THE FALL OF BABYLON

By: Bro. Simon Jeffry

Who is Babylon, is it the Babylon of Nebuchadnezzar of old? No. The scriptures declare that Babylon is the Church who has all nations drunk with the wine of the wrath of her fornication with whom the Kings of the earth have committed fornication and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk Rev. 17:2, in the fifth verse she bears the name of Mystery Babylon, The Great, The Mother of Harlots and abominations of the earth.

The angel's message from God cried nightly with a strong voice, saying; Babylon the Great is fallen is fallen and is become the habitation of devils and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. Rev. 18:2.

And I heard another voice from heaven, saying come out of her my people that ye be not partakers of her sins and that ye receive not of her plagues. Rev. 18:4

But the scriptures also say that Babylon has daughters. Who are these daughters? These daughters are the Churches who are following the footsteps of Babylon, by braking the fourth Commandment carrying on their worship on Sunday the venerable day of the sun, for which neither Babylon nor her daughters can find any scriptural proof for this worship day, which the Christian world has accepted and therefore they fondly contradict themselves by keeping Sunday strictly.

God plainly say in Babylon and her daughters He has people in them, and admonishes His children to come out of them.

Apparently Babylon is in the very heights of her power, presently, because she is drawing the world when she moves, but the Bible plainly declares she is fallen is fallen. This fall is a fall from the spirituality, God has no more dealing with her although He has people in there, that is why God is still pleading with His people to come out of her.

With all her pomp and pride presently she is now threading on the quicksand of her ruins.

The words of Jesus should be solemnly taken heed of in these last days of earth's history, read St. John 10:16 and other sheep I have which are not of this fold: They also I must bring and they shall hear my voice and these shall be one fold one shepherd.

The life of Jesus was too humble for rabbis and doctors of the law, that is why they asked Him the question in St. John 10:24. Then came the Jews round about Him and said unto Him: "How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ tell us plainly (Christ came in this world in a poor and humble way so the great religious leaders could not believe Him, because they had nothing in common with the poor, the poor was considered as out-cast, how could the Son of God come in the line of the outcasts. No! He is not the Christ, it is not possible, let us get away with Him, He is an imposter.)

But Jesus answer them in St. John 10:25. "I told you and ye believe me not; because ye are not of my sheep as I have said unto you."

Nevertheless, Jesus gave His last warning message to the world in Rev. 14:6-12. Take up your Bibles and read for yourselves, and deditate on verse 12, Here is the patience of the saints, here are they that keep the Commandments of God and have faith of Jesus - The Commandments of God are those written in Exod:20:1-17, including the fourth Commandment which reads: "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy, etc.

Remember this also; it matters not how holy you keep the Sunday you are not worshiping God; it is true that any day you can worship God, that will be acceptable to Him; but that acceptance is for Sabbath keepers who are doing His will, not for those who deliberately trample on God's holy day saying this is the Christian Day, such people should search the scriptures, Jesus say for in them ye think ye have eternal life they are they which testify of me St. John 5:39.

There is not one verse in the Bible to back up this presumptuous action of worshiping on Sunday in the place of the Sabbath day.

I will quote from the book of Daniel and Revelation page 716: Read what Alexander Campbell founder of the Disciples of Christ church say:

"A Reformation of popery was attempted in Europe full three centuries ago; It ended in a protestant hierarchy, and swarms of dissenters, protestantism has been reformed into presbyterianism, that into congregationalism, and that into baptistism etc., etc. All of them retained in their bosom - in their ecclesiastical organizations, worship, doctrines and observances - various relics of popery. They are at best a reformation of popery and only, reformation in part. The doctrine and traditions of men yet impair the power and progress of the Gospel in their hands."

The writer's remarks: "God is not dealing any longer with churches for they are too proud to come down, but God is now dealing with individuals who are in these churches; individuals who are truthful, who would accept the message when it is given to them. Jesus said: "Other sheep have I, but they must be
