Thirty-Five Attacks Against Police Barracks, Believed Sinn Feiners' Fire Effort Futile

There has been a series of outrages in many parts of the malcontents adopting tactics attacking six-man police offices in many cities and towns and destroying the by fire.

Police Barracks

Fifty-five attacks are reported against police barracks, in places the police officials being left for concentration.

Officials of Dublin castle regard the destruction of the records is not important as property can be re-assessed.

Flag Still Flies

The Sinn Fein flag was flying today yesterday from the Custom House Pier in Queenstown and was hoisted during the night over the police station. Grease to the pole which was afterwards greased to prevent it being hauled down.

Ross, a West Indian salesman at the grocery counter there, was arrested Saturday by Policeman McCray, and, it was learned last night, will be arraigned before Judge Blackburn in the Balboa magistrate's court today on charges of forgery, grand larceny and defalcation of accounts.

Discovered During Inventory

The shortage was discovered during the recent monthly inventory and commissary officials said they thought the irregularities with which Ross is charged had been committed within the past three months.

Stock Found Incorrect

Ross, it was said, had certified his stock as correct, and during the inventory it was found to be incorrect. Ross reporting more stock than was found to be on hand.

It was further alleged that Ross forged upon a bank check the signature of the auditor's representative, which signature attested that [illegible]

Commissary officials said it was not possible to itemize the missing groceries, inasmuch as all such stock was carried according to physical valuation and not by items.

CAPTAIN WARDROP'S BODY IS STILL UNRECOVERED BY PARTY IN SEARCH OF IT

Captain Lieber's Search Party Fails To Report Discovery of Body of Young Officer Drowned in Chame Bay

The body of Captain Starr C. Wardrop, U. S. A., Corps of Engineers, who was drowned Saturday night in Chame Bay after a fortune battle against wind and current following his plunge into the water from the skiff, in which he was riding with Maj. Alfred Ganahl and Captain D. L. Neuman, to retrieve a lost oar, has not yet been recovered by the search party under the command of Captain A. C. Lieber which visited the scene of the tragedy yesterday.

Before leaving for Chame, Capt. Lieber announced that as soon as Captain Wardrop's body had been found the discovery would be reported to the Panama police authorities but up until a late hour last night no news had been received there as to the progress of the quest.

Was Popular Officer

The dead officer was one of the most popular bachelors in Pacific side social circles. He returned but recently from leave of absence spent in Salt Lake City, Utah, his home.

Governor and Mrs. Harding yesterday announced that the invitations to the marriage reception of their daughter and Captain Beeble on Wednesday, April 14, had been withdrawn. Captain Wardrop was an intimate friend of Captain Beeble, and was to have been the best man at the wedding.

The tragedy has cast a gloom over the post at Corozal where Captain Wardrop was adjutant of the Engineer battalion stationed there.

40,000 GERMAN TROOPS NOW IN RUHR VALE

French Forces on Alert are Ready to Move Forward Unless Berlin Recalls Forces in Ruhr District

Premier Millerand is Reported to Have Held Interview With Field Marshal Foch Yesterday Afternoon

(By The Associated Press)

MAYENCE, April 5.—French troops will occupy Frankfort Tuesday morning. Several detachments has already started.

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, April 5. French military [illegible] designed to support General [illegible] to the [illegible] the hands of Field Marshal Foch, according to a statement issued from the foreign office this morning which adds that nothing more has transpired regarding the advance of the French troops than that indicated in the official communiques.

Confirms Report

Information reaching the foreign office this afternoon confirms the report that despite the assurance officially given by Germany that only a very limited number of troops would be sent into the Ruhr district, the number of troops now in this region numbers [illegible]

Send Millerand Notes

The German charge d'affaires, Herr Mayer, and the head of the German delegation, Herr Goeppert, sent identical notes to Millerand as French foreign minister and as president of the supreme council, seeking to reduce the importance of the movement of the Germans in the Ruhr district, saying that the number of troops have been exaggerated, and giving assurances that there was no necessity for the application of the guarantee demanded by France as the presence of the troops in that region will not be prolonged.

Talks With Foch

Premier Millerand is reported to have held an interview with Field Marshal Foch this afternoon.

Dispatches from Wiesbaden saying that General Degoutte's forces are under the "alert" orders which are explained as not necessarily meaning the immediate advance of the French troops but rather that they are in complete readiness to move forward unless Berlin promptly recalls the forces which entered the Ruhr district against France's protest.

No Censor On News

No censorship has been established here on the news regarding the operations, but since the matter is now entirely in the hands of Field Marshal Foch, communications from the army will probably be surrounded with the usual precautions though the operations are not considered on a war basis.

It is stated in some well informed quarters that the French occupation of Frankfort, Darmstadt, Homburg and Hanau, is not likely to exercise sufficient pressure on the Germans since they may well argue that this occupation is distasteful to the French as well as themselves and cannot endure in-

Apprenticeship Is Goal Of Old Clerical Hand

L. G. Scheets, For Fifteen Years Panama Canal Clerk and Now of Record Bureau, Seeks Beginner's Job of Commander Kintner, Assuring Advancement to Two Dollar Hourly Rate

There is a clerk in the Panama Canal service who, though he is drawing $200 a month, finds it so hard to meet the prices asked by the commissaries for the necessities of life that he is ready to sacrifice fifteen years of experience as a Canal clerk to become an apprentice in the mechanical division so long as such work will pay him a total salary of 55 cents or 60 cents an hour.

"I have had [illegible] experience in a clerical capacity with the Panama Canal, but am apparently not at all fitted for this class of work. My present salary is only $200 a month, which, as any clerk of much experience can testify, is entirely inadequate to meet the ever increasing prices of potatoes, hose, butter, eggs, native beef, etc., prices evidently fixed to fit the purses of Canal employes and of officials drawing from $300 to $500 per month.

Will Become Union Man

"Should my application be given proper consideration, and should I be successful in obtaining one of these high commendatory apprenticeships, I will agree to join such organizations as the Metal Trades Council and those of the boilermakers, machinists and pig iron carriers, or any others that will guarantee their members the wages and salaries sufficient to keep pace with the high cost of living."

Epidemic of Duels Grips Southland. Beltram Falls Before Battle Ex-President of Uruguay

Montevideo May Soon Witness Another Affair of Honor if Senator Saguier Accepts Editor's Defi

(By The Associated Press)

BUENOS AIRES, April 5. The city of Montevideo which was the scene of the fatal duel between ex-President Battle and editor Beltran may witness another "affair of honor" of an international aspect if Argentine's Senator Fernando Saguier, accepts the reported challenge [illegible] Luis de Souza [illegible]

Seals Tongues

According to [illegible] in Rio de Janeiro, Lage sails Tuesday for Montevideo, with a fellow journalist, to use of his seconds. It is said that Senor Barcenni, ex-foreign minister of Uruguay will be his other second.

Editor Lage will await Senator Saguier in Montevideo.

According to the newspaper accounts, Lage considers that his honor has been impugned by an article which Saguier wrote in the Argentine Government's organ La Epoca, in which he charged Lage with having misrepresented President Irigoyen in an interview with the President which the Brazilian editor published in his paper.

Acceptance Uncertain

It has not been announced that Senor Saguier has accepted the challenge.

The other duel mentioned above was also the result of an article appearing in El Pais, a paper owned by Washington Beltram. Battle was shot and killed by Jose Batlle y Ordonez, twice ex-President of Uruguay.

Fought In Rain

The duel was announced in the newspapers and given the greatest publicity and was fought on a foot-ball field outside of Montevideo under a pouring rain storm.

Battle, who is a deputy of the Uruguayan lower chamber, was seconded by deputies Ovidio Fernandez Rios and Francisco Ghizhlani, while Beltram was seconded by Senator Aguirre and deputy Rodriguez Larreta, the master of ceremonies being the secretary of the chamber of deputies, Senor Domingo Veraniento.

Waited Four Hours

The duelists are reported to have waited four hours for the rain to cease and after this the master of ceremonies declared that he was unable to wait any longer and gave the duelists five minutes in which to begin.

Because of the rain the two men decided to keep on their hats, Beltram exchanging his straw for a felt so that both be on even terms.

At 25 Paces

EASTER SERVICE AT CHRISTIAN MISSION

The Easter Song Service given by the Sunday School department of the Panama section of the Christian Mission on Easter Day furnished quite an enjoyable treat to the many friends and members who attended. The attendance was exceptionally good considering the occasion on which other gatherings hold similar services.

Mr J. B. Brome presided and helped to make the evening pleasant by his usual genial manner. Mr. Edgar Smith presided at the organ in his usual elegant style, while Dan Morris, the well-known cornetist added graceful accompaniment.

The program, though short, was spicy throughout, every number being well rendered, some producing encores. It would be difficult to refer to any particular item as they were all worthy of highest appreciation. Nevertheless, we believe that Miss Pearl Smith by her excellent gift as a reciter and her coveted talent as a singer has made a lasting impression on her hearers. Miss Clarice Sampson also deserves special mention.

The Hallelujah Chorus by Handel, the special feature of the evening, was superbly rendered to the satisfaction of all. At every angle could be seen the craning necks of listeners and passers-by as the strains of "Hallelujah" rent the air, while many fond recollections were recalled, and scenes of early life brought to mental view during the evening.

The Rev. Mr. Wilkins was also present and after a brief exhortation to his audience on the blessings of Easter, he himself expressed his pleasure on hearing the Hallelujah Chorus, and asked for a repetition.

After another number, the Chorus was repeated to the delight of every one present, and the congregation was dismissed with the Benediction.

These batsmen formed the first pair and kept together until the score had passed the first century.

The conclusion of this game will be published later.

Kensington vs Lucas

Kensington made a poor start in their game against Lucas being disposed of for 86 runs.

Lucas commenced their first inning and at the call of time had 158 for three wickets. Holt 52 not out to his credit.

Farewell

MISS DAVIS

As you go from us to-day en route to your home in the United States, I desire to give public expression of the value I place on your labors of love and sacrifice for the enlightenment and uplift of our oppressed and down-trodden race.

And I appreciate exceedingly the fact that, standing out so conspicuously as an educated colored American lady, you have learnt to appreciate and support the efforts and undertakings of others, whether those others be Americans or not, when once you are convinced and satisfied that those efforts are directed toward honest and fearless motives for the betterment of the less fortunate among humanity.

I have satisfied myself that these are the motives responsible for your throwing in your lot with the government and operation of an organization, despite the fact that a West Indian stands out head and shoulders as the founder and governor of the said organization. I need hardly state that I refer to the Universal Negro Improvement Association and African Communities' League whose headquarters are in New York, U. S. A., and it's President General the Honorable Marcus Garvey who is ably represented by an International organizer of the attainments and courage of Miss Henrietta Vinton Davis with your right hand man in travel in these waters, Cyril Henry, Esq., whose absence from among us will make true the song "Absence makes the heart grow fonder." Already that's how I feel toward you both, although I may not have been very prominent among those who [illegible] profession of admiration for you both and your labors of love in the interest of our race might have been too open-mouthed.

And as you leave us, I desire you to take it from my own lips that you are leaving behind in the person of your humble servant, a man who has the pluck of his convictions and one who will not say that might is right and black is white. Rather that whoever be the responsible party toward [illegible] the ends of justice and making possible unnecessary oppression and hardships I will, as in the past, tackle them fearlessly, standing my ground whatever the consequence; not fearing man whose breath is in his nostrils, and at the disposition of Divinity.

