

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE WILLIAMS HERE FOR ONE WEEK

Mr. and Mrs. George Williams will be leaving here this morning, (Saturday Jan. 18,) by Caribair for the U.S. after spending a week vacation here.

Mrs. Williams is a registered nurse, who has attended many International Nurses' Conferences, in Europe as well as North and South America, a colleague and friend of Miss Cathrine Richardson and during their stay here the Williams' were the guests of Mrs. Zillah Richardson, mother of Nurse Richardson.

Mrs. Williams visited the island about three years ago, during which time she made many friends who were all very happy to have her back - This is the first time that Mr. Williams has visited the island, but he has assured our Editor that it will not be the last.

During their stay, dinners, parties and island tours have been given in their honour, by their many friends.

The Windward Islands Opinion wishes them a safe return home, and looks forward to their next visit.

C O N G R A T S

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvain Gumbs of Marigot became the proud parents of a 10-pound, baby boy, Daniel Sylvain, Jr. on Jan. 6, 1964 - They have five daughters and Sylvain Jr. is their first son.

Their joy over the birth of their first son was short lived, because, shortly after birth the baby was in a critical condition -

Daddy immediately rushed mother and baby to the Marigot hospital, where Rev. Sister Louis performed first-aid, until Dr. Levendag could be reached (Dr. Petit was not on the island) - Upon his return to the island Dr. Petit took up where Dr. Levendag had left off and now both mother and baby are doing fine.

And Mr. Sylvain Gumbs, who recently returned from Aruba, where he had been employed with the Lago Police Dept. for many years, is a proud and happy man.

We congratulate the proud parents and welcome Sylvain Jr.
