.

In 2012, the Wildcats record was 4-7 and they were undefeated in the district.

Wildwood has only two district foes and they are from the same district as last year.

Crescent City, Pierson Taylor and Wildwood are in the Class 1A-District 8. It's the same except that Villages High moved up.

The Kickoff Classic Game will be at Chiefland High on Aug. 23.

They will open the game at home against South Sumter.

Dozens of residents gathered at Lincoln Park recently, for the annual Bushnell Community Spring Festival.

Hosted by the Bushnell Men's Club, the event honors seniors in the community and veterans, while offering the community a chance to get together and fellowship.

The men's club has been around for several years, helping residents in the community and hosting community events.

The picnic included a barbecue lunch with homemade goodies that ranged from potato salad and baked beans to peach cobbler.

Live music was performed with saxophones, drums, guitars and a keyboard and families and friends settled in for a springtime visit.

The men's club focuses on helping the seniors in the community with everything from mowing lawns to food needs. They've been working on a local cemetery with fencing too.

In an earlier interview, event coordinator Jesse Hill said because it's a small community, there's a network of communication that enables them to keep a handle on residents' needs.

The Bushnell Men's Club members include: Twayne Rushing, Kenny Curtis, Charles Castle, Larry McLaughlin, Joe Neal, Robert Godfrey, Doug Simmons, Jessie Hill, Everett Clark, Terry Neal, Willie Hill. Robert Rushing, Joe Henderson and Charlie Edward.

Get ready for day camping

Bob Reichman
Editor

Campers were plentiful last year during the Pioneer Days Camp. Organizers advise signing up early.

It's only May but organizers are hoping that youngsters sign up early for two day camps being offered this summer at Dade Battlefield Historic State Park.

With limited space and more applicants that space allowed last year, it's a wise idea to sign up early if you're interested.

Pioneer Day Camp is scheduled for June 10 to June 14 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Bushnell park.

The camp is open to youngsters from 8 years old through 12.

Pioneer Day Camp provides children with an opportunity to step back in time to the 1800s as they get hands-on experience in historical living arts, with fun activities from soap making to cow milking. History will come alive as campers are informed about Florida life in the 1800s.

Here's a glimpse of the schedule:

Day 1 - Introduction to Dade Battlefield

Day 2 - Make and play with Pioneer and Seminole Indian toys and games. Learn old-time dances and play with musical instruments of the 1800s.

Day 3 - Learn about food and milk in Pioneer Florida, how it was grown or raised and how it was prepared.

Day 4 - How did pioneers make soap, candles, brooms, dyes and other necessities? And what was school like "way back then"? You'll learn all about it this session.

Day 5 - Learn soap carving, how to make palmetto scrub brushes and gourd houses. In the afternoon kids to showcase to parents what they've done during the week.

Fee for the camp is $75. per child.

Space is limited and application are accepted on a first-come basis.

Application and registration are available online at www.Dadebattlefield.com or contact Dade Battlefield Historic State Park - 7200 County Road 603, Bushnell, Fla., 33513, phone: 352-793-4781.

Following the Pioneer Day Camp, another camp launches in July.

The Nature Day Camp is scheduled from July 22 to July 26 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The camp is available to youngsters from 8 years old through 12 and promises a wild experience.

Children will get close up with o native wildlife and plants as they learn about the fascinating flora and fauna that make Florida such a special place.

Schedule outline :

Day 1 - Introduction to Central Florida's reptiles and amphibians.

Day 2 - Meet some of our native live birds brought to us from Homosassa Wildlife Park.

Day 3 - We'll take a walk in the forest to discover plants and fungi.

Day 4 - Learn about mammals and how to follow and identify tracks and scat.

Day 5 - Search for butterflies, spiders, doodlebugsand other insects.

We'll end the day with campers showcasing, in a wild show, to parents and family what they have learned during the week.

The fee is $75. per child and space is limited with applicants accepted on a first-come basis.

Application and registration are available from the sources listed above.

The Garden Bug

Sweetbriar Rose

Rainshowers draw a scent like apples from the leaves of this well-loved, tall-growing shrub. Sometimes called "Shakespeare's Rose" due to his mention of it in his sonnets, this plant is tolerant of alkaline soils, and its seeds and cuttings can be ordered online.

The chase is on during a beagle play date

Linda Graves
Sumter DART

"Mom's Gone – Game On!" That is Gabriel's motto. Our new little beagle puppy is full of mischief. When I get home from work, I find toys scattered all over the living room and kitchen. I look in the back yard and find magazines and books torn up in the yard.

Couch pillows are outside in the sand box. And large doggie beds are somehow pulled threw doggie doors that you would think was impossible to fit through, and lying all around the back yard. He is a little thief that loves to steal our belongings. "Good thing you are so cute!" I tell Gabriel, as I pick up after my naughty puppy.

"Pent up puppy energy needs to be channel into exercise and productive fun time", I thought. And just then, I received a call from my friend Jane Hamilton, who has two beagles of her own.

"Let's get together for a beagle play date!" was Jane's suggestion.