And may I be permitted to add that although I do not believe it to be in accordance with the Divine plan for the early settlement of the earth among the children of men for the Negro race to have to go the length of a militaristic preparation to possess Africa as have in the past made possible conquest by rapine, plunder and murder on the part of the Caucasian people, I believe that such spirits as Marcus Garvey's and yours and others of like capacities or capabilities are fateful, or destined to stir up those latent powers in our people made dormant by oppression, as a necessary preparation to step into their own when the moment arrives.

That the Negro race will not need submarines, aero-bombs and the like to possess themselves ourselves, of Africa as a whole, I am sanguine. There are murderous agents enough among the other races to make necessary such undertakings by the true sons and descendants of Africa, who are just as much entitled to the whole of Africa as the Irish are to Ireland, and the Hebrew to Palestine.

So I shall follow the activities of our hero Marcus Garvey and all which the coming grand convention might accomplish. And should it please God to open up the way I should be happy to be there—I mean in New York in August this year, believing that great state and city of the Union, made possible by the fathers and genuine upholders of liberty and justice, will be the gateway to Africa.

Au revoir Miss Davis and Mr. Henry, and bon voyage to you and the good old ship, Captain, crew and passengers, one and all. With three cheers for the star spangled Banner, the Red, Black and Green, and Marcus Garvey.

PROGRESSIVES DEFEAT LILY WHITES AT CAMP BIERD

The Progressive Cricket Club met and defeated the Lily Whites by a score of 111 to 58 last Sunday at the Camp Bierd Oval in the presence of a large number of spectators.

The Lily Whites were the first to bat and literally collapsed before the terrific bowling of their opponents. The Progressives replied with 111, of which C. Phillips made 25, while D. Cain made 23.

The game was interesting from start to finish.

PRICES IN TRINIDAD

The Trinidad Government more than a month ago took steps to stop profiteering among the dry goods merchants by issuing an order that the profits made by such traders should be limited to from 15 to 50 per cent. on the different articles of wearing apparel. Ironware is also included in the order.

EXCHANGE OF NOTES ARE INDICATIVE OF WARMEST CHILEAN-AMERICAN AMITY

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 5. The State Department to-day made public the summary of the notes recently exchanged between Chile and the United States, and gave out the statement that the communications indicated that a warm and cordial feeling existed between the two countries.

The exchanges are further considered proof of the fact that there was not the slightest misapprehension on the part of the Chilean government of the purpose and intent of the note sent by the United States to Chile in connection with the controversy which had arisen between Bolivia and Peru with reference to the port Arica.

THE PRINCE OF WALES

From the London National News we clip the following, and we take pleasure in reproducing it feeling confident that it will be of interest to our numerous West Indian readers at this moment:

"The Prince's proposal to halt at certain of the West Indian islands both on his outward and homeward journeys to New Zealand and Australia, is the result of a promise he gave during the war to a native private in the West Indian Regiment. He was paying a visit to a General Hospital one day when he paused at the bedside of this man and stood chatting with him about his home for some time. Presently the soldier, who was extremely ill, said that he hoped the Prince would visit his native country for himself one day. The Prince at once promised that he would do this if ever an opportunity presented itself. When the details of his forthcoming tour were placed before him a few days ago, our young 'man' at once recalled this promise and decided to act upon it."

AIDING ARMENIA

EVIDENTLY President Wilson feels that his recommendation of anything to the United States Senate is the equivalent or even more than his veto. He should oppose the things he wants passed and favor the things he is against. Hence, he sends his message on Armenia, based on the report of a commission headed by Major General Harbord, without any recommendation.

Nevertheless, doubtless he has left room for the inference that he would favor assistance on the part of the United States and even the assumption of responsibility as mandatary. There can be no doubt that Armenia needs help.

Few people, not even the Belgians and inhabitants of the occupied portions of France, have suffered more from the war than the Armenians. They have always suffered at the hands of the unspeakable Turks and have always looked to the United States for succor and assistance. They not only suffered at the hands of the fiendish Turks but as an ally of the Sultan the old Kaiser sent some of his barbarous Huns to Turkey to teach the Turks some tricks in atrocities that had been evolved by the efficient German mind.

If there is anything that approaches the condition of being between the devil and the deep blue sea, it is being between the Turks and the Huns.

The Armenians must be a wonderful people to have survived the persecutions and slaughter they have suffered for years. Still they cling to their religion and the remnants of their race remain intact. They are, indeed, worthy of any assistance that can be given them.

The Armenians want the United States to accept the mandate. There is no country in the world so capable of accepting such responsibility. It is an act of charity that can hardly be refused without appearing extremely selfish. It is hardly fair to ask the other European countries, which have suffered so much from the war, to take this added expense and responsibility in addition to their own difficult rehabilitation. It will give the United States an opportunity to carry out a great humanitarian work for which it is so well qualified.

Naturally it will cost the United States some money, but it will be bread cast upon the waters that will probably return manyfold. However the matter should not be viewed only in a mercenary manner. It is and should be an act of charity.

The United States has lost nothing as a result of the commendable work done in Cuba and Porto Rico and the Philippines after the Spanish-American War. Indeed, it has gained much as well as helping people who have proved themselves worthy of assistance.

Look at Cuba today. It is one of the richest islands in the world, prosperous, and the biggest market the United States has in the West Indies. Porto Rico has changed from an impoverished to a prosperous and contented colony. The greatest change has been made in the Philippines, where the natives, after a course of popular education and the country after the building of good roads have become both capable of self-government and support.

Is there any reason to believe that the Armenians, a wonderful race of people, if given the proper assistance and protection, will do any less than the Cubans, Porto Ricans and Filipinos?

What wonder then that there should be
An exodus from barren cities,
Where brown despair stalks wearily,
And no one succors, no one pities!

Where he who's dry must emulate
The camel of the well-known story,
Hoping that condescending fate

With tables underneath the stars—

"Movies" Exported

More than 50,000 miles of motion picture film were exported from the United States in the calendar year 1919, or enough to stretch twice around the world at the equator "and then some." To be exact, says the National City Bank of New York, in a discussion of this growing feature of our export trade, the films exported aggregated 273,279,170 linear feet of which the exposed film was 153,237,260 ft. and the unexposed film 120,041,012 feet; the value of the exposed film being $8,066,723, or an average of 5.6 ct. per foot, and of the unexposed film $2,680,000 or an average of 2.2ct. per foot.

This is by far the largest total, says the bank's statement, of motion picture films exported in a single year, whether measured by quantity or value. In 1918 the total length of films exported was only 151,000,000 feet, in 1917 166,000,000, 1916 425,000,000, in 1915 190,000,000 feet and in the year prior to the war, 1913, 146,000,000. It was only in 1912 that this class of exports was considered of sufficient importance to justify a separate statement in the record of exports, the total for that year being 62,241,000 feet, valued at $5,502,000. The value of the films exported since the beginning of 1912 is nearly $60,000,000.

A very large proportion in the earlier years went in the unexposed form for use in making photographs in other parts of the world. At present, as above indicated, considerably over one-half 153,000,000 feet of the films exported are of the "exposed" class — those films bearing photographs made in the United States — while considerably less than one-half 120,000,000 feet are blank films for use in making pictures in other parts of the world.

Where did these 52,000 miles of motion picture films exported in 1919 go? Literally to all parts of the world. ... the details of 1919 ... are not available, those ... 1918 show ... motion picture films of the "exposed" class ready for presentation on the screen went to no less than 53 countries and colonies of the world. Thirty-three per cent went to Europe, 29 per cent to North America, exclusive of the United States, 14 per cent to South America, 14 per cent to Oceania, a little over 7 per cent to Asia, and 3 to Africa. Of the unexposed films of course a very large proportion went to Europe, 85 per cent in fact, while the remaining 15 per cent was distributed to the North American countries other than the United States, Asia, Oceania, and South America, in the order stated.

While we have been thus steadily increasing our exports of motion picture film, the importations have quite naturally declined. The total number of feet imported in the calendar year 1919 having been but 17,000,000 feet against 26,000,000 in 1918, and 76,000,000 in 1917, which was the high record in importation of films from abroad. The average import price of the exposed film was about 5.5 ct. per foot as against 5.3 ct. per foot of the exposed film exported. Of the 153,000,000 feet of exposed film exported in 1919, 39,000,000 feet went to the United Kingdom, 15,000,000 to Canada, 13,000,000 to Australia, 9,000,000 to France, 7,000,000 to Argentina, and nearly 6,000,000 to Brazil. The character of the views presented on the exposed "ready to use" films is quite similar to that of the films in use in the United States, probably three-fourths being photoplays and the remainder travelogues, "news service", and comedies.

The United States is by far the world's largest manufacturer of motion picture films. While no exact figures are available on the quantity of films now produced in the United States, an estimate based upon the known quantity exported suggests that the entire domestic production nearly exceeds 2,000,000,000 feet, with a value of approximately $75,000,000 per annum when "exposed" and ready for use in the projecting machine.

Wilson's Turkish Note Displeases Turks and Greeks

(By The Associated Press)

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 5. President Wilson's note intimating that the Turks must get out of Europe, came as a shock to all Turkish parties.

The Turks are not willing to believe the note true.

The President's note equally displeases the Greeks who seem to be much offended over Wilson's apparent unwillingness to grant their claims to the large districts about Smyrna and his insistence that Adrianople be given to the Bulgarians.

The note appeared in a slightly censored form which makes the United States position seem harsher on the Turks than in the original text.

There is considerable uneasiness felt regarding the effect of the note in Asiatic Turkey where 500 American born teachers and relief workers are relying solely on the good-will of the Turks for protection.

ELEVATING "MOVIE" ART

The French Minister of Public Instruction, with the idea of putting the movies "on the same plane as the theater and opera", suggests the institution of a conservatory to teach motion-picture art, in all its forms. Among the objects of the proposed conservatoire will be the creation of "real cinematograph actors and actresses."

Possibly the development of the film drama in France has not kept pace with its development here. But the suggestion of a school for the training of American movie stars would cause shrugs of derision in the profession from Long Island "studios" to Los Angeles. Motion-picture actors and actresses in our more highly oxygenated art atmosphere are born to the screen, not made. Their conservatory is the farm or the store, and they come from the old homestead or the dress goods counter to face the camera, full-blown, like Minerva.

Perhaps there is some field of usefulness for a school to elevate the stage to the level of the screen, but the French plan of reversing the process seems like a proposal to paint the lily. Why seek to improve on perfection? There are some things which they order less well in France. At any rate, the future of the histrionic art in America, if the opinion of the motion-picture interests counts for anything, is in the hands of the great galaxy of film stars these interests have developed. They are the custodians of popular drama, and it is for them to determine whether they will elevate it to dizzier heights.—New York World.

JUDGE WADE FINDS CARGO THIEVES GUILTY

Pilferers of Cargo From Hulk of Marne Get Light Fines and Warnings From Cristobal Magistrate.

CRISTOBAL, April 5. — Three men were found guilty by Judge Wade, in the magistrate's court today of stealing damaged cargo from the steamship Marne. This cargo was piled on Pier 6.

It developed that A. S. Brown, customs officer, saw Manuel Rodriguez leave the dock with a package of hosiery, and that when Rodriguez saw Brown, he ran. W. E. Stanley joined in the chase, and Rodriguez was followed into Colon and captured. When extradition was arranged Glen Holleman, detective, took Rodriguez back to Cristobal.

Claimed Gem Effects

Rodriguez' defense was that gas fumes from the Marne had affected him. Judge Wade fined him $10.

Socks and Wine Glasses

Joseph Hime was charged with stealing six pairs of socks and four wine glasses from the Marne. He said he saw these articles lying around and presumed he could pick them up. It developed that he had worked sixteen years for the Panama railroad and that he had never been in court before, so his penalty was limited to a $5 fine and a warning.

