NO EMPTY STOCKING.

No empty stocking in Christmas town—
Make it a promise and mark it down,
And scatter and foster it everywhere
Till it rings and echoes upon the air.

No empty stocking for little Miss Poor,
Who thought Mr. Santa would pass her door;
And no empty stocking for little Miss Sick,
Who thought she maybe some one would put in a stick.

No empty stocking in alley or street—
Take up the message and echo it sweet,
Till hearts catch the music and carry it on
To the beautiful glow of the Christmas dawn.

No empty stocking shall childheart see
In city or village or wide countree,
If hearts still beat, as I know they do,
With the holiday spirit that thrills men through.

—Baltimore Sun.

CHRISTMAS HOP OF THE M. M. I.

Blue and white replaced the crimson and gray which flaunted its colors in German Relief hall on Monday evening, as last evening the star of the M. M. I. was in the ascendency and the hearts of the young school girls in a flutter, as the students of this popular institute entertained their young friends at a delightful Christmas hop at 8:30 o'clock. The hall, in its decorations combined the rich green of evergreens, with the dainty colors of the school, blue and white, while a military effect was given to the stage with its stacks of guns, which stood out against a background of palms behind which was stationed a brass band, catering with its lovely music to the lovers of the dance. Young society was represented by its sweetest flowers, augmented by the presence of many who have been thriving on distant soils this winter, and who are now at their loveliest for the holiday festivities. The dance was a pronounced success, due to the untiring efforts of D. F. Overton, R. M. Adams, R. A. Cirlot, F. M. Ladd and H. Ballinger, five of the members of the graduating class, who were assisted by a committee composed of six more members of the class, C. Quina, H. King, William Edward Clarke, H. Delchamps, L. McLeod and Joseph Hermann and three post graduates, T. A. Taylor, Jr., O. Naylor and Ben Marshall.—Mobile Register.

THE GADSDEN STREET M. E. PEOPLE HAD FINE XMAS TREE.

Santa Claus made his headquarters last night at the Gadsden Street M. E. church, and distributed gifts and good cheer generally among his numerous little friends who go to Sunday school there. There were many of his older friends present also to listen to the fine program which had been prepared by the fine crowd of young people there, the music by the orchestra and other individual pieces having been the cause of much favorable comment. Each person had been required to bring a potato as admission, and when all these had been collected, they were placed with other contributions for the poor, and will be given over to Santa Claus tonight on his annual round, who in turn will give them to certain poor families whom he knows are particularly deserving. The Gadsden Street M. E. people have much charity work to their credit this year, in which the young people have been especially active.

XMAS EXERCISES AT SCHOOL NO. 70 TODAY.

There will be particularly interesting Xmas exercises this morning from 10 until 11 o'clock at School No. 70, when the children will conduct a fine program suitable for the season and occasion.

After the program, each grade will return to its own room from the general assembly room, to enjoy its own Xmas tree, and it is about these same trees that most of the interest is centered. The fine looking pines which will be used have been cut and hauled to the school by the boys themselves, and all of the rather elaborate Xmas decorations have also been fashioned by the children, who have made Xmas bells, stars of Bethlehem and other Xmas symbols with unerring perfection. The work has cost scarcely nothing but the labor expended upon it, and there will be many to visit the school this morning in order to view the really fine results from this most delightful of Xmas plans.

HIGH HONOR CONFERRED UPON REV. WM. B. ALLEN OF ST. KATHARINE'S.

The Rev. William B. Allen, M. A., rector of St. Katharine's church, East Hill, has been appointed to the archdeaconate by the Right Rev. E. C. Weed, S. T. D., bishop of the diocese. The venerable W. B. Allen, M. A., will be archdeacon of Western Florida and also rector of St. Katharine's parish, Pensacola.

MRS. C. C. COVINGTON ENTERTAINED FOR MISS CRUMP.

Mrs. C. C. Covington entertained at a delightfully informal affair yesterday afternoon in honor of Miss Lora Crump, a beautiful young debutante from Richmond, Va., who is spending the holidays here with the Covingtons. Charming floral effects were used, the afternoon having been artistically planned and worthy of the sweet young honoree who graced it.

Mrs. Covington is one of the city's first hostesses, and her affair of yesterday was made doubly interesting from the fact that she has one of the very fairest of holiday visitors as her guest.

DANCE AT THE CLASSICAL SCHOOL PROVED A SUCCESS.

