ROTARY TO HAVE UNIQUE FLOAT IN PARADE

Full Membership of Panama Rotary Club Will Luncheon on Float Along Central Avenue This Afternoon.—Real Eats, no Imitation.

Hats off to Claud Peters of Pedro Miguel the designer and decorator of the float with which the Panama Rotary Club will participate in the Carnival parade today.

"Pete's" job is certainly a slick one, elegance and simplicity being harmoniously combined throughout and admirably set off by painstaking care as regards detail in the finishing.

The float will be a representation of the way in which Rotarians work, and will convey a hint of the reason why Rotary can accomplish so much during such short sessions.

Real Eats, No Imitation

Between two rows of white and gold pillars, topped with golden [illegible], a long table twenty feet in length by three feet wide, will be spread, laden with good things to eat; no imitation, but real "eats", specially prepared for this occasion by Andrew Johnson, manager of the Tivoli Hotel and an enthusiastic Rotarian. Around this table, will be seated the entire membership of the Panama Rotary Club, putting away all the good things that "Nine host Johnson" provides. In other words, Rotary will "Lunch" in public today.

The float is thirty feet long by eight feet wide, and carries a large six foot replica, in wood, of Rotary's wheel emblem, erected between the two highly pillars at the rare end. Along the sides, effectively disguising the float's "Motive power", are beautiful panels in the Blue and Gold colors of Rotary. These panels are indeed a work of art and again, "hats off to Claud Peters", whose handiwork they are.

Will Knock 'Em Cold

"It will knock 'em cold when they see it", Harry Nicholls, Chairman of the committee appointed to arrange for Rotary's participation in the Carnival parade, yesterday enthusiastically exclaimed after driving out to Pedro Miguel for the hundredth time to "look her over", as he says.

"We sure got to hand it to 'Pete'", he continued, "his work on this float is sure going to help a plenty in putting Panama on the map and in making folks in other country in making folks in other countries and that it is worth investigating.

"Yes, Sir: We intend taking photographs of our float and distributing them among all the Rotary Clubs in the world. And they won't

HUGH GIBSON IS WEDDED IN BELGIUM.

BRUSSELS, Feb. 27.—By the Associated Press.—A brilliant gathering of Diplomats and Officials witnessed the marriage of Hugh Gibson, United States Minister to Poland to Miss Ines Reventlens, daughter of a former Belgian Count Official.

Señor Devillalobar, the Spanish Ambassador, was the witness for the bride. King Albert in sending his congratulations expressed the gratitude of the Belgians for Minister Gibson's relief work in war time.

SPANISH WORKERS ASK COMPULSORY SYNDICALIZATION

At Barcelona Gathering Representing 170,000 Workers Plans Approved For Unions Under National Constitution.

BARCELONA, February 27.—(By the Associated Press).—Compulsory syndicalization of trades was discussed at a meeting at which 170,000 workers were represented last night. Unions composed of Catholics, Socialists, Independents and Extremists sent delegates. Resolutions were passed proposing a basis for the suggested syndicalization along the following lines: Workers of both sexes employed at the same trade shall form syndicates under the national constitution and according to the laws of the associations, and candidates for membership must prove eligibility. In executive committee for each syndicate shall be elected by a secret vote, after which it shall possess full powers.

Questions relating to wages or proposed strikes must be decided by secret vote. Members must be at least twenty years of age, and must be able to read and write, reside for two years in the district and really work at their trade. Apprentices cannot vote. Each syndicate will select delegates according to the numbers of members, for discussion of trade questions with the employing syndicates.

IT'S A PITY THAT INCHES HAVE FRACTIONS IN THEM

Wilford Jones, 30 year old, Barbadian was sentenced to 130 days imprisonment for assault and battery on Keturah Pollard, 6 year-old girl. The child is now in the hospital suffering with venereal disease.

Judge J. W. Blackburn delivered the sentence in the Balboa Magistrate's court and told Jones that he escaped a penitentiary sentence by the fraction of an inch adding that he was lucky he did not have to stand trial for rape instead of the lower charge of assault and battery.

Jones' offense was committed at La Boca, on February 1 and the child has been in the hospital since shortly after that date.

Evidence was introduced which proved that Jones for some time had been in the habit of offering candy and otherwise gaining the friendship of children in the vicinity of La Boca.

The sentence was $100 and 30 days in jail, but as Jones could not put up the $100, he must serve 130 days.

CARNIVAL PARADE IS BIG EVENT FOR THIS AFTERNOON

Handsome Prizes Will Be Awarded Winners For Best Decorated Floats.—Dance at Union Club.

Today is the last and the biggest day of the 1922 Panama Carnival. The day of the monster parade with its many beautiful and gorgeous floats, trucks and decorated automobiles and other vehicles carrying the gaily costumed merrymakers.

This afternoon is the time when everybody will have an opportunity of seeing Queen Mercedes on her Royal float surrounded by her pretty Maids of Honor.

The parade this year promises to be one of the most beautiful spectacles ever witnessed on the Isthmus, and with Queen Viola, the Golden Queen and her charming friends in the parade, as well as many other Americans who are taking active part in the festivities, interest is doubled in the big carnival event.

Today's official program will be as follows:

Todays Program

10 a. m. Original competition in Santa Ana Plaza in which prizes will be given the ugliest men, thinnest men, fat men, lame men and those wearing the most ingenious costumes.

3 p. m. Big Carnival parade up and down Central Avenue. Beautiful floats and decorated automobiles. Prizes for the best.

6 p. m. Confetti, perfume and serpentine battles and general merrymaking.

TEN PER CENT OF CUSTOMS IS PROPOSED FOR TAXATION

Chief Executive Will Recommend To Congress To Provide For Raising Fund Of About Thirty Million Dollars Through Diversion Of Custom Receipts Percentage And Shipping Board Has Recommended Ten Per Cent.—Bills Will Be Introduced At Once.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—(By the Associated Press).—President Harding plans to go to Congress on Tuesday and deliver a message on Government aid to the United States Merchant Marine.

It is understood that the plan he will recommend to Congress will provide for raising a fund of about $30,000,000 through diversion of the percentage of customs receipt. The exact percentage contemplated is not disclosed but the Shipping Board recently recommended ten per cent.

Bills embodying the plan will be immediately introduced in the House and Senate.

MADRID CARNIVAL ONE GREAT SUCCESS

Among Many Masked Balls Was That Of Ambassador Pecanha Representing Republic Of Brazil In Spanish Kingdom.

MADRID, Feb. 27.—By the Associated Press.—The carnival season opened on Sunday, when all Madrid gathered on the Avenue Castellana to witness the battle of flowers in which many handsomely decorated symbolical cars participated.

There were many masked balls the most successful being that of Ambassador Pecanha, Brazilian Minister, given in honor of the foreign Diplomats, at which a play was given by amateur performers, among the younger diplomats.

Other functions included masquerades organized by various societies representing the Spanish provinces.

NEW PAY RATES FOR ARMY NAVY AND MARINE CORPS

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.—By Radio.—The Congressional Committee has submitted to Congress [illegible] by the Army, Navy and Marine corps, which it is expected will be approved.

CANADA IS AWARDED ECUADORIAN CONTRACT

The Amazon Co. of Toronto, Canada, has been awarded a contract by the Ecuadorean Government for the development of [illegible] acres of oil land. This contract will include the purchase of locomotives, cars, and other equipment for a 60 mile railroad.

ADMISSION OF SOVIETS TO GENOA WILL NOT IMPLY RECOGNITION IS AGREEMENT OF EUROPE'S BIG TWO

With Exception of Communist "Humanite" Entire French Press Is Delighted With Results of Meeting At Boulogne.—Confidence Expressed That Saturday Was Good Day For Franco-British Entente Which Was Re-inforced By Meeting Of Premiers.

PARIS, February 27.—By the Associated Press.—The French Press is unanimous in warmly praising the results of the Premiers meeting in Boulogne on Saturday. The Figaro says "It was a good day for the France British entente which was reinforced by a meeting of the Premiers". The Journal declares "Much good work may be done in four hours when the ground has been carefully prepared by two men who meet in friendly spirit". The Gaulois also declares "it was an excellent day for the Franco British entente", and the Communist Humanite [illegible] "French militarism and British commerce remain arrayed against one another in disputing the benefits to be derived from supremacy".

Not Discuss Treaties

WASHINGTON, February 27.—(By the Associated Press.—Semi-official information issued from French circles after Premier Poincare returned to Paris says that Poincare and Lloyd George agreed that the Genoa conference would not discuss the treaties signed since the armistice also those which have not yet been ratified.