Sepoyo Implicated Too

A $5 fine and a warning were also given Joseph Sepoyo, likewise charged with stealing material from the Marne.

Guard Over Material

Police Captain Galloway said a guard would be placed over the material on Pier 6.

FRUIT COMPANY IS 21 YEARS OLD

Anniversary Is to Be Observed This Week. Has 23 Boats Under American Registry.

CRISTOBAL, April 5.—This week the United Fruit company will observe its twenty-first anniversary.

Among American shipping companies the Great White Fleet occupies a unique position, being next in seniority to the International Mercantile Marine.

Unlike most shipping enterprises the fruit company produces its own freight and carries it in its own ships to European and American markets.

Controls 23 Companies

Twenty-three separate steamship corporations under American registry are being operated by the United Fruit company, which enable it to unite the ports of the United States with those of Panama and Central and South America.

In the international fruit trade the company is at the head of American ocean carriers, having invested over $50,000,000 in this field. It owns more than 300,000 acres of tropical lands, the petroleum resources of which are today unknown and the possibility of the company possessing rich oil holdings lends a speculative value to its stock.

May Discover Fields

Besides transporting tropical fruits, mainly bananas, and sugar the United Fruit company may hereafter find it necessary to add a number of tankships to its fleet in the event of oil being discovered on its lands in Costa Rica and Panama.

The fleet of the United Fruit company sailed under the British flag until the early part of the war, when the fleet was transferred to American registry. Most of the ships of the company, however were built in the United Kingdom.

BRITISH MILITARY ATTACHES MAKE RECORD TARPON CATCH ON COL. CLOKE'S ANGLING TRIP

Major General Bethell and Colonel Thorne Take Monster Silver Fish. Party's Catch Totals Six Hundred Forty-Two Pounds of Tarpon and One Hundred Twenty Pounds of Red Snappers and Jack. Visitors Inspect Old Spanish Fort at San Lorenzo and Atlantic Coast Defenses.

COLON, April 5.—Six hundred and forty-two pounds of tarpon and 120 pounds of jack and red snapper was the catch of Major General H. K. Bethell and Lieutenant Colonel Andrew Thorne, attaches of the British legation at Washington, when they were taken on a fishing trip Friday, Saturday and Sunday by Colonel H. E. Cloke, commander of the Atlantic defenses of the Panama Canal. The British officers came to the Isthmus to assist in entertaining the Prince of Wales, and will soon return to Washington.

Prince to Fish in Sept.

The catch was made in the Chagres river. The Tarpon club tendered honorary membership cards to all members of the prince's suite, and, while His Highness was unable to go fishing, he told Colonel Cloke he would surely do so when he returned in September.

Catch Is Photographed

After weighing the catch of Colonel Cloke's guests on the Fort de Lesseps sea es, the fish and their captors were photographed.

Thorne Gets 85-Pounder

Colonel Cloke's party landed five tarpons Friday, three of them weighing about 15 pounds each and two about 30 pounds each. The catch Saturday included three 35-pound fish and two of 30-pounds. On this day Colonel Thorne landed an 85-pounder.

Bethell Lands Monster

Colonel Thorne needed two hours Sunday afternoon to land a 93-pounder, breaking two gaffs in the process, and then General Bethell caught the largest fish taken on the trip, a 104-pounder. This monster however, was landed in forty minutes.

Much Tackle Destroyed

The fish were wild Sunday, and six spoons were lost and three lines broken.

Inspect Fort Lorenzo

The old Spanish fort and American coast defenses at Fort Lorenzo were inspected during the trip.

Give Dinner Party

Colonel and Mrs. Cloke entertained their guests at dinner Saturday night, other guests being Colonel and Mrs. Morse, Colonel and Mrs. Harmon, Major and Mrs. Newton, Commander and Mrs. Marquart, Commander and Mrs. Haas and G. Graham, British consul.

Go To Dance

After dinner the party went to the dance of the Washington Cotillion club.

BOQUETE NEWS

BAJO BOQUETE, March 27.—G ... Barell of Panama, accompanied by Superintendent Clemente and Station agent Saiz of David, came in on the first train arriving here for the past two weeks.

A large crowd assembled at the station at 8 o'clock to meet the train, and at 8 o'clock a man with two horses laden with earth passed the station with the information that he had passed the train at Las Huacas, about four miles out of Boquete.

A little later the engine arrived for water and then returned for the train, which finally reached here at 10 o'clock, the time consumed on the run of 28 miles being seven hours and 30 minutes. Everybody was in a discontented frame of mind, and the remark was that they would prefer Kinkaid's old back line.

Tomas Guardia of Panama, who is installing the electric light plant for Enrique Halphen and company of David came up on a special motor March 24, accompanied by his wife and two children and Tomas Molina, to spend a few days in the mountains. He reports work on the light plant at a standstill awaiting material.

Mrs. W. D. Eastman of Balboa, accompanied by her daughter, Dorothea, arrived on the last voyage of the S.S. David, and is spending a month's vacation in El Boquete.

W. J. Fice and wife of Panama are also here spending their vacation.

Among the vessels transiting the Canal Easter Sunday was the United States navy collier Orion, enroute from Frisco to Norfolk, on which Mr. and Mrs. Styles B. Ward, of Cristobal, were the guests of Commander John H. Boesch.

The Pacific Mail's annual report for the year ending December 31, shows gross earnings amounting to $78,895,242.62 and a net income of $1,776,760.91. The profit and loss surplus of this company which has for so many years used Isthmian harbors now amounts to $2,-364,760.66 as contrasted with $1,-747,779.08 on January 1 1919.

Earnings last year of the Pacific Mail showed a material improvement over those of 1918, but it is impracticable to make comparisons because part of the company's fleet was requisitioned in 1918.

The Pacific Mail celebrated its seventieth anniversary under the American flag on the San Juan in Cristobal docks in 1918.

The Ulysses, bringing coal from Norfolk, Va., is expected to arrive at the coaling plant today.

The Parismina brought 56 cabin passengers, six in transit, and 25 deck passengers from New Orleans and Port Limon.

The Atenas will sail tomorrow for New Orleans via Bocas del Toro.

A cable announces that Atlantic passenger fares are to be again increased. Liverpool states that a further surcharge of 13 1-3 per cent in passenger fares has been decided upon by the North Atlantic steamship companies.

As a prevention against influenza the Allianca was completely fumigated Sunday evening, the whole crew being billeted ashore.

Expected arrivals at Cristobal next week include the City of Omaha, belonging to the Green Star line, W. R. Grace and company's Santa Teresa from New York, and about April 10, the Australpool, belonging to the Australian government from the States and the Leyland liner Nubian from Liverpool.

The Pacific Mail is now operating eight shipping board steamers on a ten day schedule between Hong Kong and Calcutta, calling at Saigon, Singapore, Penang and Rangoon. They have applied for allocation from the board of suitable ships for the transpacific service which will release the steamers Ecuador, Colombia and Venezuela for operation on the Panama line.

During the month just passed practically every large passenger steamer running between New York and New Orleans and Cristobal was booked to capacity each way. The Allianca, Parismina and Panama will sail this week with full complements of passengers.

The San Pablo, belonging to the United Fruit company is expected in port today from New York direct. The Saleuma, belonging to the barber company is also due from the metropolis.

An analysis of shipping board operations and vessels by ports shows 10 firms with 84 ships in New England, 79 firms with 786 ships in New York, 6 firms with 54 ships in Philadelphia and 12 firms with 63 ships in Baltimore.

Medinger Hits a Homer. Gunn Bats Hard

Transportation defeated the Cubs in one of those real old fashioned Twilight games last evening by the score of 11 to 10.

Twenty-one runs, twenty-four hits, twelve errors, eleven stolen bases, three doubles and a homer. What more could a loyal Twilight fan demand for his dime?

Medinger slapped a four bagger for the makins.

Gunn, a youngster signed up by Pop Ellenwood, was the batting star of the game, collecting three singles in four trips to the plate.

Vardon May Come For Golf Classics

LONDON, March 10.—A number of prominent British professional golfers will leave in June for an extended exhibition and competitive tour of the United States. Abe Mitchell, the most successful player of last year, has made arrangements to visit America, and will be accompanied by George Duncan. Harry Vardon, the holder of the open championship, will probably visit America for the third time. James Braid has definitely decided not to leave England, but two other well-known professionals may join the party.

This will be Mitchell's first visit to the United States. Vardon won the American open championship at Wheaton, Ill., in 1900, with J. H. Taylor a runner-up. Vardon, in company with E. Ray, visited America in 1913 and took part in the memorable championship at Brookline, Mass. They tied with Francis Ouimet for the title, who won a sensational victory in the play-off. Duncan toured America in 1911, when he won the open championship of Pennsylvania.

K. OF C. WAR ACTIVITIES

Caseys Again on the Job

Now that the flu epidemic has passed and the ban lifted the Knights of Columbus are starting anew their activities. The dances at Fort Amador were resumed on Saturday evening with a large attendance and an enjoyable time was had by all present. The movies at Amador were conducted each night during the ban as these are held in the open air and on these there were no restrictions.

The boxing instructor, Mr. Behan, is planning to give a boxing show for the entertainment of the boys at the Athletic Club, Santa Ana plaza, on Friday evening of this week. The program will appear later in these columns. Eddie has developed many of the boys since his arrival here so that most of any who have been under his instructions will be able to make a very creditable showing in the ring and at this show it is his intention to put up on all boys who have been [illegible] winners at the boxing game. The old Santa Ana club, now being conducted by the K. of C., has been put in first class shape; a punching bag stand has been installed that will accommodate four men at a time, also a fine hand ball court has been erected. Heavy and light sand bags have been hung in place to be convenient; new dressing rooms have been built so that now the old Santa Ana is indeed an up-to-date and ideal place for the boys to train and try out. And Eddie Behan is there at all times with the glad hand to welcome all comers and show them the finer points pertaining to the manly art. There is a large number of boys there every afternoon and evening trying their skill with the gloves. Among the most faithful of these are Joe Parent from the M. P. Company, Pier 18, and Blacksmith Payne, of the Quartermaster's Company, Balboa. These boys are both working hard and Payne is hailed as a future comer. Parent is also doing well and will be a strong opponent for anyone in his class. He is a cousin to Freddie Parent, the old time famous shortstop on the Boston American baseball team.

Beginning Tuesday, April 6, and continuing each Tuesday during this month a field day will be held at Corozal. A committee consisting of the following met at Corozal recently and completed arrangements for these events: Capt. Paul [illegible] Wing, chairman; Eddie Behan, K. of C. instructor; Lieut. Lile [illegible] cavalry; Lieut. Montgomery [illegible] nal Corps; Captain Middleton, F[illegible] Artillery; Captain Gallagher, Engineers; Captain Cook, Medical Corps; [illegible] Carswell, Signal Corps, and Joseph H. Ryan of the K. of C.

The following schedule was adopted:

A basketball game will be played every Tuesday evening from 7 to 8 o'clock to be followed by a dance to be under the supervision of K. of C. Secretary Mike Behan.

33RD. INF. HAS AN EASY TIME

(By O.A.T.)

The 33rd. Infantry team of this [illegible] town certainly played [illegible] Balboa Sunday afternoon [illegible] beating them by the [illegible] score of 5 to 2.

The features of the game were the [illegible] fielding and base running of Kelly, considered the best [illegible] playing in the league at the present time. The base running of Doherty, the classy center fielder of Gatun and the remarkable fielding of Rudd of the Balboa club.

Balboa scored a run in the first inning due to two errors of the Infantry. In the fifth inning they scored three runs by remarkable hitting and base running. Two perfect bunts against Birkholder caught the entire Balboa infield flatfooted.

