The popular Mr. A. Richards of St. Martin Motors Inc. at Marigot left for a well earned vacation on Friday July 14. This energetic and competent employee of St. Martin Motors Inc. was accompanied by his adorable wife who is a teacher at the Girls' school in Marigot, and their son.

We join with the staff of St. Martin Motors Inc. and their many friends in wishing the Richards' a pleasant vacation and a safe return to our shores.

5 of the 14 youngmen which left our shores recently for France via Guadeloupe to get military training were sent back from Guadeloupe. These youngmen were physically unfit for military service, the other nine left for France earlier this week.

These who were sent back were: Reginald Brooks and Joseph Jeffers from French Quarter, Henry Hodge from Grand Case, Nestor Lunker from Colombier and Petain Rachel from Marigot.

We were informed by a reliable source that a market will soon be built in

THE COCONUT GROVE

ON SATURDAY JULY 22, 1961.

MUSIC BY THE BEST "DANCE-BAND" ON THE ISLAND

THERE WILL BE A LOT OF FUN IN STORE FOR ALL

SO COME, ONE AND ALL, TO THE GROVE AND

HAVE A WONDERFUL NIGHT

BOBBY FLEMING

AT MARIGOT

IS YOUR ADDRESS FOR:

FROZEN FOODS

CHICKENS, CHICKEN-LEGS & WINGS,

VEGETABLES & FRUITS

ALL AT THE CHEAPEST PRICES.

Marigot.

One look at the "Sand-box tree" in Marigot on Saturdays is enough to convince anyone of the necessity of a market in this town.

We therefore hope that the building of a market will soon become a reality.

This Section of the Island joined with French people the world over in celebrating Bastille Day on Friday July 14, marking the fall of the Bastille.

The main attraction of the day was the sail-boat race, which was won by a boat from Anguilla.

In French Quarter on Friday night July 14, at a "bull-fight (public dance) a group of boys from French Quarter "double-banked" two fellows from the Dutch Part of the island. The trouble all started over a belle from French Quarter.

One of the French fellows held a blade of butcher knife against the belly of a Dutch fellow while his friends kicked and boxed him.