An interpretation of article 8ix of the Cannes resolution was read "All countries must agree in common to abstain from any aggression towards their neighbors". But this does not affect new territorial occupations of Germany in the event of the failure of the Reichstag to fulfill its obligations.

Won't Recognize Soviets

It was also said that the Premiers agreed that the admissions of the Soviet delegates to Genoa did not imply recognition. This matter will be left in abeyance until the end of the deliberations, all Governments retaining absolute freedom of action. The Soviet however, must recognize loans contracted by the former Russian Government. Land disarmament will not be discussed at Genoa owing to Germany not having completely fulfilled all her obligations. It is expected that the allied experts will meet in London this week to draw up a program of financial economic problems to be discussed at Genoa.

Poincare At Genoa

PARIS, February 27. (By the Associated Press.)—During the Conference at Boulogne on Saturday Premier Lloyd George earnestly requested Premier Poincare to personally represent France at Genoa for at least the first two weeks.

He does not intend to remain for a longer period either. Poincare did not assent or refuse and will announce his decision later.

The new Italian Government will be asked on Monday whether April 10th will be a satisfactory date for the opening of the Conference at Genoa.

MEXICAN POLICE FIRE ON CHAUFFEURS.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 27.—By the Associated Press.—Four persons were killed and many wounded this afternoon, when the Police fired on striking chauffeurs demonstrating in front of the City Hall. Disturbances having continued for more than an hour.

ROTARY TRIBUTES PANAMA REPUBLIC

International Board Appoints Dr. John G. Gill Special Representative For Creation Of New Clubs In Latin America.

The International Board of Rotary at its recent gathering at Fort William, Ontario, appointed Dr. John G. Gill, secretary of the Club Rotario de Panama special representative of the International Board to look after the Rotary Clubs on the Isthmus, and Ecuador, Colombia, Venezuela and Central America.

Writing from the headquarters of Rotary in Chicago, Chesley R. Perry, the secretary general, has asked Dr. Gill to act as a delegate for the forming of Rotary Clubs in these countries and in behalf of the Committee on Extension paid a tribute to work which Dr. Gill has already done in Panama and Cristobal Colon in forming the two very successful branches of Rotary in the Republic of Panama.

Mr. Perry writes:

Special Representative

"It was my pleasure to present this matter to the Board and all the directors agreed that you should be designated as Special Representative of the Board for the purpose of investigating and advising the Board and the Committee on Extension regarding the clubs already established in the Republic of Panama and the Canal Zone and with regard to the possibilities of extension in Colombia and Costa Rica".

Then follows a high tribute to the part which Dr. Gill has already done for Rotary in Panama.

"We feel the utmost confidence in your judgement as to the advisability of further extension for you are so thoroughly familiar with conditions on the Isthmus", he writes, "and I am taking it for granted that because of your splendid services in the past you will assume this new responsibility and it will be your duty to make such report and recommendations to International Rotary Headquarters as will be found necessary."

THOMAS PARRY

Jose Vallarino asks that all floats for today's parade be at the Caldwell Bridge this afternoon at half-past two o'clock.

BRITISH ROYAL WEDDING TODAY.

VISCOUNT LASCELLES

PRINCESS MARY.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—(By The Associated Press).—With all arrangements completed for Princess Mary's wedding on this Tuesday morning, only a clear sunny day is required to make the setting ideal.

Experts predicts showers with intervals of sunshine and those who long anticipated the event are hoping that one of those intervals of sunshine will continue from 10:30 to 1:30, the time in which the ceremony will occur.

The precincts of Westminster Abbey and Buckingham Palace were thronged today with the curious taking advantage of the weather to survey the elaborate decorations, also hoping to catch a glimpse of the bride and bridegroom arriving or leaving the Palace dooryard. The engaged couple were warmly greeted by the crowds when shortly after noon they drove from Buckingham Palace to St. James Palace, where the final pre-wedding party will be held.

There is much conjecture as to whether the incident of the wedding breakfast following the marriage of the Princess Royal will be repeated at the Palace function following the Princess

Mary-Lascelles' wedding ceremony at Westminster Abbey on Tuesday. On that occasion Queen Victoria had the guests crowding the old throne room fill their glasses and invited them to drink to the welfare "of Louise my beloved granddaughter and her husband the Duke of Fife." Before that the bridegroom was shown only as the Earl of Fife and this was the first intimation that he was advanced in the Peerage. It is rumored that a dukedom will be conferred on Viscount Lascelles on this Tuesday.

Among those assembling in London today in connection with Princess Mary's wedding are a score of the most accomplished bellringers from all of the British Isles, who will ring the wedding chimes from the Abbey towers after the ceremony.

Firework displays will be held throughout the kingdom on Tuesday evening, when an elaborate set of pieces picturing the features of the bride and bridegroom against the skies, will be among the pyrotechnic novelties which will be displayed.

Carnival Parade

8 p. m. to midnight. Costume dances in all plazas.

10 p. m. Royal dance in honor of Queen Mercedes in the Union Club.

Hundreds yesterday attended the royal Tamborito Dance in the Central Hotel, at which Her Majesty, Queen Mercedes, Queen Viola, the Golden Queen and both of the Royal Courts were present.

It would indeed have been a difficult task to find any place more lively and attractive than the Central Hotel Palm Garden yesterday afternoon.

Panama Queen Reception

Yesterday's carnival festivities opened at 10 o'clock in the morning Queen Mercedes Held a reception in honor of all the other Queens and courts. After this the Queens drove through the city and the enthusiasm began. From then on the crowds began to grow and by [illegible] o'clock in the evening Central Avenue was so thronged with trucks and automobiles carrying merrymakers that it was impossible to cross the streets without getting on the other side.

The Union Club, the Century Club, the Moose Club as well as the Central Hotel palm garden last night, festooned in Carnival colors, were the scenes of unrivalled merrymaking, with Americans, Panamanians and Britishers.

And today's festivities promise to outdo everything so far.

JILTED LOVER USES KNIFE ON HATED RIVAL

Ramon Lara Employed At Cristobal Coaling Station Arrested For Cutting Up His Opponent in Love.

CRISTOBAL, February 27 — A serious stabbing affair occurred along the border of Cristobal Colon today in which a jilted lover stabbed his rival and the rival is now in Colon hospital with a number of wounds, one of which measures no less than fourteen inches and he is not expected to live.

It all happened around a Chinese chop suey restaurant near the Folks River. The Chinese restaurant man, who also runs a store, is called Francisco Chu. He has a wife and family the latter consisting of six children. His wife is a Panamanian and his daughter Leonidas is but 14 years of age and helps in the restaurant.

Has Pretty Face

She is a very pretty girl with a wonderful Oriental face and the lovers are Ramon Lara who is employed at the Cristobal coaling station and whose offer of marriage was spurned and resented by the father.

Ramon, the police say, would not listen to refusal, and is reported to have said that he carried around a revolver with eight bullets, four for himself and four for the girl.

Another Suitor

Another Panamanian Saraseen, who was also employed at the coaling station also fell in love with the girl and ate regularly at the restaurant and when Ramon found this out he is said to have become very much enraged and to have muttered something about what would happen during the carnival period.

Today the shooting happened and Saraseen fell forward on to the pavement covered with blood and was found in that condition when the police arrived from the Canal Zone.

Ramon Lara hastened to the home of a friend and tried to disguise himself but he was too late and was arrested and is now being held without bail pending the recovery of the man he is alleged to have stabbed.

Balboa Swimming Pool Notes

Miss Ethelda Bleibtrey world's champion lady swimmer will make her second appearance tomorrow at 1:30 p. m. at the Balboa swimming pool.

This lady, whom experts declare to be the greatest lady swimmer, will exhibit the stroke with which she broke six world's records, as well as the various other popular and fancy strokes.

Miss Bleibtrey, who has exhibited and competed with the world's best swimmers in Australia, New Zealand, Hawaiian Islands, England, France, and the United States, is a master of the swimming art, the ease with which she swims being a revelation to those who have seen her perform.

In connection with this exhibition the champions of the Canal Zone will exhibit, as will the world's famous Red, White and Blue Troupe. This group of youngsters, recently returned from a tour in the United States and Cuba, took the populace of both countries by storm with their wonderful aquatic abilities, making twenty seven appearances at the world's greatest indoor swimming pool at Madison Square Garden, New York.