In the seventh we gathered a brace of runs though they were not needed to win the game. The boys ran wild on the bases and the efforts of the Balboa infield to catch them reminded one of a high school team play as a major league team.

In the ninth inning Balboa obtained another run on two hits, the 33rd. boys not making any play on the runner scoring. We noticed that Manager Meyer was all over the field until the fifth inning, particularly in front of the grandstand after that time he was never seen or heard of again.

The basketball schedule is as follows:

Game called at 7 p.m. each game (2-10 min halves)

April 6th, first game Troops A, B and Supply, Field Art. and Dept. Q. M.

April 6th second game Company A, Signal Corps, Signal Depot, Post 2nd.

April 13th, first game—Troops C, D and H.Q. Engineers.

April 13th, second game Company D, Signal Corps, Detachment Med. Corps.

Games for April 20th and 27th will be announced later.

BOXING NEWS

BOXING SHOW CLASSIC

Two things in the sport line are attracting the fans attention this week, and both of them are booked for Sunday. One is the twenty-round battle between Red Goldberg of the Sydney, the lad who won the heart of every fight-lover on the Isthmus of Panama a few months ago, when he had the honor of being one of the principals in what has already been written down in Isthmian fight annals as the greatest battle ever fought in this section of the tropics. We refer to the O'Connor and Goldeberg go.

Red Goldberg was not in fighting trim that evening, although he fought one of the gamest fights imaginable. He had a fever of one hundred and one degrees; nevertheless he fought as only a game boy can.

On next Sunday at 4 p.m., after a lapse of two months, the fighting red head will again make his bow to the fans. This time he will be in tip top shape, trained to the minute and ready to fight from the tap of the gong. On this occasion he will also be pitted against one of the best middleweights in the boxing game today, Jimmy Montgomery, the "Irish Speed King," the battler who has fought the best of them in the states, including Britton and O'Dowd. Every fistic lover knows what a treat is in store for them, and they are asking each other in the shops, in the office buildings, and on the street corners, "Who's going to win?"

The other big sporting event next Sunday will be the base ball game at the Stadium, and just to make it agreeable for all those who want to witness both events the base ball managers have agreed to start the game at 2 p.m., so that it will be over in time for the crowd to be at the Bull Ring to see the big swatfest.

Promoter Whitey has two stirring preliminary bouts booked to precede the big event, one of six rounds and the other of ten. Hundreds of seats will be reserved for the ladies and tickets will be on sale to-morrow at the down town hotels.

Leach Refuses to Meet Smith Next Saturday

Al Leach, who was advertised to meet Midget Smith next Saturday night at the Krug-Richards' fight, has, through his manager Whitey, called off the go with the Midget.

The reason given is that he was not properly signed up, that the fight has not received the official sanction of the boxing commission and that the time is too short for him to get into proper condition to give the fight fans a good exhibition for their money.

The club championship is at its most interesting stage. Shropshire gave Doc Vengoechea a harrowing experience twice in the same place while J. Mas, without toeing the mark has the unique record of ending the tourney by virtue of two forfeited games from Clowe. Señor Heredia is in poor health and may have to withdraw from the competition. In that event the title narrows down to Mas, Taylor, Jolly, Shropshire or Westman. Shropshire has eight stiff games to play against the above quartette, while Mas has to run the gamut. Taylor has two apiece left against Mas and Shropshire. Westman was a strong contender until Saturday when he forfeited two games to Jolly by non-attendance. Helé arranged a splendid schedule which brings together the strongest players toward the finish.

Individuals establishing the highest records during the series of four field days will be awarded a silver medal.

A silver cup will be awarded to the team winning the base ball championship.

A silver cup will also be awarded to the team winning the basketball championship and a medal for each individual player in the winning team. These prizes to be awarded by the Knights of Columbus' War Activities committee.

Great interest is being shown by the boys at Corozal and the post is now a post of practice. And, of course, every team is a sure winner. But time will tell. All these events are free and it is expected that there will be a large attendance.

The Knights have [illegible] received 330 baseball un[illegible] complete from caps to shoes. These have been distributed equally among the different soldier teams on the Zone. Each uniform is marked in large letters for the different Army organizations and they fill a long felt want.

Secretary Tom Wilson has been kept busy at the K. of C. building, Panama, for the last few days taking care of the Jewish boys who have been in Panama celebrating the feast of the Passover. A large number of them have been [illegible] tered on the top floor of the [illegible] ing and Tom has seen to it [illegible] they have been made comfortable each night.

HERE AND THERE

Sunday, April 4th, 1920.

My dear Miss Amanda Moore:

I appeal to you as a stranger in a strange land to help me out. Can't you give me some hint through your enjoyable column, as to just "Who's Who" in this "neck" of the world.

I have searched in vain for a social register. Is there such an animal? I have asked some of the first citizens this question and they assume a sort of Rip Van Winkle expression, and after puckering up their brows and scratching their noble gray locks, I find they are unable to give me this information. No one seems to know. Like the old maid everyone is wondering.

At the recent affairs for the Prince, I stood on the side lines with fear and trembling. Although I had been presented to several attractive young ladies, I dared not ask them to dance. One must consider one's social position, you know. What if I should ask one that did not belong to the "Elite." I would be ostracized from further functions. Since the price of movies has gone up, I can't spend all my evenings at the theatre. And I enjoy society, as long of course, as the blue blood in it is kept absolutely blue.

I finally picked out one young lady who looked like her grandfather was a butcher just like Vincent Astor's. I was just getting up my nerve to ask her for a "dance" when I was informed that her mother did her own washing two days after the armistice was signed. Now what could be more disqualifying? What a narrow escape I had! Truly Providence does protect the working goil.

And so now, my dear Miss Moore I appeal to you, to point out in your truly diplomatic way, just who the hoi poloi are, and who the Stuyvesant de Peysters. Truly it is a terrible state of affairs when one is in doubt this way.

Some say the army tries to run everything, others the navy. Still others say the canal diggers are the elite. To me this latter class seems the most logical. I believe the elite are often called the first families, and from what I can judge the canal diggers were the first here.

It is quite a complex problem and one that should have all the consideration of a league of nations. I feel sure that my leaving the matter in your capable hands the problem will be solved, and I shall watch future editions with interest.

Yours very sincerely,
A SOCIAL WELL-FARE WORKER.

P. S. I conducted a column once but don't tell anyone.

Carolyn Granberry Is To Be Filmed For States' Movies Today

"Movie Man" Mcearton Will Take Pictures for Release on Programs of Yankee Playhouses

Miss Carolyn Granberry, the Balboa girl whose grace and charm captivated the Prince of Wales at the Tivoli and Union club dances, is to be photographed for the movies.

The pictures will be made this afternoon by W. E. Macarton, Isthmian movie man, who has secured Miss Granberry's consent to make them.

Expresses Delight

When asked yesterday if she would allow the film to be made Miss Granberry said "Why yes, I'll be delighted."

Macarton intends to film the girl at the telephone switchboard, later on the lawn in front of her home and on the locks waving farewell.

Balboa and Ancon

The small children and kindergarten class enjoyed a merry morning at the Balboa playground yesterday beginning at 9:30.

A short program of games and dances opened the exercises.

Then the children were blindfolded and tried to pin paper Easter eggs inside of a basket which was great sport for some time. But great would have been the fall if the eggs had not been paper, for it was hard work for the tots to find the basket.

The Easter egg hunt was the most fun of all.

Tiny baskets of candy Easter eggs were hidden about the playground and there was some scramble to find them.

After the games ice cream and cake were served and greatly enjoyed.

The mothers brought the cakes and the playground committee furnished the cream.

It was a most happy morning. Many mothers were present.

The playground furnishes some most interesting and enjoyable times for the children.

The Junior class of the Balboa high school will give a dance on the Balboa tennis court Friday evening. Dancing begins at 8 o'clock. The music will be furnished by Wright's orchestra.

Everyone is expressing a desire to be there as it has been so long since they enjoyed one of these fine open air dances and also everyone wants to help the Zonian.

Rev. R. B. Knapp spoke on the "Origin of Easter" at the evening services of the Balboa Union church Sunday.

A choir of eleven voices sang the two anthems "Oh Day of Gladness" and "In the Garden."

Mrs. A. P. Boyd sang "Open Ye the Gates of the Temple." The choir included Mrs. Betts, Mrs. Barton, Mrs. Louder and Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Hallett, Mr. Tapper, Mr. Lee, Mr. Ash, Mr. Worsley, Mr. Wilhite, Mr. McKenny with Miss Sevey at the piano. The church was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and flowers.

Mrs. C. W. Marcum entertained with a delightful luncheon at the Tivoli hotel Saturday in compliment to Mrs. Palm of Cristobal, who is soon to leave for the States on vacation, and Mrs. Morse of Washington, D. C., a sister of Mrs. Frank Brown, who is spending the winter on the Isthmus.

The table was artistically set with roses, a beautiful centre piece being made of them.

At each plate a cut rose and a spray of green lace plant was banded by the place card. The entire arrangement was very attractive. Besides the guests of honor the guests included Mrs. Marstrand, Mrs. Hersh, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Brown and Miss Finkey.

The Easter services at the Balboa Heights Baptist church Sunday were very interesting. The Rev. P. C. Walker gave two splendid addresses. The morning and evening sermons were both listened to with marked attention.

The children acquitted themselves well in the morning, giving many Easter recitations and singing Easter carols.

Little Anna Peterson sang an Easter solo.

She has a sweet clear voice and sings well.

The musical concert preceding Mr. Walker's sermon in the evening was much enjoyed.

Those singing were Mrs. Wilhite and Mr. Slack of Pedro Miguel, Mrs. Roy Jewelle, Mrs. Phillips, Mrs. Reichenbach, Anna Peterson and Mrs. Simons.

The solos, duets and trios made a very enjoyable program combined with the violin solos played by Miss Elena Mayo, who is always heard with pleasure and the reading "The Watchman," which was beautifully given by Mrs. R. C. Hardman of Cristobal.

The church was prettily decorated with palms and white flowers.

A beautiful large cross of blossoms stood just back and above the pulpit.

Rev. Walker's subject for the morning sermon was "He Has Risen" and for the evening, "Ye Must be Born Again."

Mrs. J. A. McLeod of Balboa accompanied her husband to Gatun Sunday to witness the ball game. Mr. Engelke and Mr. Banan were among the Balboa fans.

Mrs. R. C. Hardman and baby daughter Mary are spending Easter week with Mrs. Wm. Keenan of Balboa.

The regular meeting of the Star Improvement circle will be held Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the Ancon Masonic temple. Mrs. Woods and Mrs. Underwood are the hostesses.

Mrs. H. Oltman of Balboa is ill in Ancon hospital.

Mrs. P. C. Walker, who entered Ancon hospital last Sunday, is doing nicely.

So effective is their action that many cures can certainly be traced to their use where other pills have proved ineffective.

CHARLES RAY HAS STRENUOUS BATTLE IN HIS NEW PICTURE

Title Encounter in "Crooked Straight" Stopped Work on Film For Three Days While Star Recovered

Charles Ray has one of the most strenuous fights of his screen career in the Thomas H. Ince photoplay, "Crooked Straight," which comes to the Cecilia Theatre today. And Mr. Ray has had some fights in the past. This one, however, laid him up for three days. The scene takes place on a stairway, and after a dramatic struggle Charlie is knocked down by his opponent. He lands the full length of the stairs and several feet beyond the foot. The wind was completely knocked out of him and he had to be picked up and helped to a comfortable chair after the camera had quit grinding. That scene ended work for several days. The result on the screen justified the price, Mr. Ray thought, as it was no bit of realism.

