Other People's Money

"There is nothing so good as money. And no money so good as other people's."

Only be careful how you get it. If you borrow it from the other fellow when he isn't looking, it is liable to be the innocent cause of a short withdrawal from society on your part. But this "sad" concerns the real "OTHER PEOPLE'S MONEY"—the rollicking, jingling comedy in which has made such a pronounced hit.

TO THE CITIZENS OF OCALA

On Behalf of the Ocala Rifles I Want the Floor

The Ocala Rifles are going to have an entertainment in order to raise enough funds to send them to Charleston, S. C., to represent Ocala and Florida at the exposition.

Some people want to know the good of having a military organization in this town. The general saving is: "They don't do any good. They are nothing but the toughs of the town." Now, friends, you are entirely mistaken. The Ocala Rifles are here for the protection of the community. If we did not have a company of soldiers here, what would become of the city or even county? What would Dunnellon do? Why, there would be a fight on every corner.

When war broke out between the United States and Spain in February, 1898, did not the Ocala Rifles volunteer to go to war and do their duty? Yes, they did, and when the call was blown they assembled at the armory in this city to the number of 106 strong and when the command was given they marched to the depot and boarded the train for Tampa and served seven long months, although they did not battle with men, but with sickness of the worst kind. And did not three of this company give up their lives for their country? They did and considered their duty done.

On May 3d, 1901, when Jacksonville was consumed by fire, did not the Ocala Rifles volunteer to go to the rescue and help the sufferers? They did. Although their services were not needed, they were in readiness.

Another time, when word came that a riot was being carried on at Tampa, Fla., between the Cuban cigar makers, did not the Ocala Rifles respond to the call of duty? They did and were held in readiness from 3 o'clock one Saturday afternoon until 3 o'clock the following afternoon. Not one of them went to their homes to sleep that night, but remained at the armory to be ready when the orders came to go.

Another time, when the negroes at Dunnellon became riotous and the sheriff began hunting up a posse, did not a great many of the Rifles' men volunteer? They did and went down to the scene of trouble.

Now will you say that Ocala does not need the Ocala Rifles?

Why not send them to Charleston? You sent them to New York some years ago. We do not ask you to do all the work, but to help. Ocala should be proud of her military company. It is the crack company of the state, and if it had a chance it would capture every prize offered for the best drilled, best shot and best behaved company in the state. Don't you think we should be given a chance in this great world? What would become of this city if we should disband? That is the question. If there should be a soldier heaven the Ocala Rifles would march there in fours.

Now, my dear readers, don't you think it is time you should begin to feel interested in the military organization of your city and help them to raise the funds to take them to Charleston? All we ask is help.

When a riot brews the Rifles are the men.
When the bullets begin to fly;
Then the captain cries, "All out, one hundred and ten!"
"They are needed," the citizens begin to cry.
We are a company of men—
No matter if there are but ten;
If you will give us a trial,
We will thank you all the while.

John Z. Reardon.

IN OLDEN TIMES

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is known that Syrup of Figs will permanently overcome habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system. Buy the genuine. Manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co.

A WORLD LEADER

Richards & Pringle's Famous Georgia Minstrels at Opera House Saturday Night, January 11

This organization, which started in a modest way some years ago, has, through the most liberal kind of management, acquired an enviable position in the amusement field and is today conceded to lead the world in its class. They bring with them this year more well known comedians and novelty acts than has ever before been collected together in one company. Many thousands of dollars have been expended in equipping the production with scenery of the most superb kind, and the costuming is a marvel of elegance and beauty.

Prices 50 and 75c. Reserved seats at the Postoffice Drugstore.

SMASHED A CAR

Yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock, while switching in the freight yard, the local south bound freight on the Plant System smashed a box car into smithereens. The car was very heavy, being loaded with naval stores, and the yard force and section gang were busy till 6 o'clock clearing the track. Conductor Lowry, of the Homosassa train, was hemmed in on the siding and did not get off till 6 o'clock.

BROWN'S IN TOWN

At Least, He Was, and Isn't Done Telling About It

A colored person by the name of Brown, who was afflicted with a stammering tongue, tried to make Ticket Agent Frank Huber understand that he wanted a t-ticket to Martel on the 7 o'clock train, and wanted to pay for the same in coppers and nickels, of which he hadn't enough. The transaction being thus doubly handicapped, the train pulled out, and Brown did not see it till it was a hundred yards down the track, when grabbing his grip, two jugs and a gunny sack of groceries, he tried to catch that train. Failing in this he came back and produced a fat roll of greenbacks and wanted the ticket, which was refused, as the train had gone and the rules prohibited. A colored drayman standing by said: "I'll carry you down to the Y and cut off the train for a quarter." "Bring on your wagon, then," said Brown, "you folks will fool round here till you gits me mad with the world." But Brown caught his train and was just getting in to Martel when he got the last of the sentence out.