This will probably be the last appearance of Miss Bleibtrey at the Balboa Pool and those wishing to see a master of the swimming art are urged to come early to secure seats. On the last appearance of Miss Bleibtrey, the greatest crowd that has ever witnessed an exhibition at the Balboa Pool attended.

Funds derived from this exhibition will be used for benefit of the [illegible] Fund for the kiddies at the Balboa swimming [illegible].

AMERICAN SHIP SUBSIDY.

The [illegible] subsidy to American Merchant Vessels is one of long standing on which there are widely divergent opinions. Here is one from Nautics, a shipping paper published in New York:

Placing American shipping on a parity with the British merchant marine, as far as operating costs are concerned, is the keynote of the recommendations to be made by the Shipping Board with a view to obtaining government assistance for American shipping. A press dispatch from Washington states that Chairman Lasker and his colleagues on the Board "contend that the British have shown ability to compete with the Japanese and other merchant fleets having lower crew costs and that the perpetuation of America as a maritime factor can be assured if the British differential is overcome." If the foregoing means anything, it is that for some reason, in spite of the lower operating costs of other shipowners the British are able to compete. It was once our boast that Americans could do anything that anybody else could. In this case, however, it is semi-officially announced that we cannot do as well as the British, since the British can beat all comers single handed and we cannot beat the British.

Just ask yourself the simple question: Why can the British beat all competitors? Then you will have the explanation of why, in spite of all the subsidies that Congress [illegible] grant, American shipping [illegible] as badly off tomorrow as it is today. The British are better off than all [illegible] on the ocean, because [illegible] realizes [illegible] subject to its [illegible] tion as much leeway as possible, they will derive so much profit from [illegible] British Crown that any [illegible] Armenian, Russian, or Spaniard who is allowed freedom from interference once he has hoisted the British flag, will be a willing contributor to the treasury of His B[illegible] Majesty.

[illegible] legislation including shipping is, on the contrary, based on the principle that the [illegible] is a privilege [illegible] for dearly. [illegible] enjoying valuable [illegible] from the government [illegible] no American ship that [illegible] so much and no more that the British [illegible] offered and [illegible] You cannot operate [illegible] the [illegible] oceans. You are an [illegible] the situation as the French [illegible] takes on another color.

It is a dreadful thing [illegible] these days, wh[illegible] [illegible] is needed. But [illegible] the subsidy agitation leaves m[illegible] shipowners quite cold. For ev[illegible] [illegible] of relief that Congress [illegible]

There is sure to be [illegible] that in the [illegible] American Ship[illegible] of the British [illegible] American [illegible] as American [illegible] which is taxed more than Br[illegible] business in foreign [illegible] shipowners are successful [illegible] their government [illegible] alone.

Why, then, instead of a subsidy not agitate for more freedom, at least as much as the British [illegible] that our shipowners [illegible] rivals of their foreign [illegible] days when there were fewer [illegible] restrictions in this country [illegible] others? [illegible] as the rest [illegible] British ship[illegible] [illegible] these conditions [illegible] and the [illegible] attention [illegible] haps [illegible] the few [illegible] remaining [illegible] is a quantity [illegible] had, [illegible] same laws [illegible] history by 1875 [illegible]

Deep in the heart of every man and woman is a lost romance—a wistful dream of what might have been.
And so this picture, based on that great theme, is woven close with the lives of millions.
Written expressly for the screen by the noted dramatist, Edward Knoblock, and directed with the personal aid of the author. Produced with all the artistry, naturalness and human appeal that made William de Mille's "Midsummer Madness" a popular recordbreaker.

"CONFLICT" COMING TO THE ISTHMUS.

No one will question the way that the Universal Film Manufacturing Company treats the Isthmus of Panama when it is announced that Priscilla Dean's latest and best picture "Conflict" is coming to the Isthmus.

This wonderful production of Clarence Budington Kelland will arrive very soon fresh from its innumerable successes in the States in New York, Chicago, Boston and San Francisco and which was directed by Stuart Paton.

It has been called the biggest success of the year and it will be screened at the Strand in Colon and the Amador and Eldorado in Panama City.

AT PANAMA THEATRES

Frank Mayo in "The Hitchin' Post" will be the feature today at the Amador and Eldorado theatres in Panama City and tomorrow the big attraction will be "Once a Plumber" with such Broadway favorites as Eddie Lyon and Lee Moran will fill the bill.

The Amador Theatre with recent improvements is easily the coolest theatre on the Pacific side of the Isthmus. It was built for the tropics, it was designed for moving pictures and with the many improvements of recent date is easily the most comfortable moving picture palace on the Pacific side.

EVA NOVAK THURSDAY

On Thursday at the Amador and Eldorado theatres the big attraction will be Eva Novak, probably the most popular film star on the entire Isthmus. The many [illegible] Eva is to appear in her newest success "The Smart Sex."

One dose often helps commence to enrich your blood and revitalize your worn-out exhausted nerves—Nuxated Iron is organic iron, like the iron in your blood and like the iron in spinach. It is so prepared that it will not injure the teeth nor disturb the stomach. It is ready for almost immediate absorption and assimilation by the blood while some physicians claim metallic iron which people usually take is not absorbed at all. If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two five-grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain perfectly satisfactory results. At all druggists.

770 TOURISTS DUE FROM STATES THIS WEEK

Huge White Star Liner "Megantic" Arrives Tomorrow, "Toloa" Friday And Canadian "Empress Of Britain" Saturday.

CRISTOBAL, February 27.—This week is to be a record one for tourists this dry season, according to information obtained yesterday at the Administration Building based on direct wireless despatches, and given to our Balboa reporter.

Seven hundred and seventy tourists will arrive on three boats between Wednesday and Saturday. 570 of them stay over in Panama until the day following their arrival.

Wednesday the white star liner Megantic is to arrive in Cristobal at daybreak with 300 tourists.

Friday the United Fruit liner Toloa arrives with about 70, and Saturday the Canadian Pacific Liner Empress of Britain will reach port with 400.

Megantic Sails Thursday

The Megantic will remain until Thursday afternoon, sailing at 5 o'clock; the Toloa will remain Saturday afternoon, sailing at 5 o'clock, while the Empress of Britain, which arrives Saturday morning, will only remain until Saturday evening, departing at 8 p. m.

For all of these tours the Panama Canal steam yacht Gold Star has been engaged, as have special trains to carry the visitors across the Isthmus.

Leaving Cristobal, they will be carried to Gatun [illegible] special trains and [illegible] the control house, spill [illegible] about 1 p.m.

[illegible] PARK DEFEATS 7TH SQUADRON

CRISTOBAL, Feb 27. In the Camp shoot at France Field the 8th Pursuit were able to display their shooting qualities after having been defeated twice by the 7th Aero Squadron. They were able to muster a strong team which was lead by their Commanding Officer, Lieut. F. P. Albrook, who finished high in the day's shooting. This was the first time that the 7th has been defeated in any of their matches. They went to the firing line eck sure and full of confidence. Just a little too full which no doubt was the cause of some of their loose shots being a little nervous.

The match started promptly at 2 p.m. and was a case of nip and tuck as to whom would win until the last two men had fired at 50 yd. The France Field Club is developing some excellent shots among its members as it is now more than a 100 strong, which includes almost all of the officers of the post. It is hoped that the France Field Club will soon be able to take on some of the Expert Civilian teams who are now operating on the Isthmus.

The next shoot of importance at France Field will probably be in the early part of next month when the entire club will take part in one of the grandest shooting matches ever held on the Isthmus. The scores of the Sunday shoot are given below:

WOMANS CLUB HAS ENJOYABLE MEET AT GILBERT HOUSE

Address By Dr. Meredith On Human Nature, Violin Solos By Homer Baker And Songs By Dr. Fisher Make Pleasant Afternoon.

CRISTOBAL, Feb 27. A general meeting of the Cristobal Woman's Club was held Wednesday afternoon at Gilbert House. The attendance was good and the program most delightful. The opening number was a violin solo by Homer Baker whose rendition of Canzonetta, by d'Ambrosio was a treat to all his hearers. Mr. Baker is a real musician and the enthusiastic applause testified to what extent his performance was appreciated. He completed with an encore entitled "Chanson Hindu" by Rimski Korsakoff.

The club was then given the pleasure of hearing Mrs. Kinmon's reading from Shakespeare: "The Courtship of Henry the Fifth and Katherine." Mrs. Kinmon undoubtedly possesses dramatic talent of no mean sort. Her humor is delicious and sparkles delightfully through her readings. She very graciously gave an encore entitled "The Pin," an extremely simple bit of verse but one requiring much personality to "put it over" successfully. Anyone with the slightest acquaintance with a small boy's propensities could not but chuckle over the ingenious realism of this recitation.

