THE LYCEUM MEETING

A small but public-spirited company of the subscribers to the Lyceum Course met Thursday evening at the armory. Rev. Howard Dutill was elected chairman and Prof. R. W. Van Brunt secretary. The Lyceum plan of procedure was discussed and a local organization perfected. Prof. Josiah Varn was elected manager and T. T. Munroe treasurer. A list of the attractions was carefully gone over and an initial selection made for December 21. The Quaker City Male Quartette will appear at the armory on that date. The quartette includes a violinist, comedian and reader and it can be easily that the entertainment will be varied and interesting. The Lyceum Course is now an assured thing and Ocala has made a long step forward in the direction of cultured and refined entertainment.

Last night, after the business of the meeting was transacted, Mr. Curry, the traveling agent, who is "some punkins" on the platform himself, was prevailed on to favor the crowd with a little work in character sketches. He "took off" the old time darkey woman and the Georgia cracker to perfection. He remarked that in the latter character it was only necessary for him to act natural.

Another meeting is called for tonight at 7 o'clock at the armory, at which it is hoped every subscriber will be present. A committee will be named to select the attractions for this season in Ocala. Come out and push the good work along.

BUSINESS ENTERPRISE

"Jake," of the Teapot Grocery, is full of business enterprise. It will not be the fault of A. Brown & Bro. if their commercial enterprise, the Teapot Grocery, does not become a household word in every school house in Marion county, for they have prepared to send to every school building a very handsome and attractive calendar for 1902 with the name of their firm conspicuously displayed on same.

They will also dispense to the teachers of said schools, regardless of race, color or previous condition, a neat box containing three excellent lead pencils with the name of A. Brown & Bro., Wholesale Grocers, Ocala, Fla., printed on each pencil.

The art of advertising is to attract attention and induce people to come into your place of business and inspect your goods. Then it is for the salesman to show that he "knows his business." That is the style of firm you find A. Brown & Bro. to be.