Talk about your rough fights—such as I had in "The Man Trap Wallop," and Mr. Ray, "a regular ring battle is nothing compared with one of these rough-and-tumble scraps on stairs. With all my training with the gloves in the gymnasium and the grilling I took in the last picture, I didn't escape any more than the bruises that I did on this one. I'm glad [illegible] I do hope the public appreciates that fall, for I consider myself lucky not to have broken several bones, to say nothing of my neck.

In the latest edition of the Literary Digest there appears a detailed description of the famous 75 Mile Gun with which Paris was shelled during the war by the Germans. While this is without doubt entirely authentic, anyone desiring further information on the subject should not fail to see "The 75 Mile Gun" as demonstrated by Mutt and Jeff which showing at the Cecilia Theater, Tuesday April 6, in connection with the Charles Ray feature "Crooked Straight."

MISS FREDERICK PORTRAYS TERROR IN UNUSUAL PLAY

Exotic Goldwyn Star in "The Peace of Roaring River Spends Anxious Night

Oh! Help! A mouse—ouh, ouh!

Is there a woman in the world who has not screamed these words, gathered her skirts about her ankles, and trembled with fear? It is possible there are a few, but to those who know this inevitable fear of a mere mouse will be given a chance to sympathize with a fellow mortal tonight when Pauline Frederick, the popular Goldwyn star comes to the America and Strand theaters in her new picture "The Peace of Roaring River."

Imagine a woman having spent the night alone in a strange cabin far off on a mountain where the darkness seems visible, and where thousands of living, moving, screeching things surround the lonely hut.

No wonder then, that Miss Frederick, as this woman in trouble, screams out of fright as she is aroused from a sweet on the table, when a mouse starts nibbling at her hand.

In this photoplay, are shown a number of really thrilling events in the life of this woman. She is an ordinary young girl, trying to get ahead in the world. Through the petty meddling of a country postmistress, a young miner is supposed to write to her proposing marriage. The whole affair turns out highly satisfactory after a lot of interesting by-play, which will delight lovers of good pictures.

Outcome of Politics

The hostility between the two combatants is the outgrowth of a political controversy begun in the recent elections when the nationalists charged the supporters of Battle with fraud.

The supporters of Battle form a section of the Coloradist party which is now in power in Uruguay.

An article published by Beltram in El Pais, which offended Battle, called the latter "the champion of fraud."

The weapons used were pistols. Beltram was shot in the breast and died soon after.

Beltram was a Nationalist member of the Chamber of Deputies and the leader of that party which opposed the "Batllestas."

Ruhrberg Quiet

With reference to the operations of the German troops in the Ruhr district, dispatches from Dusseldorf say that after heavy fighting Saturday, Duisburg was quiet throughout the day Sunday, the people seemingly enjoying their Easter celebrations.

The government's troops spent the day yesterday dispersing Reds toward Mannheim and Mulheim, but have shown no intention to proceed to Essen or Duesseldorf.

Control Has Limit

Military control will be exercised in Duisburg only until such time as the civil authorities are able to take over the reigns of government.

It is stated that the Reds who assisted the troops Saturday were composed mostly of aliens.

Dispatches from Duesseldorf state that the Reichswehr troops occupied Mulheim to-day, the Reds retreating in the direction of Essen and to the south.

Information from the same source state that the government's forces contrary to all expectations are not marching against Essen.

FOCH TOMARA MEDIDAS MILITARES

EL ASUNTO SAGEL

El Presidente de la Republica envia una interesante carta al Sr. S. Cortes

Panamá, Marzo 25 de 1920.

Señor don Santos Cortés.

David.

Estimado señor:

He recibido la larga carta que me envió usted con fecha 26 de Febrero último, en su deseo de justificar ante mí los móviles que guiaron a Nicolás Sagel para ultimar al Gobernador de esa Provincia, doctor Saturnino L. Perigault. El conocimiento exacto que tengo de todos los detalles del desgraciado suceso y de sus antecedentes, colocan las apreciaciones de usted fuera de su objetivo, y nada podrá hacerme variar en el concepto firme que me he formado de que la ley debe hacer sentir con todo su peso para que no quede impune un crimen que, por su trascendencia, es uno de los más abominables que registra la criminalidad en nuestro país. Cualesquiera que sean los errores y debilidades que usted alega, el doctor Perigault cumplía con sus deberes oficiales según su conciencia y según su leal saber y entender. Él trataba de evitar que surgiera entre el señor F. Sagel y el señor Chase un conflicto que es causa primordial de la presencia de tropas americanas en la Provincia de Chiriquí. Su objetivo, por tanto, era colaborar patrióticamente con sus esfuerzos en el empeño del Gobierno Nacional de obtener el retiro de esas fuerzas. Si el señor Sagel se creyó perjudicado con las medidas del doctor Perigault, debió ocurrir a los superiores del Gobernador, o al Poder Judicial, que a ello le da derecho la ley; en cambio, prefirió hacer resistencia, negándose a ser notificado primeramente y alegando después imposibilidad para hacer el viaje a David, dado su estado de salud, a pesar del certificado médico que usted me envía, no era suficientemente grave para justificar su actitud. Prueba de ello es que aquí se encuentra actualmente, sin ninguna novedad mayor, de modo que no acierto a explicarme las escenas que usted me pinta en el camino de San Félix a Las Lajas cuando Nicolás determinó su incalificable agresión.

Es verdad que los hijos del señor Sagel me dirigieron un telegrama tratándome del asunto que les tenía preocupados, pero de este telegrama no se podía deducir que se necesitaba de mi inmediata intervención, ni podía pensar que así fuera, tratándose de una medida conveniente. Luego, entre el recibo del telegrama y de la noticia del crimen mediaron muy pocas horas.

Como Secretario de Relaciones Exteriores antes y como Encargado del Poder Ejecutivo ahora, mi labor es constante para que el Gobierno americano le otorgue un concepto más justiciero a la Provincia de Chiriquí del que le merece actualmente, y no es ciertamente conduciendo los chiricanos a las vías de hecho como mejor pueden cooperar conmigo. Usted que ha sido Fiscal allí por algunos años debe estar mejor penetrado que otros de la regresión que en las costumbres significa pretender hacerse justicia por sí mismo, ignorando las leyes que nos hemos dado para asegurar nuestro bienestar social.

Actualmente me ocupo en escoger la persona que ha de suceder al doctor Perigault y puede usted estar seguro de que el nombramiento se hará con prescindencia de todo interés que no sea el de normalizar la situación chiricana, devolviendo la tranquilidad a sus habitantes y a la Nación su soberanía completa en tan importante región.

Confío en que usted ha de modificar sus juicios acerca de lo que me escribe y que, junto con su simpatía para la familia Sagel tenga usted piedad para con el muerto y algo de conmiseración para su viuda e hijas, en quienes recae todo el peso de la tremenda desgracia.

Soy de usted muy atento y seguro servidor,

E. T. Lefevre.

LOS DUELOS ESTAN A LA ORDEN DEL DIA EN MONTEVIDEO

El periodista considera su honor ofendido por un artículo de "La Epoca"

Buenos Aires, Abril 5.— La ciudad de Montevideo, donde tuvo lugar el reciente duelo fatal entre el ex-Presidente Battle y el periodista Washington Beltrán, probablemente presenciará otra cuestión de honor de aspecto internacional que el Senador argentino Saguier acepta el anunciado reto de Juan José de Souza Lage, Redactor del periódico brasilero O País, de Río de Janeiro.

Según informan despachos de Río de Janeiro, Lage saldrá el martes para Montevideo con un amigo periodista como padrino; el otro padrino será el señor Baltasar Brum, ex-Ministro de Relaciones Exteriores del Uruguay. En Montevideo Lage esperará a Saguier.

Según las relaciones de los periódicos, Lage considera su honor ofendido por un artículo de Aguirre, publicado en La Época, órgano del Gobierno argentino en el cual se acusaba a Lage de haber tratado formar conceptos falsos sobre el Presidente Irigoyen por medio de una entrevista con el Presidente que fue publicada por el Redactor brasilero en su periódico. No se ha anunciado si Saguier ha aceptado o no el reto.

Los empresarios de las diferentes plazas hacen esfuerzos por obtener los servicios de los mejores toreros, pero los de Madrid son los que han ofrecido mejores salarios.

LOS ALEMANES EN EL RUHR

Herr Meyed envia notas a Millerand tratando de disminuir los hechos

París, Abril 5.— La dirección de las medidas militares de los franceses, destinadas a obligar a Alemania a que retire sus fuerzas "Reichswehr" del distrito del Rhur, ha quedado ahora completamente en manos del Mariscal Foch. Esta mañana se informó en el Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores que no ha ocurrido nada nuevo con respecto al avance de las fuerzas francesas, fuera de lo que indican los comunicados oficiales.

Información recibida por el Ministerio de Relaciones Exteriores esta tarde confirma que a pesar de las seguridades dadas oficialmente por Alemania de que sólo entraría al distrito del Rhur un numero limitado de tropas, en realidad la fuerza que ha entrado asciende a 40.000 hombres.

El Encargado de Negocios alemán en París, Herr Mayer, y Herr Goeppert, Jefe de la delegación de paz alemana, enviaron notas idénticas al Premier Millerand, como lo hicieron el Ministro de Relaciones Exteriores francés y el Presidente del Consejo Supremo, tratando de reducir la importancia que se ha dado al movimiento de las fuerzas militares alemanas en la región del Rhur. Las notas dicen que los informes sobre el número de tropas que han llegado a este lugar son exagerados y asegura que no es necesaria la aplicación de las garantías pedidas por Francia porque la estada de las tropas no será prolongada. El Premier Millerand conferenció con el Mariscal Foch esta tarde sobre este asunto.

Duesseldorff, Abril 5.—Las fuerzas "reichswehr" ocuparon a Mulheim hoy y los "rojos" se retiran hacia Essen y hacia el Sur. Los "Reichswehr" están marchando sobre Essen.

Después de la lucha violenta del sábado hubo calma ayer en Duisburg y el pueblo se dedicaba a sus celebraciones de Domingo de Pascua. Las fuerzas gobiernistas pasaron el día dispersando a los "rojos" que se retiran hacia Wanheim y Mulheim. Sólo se mantendrá el control militar en Duisburg hasta que las autoridades civiles puedan asumir el control. Se dice que los "rojos" que hicieron resistencia a las fuerzas gobiernistas el sábado son en su mayoría extranjeros.

Dusseldorff, Abril 5.— La campaña de las fuerzas "Reichswehr" continuó el domingo en dirección hacia Essen. La comunicación entre este lugar y Essen ha sido interrumpida a causa de la lucha. Los "moderados" de este distrito dicen que muchos trabajadores desean regresar a sus fábricas, pero están esperando hasta que las fuerzas gubernistas acaben de dispersar a los revolucionarios.

París, Abril 5.—Agencia Havas.— Los diarios continúan estudiando la situación que resulta de la entrada de Reichswehr en la región del Rhur. Le Petit Parisién declara que las indicaciones dadas por la nota alemana sobre los efectivos alemanes que han entrado en el Rhur, no concuerdan en lo absoluto con los informes precisos recibidos por el Mariscal Foch. Según el mismo diario la aplicación de la medida restrictiva consistente sobre todo en la ocupación de Francfort y de Hanau no parece inminente pero sí segura. Le Journal reclama que los gastos de ocupación sean pagados por los alemanes, y sugiere que se imponga una contribución sobre las ciudades que sean ocupadas, haciendo observar que las perspectivas del decreciente inmediato deben ser de tal naturaleza que sirvan para reforzar el carácter represivo de nuestra acción.

El corresponsal de Le Matin en Wiesbaden anuncia que las tropas del General Degoutte están alertas desde esta mañana.