Dr. Meredith Speaks.

Dr. Frederick Meredith of Balboa delivered an address on Human Nature, a big subject which he handled in a big way but alas the time was all too short. Dr. Meredith's manner of presenting ideas is so clear and prepossessing that his hearers settled down to a real intellectual treat but divers inconsiderate warnings from the station cut short his talk and he was obliged to be off. The new train schedule is depriving the ladies of many pleasures hitherto enjoyed at club Meetings.

Dr. Fisher gave much pleasure with his solo "Oh Promise Me" [illegible] of one of Haro[illegible] [illegible] songs. [illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible] of the Colon Health Dept. in which he thanked the ladies for the work they had been carrying on at the Free Clinic and Soup Kitchen and gave very satisfactory statistics which proved beyond a doubt that this work has been most potent in decreasing the infant mortality and also the percentage of tubercular cases in Colon.

Violinist's Generosity.

Mr. Baker then favored the club with two more numbers: Viennese popular song by Kreisler and the appealingly beautiful Serenade by [illegible]. Mr. Baker was indeed generous. His numbers were most ably and sympathetically accompanied by Mrs. [illegible] Merril.

The ladies then adjourned to the social hour over the tea cups. Delicious cake was also served by Mrs. Doyle, Mrs. Vanstone and Mrs. Schmidt.

PANAMA SAILS MARCH 7.

CRISTOBAL, Feb. [illegible]. The Panama will sail from Cristobal to New York, via Port au Prince, Haiti, on Tuesday afternoon March [illegible] at three o'clock.

ALICE BRADY FORSAKES SMART SOCIETY DRAMAS.

After five years of successful starring in society dramas, which have ranged all the way from tense emotionalism to high comedy, Alice Brady has temporarily, at least, forsaken the drama dealing with the smart set, and will be seen in a series of at least three dramas of humble life.

The first of these, "The Land of Hope", a collaboration by Frederick and Fannie Hatton and Robert Milton, presents the popular star in the role of a Polish immigrant girl who seeks her fortune in America, along with a little company of people from her native town, including her childhood sweetheart.

The young lovers think all their troubles will end when they reach America, and that they will quickly earn enough to enable them to marry. But alas for their optimism, they have many difficulties, disillusionments and misunderstandings before they gain a firm foothold on the new soil and win happiness together.

The role of the Polish youth is ably handled by Jason Robards, who layed juvenile lead with Frank Bacon in "Lightnin'" for two years but resigned to devote himself to picture acting. Others in the cast include Ben Hendricks, Jr. Schuyler Ladd, Larry Wheat, Betty Carsdale, Martin McGraw, Fuller Mellish and Bernard Siegel. The production was directed by E. H. Griffith.

"The Land of Hope" has been billed for the America, Colon's foremost motion picture theatre, for this evenings two performances commencing promptly at 7.10 and 8.55 o'clock. In addition to the feature production, the program will also include "Over The Waves" a very comical Century comedy in two reels, and Colons favorite America Theatre Orchestra, in a specially a ranged concert of choice selections.

Viva la Reina Mercedes Primera!
Viva el Carnaval de 1922!

Viva everything and everybody. Don't the way we are feeling about the Carnival now in full swing in Panama.

If you have never known the meaning of enthusiasm before you know it now you are more enlightened than the little boy who was talking about his parents yesterday morning.

Little Johnny said to little Ben Doe: "Why can't we make any noise this morning?"

"Why haven't I just told you that mother said Father wasn't to be disturbed, and that none of my little friends must come around to play here this morning, and when I asked her why she said

Because your father was taken with convulsions of Carnival enthusiasm last night.

"Well and I'm catching cold on Panama Avenue. Well I shall raise another cain and she was right there.

Carnival enthusiasm is all over Panama and it means it began to spread at the coronation Saturday night when the lovely Queen Mrs. Mercedes Zubieta was crowned by the Governor's Queen Calita [illegible] Miss Mercedes looked [illegible] when [illegible] Queen Calita [illegible] its others at last season and Queen Mercedes in [illegible] Queen Mercedes' dress gold lace [illegible] and her long [illegible]

A number of dinners were given before the ball on, among those dining together at the Union Club before the coronation were Mr and Mrs. McGinnis, Captain and Mrs. Jayne, Mr and Mrs. Kent Gardner, and Mr. and Mrs. Bates, who afterwards occupied one of the boxes for the coronation.

There are indeed busy days, these days that begin with the Carnival, and will end with heaven knows what. Nip tucks also have gone up, they always do at Carnival times, just as eggs do at Christmas; so we cannot be too prodigal with them for fear they will not hold out till Wednesday.

For days and nights there has been something mysterious going on at the Union Club, for no one was permitted above the first floor, Sunday night the beautiful secret for this secrecy was disclosed for the ball room had been converted into a magnificent Spanish palace, and, Ye shades of the Alhambra! how beautiful! A masterpiece of Moorish architecture was before us, we were dancing in "a Spanish fortress, a pearl set in diamonds," as the way the Alhambra is described. Could we in our castles in Spain dreams fancy anything more picturesquely beautiful than the dream of a Moorish Palace with its red, Alhambra sunrises red tiled walls, its mosque pillows, its arches, its fretted [illegible] and the veil like transparencies of its work in stucco?

The [illegible] beneath, with its triumphant arches of flower garlanded, its fountain silver, and shimmering, the many lights, and last but not least, the many beautiful women, and handsome men gathered there, for seldom if ever has such magnificence in costume graced the Union Club as did Sunday night!

A brilliant and clever idea it was of Queen Mercedes the First to have her birthday, for it was her birthday, celebrated in the Spanish style, and befitting the lovely queen; and we are told confidently, of course, that much of the beauty of the costumes and the general Spanish idea, so perfectly carried out, was due to the artistic cleverness of La Señora Carlos Eleta, who is herself Spanish and on Sunday evening was a [illegible] of a Spanish lady of rank in [illegible] rose colored satin with real Spanish lace flounces, high comb and black Spanish mantilla.

The arrival of Queen Mercedes with her court was the signal for the ball to begin. The queen was exquisitely lovely, a dream of a Spanish queen from the top of her [illegible] shaded comb, [illegible] with its black lace and [illegible] from the couch was attached a lace mantilla that quite enveloped her shoulders. The bodice of her gown was of black velvet outlined with brilliants and pearls, and her full trained skirt shaded from cerise to silver. Just a little less brilliant, and of similar coloring, were the costumes of the "damas" by whom she was attended, and a more than lovely picture the queen made sitting upon her throne with its brilliant crown of lights on her head, and the bouquets of American beauty roses on either side and her pretty maids grouped around her. Later in the evening the Queen sang a [illegible] which and Antonia [illegible] of Miss Angela Prieto danced a cuban rumba most gracefully.

There is nothing more picturesque than a ball room of Spanish [illegible] men and lovely women, [illegible] was a wise thought of the lovely Queen to ask the girls to dress come in Spanish dress. It was a beautifully obeyed request; besides the desire to grant the slightest wish of the Beloved Sovereign gave many the chance of display ing shawls with gorgeous and rare embroideries, mantillas that came over from the old country with the conquistadores. There were an unusual number of cosumes in Spanish costume, Queen Calita, of last year, was one of the pretty girls in her's, Queen Viola wore a handsome and becoming American flag costume; some came in the native polleras, a few came in evening gown; but the vast majority obeyed the royal edict of Spanish costume and we can testify the edict was beautifully and brilliantly obeyed.

The Carnival enthusiasm wasn't all centered in Panama, for it par

To the Women in Panama ~ our thanks

IT is fitting that the first advertisement for Premier Salad Dressing should be a message of thanks.

Premier has progressed from home to home until it is today the largest-selling salad dressing in the world.

And the force that has been chiefly responsible for this achievement is the strongest force in a nation—the loyalty and friendship of its discriminating women.

A woman from the tropics dined in New York and tasted Premier. Returning to her home she induced her grocer to order it and served it to her guests. Today in that community you will find Premier in more than a thousand homes.

Friend has spoken to friend, hostess to guest and so—with no aid but its flavor and the good-will of its friends—Premier has captured the tables of those who once would have considered no salad dressing but their own.

