

UFDC

Using the Collections

Endless possibilities:

- Unique sources
- Primary sources
- Add visual interest to presentations
- Images for marketing efforts
- Demonstrate research depth and breadth
- Cultural context and dimension
- Available here and now, free!

The University of Florida Digital Collections (UFDC) enables users to find unique and rare digitized materials held at the University of Florida (UF) and partner institutions. With UFDC, remote and local researchers can have free, open access to the full content of the resource. This is a constantly growing collection of resources.

The search box above searches across all the digital resources in all the collections for a term in each digital resource record, as well as any full text. By clicking on the icons below, you can view and search that individual collection.

ARTS, HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Architecture & Landscape Design

Baldwin Library of Historical Children's Literature

Florida Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences

Graphic Arts Collections

Literary Studies Collections

The Parkman Dexter Howe Library

Performing Arts Collections

Theology Collections

Women in Development

Women in Social

<http://ufdc.ufl.edu/>