The price of the extracts is 15 cents per bottle of One FULL Ounce and this quantity will go as far as some of the 25 cent bottles of so-called "full strength" extracts.

OCALA FIREMEN

And Their Friends Pass a Most Enjoyable Evening

The fire department gave their annual ice cream entertainment last night.

Capt. Bull, chief, and his assistants, Walter Tucker and E. M. Hendrix, were ably assisted by Mrs. Bull and Miss Jennie Bull, Misses Florence and Mary Briggs and Mrs. Wilson, who saw that nothing was lacking in passing around the delicious cream, cake and iced tea.

The company hall was festooned in national colors, the tables around which the guests were seated adorned with plants and flowers, the whole presenting a very pleasant and animated scene.

After the guests had been seated, Mr. Tullius Biggs, city attorney, by special request of Capt. Bull, made the address of welcome.

The viands served, Capt. Bull remarked that there were a number of prominent citizens present whom he knew could make interesting talks and he desired to hear from them. Hon. H. W. Long, chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, who was a specially invited guest, was first called on and made a very inspiring talk on the good features of the Ocala Fire Department, and the pride he took in every institution that promoted the good of Ocala, for what aided the county site built up the county.

General Bullock was then called for and made a very eloquent talk on the efficiency of the department, and how proud he was of them, because of the morality, sobriety and efficiency of the men connected with the department and the confidence reposed in them by the citizens of the town.

Hon. W. K. Zewadski was called for, but excused himself on the plea that he had just come in and had not yet got en rapport with the toothsome eatables he was trying to get acquainted with.

Editor F. E. Harris was brought to his feet and made a very impressive talk on the sacrifices that firemen make for the protection to life and property of their fellow men.

Bittinger, of the Star, then injected a few remarks.

R. G. Blake lost confidence in himself when appealed to, and under the protection of his wife incontinently fled and refused even to sing a song or tell a story, of which latter Bob has an inexhaustible fund.

Mayor Fishel, who graced the pleasant occasion with his presence, declined, as he had left his speech at home.

Zewadski was again appealed to and proceeded to make a very entertaining talk, telling how the fire department was the pride and boast of the town; that, like Castoria, the children cried for them and the mothers said there were none others.

W. J. Chambers was called on, but his speech had congealed and it would not run.

This completed the oratory and it certainly must have been gratifying to the members of the Ocala Fire Department to know that their services were appreciated.

The evening was pleasantly concluded in social converse, greatly assisted by the entertaining pieces from E. C. Smith's excellent graphophone.

Among the ladies present whose names have not been given were Mrs. Robert Bullock, Mrs. G. W. Martin, Mrs. Tullius Biggs, Mrs. George Taylor, Mrs. Freyermuth and Mrs. E. R. Hendrix.

Among the gentlemen in evidence were E. P. Thagard, Henry Livingston, Sim Lummus, Otto Mente, Arthur Clark, Bob Mathews, Leon Fishel, Alfred Beck, Mr. Freyermuth, Mr. Morris, Mr. Good, Frank Damon, Hamp Chambers, Karl Weihe, C. L. Moore, Jake Brown, D. E. Williams, Marshal Cleveland, Rossie Yonge, Sr., Walter Yonge, Byron Layne, Patrolman Brigance, Walter Briggs, L. W. and H. S. Gates, Albert Graham, Jim Carlisle, G. D. Pender, Henry McConn, Mr. Simpson, E. R. Hendrix and Conn, Mr. Simpson and E. R. Hendrix.

The evening was voted a success and the Ocala firemen were accorded due credit for their standing in our community. The wish was that Capt. Bull would live long and serve many, many more anniversary ice cream feasts.

HOT WEATHER WEAKNESS

If you feel fagged out, listless and lacking in energy, you are perhaps suffering from the debilitating effects of summer weather. These symptoms indicate that a tonic is needed that will create a healthy appetite, make digestion perfect, regulate the bowels and impart natural activity to the liver. This, Herbine will do; it is a tonic, laxative and restorative. H. J. Freegard, Prop. Grand View Hotel, Cheney, Kan., writes: "I have used Herbine for the last twelve years, and nothing on earth can beat it. It was recommended to me by Dr. Newton, of Newton, Kan." 50c., at Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.

The Road Dispute in Mr. Fort's District—A Resolution Asking for Mr. Carney's Appointment

Monday afternoon the board took up the matter of the road overseer in the northern portion of the fourth district. The matter was thoroughly discussed. None had augnt to say in disparagement of Mr. Fort's efforts to enable the people of the precinct to choose their own overseer.

Mr. Jim Brand, a prominent citizen of that section, said both Marlow and Wellhorner were his neighbors and friends. Wellhorner's petition passed the test and he had done good road service, and as he had supplied himself with tools and team to do the work, he thought he should be reappointed.

Mr. Wellhorner said when the petition between him and Marlow had tied, he was satisfied to drop out, but when the controversy arose over names not eligible on the petitions, he proposed to Marlow that both drop out and leave the place to a new man, but Marlow declined, hence through advice of friends, he wanted to see the end.

Mr. Long wished, if the board saw fit, to prove these petitions and if forgery was committed to make the guilty party sweat for it in the chaingang.

When all the talking was done, Mr. Fort said he would assume all the responsibility, since the board declined to rescind the resolution affecting this matter, and would look around for an entirely new man, and felt confident he had the right one in his mind's eye.

So ended this very exciting episode.

Court House Site

Eureka was opposed to selling the court house site to the general government for a public building.

Belleview favored it; in fact, many of its citizens got the impression that the government would pay $20,000 for it. This part of the matter has not been settled yet.

If any other precincts were heard from, they did not come to light, but any way the county commissioners have made their position clear.

The Tax Collectorship

The next matter that came up was the resolution prepared by Chairman Long in regard to Tax Collector Thagard's successor. It appeared that Chairman S. R. Pyles, of the county democratic executive committee, felt hurt at the indifference that Governor Jennings showed about commissioning E. L. Carney as Thagard's successor, as recommended by the executive committee. The substance of the resolution was that Governor Jennings should comply with the request of the committee.

Mr. Wartmann was not ready to vote on the resolution until today, because before the meeting of the committee he had written Governor Jennings in case he made the appointment to confer said office on a certain person and until he could write the governor and rescind that request, he could not vote on the resolution, but while he was opposed to Carney tooth and nail and had he been on the committee would have fought him, he now thought the governor should appoint him.

Mr. Long said Carney was not his candidate, but now the committee had recommended him he favored the resolution. So said Mr. Lucius and Mr. Edwards, but Mr. Fort was busy with a constituent and did not express an opinion.

Mrs. J. B. Schock, of 522 North Sixth street, Allentown, Pa., was in great trouble because she had sent money to an agent to pay taxes on her Silver Springs lot, to find the assessor had not listed it. The state and county lost 30 cents. She is evidently a lone widow and Mr. Long was delegated to soothe her troubled heart with one of those reassuring letters at which he is an adept.