The time has come when it is not fair to expect you who are Premier's well-wishers to do more; the responsibility of extending Premier's circle of friends belongs legitimately to us. It is for this reason that Premier steps forward in the advertising columns of this newspaper.

We invite every reader to have the free book "Salads, Suppers, Picnics," which contains a refreshing wealth of suggestions for hot weather luncheons, Sunday night suppers and picnic good-times.

The book will be mailed immediately to old friends and new upon the receipt of a postal card.

Those discriminating women who enjoy this salad dressing will be glad to know that they may enjoy an equally delicious cup of coffee. It's Premier, in vacuumized cans, at your grocer's.

BOB FOX AND K. O. ROCHE

Back in the year of 1762 in his Castle on the River Nile, a wise old guy with long whiskers stuck his head out of the window and informed the citizens that a comet was to hit the burg on the following Friday. This announcement scared the folks so much that about five hundred of them took a "Brodie" into the Nile. Thinking they were the wise guys of the wise, they choose their own way of shuffling off. No comet was going to hit them on top of the bean if they knew it. Of course, the comet never landed. Those who took the jump into the river were gone and forgotten; those who waited to be shown lived until old age called them before the big Referee.

Apparently such is the case among the sporting elite on the Isthmus today. Some wise guy has uncorked the news that K. O. Roche is going to flatten Bob Fox when they meet at the Cecilia Theatre next Saturday evening, and the fellows who love the manly art have taken this for granted. At the present time we find the K. O. party a betting favorite over the champion. Now will history repeat?

Certainly it's going to be a mighty hard task to pick the winner of this coming swatfest. It appears to be a question of speed and ring generalship against terrific hitting. Let us take some famous battles of the past in which these two advantages figured. Jim Corbett was gifted with worlds of speed; still Jeffries knocked him out. Hitting ability won this time. Frank Erne was a wonderful boxer and ring general; still Terry McGovern knocked him cold in seven rounds. Young Corbett, Georges Carpentier and many other clever men were forced to bow down in defeat when it came to the point of pitting science and speed against hitting ability. And in this respect Carl Roche has an ace in the hole against his clever rival when they meet at the Cecilia Theatre next Saturday evening in a scheduled 15 round bout with the welterweight title at stake. The outcome of the battle will be watched with interest by every boxing lover on the Isthmus of Panama.

Promoters Ansell and Duque have surrounded the big event with an array of corking good preliminaries. [illegible] Salgado will meet Aurelio Herrera in the 8 round semi; the preliminary will send Tommy McMahon against Battling Lameia in a 6 round whirl; the curtain raiser will feature two local little fellows, and this event is carded for 4 rounds. There are 33 rounds of sensational fighting booked for the fans next Saturday night. Some card.

THE M'GINNIS CUP.

The handsome trophy presented by Mrs. Theodore McGinnis to be competed for by the fair golfers of the Panama Club was won by Miss Ike Steele, of Fort Amador. Mrs. E. P. Jessop was runner up.

GRANTHAM COMES BACK.

Sergeant Grantham of Fort Clayton who had a contract with the Excelsior Theatre for a program of fights, which he was obliged to cancel on account of the manoeuvers that will take him out in the brush for a period of several weeks, states that when he gets back to civilization he will resume his abandoned [illegible] taking. He has formed a partnership with another man, and they have several good fight cards in prospect.

GATUN WINS THREE CORNERED TOURNAMENT.

The third and last match in the Inter-Club Tournament was played at Panama on Sunday, February 26, with the following result, Panama 508, Gatun 541, and Amador 491, scored as follows.

The result of previous matches played at Amador and Gatun respectively gave Gatun 511 and 616; Amador 602 and 511, and Panama 501 and 403, making a grand total of 1671 for Gatun; 1604 for Amador, and 1385 for Panama. Gatun's 616 on their own course was the biggest single point score and Amador's 491 at Panama the smallest.

The poor simp on seeing the above admitted that the fact that the Panama golfers had to play two matches out of three on grass greens while their own course though damp in spots is nevertheless not damp enough to grow grass putting greens may have had something to do with the result of the tournament, but he still insists that his former prognostication is correct. Personally we think that the exact opposite is the case as it is known that the Panama golfers did not take their clubhouse with them to either Amador or Gatun and they certainly played all right at home.

THE OLD TIMER AND THE POOR SIMP.

"I see that Sam Gompers has come out in favor of beer and light wines," remarked the Poor Simp.

"Yes," said the Old Timer, "and he ought to know better. It's a damned poor move for the workingman."

"How do you figure that out?" said the Poor Simp.

"Well, take your own case," said the Old Timer. "You've been plugging along all month on this Canal that you and George Goethals built, and may God forgive you for it, and the time keeper hands you a pay check, that shows that after your commissary books have come out, and next month's rent, and grass cutting, and hospital bills, and your share of the national debt, you owe the Government $1.98; settle with the Collector or it will be made a payroll deduction. You see that in the morning, and by noon you are a better anarchist than Emma Goldman ever thought of being. At four o'clock you are ready to start the Revolution, and look around for a handy place to set up the guillotine. Then you come down here, and Sweeney hands you a tub of suds. When you have finished that your temperature is ten degrees [illegible]. After one more, instead of figuring on the proper way of executing Judge Gary and Mr. Wilson, of the Panama Canal Commission, you are wondering who is holding the Jack of Spades. At closing time when Chris puts you out in the street so that he can lock up for the night, you are ready to give three cheers for the Secretary of War and swear that Warren Gamaliel is a good fellow. That's what beer does to you, and that's why Sam Gompers, if he was not a conservative and a standpatter, would be rooting for prohibition."

"The workingman ought to have some consolation," said the Poor Simp.

"Yes," said the Old Timer, "and that's what they are going to [illegible] him—consolation."

AN OPINION OF LOMBARDO

Original sporting news is scarce today, and those contemptible readers who write letters to the Sporting Editor are all out doing the Carnival, so that they have no time to take their pen in hand. In his emergency and just to fill up the page we take the liberty of lifting the following article from "Tropical Breeze." It was published under the head, "Can Lombardo Beat Kilbane?" The writer seems to think that the local boy might turn the trick, if he had the chance, but that getting a crack at the title holder would be a difficult matter:

"Bunch of fight fans were talking the other evening, and the question arose as to what Young Lombardo would be able to accomplish in his line of work in the Land of Uncle Sam.

"One of the fans stated that he believed that the Panama Flash could beat Johnny Kilbane for the World's Title in the featherweight class. The fan in question backed up his opinion with the statement that Midget Smith has beaten the best in the United States, and that he thought Lombardo was a far better man than the Midget. They also brought to the attention of the others that Panama Joe Gans has fought himself to the top in the States, so has Philly Kro[illegible].

"Now let us dope it out. If Lombardo went to the States he would have to fight himself right up from the bottom. He could not demand a bout with the World's champion within a week after his [illegible]. He would have to lick about twenty others before Kilbane would consent to a bout, And by the time he had done this feat he would be more than willing to take a boat back to his Native Land. World Titles cannot be won in a week. Sometimes it takes years."

A more pertinent question than "Can Lombardo Beat Kilbane?" is "Can Lombardo Beat Robinson and Perlow?" An answer to his latter question will be forthcoming within the course of the next few weeks.

PROSE POEM.

Where could such an assembly as Sailor Grande, Jim Beggs, Soldier Cavanaugh, Tony De Oro, Bear Cat Hood and Kid Kelly be matched in this country nowadays? Sailor Grande has proven his ability as a fighter by his recent winning over that wonderful boy, Soldier Cavanaugh, at Colon. Jim Beggs has fought them all in Panama and Central and South America. Tony De Oro, the sturdy little Italian is one of the fastest fighter of Fort Clayton, the home, thanks to the encouragement of their much loved Daddy Rasdale, of the best fighters on the Isthmus. Fans will remember that awful gruelling match took place in the Bull Ring one rainy afternoon last summer between Tony De Oro and Sailor Packie; how the little Italian stood one to toe with the sailor boy from Coco Solo, and hooked lefts and rights until Packie passed over the fatal blow that meant defeat for the most wonderful boy on the Isthmus in his class, barring none. Many fans can remember the hard-hitting Soldier Cavanaugh in his battle with Sailor Ring. But oh what is the use of talking of things that are past? Those records can never be taken from the men who have made Panama a place of fistic fame.

In a recent report from the States Jimmie Underwood, the promoter of these fights, has been informed that our old friend Hughie Ross is coming back to Panama, and will be seen in the Bull Ring on his arrival with some of the best boys on the Isthmus. The promoters are promising the fans a run for their money in any shows that are to take place at the Bull Ring, and expect to lift boxing on the Isthmus to a plane where it will be recognized by some of our most prominent promoters and fighters in our mother country, America.

