

STATIA NEWS

By V. L. Tobin

ST. EUSTATIUS WELFARE IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION CELEBRATES 10th. ANNIVERSARY - DEDICATION OF NEW RECREATION CENTER.

Tuesday October 17th, the St. Eustatius Improvement Association dedicated a new recreation center which has been said to be a training center for the improvement of the youth.

The Rev. J. Stewardt offered the dedication prayer on behalf of the new building. In his address he said: "I sincerely hope that such a building would be for the betterment and improvement of the growing community of which it forms a part.

At the service, 61 youths were enrolled as juveniles in the Society. The Hon. Mr. Boekhoudt addressed the people by saying: "This is a miracle, and all I can add is Praise!" He continued by saying: "Today is not the only first step for the Society, but it is something that it was looking forward to." He told the Youth, of the example laid for them in a mutual way, and he is prepared to give his best cooperation to uplift the island and assist in the "Golding day" that is coming.

The Windward Islands' Opinion extends its congratulation to all active workers and members of this worthy movement.

ST. EUSTATIUS BETHEL METHODIST CHURCH HELD IT JUVENILE ANNIVERSARY!

The Rev. Khan of French St. Martin conducted a 3 days meeting for the and also grown-ups who shared the spiritual blessings together.

The services were very inspiring. The church was crowded to hear the dynamic young preacher Rev. Khan. He is truly the man of the hour.

Many souls responded to the call of Holy Spirit as they rededicated their lives to God and His service.

As a result of the success of the meetings, the Church is starting a Young Men class with those youths who have rededicated their lives to Jesus. May God richly bless His work through-out the World.

A WORD OF WELCOME TO EDITOR LAKE!

All the readers of the W. Is' Opinion here were very happy on Tuesday October 17th, when once again they began to read their own friendly paper, which was off the road for almost one month and a half. We are all very proud of Mr. Lake who through painstaking efforts, strives through storms and torments to continue such a work, and still stands firm to his calling.

Any country that refuses to have a newspaper, is truly a dead one. Because, newspapers are ~~the~~ very important in the life of any country.

THE GOLDEN HEROES MEET ST. KITTS IN A CRICKET MATCH!

It is a pleasure to know that St. Eustatius can present good cricket to St. Kitts - A match was played at Sandy Point St. Kitts by the Golden Rock Heroes who truly played cricket.

St. Eustatius made 133 in its first innings and St. Kitts made 149. St. Eustatius in its second innings made 49 for 8, and as far as records go, the game ended in a draw.

LITTLE BAY HOTEL

(Continued from page 4)

that he had received two complaints from guests; he had never called this to the attention of Neville, and therefore it was rather rough to have him fired now, considering among other things, that Neville very long service with the hotel (he was among the very first group of trainees in 1955).

After a lengthy discussion, Mr. Kollaard agreed to think about reconsidering his decision to fire Neville.

Since we still consider this case open, we shall still refrain from