París, Abril 5.—Agencia Havas.— El corresponsal de Le Petit Parisién en Londres cree poder afirmar que el gobierno británico se negará a cooperar en la ocupación de

Los comerciantes de comestibles en contra de las barracas municipales

París.— Correspondencia de la Prensa Asociada.— Los comerciantes de comestibles al por menor, han emprendido campaña para la abolición de las barracas municipales, repartidas por toda la ciudad, en las que se vende al público alimentos a precios inferiores a los de la mayoría de las tiendas pequeñas. Los que se oponen a las llamadas barracas "Vilgrain", afirman que la Municipalidad está vendiendo en ellas abarrotes, papas, vino y otros artículos a precios tan bajos que perjudican sus intereses comerciales.

Por otro lado, M. Francette, Consejero Municipal que tiene a su cargo este servicio, se pronuncia decididamente por su mantenimiento y ha anunciado que pedirá al Concejo que ensanche estas tiendas y aumente su número. Con este objeto, propone contratar un empréstito de 150.000.000 de francos, en el Canadá, con el objeto de comprar en esa nación, provisiones para surtir París.

Como un ejemplo de los beneficios que estos establecimientos municipales producen al público, abaratando el costo de la vida, se refiere que una lata de leche condensada, sin dulce, se vende en las barracas a frs. 1.50, en tanto que los bodegueros piden por la misma en sus tiendas de frs. 2.25 a 2.50. En las carnicerías municipales, la carne se vende 25 a 35 por ciento más barato que en las carnicerías corrientes y el mercado municipal de pescado ha tenido también por su parte un gran éxito. A pesar de estos bajos precios, desde que se establecieron las barracas, la ciudad ha obtenido de ellas una utilidad de 2.000.000 de francos, habiendo alcanzado el monto de sus ventas a 110.000.000 de francos.

HA TERMINADO LA PRUEBA TESTIFICAL EN EL AFFAIRE DE JULES CAILLAUX

LAS DECLARACIONES DEL EXPERTO DOYEN FAVORECEN AL EX-PREMIER

Los debates de esta vista comenzarán de nuevo el día 14 de este mes

París, Abril 5 — Agencia Havas. Prosiguió la audiencia del Affaire Caillaux y se escuchó el testimonio del experto Doyen, quien declaró que sus investigaciones se han llevado a la comprobación de que la fortuna de Caillaux ha sido bastante mermada durante la guerra.

El americano Mitchel, quien se encontraba en el mismo vagón en que viajó Caillaux a Italia, ha escrito al Procurador General declarando que en ningún momento Caillaux mostró en aquel viaje los propósitos derrotistas que le atribuyó el conductor del tren, Calembert.

El Diputado Dutreil declaró que en una conversación que tuvo con Caillaux, éste le dijo que la restitución de Alsacia y Lorena debía servir de base a toda propuesta de paz.

La Alta Corte decidió que la Cámara y el Consejo deberían hacer recoger, por medio de comisiones especiales, las declaraciones de Malvy, Brunicardi y Vinghiari. El examen de testigos ha terminado ya y los debates comenzarán de nuevo el día 14, después que se haya dado lectura a las tres declaraciones antedichas, cuando el Procurador General pronunciará la requisitoria.

Se leyó la deposición del Coronel Francois, jefe de la misión militar francesa en Roma, sobre las amistades de que se rodeó Caillaux en aquella ciudad durante su permanencia en ella, cuando otorgó su confianza a ciertos individuos sospechosos de derrotismo.

PIQUETES DE MUJERES PRO IRLANDA SE PASEAN ANTE LA E. INGLESA EN WASHINGTON

Washington, Abril 5. — Los piquetes de mujeres que favorecen a la República Irlandesa, se estacionaron hoy de nuevo en la Embajada británica en esta capital. Las mujeres que forman los piquetes adoptan tácticas semejantes a las de los piquetes de sufragistas que se estacionaron en la Casa Blanca en 1918. A pesar de la lluvia las mujeres marchan constantemente de un lado a otro frente al edificio de la Embajada y parece que se relevan cada dos horas. Llevan estandartes con crespones y aseguran que han recibido información secreta sobre dos matanzas nuevas ocurridas en Irlanda hace pocos días.

HORAS TABOGANAS.

Taboga: el lugar preferido este año, se vió concurridísimo durante los últimos días de la Semana Santa. La atracción probablemente de las costumbres antiguas, tales como las procesiones, debió de influir en el ánimo de la mayoría de las personas.

Por seguir la tradición a las dos de la tarde del Jueves Santo en la capilla de Taboga, laváronse los pies a doce niñitos pobres, después de lo cual hubo algunas otras funciones religiosas. Por la noche merecía la pena acercarse por los alrededores de la Capilla para ver el grupo de personas que salían y entraban rezando las clásicas estaciones. Una de las mujeres llevaba la voz cantante mientras que todas las demás haciendo resbalar las cuentas del rosario entre sus dedos hacen como si estuvieran contestando.

En cada salida, aprovechábanse las niñas para hablar sobre alguno de los planes que ideaban para cuando terminaren aquellas entradas y salidas, otras cambiaban impresiones del día, para de repente pararse y seguir "Santa María"... Casi se puede creer que les pasaría lo del cuento de la señora que en la mitad de rezar el rosario espantaba las gallinas que ensuciaban el cuarto y proseguía... "entre todas las mujeres" etc......

El Viernes Santo desde muy temprano empezáronse los oficios, despues de lo cual hubo una procesión en la capilla reservándose el Santísimo.

El día no estaba de acuerdo con la fiesta que la iglesia celebraba. Hacia un sol hermosísimo, alegre, primaveral. El mar convidaba a gozar de sus delicias. Las chalupas algo lejos esperaron sin comprender el por qué de su ociosidad.

Las niñas no querían bañarse en Viernes Santo, porque temían volverse pescados o más bien tiburones. Solo alguna que otra se atrevió y a esa en el pueblo se le miraba como de soslayo, cual si estuviera excomulgada o tuviera pacto con el diablo.

A las dos de la tarde empezó el sermón de las siete palabras, o más bien la explicación de las siete últimas frases que Nuestro Señor pronunció cuando agonizaba en la cruz.

El sermón duró hasta cerca de las cuatro después de lo cual se dió principio a la Tinieblas que terminaron a las cinco. Había llegado la hora tan deseada para los muchachos. Cerráronse las puertas de la capilla y aquella fue una lluvia de piedras que no tuvo fin. A lo menos todos se alegraron con eso saber que se habían conformado con eso y no habían entrado con fuete en mano, aprovechando la oscuridad y repartiendo golpes a diestro y siniestro como se me aseguró que pasa en algunos de los pueblos del interior.

Una vez acabados los oficios apresurábanse todos a llegar a sus casas a comer, para volver luego al sermón de las siete.

El Viernes Santo en Taboga se vive en la Iglesia, lo mismo que en los demás días se vive en el agua, con solo la diferencia de que las niñas no son las que se velan luego acudir a la iglesia con ese afán.

Siguiendo la costumbre tradicional se dió principio a las 8 de la noche a la procesión de la Dolorosa, procesión en la que los taboganos ponen toda su alma. Como Semana Santa la luna naturalmente alumbraba con sus rayos de plata los lugares por donde había de pasar la comitiva.

Delante de todos iba la Magdalena confusa y llorosa, detrás San Juan angustiado por la muerte de su querido Maestro. Seguía el paso del Santo Sepulcro que estaba verdaderamente muy bien arreglado. Un sepulcro blanco adornado de cintas blancas y lirios y en medio del Sepulcro yacía Nuestro Señor.

A continuación la Dolorosa a cuyos pies habían regado flores de pasión.

El paso parábase a cada momento. Colocábase entonces en el suelo un pequeño acordeón que cuatro muchachitos cargaban y se daba principio al cántico de algún salmo.

Acompañaban el cortejo con velas encendidas, hombres, mujeres, y niños.

Algunas personas vestidas de manda, un niñito vestido de nazareno, otra de Dolorosa, y hubo una cuya manda fue vestirse de novia. No se sabe el por qué de tal manda, pero bien puede uno imaginarse que sería para recuperar algún amor perdido, o bien fuera para demostrarle que parecería el día de bodas y de este modo reconquistar de él la primera ilusión ida.

La mayoría de las personas quedáronse esa noche hasta despues de las doce entreteniéndose ya en una cosa, ya en otra, pero de esto no puedo dar cuenta, porque yo me apresuré a conciliar el sueño para ver el despertar del día siguiente, en el que por fin, después de dos días de espera iba a gozar por completo de todos los atractivos y delicias del mar. Mi sueño sin embargo, fue interrumpido a media noche por tres viejos que recorrían las calles rezando el vía crucis, las estaciones o algo parecido.

El sábado de gloria todas las muchachas arregladas con sus vestidos de baño, las caras muy empolvadas y coloradas esperaban que se cantara Gloria para de un salto correr a la playa. Oh! qué baño aquel tan deseado! Me cogió jugando tablero con una preciosa palomita y sin terminar volamos más bien que caminamos al agua.

El de la [illegible] hasta cerca de [illegible] y el de la [illegible] que empezaron los [illegible] de la luna a saludarnos.

Por la noche hubo baile en el Excelsior. El Excelsior es el lugar de reunión por la noche para toda la colonia panameña.

Allí se bailó hasta tarde. Habían llegado durante el día unas cinco [illegible] hallábase el Excelsior [illegible] completo. Despues del baile y aprovechando siempre [illegible] firmes a la Restinga a presenciar el final de un tambor.

El domingo de Pascuas todo fue alegría. Desde tempranito oíanse rumores en la calle. Iba a tener lugar una procesión despues de la misa de cinco.

Aunque verdaderamente la procesión esa es una muestra del catolicismo que reina entre nosotros no pude dejar de sonreír al ver por primera vez en mi vida, lo que esa mañana presencié.

Entre cada cuatro hombres llevaban los pasos de la Magdalena, de San Juan, de la Dolorosa, y de Jesús Triunfante. Primeramente reuniéronse enfrente de la plazuela de la iglesia y desde allí corriendo siempre empezó María Magdalena a hacer saludos a Nuestro Señor, luego corría hacia San Juan, los dos íbanse entonces hacia la Virgen Santísima, y todos corriendo llegábanse hasta Nuestro Señor. Todo esto haciéndose un millón de venias, corriendo todo el tiempo. Yo solo esperaba ver el momento en que todos irían a dar al suelo. Se necesita valor para atreverse en esas piedras de Taboga, a hacer tales experimentos.

Después de la última misa se bendijo la nueva imagen del Sagrado Corazón de Jesús para lo que fueron nombrados algunos padrinos, que primero creí serían como seis, pero al ir hacia el Altar noté con asombro que todos en la iglesia eran padrinos y madrinas. Se repartieron unas insignias del Sagrado Corazón con unas cintitas rojas en que estaba escrita la fecha.

Por la tarde cualquiera hubiérase creído que estábamos en algún balneario de Francia. Trouville, Biarritz, San Sebastián, playas bellísimas, pero que yo no cambiaría por las playas de Taboga.

Hombres, mujeres, niñas, de toda clase de edades veíanse allí.

Los que no sabían nadar contentábanse con quedarse en la orilla medio nadando, medio jugando, otras tiradas en la playa jugaban con muñecos y las que más se atrevían nadaban hasta las chalupas para luego de allí tirarse al agua.

Pasaba por allí en ese momento un bote de motor del señor Juan Vallarino quien convidó a todos a subir a dar un paseo.

En el bote motor del señor Vallarino quien tuvo la fineza de convidarnos a dar unas vueltas se fueron arriba de veinte personas a un paseito delicioso.

