All subscribers to the Evening Star who do not get their papers will confer a favor by notifying us promptly. We pay boys to deliver the papers, and if they cannot do the work, others will be found, or we will suspend publication.

Mr. E. L. Carney, Marion's efficient and popular tax collector, received a dispatch late Friday night of the death of his brother, Captain John L. Carney, at Clarksville, Tenn. The deceased was a resident of Lake Weir, where he made his home in 1873, being the first settler of that section and the pioneer orange grower of Marion county, and during the prosecution of that industry made an enviable reputation as an introducer of new varieties. Captain Carney's health has been poor for some time, and with Mrs. Carney and his daughter, Mrs. Jas. L. Hill, he went to visit his daughters, Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Morton Turnley, where he expired. Captain Carney was born at Murfreesboro, Rutherford, county, Tenn., and was 68 years of age at the time of his death. His other children not mentioned are Mrs. Walter Gray of Tampa and Mr. John L. Carney of Lake Weir, who for several years has had charge of Captain Carney's promising grove at the latter place. His remains were interred at Clarksville. The deceased was a brave Confederate soldier and a member of General Toomb's famous troops. In the death of Captain Carney Marion county loses one of her most distinguished and progressive citizens, who was respected and beloved by all who knew him for his upright character. His host of friends will join in sympathy to those who mourn his death.

Dr. A. L. Izlar of this city is a nominee for presidential elector on the prohibition ticket. Through some oversight at Tallahassee, the names of the prohibition electors will not appear on the tickets, so members of that party will have to write the names of their candidates in the blank spaces beneath the names of other candidates, and they must not forget to put a cross mark before each name they write. Dr. Izlar's nomination is only an "honorary degree," but he is good enough man to be on any ticket that is sure to win.

THOROUGHBREDS AT AUCTION

Our people will please remember the auction sale of thoroughbreds at Z. C. Chambliss & Co's. Palmetto stock farm tomorrow. It will be a notable event and we trust our people will show their appreciation of the enterprise of this home firm by giving their presence and all the patronage possible in the purchase of their superior cattle.

Col. R. F. Edmondson, the veteran auctioneer of Kansas City, Mo., will conduct the sale and this alone should draw the people and stock buyers.

A PLEASANT TAMPA AFFAIR

Messrs. Goodwyn and White, two popular and clever traveling men are in the city today. In conversation with the Star man they informed us that they were the guests of honor at an elaborate Spanish dinner given by Editor Hawkes of the Tampa Herald, at a popular restaurant in Ybor City, Saturday evening. Spanish was spoken, Spanish dishes served in true Spanish style in seven complete courses, and altogether the dinner was greatly enjoyed, especially by Messrs. Goodwyn and White, who were unused to Spanish methods and menus. Mr. White recounts several amusing features of the evening and ends by declaring that although he knew that the staff of life was plentiful in South Florida he was amazed and almost paralyzed when he saw a loaf of bread reaching from Tampa to Ocala. Mr. Goodwyn is equally loud in praise of the affair and says that Tampa, Ocala and Jacksonville are the cities of cities in this portion of the South.

CAUSE OF LOCKJAW

Lockjaw, or tetanus, is caused by a bacillus or germ which exists plentifully in street dirt. It is inactive so long as exposed to the air, but when carried beneath the skin, as in the wounds caused by percussion caps or by rusty nails, and when the air is excluded the germ is aroused to activity and produces the most virulent poison known. These germs may be destroyed and all danger of lockjaw avoided by applying Chamberlain's Pain Balm freely as soon as the injury is received. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and causes cuts, bruises and like injuries to heal without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. Sold by all druggists.

ADVERTISING PAYS

For several weeks the Advertiser has been running a little ad. stating that a boy was wanted. In reply to this ad. a 7-pound boy arrived at the editor's home last Friday and he has come to stay. We believe that everyone in Zolfo already knew that it pays to advertise in the Advertiser. If any doubted it they should now cast their doubts aside and go look at the million dollar boy the editor got for that 50c. ad. The mother and the boy are both getting along nicely.—Zolfo Advertiser.

The editor of the Advertiser is Hugh Sparkman, who efficiently filled a position on the Star last summer. We hope the 7-pound boy will grow up to be as good a fellow as his father.

CAN YOU EAT?

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Chriesman, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by the use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by William Anderson, Ocala, Fla.

ROBBED THE GRAVE

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, and growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters. To my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c. Guaranteed at the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.

A THOUGHTFUL MAN

M. M. Austin of Winchester, Ind., knew what to do in the hour of need. His wife had such an unusual case of stomach and liver trouble, physicians could not help her. He thought of and tried Dr. King's New Life Pills and she got relief at once and was finally cured. Only 25c. at the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.

AT THE CHURCHES YESTERDAY

Rev. Rowland preached a magnificent sermon yesterday morning at the Christian church on "Witnessing for Christ." Those who did not hear him missed a spiritual feast. In connection with his discourse he described the great convention of the members of the Christian church in St. Louis several Sundays ago; spoke of the vast audience of 15,000 persons in the Coliseum building, and the communion services that followed, in which 150 elders dispensed bread and wine to the communionists, and the grand singing of 300 trained voices, in which that vast audience joined, filling the soul with inspiration. That meeting was memorable from its historic numbers, the largest that history records, and the solemnity of the occasion.