THE ANCON POOL TOURNAMENT

The pool tournament at the Ancon Clubhouse is attracting a good deal of interest. Nineteen contestants entered, and each man is to play every other. At the close of play on Saturday night Pearson and Detrummond were in the lead. Pearson had played eight games and won them all, while Detrummond had played ten and lost one to Pearson. A total of 114 games had been played, leaving 228 still to play. The Army is represented by Sale and Richardson. All of the other contestants are civilians.

The object of the tournament is to select a team to represent Ancon against the other Clubhouses and Army Posts.

Anyone who may be trimmed by Pearson or Detrummond is at liberty to console himself with the following anecdote concerning Herbert Spencer. Herb was once badly beaten at billiards, and remarked to his opponent: "Sir, a reasonable proficiency at billiards is one of the accomplishments of a gentleman, but skill such as yours is evidence of misspent youth."

nealed every nook and corner of the Isthmus Sunday evening. As far up as Quarry Heights on Ancon it was even to be found. Imagine if you can the enthusiasm of a party there where almost all the guests came, in some either perfectly lovely fancy costume, or something screamingly funny. Colonel and Mrs. Leisenring were the givers of this never to be forgotten Carnival party Sunday evening. The Leisenrings' quarters were in Carnival array for the occasion; the porches were strung with Japanese lanterns and the house was [illegible] mostly red and green. On one of the largest of the tables where the dinner was served were wonderfully beautiful old candelabra with red candles banked with red roses. On the other and smaller tables were green, or white with flowers and candles and cases for the almonds to match.

The fascinating young hostess was Carnival bedecked, also in keeping with the season, for she received her guests and presided over one of the most delicious of dinners in a La Gitana costume that any gypsy maid would have envied. She certainly looked the pretty part with her gypsy locks and sparkling eyes and abandon, her silver fringed bolero, her brilliant red head handkerchief, her massive long earrings, her knee length red satin skirt and striped sash.

Almost all of the Leisenrings' guests came in costume, quite the greatest stir being caused by the entrance of Major Ridley and Miss Thomson, who were the handsomest and most strikingly fetching of bandits, and who with their nonchalantness bravely carried out their parts. Mrs. Swartz made an ideal La Gitana, her brilliant Spanish beauty just suiting the precise costume she wore. Mrs. Hicks was a lovely Spanish girl in mascent shawl with white lace bouffant skirt, and high comb and red roses in her hair. Mrs. Davis was a frenchly vision in Gancia chiffon, net. Mrs. Sneed was another lovely Spanish one, [illegible] in a brilliant red shawl artistically draped about her. Mrs. French was handsome with a head dress of white mantilla and huge comb; Mrs. Nugent was pretty and Spanish in all black lace with lace mantilla, comb and Spanish comb. Colonel Hicks caused much of the fun when he appeared as Buster Brown; Mrs. Conant of New York, wore a stunning Chinese head dress with a cloth of silver gown; Mrs. Austin Kautz was prettily enveloped in a handsome and becoming white lace mantilla. Mrs. Goldthwaite wore a native pollera costume, and Major Maishury wore a smart and stylish checker board clown suit.

Among the others present at this gay Carnival party, but who were not in costume, were the American Minister and Mrs. South, Miss Malsbury, Colonel Wheeler, Colonel Nugent, Colonel Rosenau, Colonel and Mrs. Ellis, Colonel Reasdale, Major Davis, Major and Mrs. Lorenz, Major Goldthwaite, Mrs. Ridley, Mrs. Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. Buckner, and Mr. Conant.

Nearby the Leisenrings, Major and Mrs. Sneed entertained at another jolly and attractive Carnival before the tertulia supper on Sunday evening. Although only one of their guests came in costume, the Honorable Constantine Graham who was a Sheik in all the glory of the Desert, there was a decided feeling of Carnival enthusiasm in the air and a mighty good supper to eat. This delicious feast was given in honor of Mrs. Frank Safford Smith, who is on a visit to Captain and Mrs. Gerling. The guests were served at one large table and several small ones that were prettily arranged with bougainvillea centre pieces. For their guests Major and Mrs. Sneed had besides Mrs. Smith, the guest of honor, General and Mrs. Callan, Major and Mrs. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Heald, Mr. and Mrs. Woodle, of New York, Dr. and Mrs. Rucker, Major and Mrs. Lonergan, Captain and Mrs. Golding, Mrs. Armstrong and the Honorable Constantine Graham.

The British Minister was among those who entertained at dinner Sunday evening. The dinner was given at his apartment on the Cathedral Plaza, and he had as his guests General and Mrs. Sturgis, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schuber, and Mrs. Aubrey.

One of the largest and loveliest parties of Sunday evening was that of Major Maish at the Union Club. This dinner was also pervaded by much of the Carnival enthusiasm, for not only were these brilliant Carnival roses on the tables, but [illegible] also added a touch of Carnival and were afterwards given Major Maish's guests as souvenirs. A number also attended the dinner in costume; Mrs. Schaeffer wearing a rare and old Spanish shawl draped a la Spanish; Mrs. Tracey was a fascinating gypsy; Mrs. Harmon a lovely Spanish lady of rank with a black mantilla draped over her pretty head. Miss Van Deusen was a lovely Carmen, and Mrs. Bancroft was more than lovely in an exquisite gown made of a Spanish embroidered shawl. Major Maish entertained at his dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Bancroft, Mrs. Berger, [illegible] Hansell, [illegible] and Mrs. Tracey, Major and [illegible] Harmon, Mr. and [illegible] Captain and Mrs. [illegible], Miss Van Deusen, Lt. Marcus, [illegible] U. S. N., and Julio Beaucerai.

Sunday evening was a very [illegible] occasion for the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kent Gardner as they celebrated their fourteenth wedding anniversary at the Union Club by giving a dinner to a number of friends. White shaded lights and red roses gave a pretty touch to the table where the dinner was served. There were toasts to the happy couple drunk in sparkling wine and a delightful and jolly time was spent by Mr. and Mrs. Gardner's guests who were Mr. and Mrs. Mecomnis, Mr. and Mrs. Daise, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon, and Mr. Graft, of New York.

The many friends of Julio Fenille will be delighted to know that he is the guest of Judge and Mrs. Kerr for a few days.

The Misses Rucker, of Kentucky, Mrs. and Miss Cameron, and Miss Brown of Denver, Colo., were among those sailing on the Santa Ana for New Orleans on Thursday.

Commander and Mrs. Herbster, who [illegible] yesterday with their [illegible] and daughter, for the St. Mihiel, are going to be tremendously missed on the Isthmus. In the two years Commander Herbster has been in command of the Naval Air Station on the Atlantic side he and Mrs. Herbster have made a vast number of friends who, in spite of [illegible], only saw them leave [illegible]. Commander Herbster will be stationed at Garden City, New York [illegible] last week in Colon [illegible] party after another [illegible] popular young [illegible] honor at [illegible] in a dinner [illegible] the pav[illegible] Hotel [illegible] when leaving the Washington [illegible] well [illegible] Saturday night [illegible] Army and Navy [illegible] sented.

One of the very jolly [illegible] dinners given during the [illegible] season was that of Colonel and Mrs. Johnson at their quarters at Clayton in honor of Captain and Mrs. Rodman's house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Buckner, of Cincinnati. The decorations were symbolic of the Carnival, confetti, flowers and serpentine, adding a gay touch to the affair. The guests went in costume and afterwards attended the Corozal hop. Colonel and Mrs. Johnson entertained Mr. and Mrs. Buckner, Colonel and Mrs. Abbott, Major and Mrs. Harris, Captain and Mrs. Van Patten, Captain and Mrs. Senett, Captain and Mrs. Richards, Captain and Mrs. Vogue, Mrs. Rodman, Captain Palace and Captain Grabil.

To-day brings the last day of the Carnival. Both Sunday and Monday afternoon the streets have been full of Carnival joy riders. Many in Carnival costume, many in the pollera and all wreathed in smiles.