Por la noche concurrieron los veraneantes al Cine como es costumbre en Taboga los domingos. Películas americanas muy buenas se vieron pasar por la pantalla esa noche después de lo cual empezó el baile en el Hotel Excelsior y luego siguió en la famosa "rampa" en donde también se jugó a las prendas y en donde más de una pareja jugaba a distintas clases de juegos con Cupido de protagonista.

La encantadora señorita Rebeca Myers bailó también admirablemente bien. Puedo asegurar que la señorita Herculia Hill cumpliendo su sentencia con el joven Marciaq la cumplió admirablemente bien, y así mismo rebosaba de dicha la encantadora niña Carmencita Molino, que fue obsequiada con un ramillete hecho de todas las personas [illegible] por el joven [illegible] Lopez Fábrega.

Tantas cosas no pudiera contarle la luna de esa noche [illegible] vidable para muchas!, pero [illegible] esos son secretos que a [illegible] no toca averiguar. El [illegible] pueda que los divulgue...

No quiero terminar sin [illegible] unas cuántas líneas sobre el [illegible] que se llegó a quemar por la [illegible] enfrente del parque. RECETA DE UN DOCTOR PARA EL PELO CANOSO

El doctor A. L. Paulson que practicó medicina en Nueva York por muchos años, dio esta receta como un remedio casero y simple para el pelo canoso: "El que tiene el pelo gris, marchito o deslustrado y no se lo pone negro, castaño o claro al instante, es porque no quiere, siendo tan fácil de componerlo en casa mismo:

"Ir a cualquier botica y conseguir una cajita de polvo Orlex. Cuesta muy poco y no hay que gastar mas nada. Se disuelve en 4 onzas o sea 118 gramos de agua destilada o llovediza y se pasa por el pelo con ayuda de un peine. Con la caja vienen las direcciones para mezclarlo y usarlo:

"Se le puede usar sin el menor recelo. Con cada caja viene un bono de oro por $100.00 garantizando que Orlex no contiene cosa de plata, [illegible] zinc, azufre, mercurio, [illegible] alquitrán de hulla, ni cosa que de estos productos se derive.

No es borroso, pegajoso ni grasiento y pone el pelo suave como seda, cual si le quitara veinte años de encima a la persona que lo usa.

El mismo diario continúa diciendo que las tropas del gobierno aleman son bien acogidas en las regiones en que las bandas rojos cometieron excesos. Parece que hay cierta inquietud en las regiones en que los acuerdos de Bielesfeld y Munster han empezado a ser aplicados. L'Echo de Paris explica que en la parte septentrional del Rhur, Reichswehr ha podido avanzar sin resistencia, pero que en cuanto se ha aproximado a la porción central los encuentros se hacen cada vez más intensos. Los informes recogidos ayer por el Estado Mayor Aliado acusan 200 muertos en el combate que tuvo lugar cerca de Duisburg.

Durante el año una deuda muy vieja que ascendía a B.12,580.50 fue liquidada completamente bajo el sistema introducido por el Mayor Boeck, quien ordenó que todos los pacientes que estaban en condiciones de poder pagar sus tratamientos y medicinas debían hacerlo; este sistema causó el aumento de las rentas de la institución. Actualmente, la institución está libre de deudas y paga con regularidad a fines de cada mes sus cuentas por materiales. Por consiguiente, puede verse que bajo la administración actual y con la fiscalización de Mr. Thornton, la institución ha sido puesta sobre muy buenas bases y podrá continuar, pagando sus deudas sin demora.

En esta época del año, cuando se reunen los amigos con frecuencia, oye una conversación como ésta: "¿Cómo se encuentra usted hoy?" "Regular, pero no puedo librarme de este resfriado; lo tengo hace varias semanas y parece que es imposible curarlo". Con seguridad ha oído esto con mucha frecuencia durante los últimos pocos meses. A estas personas podemos darle el siguiente consejo: el Jarope Anticonsuntivo de Bickle aliviará pronto el resfriado y después lo curará por completo. Se vende en todas partes.

Presentamos nuestro cordial saludo de bienvenida a don Mario F. De igual modo presentamos nuestro saludo de bienvenida al señor Aldo Ferrari y a su bella esposa Sofía F. de Ferrari, quienes se encuentran en Colón, procedentes de Italia.

Cuando estalló la gran guerra y la tierra de Marconi, hizo causa común con los aliados, el señor Ferrari abandonó todo, hogar, negocios, conveniencia personal, etc., enlistándose en el ejército salvador de su patria, la que hoy lo ha hecho honor a sus valiosos servicios, nombrándole Director de una de las más importantes fábricas de municiones establecidas en Milán.

Coal fué capturado por la Policía y en sus bolsillos se encontraron B.7.50, que tanto esta cantidad como su individuo poseedor, han sido puestos a órdenes de la Pesquisa, así como también un sujeto de nombre Juan Flores, único compañero de Coal que se ha podido capturar.

Tenemos informes fidedignos de que las autoridades aduaneras de Salina Cruz (México), se han negado a recibir en ese puerto a Carlos Andrade o Muñoz, ciudadano ecuatoriano que en 26 del mes de marzo último tomó pasaje a bordo del vapor "Newport" con destino a ese puerto, en virtud de haberse decretado su deportación del territorio panameño por ser un pájaro de pésimas condiciones.

Andrade o Muñoz es el mismo tío que hace vida marital con Antonette Lesaege, meretriz francesa que residía en la calle 16 Oeste; tal mujer le acompañaba en su peregrinación a la República mexicana.

Tomen nota de esto las autoridades respectivas, a efecto de que el pájaro no entre nuevamente en la jaula.

LA CUESTION CAMINOS

A propósito de nuestro editorial de ayer, el señor Leopoldo Arosemena, ingeniero civil panameño, se ha servido dirigirnos la carta que en seguida insertamos:

Leopoldo Arosemena — Ingeniero Civil.— Panamá, 5 de Abril de 1920

Señor Director de "La Estrella de Panamá".

L. I. C.

Muy señor mío:

No puedo dejar desapercibido el editorial de "La Estrella" de hoy, relacionado con el asunto de caminos nacionales porque veo en él reflejado el concepto erróneo que tiene formado sobre el particular gran parte de nuestro público. ¿Con que los ingenieros panameños somos incapaces de llevar la dirección de una obra de ingeniería por el solo hecho de que no pasamos de ser técnicos, según concepto del editorialista? ¿Qué se requiere de un ingeniero sino que sea, ante todo, técnico?

Más adelante expresa el mencionado editorial la idea de que los ingenieros panameños podemos ser asesores del ingeniero extranjero a quien se le encomiende la dirección de la obra; es decir, los panameños, como siempre, hemos de suministrar al extranjero los conocimientos prácticos que hemos adquirido después de largos años y a costa de muchos y muy grandes sacrificios personales para que él disfrute de remuneración elevada y del honor de haber ejecutado una grande obra. [illegible]

La construcción de caminos está muy estrechamente ligada con el desarrollo material y social del país y por lo tanto la Junta que se va a encomendar su dirección debiera estar integrada, en su mayoría, por panameños, y los ingenieros panameños debieran estar representados en ella toda vez que se trata de una obra de ingeniería. Y no solo en la dirección sino en la ejecución de la obra misma debieran estar representados los ingenieros panameños a fin de que el país alcance de ella todos los beneficios que tiene derecho a esperar.

No estoy de acuerdo con que la construcción de las carreteras proyectadas se lleve a cabo en la misma manera que las obras de saneamiento de las ciudades de Panamá y Colón. Si así se hiciere, pagaríamos con creces indirectamente los altos sueldos que no se quiere pagar directamente, y la obra estaría subordinada a intereses extranjeros que no pueden necesariamente coincidir con los nacionales. Es claro que en Panamá no podemos prescindir del elemento extranjero en la ejecución de una obra de la naturaleza de la que vengo ocupándome, pero el elemento extranjero que se haya de emplear debería estar subordinado al nacional. De lo contrario no se hará otra cosa que repetir los muchos errores cometidos en la ejecución de las obras públicas llevadas a cabo desde 1903. No puedo menos que confesar que los ingenieros panameños somos en gran parte culpables de que esos errores hayan sido no corregidos pero si aumentados, debido a que por mal entendida dignidad nos hemos abstenido de ilustrar la opinión pública en asuntos en que estábamos llamados a hacerlo por ser de nuestra competencia.

De usted atento servidor,

Leopoldo Arosemena.

Nosotros no hicimos ayer otra cosa que repetir las palabras que, a modo de respuesta o comentario a las razones expuestas en nuestros editoriales de 22 y 23 de Marzo anterior, tuvo la bondad de decirnos una persona "autorizada y fidedigna"— como claramente lo expresamos ayer sobre las causas que motivan la demora del Ejecutivo en hacer el nombramiento del ingeniero y los dos ciudadanos consejeros o fiscales que deben integrar la Junta de Caminos. Esa persona, cuyo testimonio no puede remitirse a duda, nos dijo que el Gobierno Nacional buscaba un ingeniero de las condiciones que apuntamos ayer, y que no había sido hallado aún, ni entre los panameños ni entre los extranjeros. Por cierto que a ese propósito hicimos ayer mismo un sugestivo comentario: "Para hallar a ese hombre, dijimos, se necesita algo más que la linterna de Diógenes".

Fue solo tratando de hallar ese "algo más" que el farol del filósofo ateniense, como nosotros sugerimos que se emprendiera la construcción de los caminos en la República en la misma forma que lo fueron el pavimento y los servicios sanitarios de las ciudades de Panamá y Colón. Precisamente en nuestro editorial del 23 de Marzo decíamos:

"El ingeniero Jefe que forma parte de esta Junta ha de recorrer el Istmo de Norte a Sur, de Este a Oeste, ha de procurar conocer a pie lo más a fondo que sea posible [illegible] estará para este trabajo, [illegible] condiciones un ingeniero nacional, que los hay meritorios, que un extranjero aunque sea eminente?"

Está demostrado, pues, que no somos nosotros quienes han desestimado la competencia de los ingenieros panameños.

Por otro lado, el mismo señor ingeniero Arosemena se encarga de conceder casi completamente la razón a la misma persona "autorizada y fidedigna" cuyas palabras repetimos ayer, pues después de preguntar en el primer párrafo de su carta "que se requiere de un ingeniero sino que sea, ante todo, técnico?", el mismo se encarga de contradecirse en el segundo párrafo, cuando habla de "conocimientos prácticos adquiridos después de largos años ... etc."

PROBLEMAS ACTUALES

DE AGRICULTURA.

I

El problema agrícola, complemento del problema de los caminos y el capital para la República merece un detallado examen, para ponernos en el punto de vista práctico, que conduzca al Progreso de la agricultura, verdadera y legítima fuente de riqueza nacional.

Antes de pensar en Banco Agrícola cuya instalación y vida, por ahora (a pesar de habernos tragado íntegramente el famoso proyecto Owens) nos parece poco menos que imposible, hay que llegar a convencer a los trabajadores de la tierra, a los grandes y pequeños terratenientes que todos lo necesitan de la obligación en que están de adoptar los métodos modernos en agricultura para su enriquecimiento personal, y lo que es más importante el desarrollo y la riqueza nacionales.

Hojeando una revista Americana encontramos un muy interesante artículo titulado "Una nueva era en la Educación Agrícola" que firma Thomas Corwin Mandenhall, especialista en el ramo.

