Mr. Thos. Sanders, one of the orange growers of Merritts Island was in town on Tuesday.

Miss Clara Sanders is at home again, having enjoyed her visit to the interior of the state very much.

Mrs. Lewis Andrews arrived on Monday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner S. Hardee.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Faber on October 22nd, a daughter. Mrs. Faber was Miss Alice Weinberg.

The string band from Titusville furnished music for the hop last Friday night and also for the one Monday night.

Mr. Grotjan Ronald passed through town last week on his way to Lotus. He has summered in New York and Maryland.

Mr. R. N. Andrews sustained a severe sprain in his back while trying to lift a form. He was confined to his room for several days.

Dr. Daniel is having the grounds surrounding his home put in order. His place is one of the most homelike and beautiful in our town.

Mr. Tom Gibbons has been at work on the library lot again and set out a number of plants, one, a variegated aloes, to balance our palm tree. Many thanks.

Capt. Schoonmaker returned on Friday, having enjoyed his vacation at Daytona and New Smyrna. He was accompanied home by his nephew, Will Lourcey.

Mr. S. H. Peck and family were on Monday's south-bound train en route to their winter home at Rockledge. They were accompanied by little Carrie Taylor.

Capt. and Mrs. Schoonmaker entertained a number of their friends at a musicale at their residence the latter part of last week. An enjoyable time is reported.

The steamer Canaveral passed on to Titusville on Tuesday to undergo a thorough overhauling. The Hypoluxo will go on the run during the Canaveral's absence.

Mr. Daiger will not hold services in the Methodist church on the second Sunday in November, as he will assist in a series of revival meetings in Miami at that time.

Mrs. Chas. Currier, mother of Mr. Osceola Currier, died recently in Newark, N. J., after a lingering illness. ... Currier spent her winters at The P... Rockledge.

News was received that Mrs. M... Wesson, who lost her husband by a ... lent death on October 16th, 1901, lost her father on the same day 1902, almost the same hour. Her father was killed by an elevator in New Haven, Conn.

Mr. A. A. Taylor received a telegram stating that his wife was seriously ill in Jacksonville. He went there on Saturday. From recent reports we are pleased to learn she is improving and will be able to be moved home shortly.

EAU GALLIE.

A cool wave on Tuesday and Wednesday last, the first of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Mackie took a run to Roseland and return on Saturday last.

Heavy showers and a peculiar colored sky on Monday eve last in this district.

Mrs. J. B. Smith is just completing an addition to her cottage on Houston street.

Don't omit seeing the sailing race at Eau Gallie on Saturday next, November 1st.

New streets and alleys are being opened in our town—a much needed improvement.

The water in the Eau Gallie river is now at about its greatest height for this year.

The sharpie Lizzie is again in commission and ready for the winter season's sailing.

H. U. Hodgson's new house is being pushed forward to completion as fast as possible.

Capt. Bennett's launch is again in fine order. W. P. Underwood, of Roseland, did the work.

Miss Newell has taught one month in No. 5 and gives entire satisfaction to the patrons of our school.

Capt. Fischer, who was in Eau Gallie in his cat boat the Elise F., left for Titusville on Saturday last.

The Canvas Back arrived in Eau Gallie on Tuesday last. This is the vesel Capt. Canova will sail on Saturday next.

The recent rains have flooded the backwoods and driven in quantities of hogs—a great nuisance and menace to our gardens.

Mr. S. K. Watts has purchased a fine orange grove from Mr. John Aspinwall. The grove is situated on the Eau Gallie river.

Eugene Spiller has placed a large street lamp on the walk through his grove on the Eau Gallie river. This will be a great convenience on dark nights.

The steamer Spartan is on Hodgson's ways being overhauled and made ready for the coming winter's work. Messrs. Cole and Booth are now the owners.

Mrs. H. U. Hodgson was called back to Olean, N. Y., owing to the illness of her mother, Mrs. N. A. Danforth. The latest telegrams are that Mrs. Danforth is somewhat better.