ANCON AND BALBOA

The beautifully laid out Carnival City on the Balboa playgrounds, which was ablaze of glory and the scene of riotous fun is now a mass of ruins. Busy hands which had worked for weeks to promote the success of this novel affair, busied themselves Thursday, evacuating the left overs from the debris, and by another day quiet will once more reign supreme, with only a pleasant memory of one of the most successful efforts to furnish fun and frolic to the people of the C. Z. and aid to a most worthy cause. It has been some time since the people of the Canal Zone have been called upon to lend their aid to those who answered the call to the colors; during the war right nobly did they rouse themselves to every demand, always being over the top nor have they been found wanting in this last effort put forth by the American Legion for the afflicted comrade in the States.

Much satisfaction and pleasure is expressed over the success of this notable and benevolent affair which will add so much joy to the life of the shut-in soldiers who have given their best to their country.

La admisión de delegados del Soviet a la Conferencia d'Génova no es reconocimiento

OTRA REUNION DE GEORGE Y POINCARE ESTA EN PROYECTO

LA PARTICIPACION DE LOS EXPERTOS DE LA PEQUESA ENTENTE EN LA CONFERENCIA

Nada se hará hasta que no pase la conferencia de Genova

París, Febrero 27. — Se ha sabido que los Premiers Poincaré y Lloyd George celebrarán una conversación secreta sobre asuntos que aun no se han decidido hasta después de la conferencia de Génova, según declaraciones hechas hoy en el Ministerio de relaciones exteriores. La conferencia tendrá lugar en Boulogne sur mer, probablemente el Jueves. Lloyd George y Poincaré van a ponerse de acuerdo sobre la actitud a tomar en caso de que el país de los Soviets rehuse aceptar las condiciones de la conferencia de Génova.

Se cree que los premiers convendrán en que la admisión de los delegados del Soviet a la conferencia no implica su reconocimiento, pero este asunto quedará en suspenso hasta el final de las deliberaciones de todos los gobiernos que forman la Entente. Libertad de acción para el Soviet ruso, el cual no ha cumplido las condiciones impuestas por los gobiernos aliados.

No se discutirá el asunto del dos de octubre en Génova debido a que Alemania no ha cumplido todavía con todas sus obligaciones.

Los expertos aliados se reunirán en Londres a fines de esta semana para estudiar el proyecto de asunto [illegible] que se presentarán en la conferencia de Génova.

Una insinuación de Lloyd George

París, Febrero 27. — Durante la conferencia en Boulogne sur mer, celebrada el jueves, Lloyd George sugirió a Poincaré que representara a Francia personalmente en la conferencia de Génova por la importancia que tienen las cuestiones de la conferencia. Lloyd George no pretende quedarse en Génova por más de cinco días. Poincaré no aceptó la insinuación de Lloyd George, declarando que anunciaría su decisión a respecto más tarde.

Comentarios.

París, Febrero 27. — La prensa francesa unánimemente, elogia con calor los resultados obtenidos por los Premiers franceses y británicos en su conferencia de Boulogne sur mer. Le Figaro dice: "El alma de la conferencia fue un gran día para la entente franco británica que fue reforzada por esta reunión de los premiers."

Le Journal dice: "Mucha es la labor que se puede hacer en cuatro horas cuando el terreno ha sido preparado cuidadosamente por los dos hombres que se reunieron con espíritu tan amistoso."

Le Matin dice que los resultados de la conferencia constituyen un notable progreso para la entente franco británica. El periódico comunista L'Humanite es el que entona la nota discordante. Dice que el proletariado francés y el proletariado británico continuan frente a frente disputándose los beneficios que se derivan de su supremacía."

Lloyd George suplica a Poincaré que represente a Francia en Genova

[illegible] Internacional publicada después del [illegible] de Premier Poincaré a París de Bolonia sur mer, donde conferenció con el Premier Lloyd George dice que los premiers decidieron definitivamente que la proyectada conferencia económica de Genova no discutiría los tratados firmados desde el armisticio lo mismo que el Estado de Sovets que aun no ha sido ratificado.

La nota pasa en seguida a los preliminares al artículo de la resolución de Cannes es la siguiente: Todos los países deben comprometerse de no [illegible] atentados, de cualquier agresión contra sus vecinos. Esto no afecta a la nueva [illegible] de dotales en Alemania en caso de que este país deje de cumplir con sus obligaciones.

La restauración del Parthenon

UNA PROTESTA

Atenas. — Los arqueólogos y artistas de Grecia han levantado un clamor de protesta por la forma en que se están verificando las reparaciones de la coronada roca de Parthenon. Según ellos, al Ministerio de Instrucción, que está a cargo de la obra le falta la idea a cabo como la haría para la reparación de un edificio moderno.

Los arqueólogos del mundo entero consideran el templo de Pallas que data del año 450 antes de Jesucristo, como la joya de la arquitectura griega y según los entendidos, si la restauración que se ha iniciado ahora se continua haciendo conforme a los planos aprobados por el gobierno, el hermoso edificio universalmente conocido por la perfección de sus proporciones y la belleza de sus líneas, quedará enteramente desfigurado.

Los ingenieros a cargo de las restauraciones se proponen reemplazar los trozos de mármol que faltan así como las columnas caídas y los architraves con una mezcla de ladrillos y cemento.

Los periódicos de Atenas han iniciado campaña para que se consulte la obra de restauración con los mejores arquitectos y arqueólogos del mundo, antes de [illegible]

Las opiniones de un Perro Presidencial

LO QUE DICE LADDIE BOY A TIGER UN ARTISTA

Boston. — The National Magazine publica una carta escrita por el perro Laddie Boy el perro del Presidente Harding, a Tiger un perro artista que trabaja en el teatro de esta ciudad en respuesta a una epistola escrita por Tiger. Aunque el autor de la carta de Laddie Boy no firma no se necesita mucha perspicacia para descubrirlo.

Después de expresar "como es gato mi rabo de emoción al entregarle del papel que representas, dando el publico un ejemplo de la fidelidad que caracteriza nuestras vidas" Laddie Boy continua:

"Cada perro hace honor a su raza de cuando en cuando, su propio perro es gratamente mas de un perro se echa a perder por el ambiente y las relaciones. FUERTE CIRCULAR DEL SECRETARIO DE GOBNO. CONTRA LOS FUMADEROS DE OPIO Y DROGAS

DICE QUE EN CUANTO SEA POSIBLE SE RECURRA A LA DEPORTACION

El asunto tiene un interés internacional, segun dice el Secretario

Con fecha de ayer el doctor Ricardo J. Alfaro, Secretario de Gobierno y Justicia, envió al señor Gobernador de la Provincia, Coronel Roberto Estripeaut la siguiente nota en la que aconseja la mayor severidad con el fin de acabar con nuestra ciudad y la de Colón con los fumaderos de opio y la venta de drogas prohibidas:

Señor Gobernador de la Provincia de Panamá.

Presente.

Señor:

En conversaciones que he tenido recientemente con el señor A. R. Lamb, Inspector General del Cuerpo de Policía, me ha dicho que los miembros de ese Cuerpo, han trasladado y puesto a disposición de la autoridad competente para su juzgamiento y castigo, a los más connotados dueños de fumaderos de opio y vendedores de drogas prohibidas, después de cada vez que aprehendidos por agentes de Policía que, cumpliendo estrictas instrucciones de este Despacho persigue sin tregua a los transgresores de las leyes vigentes sobre la materia.

El funcionamiento de los fumaderos de opio y la venta de drogas narcóticas en esta ciudad y en la de Colón, constituyen un mal crónico y grave que el Gobierno tiene empeño en desarraigar. Por este motivo y siendo usted el Funcionario que conoce en segunda instancia de esos casos, recomiendo a usted muy respetuosamente que tanto en los asuntos que cursen ahora en su Despacho por infracción de las disposiciones que trae la ley 19 de 1916 y el Codigo Administrativo en cuanto se relacione con la primera, como en los que en lo futuro se le presenten, emplee usted el mayor rigor posible contra los infractores de tales disposiciones e no imponga siempre que sea aplicable conforme al artículo 1851 del Codigo Administrativo, la pena de deportación sin que sea obstáculo para ello las triquiñuelas, recursos dilatorios y de otro genero de que se valen a bogados de mala fe para hacer nula o ineficaz la accion de la justicia.

Debe usted tener en cuenta, además, que la venta de opio y demás drogas prohibidas, por razon de las visitas que hacen continuamente a nuestras dos ciudades principales los soldados y marinos americanos, a quienes en gran parte se venden esas sustancias, es asunto que tiene interés internacional y desde ese punto de vista al Gobierno le interesa demostrar con hechos que en el juzgamiento de las personas que se ocupan en esos negocios ilicitos, procede sin usar lenidades indebidas ni contemplaciones de ninguna especie.

