as memory comes to keep his company.

Let every man gather virtue, for a man's virtue accompanies his soul. Otherwise he goes alone, through the dark glooming which we all must traverse.

"We are Spirits" says Franklin. That bodies should be lent us while they afford us pleasure, assist us in acquiring knowledge, or in doing good to our fellow men is a kind of benevolent act of God. When they become unfit for these purposes, and afford us pain instead of pleasure - Instead of an aid they become an encumbrance, and answer none of the intentions for which they were given, it is equally kind and benevolent that a way is provided by which we may get rid of them... Death is that way.

We should stop waiting till our friends die to say the good things about them. Say them while they can hear them, and make them feel good.

In behalf of my good old friend Bro. Phiup Henson on his anticipated hundred years anniversary.

Dear Mr. Editor;

Please allow me the necessary space in your paper for the following:

Before beginning my little story I would like to ask two questions;
No 1 - When the members of a Private Club (as they call it) become a nuisance to the peace of the public, what should be done about it?????

No 2 - When the aid of the Police Force is required, shouldn't they respond to the call????

Here begins my little story:
Saturday night July 4th. 1964, two old folks, who reside at Windward
