Interest in the ethnic groups of Florida and their history is likewise increasing, yet primary resources for research into the early history of these communities are limited.

Historic newspaper collections on microfilm or in electronic databases are frequently inaccessible, or they are too expensive for public libraries, historical societies, and smaller colleges to maintain or acquire.

Many important, older materials like this first issue of La Gaceta, a weekly Spanish/English newspaper produced in Tampa, are in a poor physical state and in need of digital preservation.

A TENSE MOMENT

French Non-Jews Lead Anti-Semitism Protest

By EDWIN EYTAN

PARIS (JTA) — Close to 200,000 people marched through the center of Paris in an unprecedented display of solidarity with French Jews following the brutal desecration of the historic Jewish cemetery in Carpentras four days earlier.

President Francois Mitterrand, who was not present, for the first time since the end of World War II that a president of the French Republic participated in a street demonstration.

His presence was a measure of the shock and outrage felt in France over the incident, in which a recently buried corpse was disinterred and mutilated, and the gravestones overturned.

Prime Minister Michel Rocard took part, in the demonstration as well, saying the grand assemblage of people would "show foreigners abroad that the French are unanimous that although racism, like others, harbors a few sick criminals, France is neither racist nor anti-Semitic."

But the revulsion apparently is not universal.

Forty hours before the Paris march, another 32 tombstones were desecrated in the Jewish cemetery in Lyon, a northern corner of France.

Anti-Semitic slogans were daubed with red paint on the graves and the cemetery walls. Six tombstones were painted with Nazi emblems. Police admit they have no clues, and are urging witnesses to step forward.

The body of the recently desecrated grave in Carpentras, which was exhumed, probably for forensic purposes.

AJCommittee Honors O'Connor Despite Slur

By ALLISON KAPLAN

NEW YORK (JTA) — Israeli officials and American Jewish leaders reacted with dismay at the Catholic Archdiocese here after Cardinal John O'Connor called the move of 100 Jews into Jerusalem's Christian Quarter "tiresome" and raised the question of whether a "conspiracy" exists to drive Christians out of the Israel.

In his column in the weekly newspaper Catholic New York, O'Connor said there were "perceptions on the part of some that the move of the settlers is only a signal of a conspiracy to grab land ad eliminate the Christians presently occupied by Christians."

The archbishop opened the column by stating that "what has happened in Jerusalem is obscene" and that "the Israeli government has acted reprehensibly."

The Jewish community here is particularly sensitive to such harsh criticism coming from a man who is considered a longtime friend of both Israel and American Jews.

Church Leaders Lobby For Palestinian State

By HOWARD ROSENBERG

WASHINGTON (JTA) — The United States must continue its dialogue with the Palestine Liberation Organization to achieve peace in the Middle East, the chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee told the Middle East said.

"It is not feasible to obtain a Palestinian-Israeli dialogue in isolation or in disassociation from the PLO," Rep. Lee Hamilton (D-Ind.) told 125 visiting members of Churches for a Middle East Peace.

The pro-Palestinian group, comprised of a dozen Protestant denominations, held a three-day lobbying effort here, dubbed Washington Advocacy Days.

Hamilton, who chairs the House Foreign Affairs committee on Europe and the Middle East, said the 17-month-old U.S. dialogue with the PLO "weakens what was previously a Soviet monopoly in dealing with the PLO."

Haifa Vandalism Suspects Caught

TEL AVIV (JTA) — Two Jewish men have been detained for the desecration of two Jewish cemeteries in Haifa, police said. The suspects, spray-painted with racially anti-Jewish graffiti.

Police officials arrested a 21-year-old man with a history of mental disorders as the prime suspect in the crime.

The second man, described as a resident of a Haifa Bay town, is a friend of the first suspect.

However, the police have not ruled out an attitude-related motive for the spray-painting of swastika anti-Jewish slogans on tombstones at the Kfar Samir and Hof Carmel cemeteries.

