ANOTHER NUISANCE

Which Will Some Day Lead to a Case of Justifiable Homicide

"Are you goosey?" queried the reporter of a victim who was just recovering from one of those unfelonious assaults which too many people regard as exhibitions of humor.

"Can't say that I am," replied the hapless one, "but when some son of a gun with the heart of a hyena and the fist of an orang-outang grabs out a handful of my ribs, without any warning, I can't help fetching a few gasps for breath. Say, I'm going to get a license to carry a gun, and one of these days some superlatively funny person will find himself a cold and clammy corpse."

And as he wobbled up the street, trying to get his ribs back in position, the reporter couldn't help sympathizing with him.

It is two miles from the railroad station, being connected with it by horse-car. Beautiful walks and drives, groves of lemon, orange and rare tropical fruit, avenues of oleander and palmetto. River, ocean and surf-bathing and fine fishing. The climate is delightful, and is beneficial in cases of overwork or nervous prostration.

WORKING FOR THE FAIR

Campobello Plantation,
September 8, 1901.

Hon. H. W. Long, Commissioner County Exhibit—Dear Sir: Allow me to congratulate you upon your appointment as commissioner to the State Fair and at the same time thank you for your complimentary remarks concerning myself.

Without meaning to flatter you in the least, allow me to say you are the right man in the right place, but with the small amount placed at your disposal you will not only need the sympathy but material support of every well wisher of the enterprise, both of which, if acceptable—which is the object of this letter—are offered you with a free hand.

Let me know in what way I can serve you for the best interests of the county, and I will do so in season and out of season.

One thing I deem of great importance is a forage exhibit. I propose to devote a good deal of time to this and will endeavor to prepare an exhibit that Marion county will bring to the State Fair that will cause the blush of shame to overspread the cheek of the man who buys another bale of foreign hay and also to the farmer who refuses to prepare it when there is such an abundance of it.

It is unfair to Marion county to expect $200 will enable any man to make that which would even approximate a creditable exhibit of her boundless productions and undeveloped resources. As you very properly remarked, $2000 would not be any too much.

This deficiency must be supplied by individual effort and to that end I am at your service. Truly your friend,

Chas. W. Campbell, Sr.

From Mr. Long

To the Progressive Men and Women of Marion County: Having been appointed against my wishes State Fair commissioner to work up and take charge of a county exhibit to be displayed at the State Fair to be held in Jacksonville, Fla., November 19 to 23, and there being a premium of $250 offered by the managers of the State Fair to be paid to the county having the best general exhibit, and Marion county having, at the Sub-Tropical Exposition in Jacksonville in 1888 and 1889, won the premium for the best general exhibit, can again, with the united efforts of our people, win the $250. I shall, with the assistance of others, prepare a list of premiums upon the various products and resources of the county, including woman's fancy work, preserves, canned fruits, etc., to be paid out of the $250 if won, and submit it to the county commissioners at their October meeting for their approval, which when approved will be published for the benefit of all desiring to enter the contest.

Miss Jessie A. Owens, of Sparr, who so skillfully and efficiently managed the ladies' exhibit at the Alliance Exposition in Ocala, 1890 and 1891, has kindly agreed to take charge of the ladies' department of the county at the State Fair as lady commissioner of Marion county.

The ladies of the county are requested to co-operate with her and see to it that their department of exhibits is the best of any county in the state.

We want, and will strive to procure, an exhibit of every agricultural, mineral, timber and other product of the county, including oranges, lemons, phosphate, lime, road material and manufacturing products. We also want samples of cold storage hams put up last winter and old syrup canned in November, 1900. In this communication space will not permit an itemized statement of all that is wanted.

Commissioners Lucius, Fort, Edwards and Wartman and other leading citizens of the county have kindly agreed to co-operate with me in my efforts to place Marion county where she belongs, at the head of the most fertile and progressive counties of the state.

After I have visited Jacksonville, and have had our county space arranged, and ascertained the best arrangements that can be made with railroad companies, I will communicate the result through our county newspapers. Vegetable growers should begin to stimulate their vegetables at once for the exhibition.

Let us all get a hump and a move on us at once and success will be assured.

H. W. Long,
State Fair Commissioner Marion County, Fla.
Martel, September 9, 1901.

CURED OF CHRONIC DIARRHOEA AFTER THIRTY YEARS OF SUFFERING

"I suffered for thirty years with diarrhoea and thought I was past being cured," says John S. Halloway, of French Camp, Miss. "I had spent so much time and money and suffered so much that I had given up all hopes of recovery. I was so feeble from the effect sof the diarrhoea that I could do no kind of labor, could not even travel, but by accident I was permitted to find a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after taking several bottles I am entirely cured of that trouble. I am so pleased with the result that I am anxious that it be in reach of all who suffer as I have." For sale by Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.
