

cedure applied in the Netherlands Antilles. The unity of the two parts of the Kingdom reached its climax on December 15th, 1954, when H.M. Queen Juliana authorized a new legal order which gave the right to both the Netherlands Antilles and Surinam to promote their own interests quite independently. The autonomy of each of the countries was laid down in a statute to the effect that in future each part of the Kingdom was to be governed according to its own conceptions.

The Statute introduced a period of great solidarity between the Netherlands, Surinam and the Netherlands Antilles. The Antillean Posts will emphasize this fact by the issue of a special postage stamp on the occasion of the 150th anniversary of the independence of the Netherlands. This stamp has been designed by the Netherlands artist R.D.E. Oxenaar, who also designed the three commemorative stamps to be issued by the Netherlands Postal Services, Nov. 21, 1963. The price of the stamp is NA Fc.25, exclusive of forwarding charges.
