This is the most dangerous time of the year to catch cold, and it is the hardest time to cure it. If you should take a cold, a few doses of Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup will act very promptly. Its laxative principle cures the cold by driving it from the system by a gentle but natural action of the bowels. Children especially like Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup, as it tastes so good, nearly like maple sugar. It is sold by the Anti-Monopoly Drugstore.

The parents are greatly distressed over the loss of their little ones. Messrs. Smith & Roberts shipped out caskets to bury the bodies in.

"Atlantic City," at the Armory This Evening

AMUSEMENT AT THE ARMORY

The John B. Wills Company Gave the Crowd the Worth of Its Money and Then Some

The John B. Wills Comedy company opened its engagement at the armory last night with "Two Old Cronies," and if the first night's play is a forecast, the house should be crowded tonight and tomorrow night.

John B. Wills, who bears a striking resemblance to William J. Bryan, especially about the mouth, caused a laugh every time he moved or spoke, and was ably supported by Dick Thomas, who is almost as talented a fun maker as his chief. Nathan Barnhardt and Harry Gilbert are both good, all-around men, and each has some particularly fine specialties. The half a dozen young ladies with the company are good lookers, fine dancers and sweet singers, and each of their stunts brought enthusiastic applause, and repeated encores.

Miss Ella Warner Davis, a Juno-looking young lady, sang "Annie Laurie" in notes that held all enthralled and awoke many a beautiful memory in the souls of her older listeners. All the singing was good, but this was superlative, and worth going a long way and waiting a long time to hear.

The flag figure, where the Indian maidens threw the national colors across the stage, and the music of Yankee Doodle blended into Dixie brought down the house.

Atlantic City This Evening

"Atlantic City," a musical comedy, is the play tonight. It is the real goods and will treat the audience to something in amusement they never saw before. Seats on sale at the Ocala News Co. Go early for there is going to be a rush.

There will be a matinee for the ladies and children at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Prices 15 and 25 cents. It will be something all the children should bee.

Wholesome Candy

10c. and 25c. THE JAR.

Huyler's SCREW CAP JAR GOODS

Some folks think that because we are so old-maidish in our carefulness regarding everything we do, and every thing we sell that they can't buy little-priced candy here.

Nonsense!

Why little-priced candy is a hobby of ours. We sell tons and tons of it—good, pure, wholesome candy—not the highly colored, pretty-to-look-at-sort, mark you, but honest candy

Huyler's—always fresh. "Uncle Sam" charges but 1c. a ounce to carry it anywhere. A 1 to 5-pound box goes by express anywhere in U. S. for 25c

MRS. CAMP'S DANCE IN HONOR OF MISS CAMP

Of all the many parties this winter there has been only one dancing party and that was given last evening at Yonge's hall by Mrs. Clarence Camp in compliment to her cousin, Miss May Camp, of Virginia, who is her popular guest. Mrs. Camp is a lovely hostess and the party last night, like all of her parties, was thoroughly delightful.

The guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. Camp and Miss Camp, the latter, who is very pretty, wearing a pale blue silk made dancing length. Miss Camp has been the honoree of many parties and her second visit to Ocala this year is being made very pleasant by her many friends and the friends of her hostess.

One of the most popular places in the hall was the punch table, which was presided over by Mrs. J. C. B. Koonce and Mrs. J. K. Austin. The punch, which contained all kinds of fruit cut up, was very refreshing to the merry dancers. During the intermission delicious sandwiches and butter-thins were heartily enjoyed. A program of sixteen dances and six extras was played by Miss Myrtle Whitfield on the piano accompanied by Mr. Fishel on the violin. The weather was cool and the floor grand.
