WEDDING BELLS

On May 22, 1963, Mr. Marius Lionel Gumbs and Miss Agnes Wioletta Lake were joined in marriage. The civil rites were conducted at the Courthall in Philipsburg at 10:30 a.m. by Mr. C. Williams and the religious ceremony was conducted by Rev. Khan at the Methodist Church at Philipsburg at 5:30 p.m.

At the reception which was attended by Lt. Governor and Mrs. J.J. Beaujon, Rev. and Mrs. Khan and many others, there was plenty to eat and drink.

The cakes which were well designed and beautifully decorated were made by the mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. C. Gumbs and Mrs. Inez Thomas.

The Windward Islands Opinion congratulates the young couple and wishes them good luck.

Fully automated elegant

Reverent "Sahida" - the very timepiece women have always craved. Now, for the first time, she can wear a divine combination of extravagant beauty and unrivalled self-winding Eterna-Matic precision. What a joy, to own a lasting piece of precious watch jewelry and an exact timekeeper on wall. So thin too! Thanks to the unique ultra-thin Eterna-Matic movement, "Sahida" is one-fifth thinner than the former thinnest ladies' automatic.
