TEAPOT GROCERY

There were forty arrivals at the Montezuma hotel yesterday, among them being A. M. Holt, Summerfield; B. Feinberg, C. B. Eastern, J. D. Graham, H. Head, G. C. Scott, W. E. Granger, of Dunnellon; Dr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Dame, of Inverness; H. L. Brooks, Inverness, R. J. Knight, of Tampa.

It is rumored that an attempt is to be made, the first dark night, to steal the brick pile on the sidewalk in front of the Baptist church. It is to hoped that the police will be too public spirited to interfere.

"The Bargeman's Child" is a very interesting little story being told in pictures at the Berlin theater this evening and you can't afford to miss it. "The Black Witch" and "The Dog Police" are also good.

Several of the members of the Ocala Rifles left so many locks of hair with the Pensacola girls that they came home almost baldheaded.

When you want books come to a book store. The Ocala News Co. is the only first-class book store in Ocala.

FOR SALE—Hand-made shadow embroidery waist fronts. No. 21 Watula street, city.

RIFLEMEN CAME HOME

The Ocala Rifles arrived last night on the Seaboard. Then men are glad to be at home again and back to their several business occupations, but they say they had a splendid time and were treated most royally by the good citizens of Pensacola and are most enthusiastic in their praise of the people there. The Ocala Rifles had their kitchen equipment, two cooks and plenty to eat in camp, but very fe wof the men ever took their meals at the mess tent, as the citizens insisted upon the men eating at their private tables, and nothing was too good for the soldier boys. A provisional company was maintained in Pensacola, made up of officers and men of the different companies who volunteered to stay, Ocala furnished nine of these, namely: Sergeants Charley Leitner and Fred Weihe, Corporal Frank Booher and Privates James Leitner, Douglass, R. J. V. Bock, Jesse Smoak, Clarence Schenck and I. R. Duffy. The company, with over a hundred special deputies sworn in by the county sheriff, is deemed sufficient to keep order. The members of our company, or at least a number of them, are afraid that there will yet be trouble before the strike is setled and everything regains its normal condition. Ocala is glad to see the boys at home again, for most of the officers and men filled important positions and could be spared only with great inconvenience.

CARD OF THANKS

Please allow us space in your paper to extend our sincere thanks to our many friends of Ocala, who so kindly assisted us during our late and sad bereavement. May the Lord bless each of them, is the prayer of Mrs. E. J. Parr, Son and Daughter.

EASTER EGG HUNT

Yesterday afternoon from 3:30 to 5 o'clock little Misses Elizabeth and Kitty Davis entertained their little friends of the neighborhood with a jolly Easter egg hunt in the spacious grounds of the Davis home on Souts Third street. Every guest found a plentiful number of the brilliantly colored bunny eggs where the rabbit had hidden them about the grounds and the shouts of joy as a new nest was found were well worth hearing. The young folks were right well entertained by Misses Elizabeth and Kitty and enjoyed the afternoon as only children can.

SPLENDID PIECE OF EMBALMING

In the undertaking rooms of Messrs. Smith & Roberts, corner of Fort King avenue and Main street, there is a specimen of as good embalming as the state can show. About ten days ago Robert Wilson, a negro barber who had a shop in front of Cobb's livery stables, was found dead in his room, death having resulted from natural causes. His wife was in Georgia and was wired for instructions for the body. She wired to embalm it and hold till she arrived. Messrs. Smith & Roberts did so and still have the body. The man is as well preserved and as natural looking as when alive. The body is not only perfectly preserved, but so lifelike that one can scarcely realize that the man is dead. He is leaning up in the window where he may be seen by looking over the opaque glass in the lower part of the window. He stands as though alive, leaning slightly back into the corner, the body rigid, one arm across his breast, the other at the side. If the widow does not call for the body very soon it will be interred here. No special pains were taken with the body as it was not expected to keep for any length of time, but it shows what these gentlemen could do in a particular case.

CLARK IS IN JAIL

The young clock repairer, J. R. Clark, who killed a negro man at Petteway's still near Dunnellon on the 11th, has been arrested and brought to Ocala, where he is in jail awaiting a preliminary hearing. The young man was released at Dunnellon after the coroner's inquest, on his own recognizance, but the subsequent information of the killing was such that the officers had him re-arrested. His brother is here to assist him.

JUNIOR LEAGUE SUNDAY

The Junior League held a very interesting Easter service Sunday led by Leroy Bridges. There were thirty-five members present and some older ones. Carleton Ervin presided at the organ and the music was fine. Next Sunday's meeting will be led by Alfred Green. Subject, "A New Song." A special program will be arranged, the principle feature being good music. Every friend of the juniors is cordially invited to be present Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when they will hold their regular monthly business meeting at the residence of Mrs. Ervin, after which they will have a rehearsal in music. Saturday afternoon the roll of honor members of the league will have their April outing.
