RIVER NEWS NOTES

COCOA

Work has begun on the fill for the new dock. Cocoa feels the importance of that dock and everyone is pleased with the prospect of such a fine one.

Mr. D. C. Canfield will move his family to Cocoa as soon as a house is ready for them. Mr. Canfield is a first class photographer and artist, having studied in Germany and New York City.

Miss Marguerite Dixon reached home last Thursday from a visit to Capt. and Mrs. Fischer, in Savannah and other points in Georgia.

A petition is being circulated to establish a rural free delivery route from Cocoa to Frontenac. It will be a great benefit to the community through which it will pass, not only as an inducement to new settlers, but as a convenience to those near here.

Mrs. Thos. Crawford, who has been in charge of the Cocoa House during Mrs. Grimes absence, left on Wednesday for Fort Pierce for a visit, and then goes to Jacksonville.

Miss Kizzanah Mendel visited her sister who is teaching in the Cocoa high school for several days. Miss Kizzanah holds a position in the telegraph office at White Springs.

Miss Nancy Smith and brother, Will, left on Monday night for Kissimmee for a visit.

Mr. Snell Hendry's son has been quite ill, but is improving now.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Stackhouse, of N. Y. state, reached Cocoa Tuesday to spend the winter at the Fairview Land Company's place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fiske, who have spent the summer in Michigan and Canada, reached home Wednesday.

Mrs. R. Taylor, of Daytona, and Miss Lett, of Palm Beach, visited Mrs. Geo. Taylor for several days last week.

A number of the Island people attended services at the Methodist church Sunday night. The revival closed Tuesday night.

Tunie Davis left on Monday to join his father in Orlando.

Travis Bros. have sold their store to a party from New York state, and are taking stock this week.

The Ft. Pierce ball team came out victors in the match held here last Tuesday. A dance was given in the opera house for them, and all voted the Ft. Pierce boys jolly good fellows.

The Thursday half-holidays are of the past, and busy days are ahead.

Announcements were received of the marriage of Miss Lena Seifert, of Philadelphia, to Mr. Geo. Johnston, Oct. 6, 1909.

INDIANOLA

C. O. Blyth, of Merritt, was a caller in town Sunday.

W. R. Sanders, of Miami, was calling on his brother, T. H. Sanders, one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Field were calling on Mr. T. H. Sanders and family Sunday afternoon.

E. Madison has the contract to paint the residence and out-buildings of John L. Crawford.

D. S. Nisbet has a force of carpenters raising his building another story.

Mrs. John E. Reed spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Grant.

A good norther is preferable to a genuine storm.

Capt. Bart Field put his boat in Pine Island Creek Monday night, also all of the Courtenay boats were anchored in the creek, expecting the storm, which did not materialize.

Mrs. Wm. F. Smethie was in town Tuesday.

Miss Eva Owens, of Georgiana, is spending a few days with Miss Louise Cannata.

Mr. Hugh Drawdy is in town looking at Field and Schuyler's new launch.

Your cough annoys you. Keep on hacking and tearing the delicate membranes of your throat if you want to be annoyed. But if you want relief, want to be cured, take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by all dealers.

CITY POINT

Mr. W. C. Hewitt, of the Citrus Exchange, an expert in the handling of oranges—especially picking and packing—was the guest of the Rev. W. H. Cresson for a day and night, and on Monday morning met and made an informal talk on packing house methods to a large delegation of growers from the Courtenay and City Point associations, which was listened to with deep interest.

The new packing house of the City Point Citrus Growers' Association is being rapidly pushed forward to completion. A contract has been made with E. N. Maul to put in the interior equipments, which will include two 20-foot improved maul roller sizers and a grading belt, as adopted in the large California packing houses. Mr. S. C. Warner is furnishing one of his 12-foot cylindrical washers and J. P. Campbell a 4 h. p. Hagan engine.

Quite an excitement was created during the week by the circulating of a petition for a rural delivery mail route, which was received with intense disfavor, and a counter petition was at once started and signed by every householder at City Point and by a majority of those at Sharpes.

Dr. W. P. Glover, of Indianola and Macon, was a visitor in City Point on Monday.

Mr. Hibbs, of Rockledge, narrowly escaped a serious injury on Saturday last, by being struck with a heavy piece of falling timber while at work on the new packing house. Fortunately it glanced and only bruised him badly.

Quite a number of growers on Merritt Island have joined the Citrus Growers' Association and will bring their fruit to City Point to be packed. About 35,000 boxes are now pledged.

A letter from the Rev. Milledge Walker says they expect to leave their home in Canada on Wednesday, Oct. 13th, and after visiting friends in New England and New Jersey for about 10 days, will sail from Baltimore on M. & M. steamer for Jacksonville, and should arrive in Melbourne about the end of the month.

GEORGIANA

Miss Mary Wittfeld leaves this week for Palm Beach, where she will spend two or three months.

Mrs. Jane Taylor went to Bonaventure Friday to stay a few days with her friend, Mrs. Naylor, who has had the misfortune to fall and break her hip.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ramsey were in town last Sunday afternoon.

Five large rattlesnakes have been killed on the old Hiscock place since the work of clearing began.

John Brown is putting out tomato plants for Mr. Wadsworth, and Will Wittfeld is starting a garden on the Bond place this week.

Mamie and Eddie Ramsey, of Footman, spent Saturday and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Munson.

The guava crop is off early this year, and guavas are scarce now. The Japan persimmons are beginning to ripen and a few early grapefruit are ready to eat.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Munson took dinner with E. V. Hall and family last Friday, it being Miss Nell's birthday. The dinner was certainly fine and the birthday cake was a veritable snowbank with a heart of gold.

There was a dance at the Carter cottage last Saturday night.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has become famous for its cures of coughs, colds, croup and influenza. Try it when in need. It contains no harmful substance and always gives prompt relief. Sold by all dealers.

Lorena Chandler is staying with her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Quarterman, so she can attend school.

Colds on the Chest

Ask your doctor the medical name for a cold on the chest. He will say, "Bronchitis." Ask him if it is ever serious. Lastly, ask him if he prescribes Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for this disease. Keep in close touch with your family physician.

Ayer's — We publish our formulas. We banish alcohol from our medicines. We urge you to consult your doctor

When you tell your doctor about the bad taste in your mouth, loss of appetite for breakfast, and frequent headaches, and when he sees your coated tongue, he will say, "You are bilious." Ayer's Pills work well in such cases.

—Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.—

EAU GALLIE

C Ainsworth and wife arrived Monday from a summer spent in Grand Rapids, Mich., and are settled in their winter home.
