

WORK ON SHELL BUNKER STATION PROGRESSING

SLOWLY

Work have started on the construction of a Shell bunker station at Point Blanche. Work on this private project is however progressing slowly due to the difficult job of cutting down part of the hill where the tank will be built.

Marine diesel will be stored at the station which will have a storage capacity of about 450,000 gallons.

NEWLY WEDDED YOUNG COUPLE HONEYMOONING

HERE

Mr. Naldo Gibbs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austis Gibbs and his attractive young bride, the former Miss Bernice Muller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Muller, both of San Nicolas, Aruba, are at present spending the second part of their honeymoon trip here with relatives at French Quarter.

The young couple were recently married at San Nicolas Aruba and spent the first days of their honeymoon in Puerto Rico - Even though the parents of of the bride as well as the groom are from here, they were both born at Aruba. They arrived here about a week ago and will leave on Monday Febr. 17.

The bride studied in Holland where she qualified as a nurse and is now employed at the Lago Hospital. The groom is an U.T.S. graduate and is also employed at the Lago; he plans however to study further with the intention of acquiring an engineering degree.

The Windward Islands' Opinion welcomes the young couple in our midst, wishes them an enjoyable stay and a long and happy marriage life.