Just as Gabriel was adopted from our local Humane Society/SPCA, so were Jane's beagles, Bogie and Scout. Apparently, they needed some exercise too.

What a great time we all had! The beagles whooo, whooo, whoooed, and the chase was on as Gabriel ran around the yard with a toy hedgehog, with Bogie and Scout in hot pursuit.

Then time to sniff, sniff, sniff, and suddenly the chase was on again.

Jane and I were sitting outside laughing at all the action in her backyard. Beagle ears were flying, as they ran by in total joyful abandonment.

Play date was great for tiring out my mischievous little beagle. That, along with twice a day daily walks, and then two mile walks every weekend that Gabriel joins Hanna Banana and I on, has helped my little kleptomaniac curb his thieving ways.

Gabriel being pursued by Bogie and Scout.

Even though dogs enjoy the company and camaraderie of their own species, my personal opinion as well as some others have observed that dogs of the same breed seem to interact and play together with even more enjoyment.

Judging by our recent play date, I would say the beagles enjoyed themselves immensely.

Consider age and activity level when adopting a pet. Be sure you are able to give your new furry family member all the exercise he/she needs to help transition mischievous behavior into good behavior.

Be patient. Soon your active pet will grow up into a well behaved, loving and loyal companion.

Notice of Intent to Issue
PUBLIC NOTICE

STATE OF FLORIDA
DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION
NOTICE OF INTENT TO ISSUE

The Department of Environmental Protection gives notice of its intent to issue permit number FLA013532 to Central Beef Industries, LLC, which applied on August 27, 2012 to the Department of Environmental Protection for a permit to operate and expand an industrial wastewater treatment and disposal facility which land applies treated wastewater to a spray irrigation field. The facility is located at Latitude: 28° 38' 56.9917" N, Longitude: 82° 0' 31.549" W, on 571 West Kings Highway, Center Hill, FL 33514, in Sumter County.

The intent to issue and application file are available for public inspection during normal business hours, 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday, except legal holidays, at the Department's Southwest District Office, 13051 N Telecom Pkwy, Temple Terrace, Florida 33637-0926, at phone number (813)632-7600.

The Department will issue the permit with the attached conditions unless a timely petition for an administrative hearing is filed under Sections 120.569 and 120.57, Florida Statutes, within fourteen days of receipt of notice. The procedures for petitioning for a hearing are set forth below.

A person whose substantial interests are affected by the Department's proposed permitting decision may petition for an administrative proceeding (hearing) under Sections 120.569 and 120.57, Florida Statutes. The petition must contain the information set forth below and must be filed (received by the Clerk) in the Office of General Counsel of the Department at 3900 Commonwealth Boulevard, Mail Station 35, Tallahassee, Florida 32399-3000.

Under Rule 62-110.106(4), Florida Administrative Code, a person may request an extension of the time for filing a petition for an administrative hearing. The request must be filed (received by the Clerk) in the Office of General Counsel before the end of the time period for filing a petition for an administrative hearing.

Petitions filed by any persons other than those entitled to written notice under Section 120.60(3), Florida Statutes must be filed within fourteen days of publication of the notice or within fourteen days of receipt of the written notice, whichever occurs first. Section 120.60(3), Florida Statutes, however, also allows that any person who has asked the Department for notice of agency action may file a petition within fourteen days of receipt of such notice, regardless of the date of publication.

The petitioner shall mail a copy of the petition to the applicant at the address indicated above at the time of filing. The failure of any person to file a petition or request for an extension of time within fourteen days of receipt of notice shall constitute a waiver of that person's right to request an administrative determination (hearing) under Sections 120.569 and 120.57, Florida Statutes. Any subsequent intervention (in a proceeding initiated by another party) will be only at the discretion of the presiding officer upon the filing of a motion in compliance with Rule 28-106.205, Florida Administrative Code.

A petition that disputes the material facts on which the Department's action is based must contain the following information, as indicated in Rule 28-106.201, Florida Administrative Code:
(a) The name and address of each agency affected and each agency's file or identification number, if known;
(b) The name, address, and telephone number of the petitioner; the name, address, and telephone number of the petitioner's representative, if any, which shall be the address for service purposes during the course of the proceeding; and an explanation of how the petitioner's substantial interests will be affected by the determination;
(c) A statement of when and how the petitioner received notice of the Department's decision;
(d) A statement of all disputed issues of material fact. If there are none, the petition must so indicate;
(e) A concise statement of the ultimate facts alleged, including the specific facts the petitioner contends warrant reversal or modification of the Department's proposed action;
(f) A statement of the specific rules or statutes the petitioner contends require reversal or modification of the Department's proposed action; and
(g) A statement of the relief sought by the petitioner, stating precisely the action petitioner wishes the Department to take with respect to the Department's proposed action.

Because the administrative hearing process is designed to formulate final agency action, the filing of a petition means that the Department's final action may be different from the position taken by it in this notice. Persons whose substantial interests will be affected by any such final decision of the Department have the right to petition to become a party to the proceeding, in accordance with the requirements set forth above.

Mediation under Section 120.573, Florida Statutes, is not available for this proceeding.
