NAPOLEON B. BROWARD GOVERNOR OF FLORIDA

BROWARD SUCCEEDS BRYAN

As Candidate for the United States Senator for Florida in the Coming Democratic Primaries

(Jacksonville Metropolis, 26th.)

Gov. Napoleon B. Broward has entered the United States senatorial race, having decided to become a candidate this morning. After he arrived at this decision he issued the following statement for publication, which he at once sent to the Metropolis:

To the Great-Hearted People of Florida:

Though it seems a harsh thing to do so soon after leaving the graveside of Senator Bryan, whom we all loved and rejoiced in honoring, and who had so greatly honored us by the example set by him in his brief young life, nevertheless, life is such that it is necessary for us to go on doing, though our hearts are laden with grief.

Those who are nearest and dearest to him have expressed the wish that I should take up the fight, where he was compelled by death to lay it down. Some have made their wishes known by letter, others by telegram, while others have met me and made their arguments face to face: many urging that it was my duty to the people of the state.

Responding to the wish expressed by our great-hearted people, I have concluded to be a candidate for the nomination for United States senator in the coming democratic primaries now so near at hand; and my reason for stating at this early hour this fact, is that the time is very short before the primaries are to be held and if I am to get the information to the public of Florida that I am a candidate, it is necessary to start at once.

To be a senator is an honor; to be a public servant is a greater honor; to be senator and a public servant is the greatest of all honors that the people of the state can confer or to which a son of the people can aspire. It is my ambition to be both your senator and your public servant.

N. B. Broward.

All kinds of rumors are in the air as to who will get the senatorial appointment to succeed the late W. J. Bryan to fill out the unexpired term ending March 4, 1909, but the governor is not ready yet to give his hand away.

One of the curious little things developed at the fruit growers' hearing before the interstate commerce commission at Jacksonville was that Florida orange going east paid 28 cents a crate between Jacksonville and Montgomery. California oranges coming east paid only 16 cents between Montgomery and Jacksonville. It must be a good deal nearer from Montgomery to Jacksonville than it is from Jacksonville to Montgomery.—Tampa Times.

BIG STICK FOR CASTRO

Indications are that Venezuela's Contumacious President Will be Severely Disciplined

Washington, March 26.—Secretary Root, in response to a resolution, will send to the senate all the facts in the possession of the state department regarding disputes between Americans and President Castro, of Venezuela. This correspondence will go back to the investigation by W. I. Calhoun, who looked into Venezuela for President McKinley. It will include not only asphalt contracts, but contracts made by American business men in almost all lines, which have been abrogated arbitrarily by Castro.

Senator Lodge has prepared a resolution authorizing the president to appoint a commission to go to Venezuela and "use such means as seem necessary" to get justice for American investors there. This is because of the refusal of Castro to even discuss his actions with the state department.

This resolution has been submitted to the White House and to Secretary Root and approved by both. When the correspondence is presented Senator Lodge will introduce his resolution, and it is certain that it will be passed at once. The president will then appoint the commissioner, who will go to Caracas, escorted by a part of the Atlantic squadron.

CHESTER GILLETTE MUST OCCUPY THE FATAL CHAIR

Governor Hughes Refuses to Commute the Fate of the Slayer of Grace Brown

Auburn, N. Y., March 27.—Mrs. Gillette, mother of Chester Gilette, under sentence of death for the murder of his sweetheart "Billy" Brown, has practically given up all hope of saving her son's life, as she received a telegram from Governor Hughes' secretary stating that Governor Hughes did not think himself justified in interfering.

She called on Chester today and told him all hope was gone. There was a heart-rending interview, although the boy bore up bravely. He will be executed Monday morning.

INDIANA FOR BRYAN

Taggart Seems in Control of the State Democratic Convention

Indianapolis, Ind., March 27.—The second day of the state democratic convention opened well. A platform will be adopted and a state ticket nominated.

The indications are that National Chairman Thomas Taggart has secured control of the convention and the anti-Taggart delegates will not be able to unseat him.

Hon. Robert W. Miers, temporary chairman of the convention, delivered an able address, and among other things, he said: "Our national leader is already chosen by the people. He possesses all the requirements. He is the peer of Thomas Jefferson, the idol of the people and is William Jennings Bryan."

SEEMS TO HAVE MADE UP WITH SULLIVAN

Chicago, March 27.—In a harmonious meeting of the democratic state central committee held here yesterday, W. J. Bryan was indorsed for the presidency in emphatic language. It was decided that the state convention should be held in Springfield, Ill., on April 23. The friends of Roger Sullivan of Illinois, member of the democratic national committee, were in complete control of the meeting.
