

at our office in Philipsburg the other day and asked us: "What has happened to the REVEILLE; I don't see it anymore?"

The only answer our editor could give the visitor was: "The REVEILLE was conceived in Aruba, N.A. and I suppose it died at Grand Case, St. Martin, F.W.I."

CANADIAN INVESTORS CAUTIOUS ON BR. GUIANA

Georgetown, British Guiana (AP)- British Guiana Trade Union Council President Richard Ishmeal said yesterday Canadian industrialists are reluctant to put capital into British Guiana.

Ishmeal, just returned from the study conference opened by Britain's Prince Philip in Canada, said he tried to boost British Guiana's investment possibilities. Canadian industrialists, Ishmeal said, generally took the stand: "We do not want another Cuba situation repeating itself, where our property will be taken away again." They did not think much of British Guiana's so-called guarantees, Ishmeal said.

3 CONVICTS ESCAPE ALCATRAZ

San Francisco (AP)- Three Alcatraz convicts vanished from the island rock prison on Tuesday after months of chipping with spoons through a concrete cell wall.

Their escape from three separate cells, through air vents into a pipe tunnel, apparently was concealed for hours by life-like, plaster-headed dummies they left in their beds.

Prison officials expressed belief that they used a driftwood raft to get off the island. If the escape is successful, it will be the first to succeed in the 28-year history of the Federal prison.

A widespread hunt for the three convicts included a military police search of Angel Island, a timbered state park 1 3/4 miles north of the bleak rock prison.

Eleven previous escape attempts ended in failure. Thirty-five men were involved. Two made the attempt twice.

Tuesday's fugitives were indentified as:

Frank Lee Morris, 36, under 14-years sentence for the 1955 burglary of a Slidell, Ala., bank. The burglary was carried out after Morris escaped from the Louisiana state prison at Angola, where he was serving a 10-year term for armed robbery.

John W. Anglin, 34, under 15-year sentence for January, 1958 robbery of the bank of Columbia, Ala.

Clarence Anglin, 28, John's brother, under 10-year sentence for the Columbia robbery.

Because of the dummies, the robbers were not missed until 7:15 a.m.

The men evidently worked for months gouging with coffee spoons through 4-inch-thick concrete surrounding a heavy metal air vent in each of the three cells, close to the floor.

They used painted cardboard covers resembling the vents to keep the wall holes hidden. Eventually they had dug holes 8 by 12 inches leading to a utility pipe tunnel back of the cells.

They sin who tell us Love can die;...
It's holy flame for ever burneth;
From Heaven it came, to Heaven returneth;
Too oft on Earth a troubled guest,
At times deceiv'd, at times oppress'd,
It here is tried and purified,
Then Heaven hath its perfect rest;
It soweth here with toil and care,
But the harvest-time of Love is there.
