N.V.P. SCORES COMPLETE VICTORY AT CURACAO

On Friday May 31, 1963 the National People's Party (N.V.P.) scored a complete victory at the polls in Curacao. With 12 of the 21 seats the N.V.P. headed by Mr. Dr. M.F. da Costa Gomez obtained a complete majority in the Island Council of Curacao and also the possibility of electing all five deputies of Curacao. The Democratic Party (D.P.) headed by Premier E. Jonckheer got only 9 seats and suffered a defeat.

The K.V.P. did not get any seat neither did the Radical; even though the Radical had some gains since the last election on June 4, 1962 this party got 310 votes less than the required amount for a seat.