Lo que Corwin Mendenhall narra fundado en recientes disposiciones, ahora en práctica en Estados Unidos, merece aquí conocerse y de alguna manera hacerlo cristalizar en un Proyecto de Ley que pudiera ser presentado a la Asamblea Nacional en sus próximas sesiones ordinarias del mes de Septiembre, procurando aconsejarse previamente con los especialistas en la materia que en la República existen, (ingenieros agrónomos graduados que hicieron sus estudios en Inglaterra y Estados Unidos, peritos en agricultura diplomados) si es el único modo de llegar a algo de positivos resultados para hurtar al fantasma político esta nueva presa donde de seguro en ... colocar su garra.

El control o dirección de las actividades inherentes a la educación agrícola en Estados Unidos residen en el Colegio Agrícola de la Universidad del Estado.

Algo de esto que nos cuenta Corwin Mendenhall ya nos lo había expuesto en conversaciones particulares y en artículos publicados en estas mismas columnas nuestro amigo el diputado a la Asamblea Nacional y excelente patriota señor Julio Guardia Vieto uno de los pocos espíritus que se interesan "desinteresadamente" por el progreso nacional de un modo teórico y práctico, a la vez.

En Panamá tendríamos que prescindir de ese Control o dirección centralizado en el Colegio Agrícola.

Pensar en la creación del Colegio por ahora es demasiado, es quizá excesivo, ya que queriendo abarcar todo nos quedaríamos en nada.

Pero si podríamos pensar en un agente distritorial tal como el que detalla el articulista en las líneas siguientes y que nosotros en vez de exigir su graduación en el Colegio Agrícola del Estado, (que aquí no existiría) le pediríamos o... a presentar certificado de ... expedido por cualquier ... dad de Estados Unidos ... escoger aquellas de las ... más semejantes en clima y condiciones agrícolas, a nuestro suelo. Para conseguir esto podría combinarse un sistema de becas concreto con el fin de obtener positivos resultados, sistema que convendría detallar en el Proyecto de Ley.

Léase la cuestión de los agentes de distrito tal como la ve Thomas Corwin Mendenhall:

"Sus deberes los del Agente son numerosos y diversos, y hace llegar a toda persona que cultive un acre de terreno en el distrito el conocimiento de los últimos resultados de la ciencia agrícola y experimental. Examina los terrenos y prescribe la rotación de las cosechas. Asiste a las juntas locales de agricultores, enseñándoles mejores métodos de cultivo y de riego, el cuidado de las hortalizas; el cultivo de las frutas menores; el empleo de fertilizantes que a menudo compra y distribuye entre los agricultores a precio de costo; organiza y dirige los Institutos de los agricultores del distrito y las clases sobre "economía doméstica," sobre la "dirección de granjas" y sobre la compra y venta en los mercados; inaugura movimientos en favor del mejoramiento de los ganados; organiza concursos y enseña a sus clientes la necesidad y usos del tractor agrícola, disponiendo frecuentemente pruebas de competencia de los diferentes modelos.

Debiera ser, y lo es generalmente, medio ingeniero y experto en el uso de la maquinaria agrícola. Además de todo esto y de muchas otras cosas, toma parte activa en todos los asuntos de la comunidad; en la feria anual del distrito y en las exposiciones locales, y contribuye con frecuencia con escritos útiles y de carácter profesional a la edición semanal del periódico de la localidad. En la actualidad las tres cuartas partes de los distritos de Ohio tienen esos agentes cuyo número se aumenta constantemente. Dondequiera que hayan estado prestando servicios más de dos años se observa un aumento visible y marcado en la eficiencia de la agricultura del distrito y en el esprit de corps de los agricultores."

Además de estos Agentes de distrito habla Mendenhall de unos agentes "demostrativos," como si se hiciera el complemento práctico de los primeros, a los cuales así como también al proyecto de ley antes aludido tenemos en idea dedicarles unos párrafos en nuestro próximo artículo.

LO QUE OPINA EL KAISER SOBRE SU EXTRADICION

El corresponsal del "Kilmaoki Nieuwe Sentinee" hizo hace poco una visita a Amerongen, donde fué admitido para que celebrase una entrevista con el ex Emperador de Alemania.

Cuando el corresponsal entró en el castillo, encontró a Guillermo II escribiendo una historia de la guerra, que piensa editar en los Estados Unidos.

El ex Kaiser habló despejadamente sobre la cuestión de su extradición y proceso, propuesto por los aliados, y declara que accedería a abandonar su asilo de Holanda y se entregaría voluntariamente a los aliados, bajo las condiciones siguientes:

1. Los castigos extraordinarios deben estar al otro de los poderes del tribunal que ha de juzgarle. Esta es una condición establecida por el Código Criminal de todos los países civilizados y excluye las sentencias de destierro en las islas de Santa Helena y Ascensión.

2. No teniendo en cuenta la estipulación hecha por los Estados Unidos no se debe excluir la pena capital y debe ser impuesta cuando haya evidencia del delito de violación de la neutralidad en primer grado.

3. Se debe imponer la pena de muerte cuando haya la evidencia del delito de conspiración internacional contra la paz de las naciones.

4.— El tribunal debe juzgar todas las acusaciones presentadas por ambos grupos contendientes en la guerra, o por las naciones neutrales afectadas o perjudicadas por el conflicto. En la barra debe prepararse acomodo suficiente para cuatro Soberanos y dos Presidentes por lo menos. Todos deben ser ejecutados el mismo día y en el mismo patíbulo caso de que sea convictos de un delito capital. Las ejecuciones deben ser públicas.

5.— Los Ministros acusados como responsables de la guerra deben ser sometidos a un proceso, y estarán sujetos a la pena capital.

6.— Después que el acusado se haya declarado culpable, no se le admitirá fianza hasta que el tribunal no haya pronunciado su sentencia. Mientras dure el apresamiento el alojamiento tiene que estar en armonía con el rango de los acusados antes de Agosto de 1914.

7. Los procesos deben ser públicos, y se les dará completa publicidad en los periódicos de todas las capitales de las naciones interesadas, quienes pagarán los gastos de publicidad conjuntamente.

8.— Su Majestad Imperial, el Emperador de Alemania, tendrá a su cargo su propia defensa, y tendrá derecho ilimitado a citar y a presentar a los testigos. Este derecho se hará extensivo a todos los acusados, quienes tendrán derecho a la primera atención, por parte del tribunal, que los acusadores.

9.— Si se da consideración a estas condiciones, Su Majestad Imperial renuncia a todas las cuestiones concernientes a la imparcialidad y jurisdicción del tribunal, y se compromete a entregarse para ser juzgado en Londres, no en otra parte, en la fecha que se indique, siempre que se le den seguridades válidas de la aceptación de sus condiciones, y un salvoconducto que garantice la inviolabilidad de su persona.

Comentando el asunto que ha despertado tanto interés en el mundo, el Kaiser, que estaba de muy buen humor, declaró que no tenía nada que agregar a estas condiciones, y que él estaba seguro de que todo esto iba a dar mucho juego en Londres.

El Kaiser demostró viva ansiedad por hacer saber al mundo que él no obstaculiza en ningún sentido los pasos que se han dado para procesarle, que estaba muy agradecido de Lloyd George por haber dado oportunidad para que los verdaderos autores de la guerra sean puestos al alcance de la justicia.

"No pondré en el caso a vuestra policía de Londres —dijo jocosamente— de que tenga que poner anuncios diciendo que se me solicita allí. No terminaré mis días en Santa Helena, sino donde soy realmente solicitado: en Berlín.

OTRO CONCIERTO DE VARONA.

ESTA NOCHE ES LA DESPEDIDA

Una nueva presentación del profesor Luis Carlos Varona y un nuevo rotundo éxito.

En lugar lleno el mago del violín colmar la sala de ELDORADO y ... todos, casi todos los que tuvieron el placer de escucharle la primera noche repitieron la segunda.

Las ovaciones durante la ejecución del programa fueron calurosas y sinceras.

El genial cubano puede darse por satisfecho de la admiración que ha despertado en nuestra ciudad.

La primera parte del programa que ejecutó el maestro fué toda ella seria de alto arte; una Polonesa, de Wenawky, la Salud de Amor, de Edward, los "Echos Rossmarin" de Kreisler. Magistral la ejecución y el sentimiento.

La segunda parte se inició con el magno "Capricho Vasco" de Sarasate; un zortzico delicioso, magno, evocador de esa prodigiosa y poética región norteña de España. El "Capricho Vasco" lo "sintió" Varona admirablemente y nosotros nos emocionamos. La última vez que oímos ese trozo fue a otro violín, genial, el de Juan Kubelik y no desmereció la interpretación un ápice.

Dos notas criollas, simpáticas, la una dotada de esa tristeza languidosa de los campos cubanos, la otra de la alegría pimpante del Zapateo. En ambas obras el talento y la habilidad del artista impresionaron al auditorio que le obligó a repetir.

Para esta noche anuncia Varona su concierto despedida. De seguro se verá la sala de ELDORADO llena.

Nosotros le hacemos un ruego, que nos deleite con la magna fuga de Bach, piedra de toque de los virtuosos y algo más de Sarasate "sintiendo "La Abuelita" del negrazo fenómeno de arte que se llamó Brindis de Salas.

¡Lo esperamos así...!

WOTAN.

NOTA.— Entrábamos nosotros anoche en el Teatro con el ansia de escuchar a Varona y salían dos muchachos de la Sala. El acomodador les preguntó: "Ahora va a tocar el violinista... ya no falta nada.."

Y contestó uno de ellos:

Por eso nos vamos... precisamente...

La verdad que estos jóvenes son fuconados al ¡Arte...!

Nosotros no pudimos menos de sonreír.

Y pensamos ... lo que no decimos.

CHARLA COTIDIANA

SUPERSTICION

Yo no soy de los que se asustan de las musarañas que pone ante la vista la superstición. No creo en [illegible] ... con individuos de la raza bovina... Pero no por eso dejan de ... la atención ciertas co... extrañas que suelen ocurrir en la vida.

Hace algunos años se daba en el principal hotel de cierta ciudad isleña un banquete en honor de cierto caudillo liberal, banquete al cual resulté yo invitado sin saber cómo ni por qué... Esos banquetes, por lo general, se pagan a escote, y sacarme mi parte alícuota resulta el más difícil problema de las matemáticas, por diversas razones: primera, porque es más fácil cazar caimanes con cerbatana que lograr que yo tenga dinero disponible para tales dispendios; y segunda, porque yo, a fuer de hombre, no uso escote. Eso se queda para las mujeres. Propio de hombres puede ser, según el concepto general, exponer el pecho a las balas en los campos de batalla en defensa de la patria o de cualquiera otra de esas nociones de las que no se tiene ninguna.

Pero no lo exponemos por ninguna plata a las miradas codiciosas del sexo opuesto, como lo hacen la gran mayoría de las mujeres, sobre todo si son entraditas en carnes!

Decía que al sentarnos a la mesa en aquel banquete, resultamos ser trece los comensales. Alguien llamó la atención sobre el hecho para broma, al rededor de la coincidencia. Eramos trece individuos casi todos jóvenes y despreocupados. El menor de nosotros no contaba más de 24 años. Era un gallardo mozo, de vasta inteligencia cultivada con esmero, briosa periodista, escritor vibrante, que aparentaba una salud a prueba de microbios. No obstante todas esas condiciones suyas, pareció impresionarse hondamente por la cuestión del trece, y ... cualquier pretexto se levantó de la mesa y no volvió a sentarse sino hasta cuando consiguió traer consigo, a remolque, el décimocuarto convidado...

Pues, señor, dieciocho días después era cadáver aquel amigo mío. ¡Misterios insondables de la casualidad!

Casualidad.... Según me contaba hace algunos días un cierto y respetable amigo mío, no sé qué autor de no sé qué país y en no me acuerdo qué obra suya, dice que la casualidad es el seudónimo de Dios....