Shamir Nears Likud Rule

By DAVID LANDAU

JERUSALEM (JTA) — Acting Prime Minister Yitzhak Shamir made additional progress toward forming a new Likud-led government this week, while the deeply troubled Labor Party prepared for an internal leadership showdown.

Shamir met with heads of the ultra-Orthodox Shas party, who reportedly informed they are prepared now to participate in a Likud government. Their earlier position was that they would support the new government, but not join it for two months to let Likud's peace policies.

With Shas' five Knesset votes now more securely in the Likud camp and talks going well with other potential coalition partners, Shamir is expected to be in a position to present a new government for parliamentary approval by the end of the week, or early next week at the latest. But he may have to ask for an extension of his 21-day mandate from President Chaim Herzog.

Labor, meanwhile, appears to be bogged down.

Supporters of former Defense Minister Yitzhak Rabin are demanding a referendum on the peace plan, in which all registered members would be able to choose between him and incumbent Chairman Shimon Peres to lead the party. They want to hold the vote within the next few weeks.

But Peres is trying to postpone it, arguing that the membership rolls are outdated.

If Israel Doesn't Improve Absorption
U.S. May Permit More Immigrants

By DAVID LANDAU

JERUSALEM (JTA) — If Israel does not improve its immigrant absorption, it may lose its priority status in the U.S. Congress will come under pressure to increase the number of Soviet Jews allowed to emigrate to the United States, a prominent American Jewish leader has warned.

Seymour Reich told reporters here that Israel must be more responsive to the organized American Jewish community that the Israeli government was not focusing on managing the Israel airlift and that conflicts between various ministries had thwarted efforts to open up a reception center for housing and employment.

Reich, who is chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major American Jewish Organizations, was quoted as saying that unless Israel makes absorption a top priority, there will likely be "an outcry" that has apparently been suffering by a public denunciation of Frustration by Soviet olim in Israel.

If Israel appears publicly to be incapable of handling the 200,000 immigrants who arrived in the United States in the last more of the emigrants in, Reich told the paper.

Currently, the U.S. ceiling on refugees from the Soviet Union is 50,000, about 40,000 of whom are Jews.

News Scene

JERUSALEM (JTA) — Israel announced a decision to go to the West Bank that the authorities shut down as trouble spots when the intifada began 20 months ago.

NEW YORK — Hundreds of church activists are lobbying in Washington this week, among other things, to halt U.S. foreign aid to Israel, in protest of its settlement policies. Organized by Churches for Middle East Peace, one of the largest such lobbying efforts against Israel on the part of mainline Protestant church groups.

WASHINGTON — U.S. Jewish groups are worried that they may have to absorb a larger tax rate from Uncle Sam and local governments in the 1990s.

SENTENCED TO EIGHTEEN MONTHS

Negro Youth Sent Off to Jail For Attacking Yeshiva Pupils

NEW YORK — (JTA) — The only youth arrested in a Negro teen-agers' attack on pupils of a Brooklyn Yeshiva was sentenced this week to 18 months in the State Training School. The 15-year-old defendant, whose name was withheld, had been in trouble frequently and had been on probation since July. He was sentenced in Children's Court by a Negro judge.

The man who placed him under citizen's arrest, Leo Berkman, a city building inspector, received several telephone threats and police put his home under watch. Two teachers and some 15 pupils were roughed up in the attack by 50 Negro youth on the United Labavitcher Yeshiva in the slum-ridden Bosford-Stuyvesant area. The fighting started during a luncheon recess when the Negroes invaded the school yard and began pushing and hitting the pupils.

Berkman, who was driving by, stopped his car, jumped out and ran to the defense of the children. After a brief scuffle, he subdued one of the invaders and the rest ran off.

A spokesman for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People condemned the assault as "a tragic and shocking revelation of corroding effect of racial and religious bias."

The American Jewish Congress said that it would be "tragic" if the "cordial relations" between responsible elements in the Negro and Jewish communities" were jeopardized by the incident. The statement also expressed "sadness" over the fact that Negro children, themselves victims of racial prejudice, "should attempt to release their frustration and bitterness on other innocent children."

