Ten Little Humans.

Ten little human on the water wagon fine;
One met an old friend and then there were but nine.

Nine little humans on the water wagon sate;
One got a new heir and then there were but eight.

Eight little humans chose the water route to heaven;
One took a sip for luck and then there were but seven.

Seven little humans signed the pledge ne'er more to mix;
One's wife's mother died and then there were but six.

Six little humans tried the water cart to drive;
One said, "What's the use?" and then there were but five.

Five little humans whose drinking days were o'er;
One got a bad cold and then there were but four.

Four little humans who said they wouldn't spree;
One was asked out to dine and then there were but three.

Three little humans with resolutions new;
One reconsidered and then there were but two.

Two little humans whose drinking days were done;
One went out election night and then there was but one.

One little human had sworn off several times;
Then they screwed him in his coffin which endeth these poor rhymes.

MCQUARRIE FOR COMMISSIONER

He Asks for Support of The Voters in the Second Primary.

Commissioner's District No. 4 takes in precincts 4, 6, 7, 8, 17, 21, 19, 27, 28 and 29. This is a large district taking in three precincts in Pensacola, north of Gadsden and east of Palafox. I am a candidate for the office of commissioner to represent this district.

This is a small office, but a very responsible one. I have held responsible positions satisfactorily to my employer, and will endeavor if elected to work for the interests of this district and county. Good business judgment in what the county needs, and a careful use of the public moneys, are what I advocate.

I have no ax to grind and promise a square deal to the whole district, and living as I do in the centre of this district, have the best opportunity to look after your interests.

Thanking my friends for their support in the first primary, I will appreciate your help and support in the second.

Yours truly,
D. R. McQUARRIE,
Candidate for Commissioner Dist. 4.

FALCO.

Special to The Journal.

Falco, Ala., May 29.—John Richbourg, of Crestview, Fla., has accepted a position as assistant bookkeeper and stenographer in the office of the Florida and Alabama Land Company.

The planing mills here are running day and night to keep the dried lumber clear from the dry kilns, which necessitated doubling the capacity of the dry shed.

Dr. A. H. Miller, who spent last week in attendance at the Grand Lodge, K. of P., at Tuscaloosa, Ala., returned Saturday and reports having an exceptionally good time.

C. F. Lewis, who has been the sawyer here for nearly two years, resigned last week to accept the position as sawyer at Chapman, Ala.

STOCKTON TO THE DEMOCRATS OF FLORIDA

He Addresses Them Upon The Issues of the Present Campaign

VOTERS ARE APPEALED TO TO HELP DEFEAT THE SALOON INTERESTS OF THE STATE, ALL OF WHICH ARE BACKING GILCHRIST FOR GOVERNOR.

Jacksonville, Fla., May 28, 1908.

To the Democratic Voters of Florida:

I sincerely thank those who voted for me and supported my candidacy for Governor in the last primary election. No one who does not know as well as I do the unlimited resources and the unscrupulous methods of the saloons and railroad interests which were united in the vicious attacks upon my candidacy can understand how sincerely I do appreciate the support given me.

J. N. C. Stockton.

The issue is now clearly and distinctly defined. I call on every right thinking man in each and every precinct of Florida to give dispassionate consideration to the methods and influences arrayed against me.

Three great railroad corporations in Florida, having no reason to believe that I would deal otherwise than fairly and firmly between them and the people, are openly and actively at work for the election of Mr. Gilchrist.

Should Mr. Gilchrist be nominated June 16th he will owe his nomination to the saloon and railroad interests. If I am successful, I will owe my nomination to those patriotic citizens of Florida, who could not be misled by any possible power or influence of the saloons or railroads.

The managers of Mr. Gilchrist's campaign have used the most despicable methods in an attempt to ruin my character. The vicious nature of the campaign made against me in the interest of Mr. Gilchrist must have been known and consented to by him.

I will say nothing against him as a man. I appeal to you on the grounds of principle. I appeal to those of his supporters who may have voted for him uninfluenced by either the saloons or railroads, to consider the methods and influences used in his behalf and against my candidacy. This being known should be sufficient reason why they should not be again found joined with the saloons in his support June 16th.

I appeal to all voters who do not wish to have a governor owing his nomination to the combined support of the liquor interests and the railroads, no matter how you have voted in the past, and no matter whether you believe in local option or State Prohibition, to give me your support. I give you my solemn pledge that if elected I shall during my entire term of office, ever bear in mind that I owe my election to the patriotic good citizenship of Florida.

To our friends everywhere, I suggest that you organize and begin work, for most assuredly no one can foresee the consequences to the state of Florida if the saloons in this campaign accomplish their purpose and demonstrate that the governor of Florida will have owed his nomination to their contributions and support.

Work, and prove that the people of Florida cannot be dominated by the liquor interests. I will be with you in person, or by proxy, and on June 16th we will win by an overwhelming and decisive majority.

All along the line the fight is on and it is every day more apparent that it is a winning fight. There can be no doubt of the issue or of the outcome.

Sincerely yours,
JOHN N. C. STOCKTON.
