SHIPS HAVE SEPARATED

San Francisco's Naval Pageant Dissolved—Battleships Will Go to Australasia in July

San Francisco, May 19.—The Atlantic fleet of battleships, after twelve days of naval pageantry and merrymaking in San Francisco harbor, sailed yesterday for Fuget sound and will arrive off Seattle on May 22. One-half of the ships will dock at the Bremerton navy yard while north, and the others will return here for repairs and painting beneath the water line.

Orders call for the reassembling of the fleet in San Francisco harbor not later than July 3. On July 7 the fleet sails for Honolulu, and after a week's stay there goes direct to Auckland.

The fleet of armored cruisers under command of Rear Admiral Dayton, sailed south and Rear Admiral Sperry, in command of the Atlantic ffeet, hoisted for the first time his commanding flag of blue.

The long line of armored cruisers which sailed for Santa Barbara was headed by the flagship West Virginia and included the Colorado, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, Washington and Califoria. The protected cruiser Charleston, flagship of Rear Admiral Swinburn, also sailed with the fleet, but her destination is Monterey.

The gunboat Yorktown accompanied the cruisers to Santa Barbara. The South Dakota, one of the eight armored cruisers composing the second squadron of the Pacific fleet, which returned Saturday from her official trip, did not sail with the others.

Last of the official entertainments provided here for the Atlantic and Pacific fleets was the banquet tendered Saturday night at the Fairmont Hotel by San Francisco Council No. 615, Knights of Columbus, to the petty officers of the two fleets. The arrangements for the affair were carried out by Rev. Father Gleason, chaplain of the flagship Connecticut. Admirals Sperry and Thomas both spoke and there were in attendance Capts. Southerland of the New Jersey, and Nicholson of the Nebraska. Many wives of officers and petty officers also were among the diners. Admiral Sperry made the first speech since assuming command of the Atlantic fleet. He declared that the enlisted men of the navy were the bulwarks in the defense of the country.

"Their training," he continued, "is entirely in the hands of the petty officers, who stand between the men and the commandinf officers. We have now in the navy the most splendid body of young men that could be selected in all the world. Above everything else they are American gentlemen and their training should always be along that line. And when they salute a superior officer they should remember it is no hard line of caste that is drawn, but that it is merely the courtesy due, and the salutation of one gentleman to another. They are brave men and true, all of them, and I am proud to command such a force."

ARTILLERY WAS TOO MUCH FOR ARABS

Paris, May 19.—Official dispatches from Gen. Vigy, commander of the French forces in Algeria, who engaged in a fierce fight with Arabs on Thursday last stated that he occupied Boudenib, the stronghold of Mulai Hassen, after vigorously shelling the tribesmen, who numbered 6,000.

The enemy dispersed in all directions, abandoning their camp and large quantities of stores and ammunition. They suffered severe losses owing to the admirable handling of the artillery by the French. The latter lost three killed and nine wounded.

According to dispatches the occupation has had a widespread effect throughout the region, a number of submissions already having resulted.

THE DEAD MOCKING BIRD

(Charles O'Malley Foy.)

No more shall thy sweet voice at early dawn
Awake the world to vernal, balmy spring,
No more shall thou, bright harbinger of the morn
With thy clear notes the hope of gladness bring,
Not yet again, shall thy swift pinions fly
From bow to bow while sweetest music gushes free
From thy glad heart and seem to pierce the sky
And fill the world with its ecstatic melody.

To see thee on thy lowly, grassy bier,
Thy pulseless heart, birthplace of love's enduring song
I bow my head and for thee shed a tear
Nor deem it weak, unmanly, aught of wrong,
Since in my dreams I too, would sing and fly
And teach my thoughts to wend their way to God;
Yet lo, my form shall in the future lie
As low as thou, poor bird, now resting on the sod.

Thy silvery notes, like some bright, murmuring stream
Float on the air their cadence soft and sweet,
Again I hear thy harsh, discordant scream
When foes approach thy woodland mate's retreat,
Oh, matchless minstrel of a thousand lays
Lying here supine in death's kind tho' cold embrace,
Sweet songster of my boyhood's happy days
Within my heart thou has't a sacred place.

What mischance took thee from thy loving mate
And stilled thy heart with love and life o'erflowing?
Was it a sad decree of just tho' cruel fate
That robbed the world to heaven thy songs restoring?
Thy notes of love and joy to swell the angel choir
To sing praises unto Him who dwells were all is rest
While with the angels ever rising higher and higher
Thy ringing notes ascend in triumph with the blest.

HYMEN IN A HOSPITAL

Union of These Two Loving Hearts Could Not be Prevented by Ill Health

Macon, May 19.—T. R. Bennett, president of the Mercer Law Class, and a prominent young man of Waycross, Ga., and Miss Maude Simpson, a popular and attractive young lady of Waverly Hall, Ga., were married at the City Hospital yesterday.

Both young people were patients of the institution when the final word was said. They are still patients.

Miss Simpson was able to be at the bedside of the groom when the ceremony was performed. Mr. Bennett was too ill to sit up.

Rev. T. W. Calloway performed the ceremony. The couple have been lovers for six years. Illness brought both of them to the hospital, where they agreed to be married. Mr. Bennett is a popular student and will graduate in law at Mercer within the next two weeks. Two brothers of the groom, attending physicians and nurses at the hospital witnessed the happy affair.

ALABAMA FOR BRYAN

Birmingham, Ala., May 19.—Early returns indicate that Bryan has carried the state by a large majority in yesterday's democratic primary and that he will carry Jefferson, the largest county in Alabama, by a safe majority. Final counts in four country precincts give Bryan 220, Johnson 58. Four country precincts outside Jefferson county give Bryan 96, Johnson 41. Johnson's vote will be heavier in the cities where the counting is slow.

OF INTEREST TO DEMOCRATS

The National Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee has begun active operations at its headquarters at Washington, D. C. In addition to its regular work, it is now preparing a campaign hand-book which it hopes to have ready for distribution by July 1—two or three months earlier than heretofore.

The committee is charged with the duty of assisting in every way possible, the election of a democratic congress. We wish the active cooperation of every voter in the United States who believes, with us, that the election of a democratic congress would greatly benefit this country. We must rely upon the people to sustain our work by giving information as to local conditions, and suggestions for our guidance.

Each individual can at least aid us by making a contribution. Will he not do so and interest others in helping us too?

We wish our campaign hand-book distributed as generally as possible, and we will furnish a copy, as soon as published, to every one who contributes to our committee.

Send remittances to me at Washington, D. C. James T. Lloyd, Chm.