The first of the real holiday festivities took place last night at the Classical High School, the gymnasium having been fitted up with the colors of the school, where bright boys and girls received the guests of the evening. Punch was served, and the original decorations proved one of the very pleasing features of the evening. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour, the pretty event having been a direct credit upon the fine set of young people who had planned it. A number of the out-of-town school set were also present.

MRS. JOHN AVERY TO ENTERTAIN.

Mrs. John C. Avery will entertain on next Monday afternoon for Miss Lora Crump. Miss Crump, who is from Virginia, is Mrs. Covington's very charming young guest, and is receiving many pretty social attentions.

TO SPEND XMAS WITH DR. SANFORD.

Mr. R. Moreno has left the city for Wilmington, N. C., where he will spend Xmas with Dr. Sanford, U. S. A. The doctor, who was until recently stationed at Barrancas, is very kindly remembered by hosts of friends.

MEETING OF THE THURSDAY CLUB WAS POSTPONED.

On account of the rush of holiday week, there was no meeting of the Thursday club yesterday, the meeting having been postponed until next week.

Mrs. M. D. Merritt will be the next hostess at her home on Romana street.

MISS REINA DANHEISSER'S PLEASANT PARTY.

Miss Reina Danheisser, who is one of the very charming members of the young Jewish society set, entertained a number of her friends on Wednesday night in honor of her birthday. The handsome Danheisser home was beautifully decorated in white carnations, ferns and palms, the order of the evening's amusement having been an old-fashioned candy pull.

Those present were as follows: Mrs. Hubert Moog, Mrs. Benjamin Heinberg, Mrs. Edward Forcheimer, Miss Koch of Denver, Col., Miss Josie Barker of Havana, Cuba, Miss Reine and Miss Leah Can, Miss Bertha Lichten, Miss Sadie Steinhart of Greenville, Ala., Miss Fannie Waggenheim, Miss Lillian and Miss Theresa Jacoby, Miss Sarah Kahn, Miss Lola Menko, Miss Bertha Levy, Miss Pauline Rehfield and Miss Celestine Hirscher.

SINAI AND CALVARY.

There are two mountains hallowed
By majesty sublime,
Which rear their crests unconquered
Above the floods of time.
Uncounted generations
Have gazed on them with awe—
The mountain of the gospel,
The mountain of the law.

From Sinai's cloud of darkness
The vivid lightnings play,
They serve the God of vengeance,
The Lord who shall repay.
Each fault must bring its penance,
Each sin the avenging blade,
For God upholds in justice
The laws that He hath made.

But Calvary stands to ransom
The earth from utter loss
In shade than light more glorious
The shadow of the cross.
To heal the sick world's trouble,
To soothe its woe and pain,
On Calvary's sacred summit,
The Paschal Lamb was slain.

Almighty God direct us
To keep Thy perfect law!
O, blessed Savior, help us
Nearer to Thee to draw.
Let Sinai's thunders aid us
To guard our feet from sin
And Calvary's light inspire us
The love of God to win.

—John Hay.

BEULAH.

Special to the Journal.

Beulah, Dec. 23.—The few days of cool weather we are having makes one feel thankful we live in a moderate climate, where fire wood is plentiful and cheap. I remember of hauling wood over the prairie from fifteen to eighteen miles, with the mercury 20 below zero, with icicles on the horses' noses a foot long. Gosh, but it was cold! Compare that with the usual West Florida weather and give thanks for at least two blessings—fine weather and plenty of wood right handy.

Bat Grimes is busy building a house on the land he recently purchased of C. B. Busby.

James Fisher was in the city Wednesday on business.

James Snowden and Tom Hanna, who are in South Carolina visiting at their old home, have been heard from. They are having a nice time and are well and enjoying themselves to the limit.

J. E. Pierce is entertaining his brother and family from California.

The friends of Andrew Garrett will be sorry to learn that he is not any better, but is obliged to stay in the house most of the time.

Mrs. Eliza Busby does not improve as much as her friends and family wish for, but is still able to be up around the house.

Levi Bryant and Moses Lister were in the city Wednesday with a load of produce for the market.

WAUKEENAH.

Special to The Journal.

Waukeenah, Dec. 23.—Mrs. J. W. Wethington died Monday night of congestion. She had been sick only three days. She leaves a husband and four children to mourn her loss. She had scores of friends who will miss her. She was a devoted wife and mother.

Mr. Hudgin, Mrs. M. I. Johnstone and Miss F. M. Johnstone are pleasantly domiciled with Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wooten for the winter.