Dr. W. C. Lindsay gave a treat to his hearers last night in discoursing on "Christian Citizenship." His text was taken from Acts 1:23. He spoke of Paul's presence before the council, then defined what constitutes a Christian citizen; referred to the fact that all Jews revered the law as founded on God's teachings; of the spirit of the Pilgrims, who said, "In the name of God, amen." He spoke of the treatment a priest received before the commune during the French revolution, who was spat upon, because, when he said he came in the name of God, and was insolently asked where God was, he replied "everywhere." "Then," said the judge, "bring him before me." He said every true Christian was intensely interested in everything that pertained to his government, no matter whether municipal, state or national. His virtues so great and his conscience so true that a Christian citizen will not follow his party if it goes wrong, but respect all obnoxious and unjust laws until repealed. A Christian citizen pays his taxes and lists his property honestly. He said he would not refer to happenings in Ocala, but cited instances in New York, where men listed their property, some as low as 9 per cent. on the dollar of actual value. He excoriated the man who sold his vote and said the party who bought the vote was no better than the one who sold it. While this was done it was the duty of the Christian citizen to condemn such flagrancy. The humblest citizen should go untrammeled and his rights respected as the highest and mightiest of the land. God rules, but the struggle of right must ever go on, and while human affairs ebb and flow through life, it is the duty of good men to set their influence for right, and in this way progress is made for a more perfect and equitable government, for no value of human genius is ever lost in the struggle for perfection. While the heel of the seed of the woman has been bitten by the serpent now the seed of the woman is crushing the serpent because of the virtue and acts of the Christian citizen; while the true patriot grieves over wrongs he is ever in the van to have them corrected. In this connection he quoted the late Mayor Strong. Referring to the importance and high consideration placed on a man's sovereignty, he said a ballot in the early days was sent to each man in New England and if he failed to cast it that man was fined for dereliction of duty. Responsibility was education and he who did not vote was guilty of a grave affense. Here he referred to the fact that it was the bounden duty of our people to cast their ballot, or it would give cause for adverse legislation to our representation in Congress. He instanced the vote in a district in Illinois for Joe Cannon for Congress, and said he received 25,000 votes out of a possible 26,000, while John Sharp Williams' vote for Congress in Mississippi was only 1433 votes. He would not say for whom his hearers should vote, as he did not desire for any man to dictate to him for whom he should cast his ballot; every man must be governed by his own intelligence and conscience, striving to discern the best interests of the country, and so act. We were on the threshhold of the greatest century of the ages and we must determine, and rightly, what shall be the point of civil government by our suffrage.

SAVED HIS LIFE

J. W. Davenport, Wingo, Ky., writes, June 14, 1902: "I want to tell you I believe Ballard's Snow Liniment saved my life. I was under the treatment of two doctors, and they told me one or my lungs was entirely gone, and the other badly affected. I also had a lump in my side. I don't think that I could have lived over two months longer. I was induced by a friend to try Ballard's Snow Liniment. The first application gave me great relief; two fifty cent bottles cured me sound and well. It is a wonderful medicine and I recommend it to suffering humanity." 25c., 50c., and $1. Sold by the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore, Ocala, Fla.

A third general attack on Port Arthur is reported to have begun on October 24, and to have been still in progress on the 26th. On the latter day the Russians' only smokeless powder magazine was exploded, the fire spreading to the town and raging all through the day. Russian trenches on the slope of Rihlung Mountain were taken by the Japanese. In the vicinity of the Shakhe river there have been no developments of moment.

CURES WINTER COUGH

J. E. Gover, 101 N. Main street, Ottawa, Kan., writes: "Every fall it has been my wife's trouble to catch a severe cold, and therefore to cough all winter long. Last fall I got her a bottle of Horehound Syrup. She used it and has been able to sleep soundly all night long. Whenever the cough troubles her, two or three doses stops the cough and she is able to be up and well." 25c., 50c., $1. Sold by the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore, Ocala, Fla.

MABEL PAIGE

Miss Mabel Paige and her celebrated stock company will open an engagement of three nights at the opera house on November 7th. This announcement will be a most pleasant one to the theater-goers, as Miss Paige has been a favorite with them since her early childhood, and each year increases her popularity. The company supporting this talented actress this season is even stronger than those of the past, and her repertoire of plays, written and chosen for Miss Paige's delightful style of acting, is better than ever. The company opens with the "Little Stowaway," and during the week such plays as "Faust," with all the electrical effects used by Lewis Morrison, "Princess of Patches," "Egyptian Slave," "Jack's Sweetheart," and others will be presented. The scenery used is of Miss Paige's own choosing. Excellent and high class specialties, including moving pictures and illustrated songs, will be changed nightly. Popular prices will prevail. Seats on sale at the Ocala News Company.

IN EARLIER DAYS

When the bathroom was not inviting by reason of its closed-in, unsanitary marble washstand, a cozy corner of the sleeping apartment was usually set aside for making the toilet, and was looked upon as indispensable to the well appointed room. This order of things prevailed until the introduction of which are so dainty and attractive that the charm of the dressing corner vanishes in favor of a bathroom equipped with a "Standard" lavatory, with pure running water, hot or cold, as desired.

"Standard"

Porcelain Enameled One-Piece Lavatories

"Standard" lavatories are made in so many artistic and original designs, in one piece, without the unsightly plaster Paris joints necessary to marble washstands, that no matter how much or how little you wish to expend on your bathroom a "Standard" lavatory can be selected which will please you better than one of any other kind. Every fixture bears the manufacturer's "green and gold" guarantee label. You take no risk.

Whether you contemplate building anew or have become dissatisfied with your present washstand you are welcome to examine the samples of "Standard" lavatories and other "Standard" ware we have neatly displayed in our showrooms. Our prices and the ability of our workmen will meet with your approval.