The statement said the incident underlined the need for all persons "to redouble our efforts to eliminate discrimination and bigotry," and that it imposed "a special obligation on Negro leaders" to assure that the ideas of non-violent demonstrations in the civil rights struggle were understood by all Negroes, "including children."

The Anti-Defamation League called the "unprovoked attack" a "sad occurrence" and expressed the hope that it was "an "isolated incident and does not reflect any planned pattern." The ADL warned that "we must not let this wrong go unheeded."

Police put the school under around-the-clock protection after the incident, in which the Negroes shouted anti-Semitic epithets, jeering at the pupils with such statements as "You don't belong in this country."

Many adults, Negroes and white, watched the clash. Except for Berkman, none came to the aid of the pupils. The inspector called the indifference of the adults "disgraceful."

British Crack Down on Rabbi's Appointment

LONDON — (JTA) — The Council of the United Synagogue, British Jewry's principal synagogal body, discharged this week officials of the New West End Synagogue who had defied the United Synagogue and Chief Rabbi Israel Brodie in appointment of a new rabbi.

The issue was the selection of Dr. Louis Jacobs as rabbi of the synagogue, an affiliate of the national body, despite Chief Rabbi Brodie's withholding approval of Dr. Jacobs. Dr. Brodie has indicated he believed Rabbi Jacobs's views were not in line with Orthodox Judaism.

The Council met to act on a resolution approved earlier in the week for dismissal of the honorary officers and board of the synagogue. Sir Isaac Wolfson, president of the United Synagogue, submitted the resolution with a report on its background.

PRE-SELIHOT PROGRAM, SATURDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 3, WILL FEATURE FILM "THE RETURN" AND DISCUSSION ON "WHAT MY JEWISHNESS MEANS TO ME: EXPLORING OUR JEWISH IDENTITY"

The Selihot Service which ushers in the Days of Awe, Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur will be held on Saturday evening, September 3. It is preceded by a program appropriate to the season in that it prepares our congregants psychologically and spiritually for the mood of the High Holy Days.

This year the Selihot Service will explore the theme of Jewish identity, what it means to us and especially what it means to some who have found in it, regardless of background, a source of meaning and strength.

A short film called "The Return" which depicts the real life story of a number of young people who have searched for meaning and direction and have found it within a traditional Jewish lifestyle. Equally important are their candid portrayal of the various Jewish communities they rejected and their flirtatio with groups and life styles that would have signaled their loss from Jewish fold.

The film will be followed by a number of more local portray interesting, if not similar stories, of people who have found a new richer identification with Jewish life.

The program will begin with Maoulalah at 9:15 p.m. Th Identity Program will begin at 9:45 p.m. and will be follow informal and pleasant social hour with refreshments. DUAL CELEBRATION FOR 30th ANNIVERSARY

March 20th is the same date the Open House for River Garden was celebrated in 1946 by its founders, The Ladies Hebrew Sheltering Aid Society. It was an eventful day which, in retrospect, marked the beginning of providing humane sheltered care for the aged and infirm by the Jewish Community of Jacksonville, Florida.

Today three modern buildings on beautifully landscaped grounds house 165 residents. There is a staff of 155. River Gardens stands out as one of the most progressive health facilities to be seen anywhere. The House's occupational therapy program is demonstrated in the residents' annual hobby fair, featuring their arts and crafts, with all proceeds from their Grandma Moses Art Chair with oil paintings going to the Home's treasury.

River Garden's pioneer efforts in caring for the mentally impaired is well recognized and serves as a model of what society can do for these forgotten human beings.

The afternoon festivities will begin with the annual meeting in the Home's auditorium at 2:30 P.M. Mr. Sol Katz is Chairman for this event, which will include installation of newly elected officers and trustees; the annual report of the President, Albert M. Kofkin; greetings from the Auxiliary's President, Mrs. Nathan Gold, and the progress re-
