St. Martin! the numerous years from thee that I did roam
I have really been denied the pleasures of my home, Now I'm welcomed by relatives and friends so dear Oh! how I would like to remain forever with them here.

St. Martin to me thou art the Queen of the Caraibe
This is the Paradise from which I must again leave;
But the ties which bind me cause me once more to roam
St. Martin, my heart bleeds to leave thee Home Sweet Home.

St. Martin! Sweet St. Martin thou art the sweetest spot on earth.

Thou art also the dream of the tourists delight
The most picturesque sceneries one wishes to see My Home sweet home In memory I'll ever be with thee.

Farewell St. Martin, my native land which I do adore I'm hoping soon to return to thy beautiful shore.
I'll think of thee and weep, when I shall have crossed the deep For beside my ancestors I would like to take my final sleep.

Dedicated to my cousin George Morales who left for the U.S. on Sept. 29, 1961

SHOP IN PHILIPSBURG BROKEN.

On Wednesday last week it was discovered that the shop of Mr.
G. Scott at Philipsburg was

ELECTRICITY.

Three youngmen the Linsey brothers have erected an electric Company in Saba sometimes ago and have gone a long way in showing that they know what they are doing: They have built a powerhouse, and erected poles from Windwardside to The Bottom.

Everything is ready and all they are now waiting for is a loan which was promised by the Government. With this loan they hope to purchase the motors. In spite of the fact that this loan was promised many months ago, and one of the Linsey brothers has made more than one trip to Curacao
