

this request is then sent to the Police Dept. for advice, if the advice is favorable, the a written permission is granted on a stamped paper.

It is therefore strange and very irregular that Mr. Beaujon, should grant permission for a "bullfight" to be held on Sunday without a written request.

We did our duty in attempting to stop the public dance which was held at Cul-de-Sac on Sunday August 13, without a written permission; we failed, but we firmly believe that public dances on Sundays are morally wrong and therefore make a strong appeal to our religious leaders (Catholic, Methodist, Church of God, Baptist and all the others) to take some measures to make sure that this does not happen again.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING AT THE BOTTOM SABA.

On Wednesday July 26 Miss Lizy Donker daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Donker of the Bottom and Mr. Ramon Hassell were joined in Holy Wed-lock.

The civil ceremony took place at 10:30 a.m. - After the civil ceremony both families went to the home of Mr. David Donker where champagne was served. At noon a luncheon for both families was given at Bunker Hill Cottage, also at luncheon were: Nurse Marjorie Richardson, Freddy Donker (~~xxxxxxx~~ brother of the bride) and his wife, who were on vacation and Mrs. Jose Lake, who made the trip from St. Maarten to attend the wedding.

The religious ceremony was conducted at 5 p.m. when the young couple recited their vows during a High Mass held for this purpose at the Roman Catholic Church in The Bottom.

A large crowd was at the church, and the lovely bride who was given in marriage by her father was a most beautiful sight. She wore a full-length dress, finger-tip veil held in place by a crown of pearls, and in her hands she carried a lovely bouquet of lilies and roses, which arrived from Curacao the same day.

After the High Mass the bridegroom with his charming bride on his arm along with their guests went to Bunker Hill Cottage. - Mr. Simmons Brigidier, was M.C. and among the many persons who made speeches for the occasion were: Mr. Henry Every Administrator of the island, Mr. David Donker, Mr. Freddy Donker, Mr. Osmar Simmons, Mrs. M. Wilson; the sisters of the bridegroom sang: "Are we losing you". After the speeches and songs, music for dancing was supplied by records, and all present had a most wonderful time.

The young couple received 34 cables and 316 gifts.

The W. Is' Opinion congratulates Mr. and Mrs. Ramon Hassell and wishes them good luck, and success in their new life.