The Eau Gallie drainage canal from Lake Washington will soon be under way. A number of men are now laying out the preliminary work and Mr. Hopkins is expected some time in November.

The many friends throughout the state of Ex-Gov. W. H. Gleason will regret to hear of his serious illness. At this writing he is more comfortable, but not considered out of danger by his physicians, Drs. Holmes and Peek. Mrs. Gleason returned Sunday from St. Augustine, owing to Mr. Gleason's illness.

Geo. R. Wallace, agent for the Buffalo Gasoline Motor company, arrived in Eau Gallie on Tuesday last with the launch Buffalo, and with the following gentlemen on board: A. J. Canova, E. R. Koile, Frank L. Bowen and Lucius Thomas. These gentlemen will remain for the races on Saturday next.

Dr. E. W. Warren, of Brooker, Fla., arrived in town Monday night and left for home Tuesday. The doctor expects to locate in Eau Gallie for the purpose of practicing medicine, and will return about the first of November. We welcome him heartily to our town. A good resident doctor is something we have long needed.

DR. LEON A. PEEK, Physician and Surgeon. Residence, Melbourne. At Eau Gallie on Tuesday and Friday afternoons.

MELBOURNE.

The Mismer place is being put in good shape for the winter season.

Mrs. S. F. Gibbs is having some improvements made in her home.

Dr. Purdy, of Hobe Sound, was a pleasant visitor to our town this week.

Miss Marsh, Mrs. Phillips and Miss Eaton are having their places on the bluff fenced in.

We hear that quite a number of our people intend to attend the boat races at Eau Gallie on Saturday.

Capt. Sam Martin has his launch Dreamer in fine order now and we predict a busy season for this favorite launch.

Mr. P. W. Bonter writes to friends in Melbourne that although he has sold his two houses on the bluff, he intends to come to Melbourne again.

A pleasant birthday party was given last Tuesday evening to Miss Mattie Brown at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. M. Brown.

A neat, clean bakery will soon be opened in the building formerly occupied by the Melbourne State bank, by Mrs. Horton and Mrs. Williams.

Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Brown and daughter, Miss Ernesta, are again nicely located in their handsome home on the corner of New Haven and Washington avenues. It is needless to say their old friends are glad to have them back to Melbourne.

An Ancient Foe

To health and happiness is Scrofula—as ugly as ever since time immemorial.

It causes bunches in the neck, disfigures the skin, inflames the mucous membrane, wastes the muscles, weakens the bones, reduces the power of resistance to disease and the capacity for recovery, and develops into consumption.

"A bunch appeared on the left side of my neck. It caused great pain, was lanced, and became a running sore. I went into a general decline. I was persuaded to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and when I had taken six bottles my neck was healed, and I have never had any trouble of the kind since." MRS. K. T. SNYDER, Troy, Ohio.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills will rid you of it, radically and permanently, as they have rid thousands.

causing the inmates to vacate. Boat riding over fences and the tops of young orange trees is a novelty to some who have never seen high water in the Ohio or Mississippi valleys, but there is plenty of dry land here yet and some are still working as usual.

Fruitful Trees.

The orange tree is very fruitful. A single tree will produce 20,000 oranges fit for use. A good lemon tree will produce 8,000 lemons.

The Mandrake.

"If a man pulls up a mandrake," says an old time writer, "he will surely die soon thereafter. In common prudence it is best to tie a dog to the plant and thus escape the evil thyself."

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Bay, N. Y., ran a ten-penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. "I thought at once of all the pain and soreness this would cause me," he says, "and immediately applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and occasionally afterwards. To my surprise it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by Wilson & Son.

Scott's Emulsion offers an easy way out of the difficulty. Child weakness often means starvation, not because of lack of food, but because the food does not feed.

Scott's Emulsion really feeds and gives the child growing strength.

Whatever the cause of weakness and failure to grow—Scott's Emulsion seems to find it and set the matter right.
