The heading of this article may sound to certain people as foolishness, or a duck story; a tale repeated over and over without much importance even to professed Christians.

It is said in the United States of America that there are more than 300 religious groups; each teaching their own doctrines.

Could these numerous groups be correct in the sight of God? The answer is NO. You will ask why the answer is NO? Because in God's sight there are only two ways, the right way or the wrong way, if you are not on the right path, surely you are on the wrong path.

How can we know these two ways? Is it by our own judgement or our feeling or our belief? NO; the Bible teaches there is a way that seemeth right unto man, but the end thereof is death.

This verse of scripture teaches us that the way of man is not the right way regardless to his instruction, education, talents or wealth.

Man's way without being mingled with the will of God is the way of death. When we speak here of death we mean everlasting death.

When we speak of Christ coming the second time; many people say: "If He is coming they have to see Him come to believe" - Other say: "Let Him come; this time we will meet Him with the atomic bomb, to blow Him in peices" - Others say: "The second coming of Jesus is Adventist talk, ever since we are hearing He is coming and still He cant reach.

The apbtle Peter call these kind of people scoffers, read 2 Peter 3:3,4. Knowing this first that there shall come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, and saying, where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the Creation. In the 8th. verse the apostle Peter continue saying: "But, beloved, be not ignorant of this thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day; read the 9th verse, the Lord is not slack concerning His promise as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

The promise of Jesus return is found in St. John 14: 1-3: Let not your heart be troubled Ye beleive in God believe also in me: In my father house there are many mansions if it were not so I would have told you; I go to prepare a place for you, and if I go to prepare a place for you I will come again and receive you unto myself that where I am, there ye may be also.

Also read in 2 Peter 3: 10 - 13: But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise and the Elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein sh all be burned up.

Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought we to be in all holy conversation and godliness. Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of the Lord. Wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved and the Elements shall melt with fervent heat? nevertheless we according to His