Mrs. Lorrell and sons have gone to Eustis for the holidays.

Mrs. W. F. Hughes and children, of Florala, are spending a few weeks with Mrs. M. C. Wooten.

LOCAL ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM BUSY LAUREL HILL

Special to the Journal.

Laurel Hill, Dec. 22.—At a regular communication of the F. & A. M. lodge, No. 44, Laurel Hill, the following were elected officers for the ensuing year: Ben F. Wynne, worshipful master; John Stokes, senior warden; D. R. Moore, junior warden; D. T. Finlayson, secretary, and Oscar Steele, treasurer.

G. H. Ellis, one of the most successful truck growers around Florala, arrived here today with his farming implements. He will move his family to the Williamson home, near Falco Junction, which place he has leased for five years. Mr. Ellis will plant 20 acres in early Irish potatoes, as well as other early truck. He has about 100 acres in the Williamson estate.

S. G. French, Jr., one of our most prominent citizens, who is at present assistant in charge of the sea wall work at Warrington, spent Sunday and Monday at home. Mr. French is very enthusiastic over the idea of developing this section to the growing of Irish potatoes and other truck. He will plant ten acres to Irish potatoes the coming season on his property inside the incorporation.

W. A. Blount, Jr., of Pensacola, came up on the noon train Sunday, the guest of S. G. French, Jr., and will hunt quail two or three days this week around Laurel Hill. Mr. Blount brought out two of the best looking setter dogs seen here this season.

Dr. E. Porter Webb and John Carter have purchased the old Davis property, just south of Capt. Eric von Axelson's home, and will soon build some residence thereon.

At a recent meeting of the town council, the property owners having buildings or fences on Fifth street and North street were requested to have the same removed within thirty days, after which the street committee will declare such streets open, and do any necessary grading and clearing.

It is planned to have about 300 shade trees planted on the two principal streets the coming month. And the town council favors donating a reasonable amount towards such improvement, which meets the approval of all concerned. The question seems to be what kind of tree will be best. Probably some of The Journal readers could help the street committee out on this. If so, write chairman, street committee, town of Laurel Hill, Fla.

John F. Dees and family will spend Christmas holidays with Mrs. Dee's father, J. W. Weatherly, near Lakewood, Fla.

The ten merchants here report the best business in many seasons, which goes to prove that we have gotten the idea of early shopping; also the prospects are that it will be a banner Xmas business here.

We are very sorry to learn that Rev. Green, of Florala, Ala., who has been serving the Methodist church here for the past year, will not return again as pastor. He has been assigned to a pastroate in the city of Montgomery, Ala., and we have not as yet been able to learn who will come here. However, Rev. Green has the good wishes of many friends made at this place.

W. F. Jones, Jr., wife and W. F. Jones, second Jr., are expected here to spend Xmas holidays with Mr. Jones's parents on Fifth street. "Billie," as he is familiarly known by his friends, holds a lucrative position with the B. P. Morris company of DeFuniak Springs.

Three defendants were up before Mayor Richbourg on Monday morning for fighting. Three-fifty and costs was the tune his honor sang to them.

M. T. King, wife and children, of DeFuniak Springs, are expected here this week to spend the holidays with relatives and friends.

Judge J. T. Wiggins, of Milton, Fla., was in our town last Sunday, returning Sunday night he went through to Pensacola to do some Xmas shopping.

J. A. Givens, a prominent turpentine operator of Wing, Ala., was here Sunday visiting his brother, J. H. Givens.

Mrs. W. H. Mapoles expects to spend the holidays with her parents in Milton, Fla.

We are informed by Principal Sexton Johnson that the public school will be dismissed tomorrow and work will not be resumed until January 3. This gives the teachers and children alike a chance to spend Xmas holidays with the home folks. Mr. Johnson, as well as his assistants, Misses Lizzie McDonald, Pauline Mieckler and Jennie Campbell, are residents of DeFuniak Springs.

IS YOUR COAT DUSTY?

You Probably Have the White Scab of Dandruff on It.

If your coat or shoulders have a white dust upon it, the chances are that it is from dandruff. The only way to permanently cure dandruff is to remove the cause, which is a germ. Newbro's Herpicide kills the germ. Every toilet table should have such a hair-dressing that contains also the destroyer of the dandruff and hair falling germ. It stops all irritation, keeps the scalp sweet, pure and wholesome. Remember that something claimed to be "just as good," will not do the work of genuine "Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists.
