Army.

A large crowd of relatives and friends were on hand to see the boys off and there were many wet eyes as the ship left Grand Case - The boys however were all in high spirits.

The Windward Islands' Opinion wishes that all the boys will return safely to our sunny shores after their term of service.

CHINA'S OPEN DOOR TO EUROPE

The Dutch have jumped on the free-world trade bandwagon headed for Red China and are negotiating with Peking for opening of a large trade mission in The Hague which would also handle Communist China's trade with West Germany,

Belgium and Denmark. The Dutch are pressing China trade and Holland firms have already signed contracts to provide four fertilizer plants, factory installations (including chemical plants), heavy industrial equipment and several freighters now under construction in Dutch shipyards. Finally, the Red Chinese are negotiating with Fokker, the large Dutch aircraft manufacturer, for arrangements to produce under license in China the Fokker F-27 Friendship turboprop transport, which Fokker is about to bring out in a jet version. Peking will open account with Dutch banks to finance the trade and the Chinese are granting KIM, the Dutch national airline, special landing facilities at Chinese airports. By fall, Chinese ships will begin calling at Dutch ports and Dutch ships at Chinese ports.