Por todo lo expuesto, no espero que usted cooperará con la inteligencia, actividad y energía que le caracteriza en la labor de combatir y desarraigar el mal de que vengo tratando, para lo cual le reitero una vez mas la recomendación que le hecho anteriormente para que en su Despacho se aplique a los responsables de las infracciones de que va he tratado [illegible] las sanciones mas severas que permiten las leyes sobre la materia.

Soy de usted atento y seguro servidor,

(fdo) R. J. Alfaro.

UNA DISTINCION MERECIDA AL ROTARY GILL

SUPERVIGILANCIA DE LOS CLUBS ROTARIOS DE VARIAS NACIONES

La Junta Internacional de la organización Rotaria en su reunión celebrada recientemente en Fort William, Ontario nombró al señor John G. Gill, Secretario del Club Rotario de Panamá como representante especial de la Junta Internacional para la supervigilancia de las labores de los Clubs Rotarios de Panamá, Ecuador, Colombia, Venezuela y de la América Central.

El secretario general de la Junta Internacional Chesley R. Perry envió el nombramiento al Dr Gill autorizándole para que actúe como delegado para la formación de clubs Rotarios en estos países y en nombre del Comité de Extensión paga tributo a la labor realizada por el Dr. Gill en Panamá y Colón en el establecimiento de las sucursales del Rotary Internacional en estas ciudades.

RAMON LARA HIERE GRAVEMENTE A SU RIVAL SARASEN

El panameño Ramón Lara, empleado de la estación carbonera de Cristóbal, atacó a otro sujeto de la misma nacionalidad llamado Sarasén, que trabaja en el mismo lugar, y como resultado del ataque este último se encuentra en estado gravísimo en el Hospital de Colón, donde se tienen muy pocas esperanzas de salvarle la vida.

El asunto parece que tuvo por principios ciertas dificultades amorosas sanguientemente, tanto la víctima como el agresor estaban enamorados de Leonarda Chu, hija del chino Francisco Chu que tiene un restaurant en Folks River.

Leonarda, que solo tiene catorce años de edad, no correspondió a las atenciones de Ramón Lara, quien llegó hasta prometerle casarse con ella pero la muchacha rechazó todas sus ofertas, la ira de Ramón aumentó cuando supo que tenía un rival y parece que decidió hacer desaparecer de este mundo, pues ayer al encontrarse en un lugar cerca de la línea fronteriza entre Cristóbal y Colón le atacó a puñaladas, dejando a su víctima tendida en el suelo, de donde fué recogido más tarde por la policía y trasladado al hospital.

Inmediatamente después del hecho Ramón Lara salió huyendo hacia la Zona y trató de disfrazarse, para que no lo conocieran, pero fué capturado y se encuentra ahora en la policía de Cristóbal a la disposición de las autoridades.

PARA ESTA TARDE SE PREPARA EL GRAN DESFILE DE CARROS

El Club Rotario llevará a la parada un hermosísimo carro

Ayer lunes fue día de relativa animación en la ciudad. En la tarde cuando se vino a sentir cierto entusiasmo llenándose muy pronto la Avenida Central de autos llenos de disfraces, murgas, comparsas, etc viéndose en todos la alegría propia de estos días.

En el Hotel Central se celebró regio tarabor con asistencia de S. M. Merce y sus damas, conforme estaba anunciado en el programa. Vestía la Reina un sugestivo traje de Majo rosa claro y sus damas también de Majas de un rojo subido. El conjunto que ofrecían eran encantador y artístico, digno de un lienzo de Goya.

Toreros, contrabandistas, andaluces gent, toda de la España de la pandereta, la manzanilla y los toros se veía en el patio del Central. El baile que duró toda la tarde estuvo animadísimo, pudiéndose decir que fue el número mejor del programa acordado para ayer (los demás no los vimos ni nosotros ni nadie).

El desfile

El desfile de carros en la Avenida Central estuvo como todos los años muy concurrido: los grandes truck llevando sus preciosas cargas de mujeres hermosas, los carros particulares lo mismo, coches, y toda clase de vehículos congestionándose a cada paso, tal era el número de ellos, ofrecían a la vista del Reporter un agradable espectáculo de lujo animación y belleza...

Disfraces

En nuestra libreta de apuntes pudimos anotar los nombres de varias niñas y señoras que luciendo bellos disfraces hacían el recorrido de nuestra principal Avenida.

Un carro representando a España y ocupado por lindas damitas en traje de Majas recordamos a Carita Lewis, Berta Garrido, Hortensia y Cecilia Alfaro, Angela Prieto, Maria Arias llamó bastante la atención; la pandereta, el mantón y las castañuelas se veían allí reproducidas todo ello muy bien y muy artístico.

Notas musicales

"Las Notas Musicales", representado por un grupo de niñitas ocupando un carro, también resultó de gran efecto. Y así por el mismo estilo el carro del Club Festivo, lleno de muchachas bonitas con variados disfraces; también vimos al Versalles, con polleras y disfraces, el Olimpo, con bandidos, toreros, muñecas, polleras, el Trapi Trapo, Bin Bum, Lirio Rojo y otros, todos llenos de bonitos disfraces.

El Ring Chesterfield, todas ellas de chanteclers negros muy interesante y lo mismo Las Campesinas señoras Arias de de la Guardia, Zachrisson de Arias, Velásquez de Arias, Alba de de Diego, Paredes de Arias de lo más chic.

La señora de Chiari doctor Eduardo y de Zubieta José Antonio vestidas con la clásica mantilla española muy aristocráticas; la señorita Keti Calvo, representando un grupo de cigarros muy original y a muchas.

La iluminación de las calles ha resultado este año mejor que en los anteriores. Los focos de luz, artísticamente colocados, los faros [illegible] chinescos, todo dan la impresión de un Carnaval veneciano.

Es pleno día las noches de Carnaval en Panamá. Admirable.

En los toldos y clubs, el entusiasmo se derrochó a más no poder y pudiendo decirse qué es en lo que se celebra el verdadero carnaval panameño.

Hoy a las diez de la mañana la Junta ha acordado obsequiar al pueblo trescientos balboas en corvea ídem. Los parques de Santa y Ana y Catedral han sido escogidos para tal distribución y allí podrán ir nobles y plebeyos (nobleza de carnaval, se entiende grandes y chicos, pobres y ricos a beber de la especialidad de Mr. McGinnis.

Para hoy

El programa oficial para hoy anuncia lo siguiente:

A las 10 a. m. Originales concursos en la Plaza de Santa Ana en donde se otorgarán premios a los disfraces más ingeniosos, al hombre más feo, al más flaco, al más gordo, al más negro, etc. etc.

A las 11 a. m. Paseo de la Reina y su Corte a todos sus dominios, acompañada de los Millonarios Cubanos y las bandas y charangas del reino.

A las 3 p. m. Grandiosa parada y desfile con programa especial. Adjudicación de premios a los mejores carros y comparsas.

A las 6 p. m. Gran batalla final de confetti y serpentinas.

De las 8 p. m. en adelante, música por las bandas del Carnaval, bailes populares.

A las 10 p. m. Gran baile en honor de S. M. la Reina y de sus damas.

Al desfile concurrirán muchos carros, más de veinte "España", ocupado por su Majestad Merce y Damas. "La Verdad Saliendo de un Pozo", de los Festivos y llevando a la Princesa María Luisa; "La Gallina de los Huevos de Oro", del Versalles; "El Ring Chesterfield" todos los que tomaron parte en el desfile de Balboa y sobre todo uno muy interesante: "Una sesión del Club Rotario", que traerá una gran sorpresa que será el hit de la parada. Varios carros, bonitos lujosos.

En la noche los bailes menudearán como despedida a' gran fiesta de la farsa y la Alegría, el Rey Momo que en esta ocasión se ha mostrado poco entusiasmado en otras ocasiones en su querida ciudad de Panamá.

Y en el toldo "La Estrella" [illegible] habrá el gran baile [illegible]

LA FEDERACION OBRERA DE EE. UU. EN CONTRA DE LA PROHIBICION

PIDEN LA DEROGACION DE LA LLAMADA LEY VOLTEAD

Esta campaña se inicia después de una madura investigación

Washington, Febrero 27. — El consejo ejecutivo de la Federación Obrera Americana publicó una declaración haciendo una llamada a todos los ciudadanos para que apoyen a las organizaciones obreras en su campaña para la derogación de la Ley de Prohibición Volstead y la sustición de esta ley por otra que permita la venta de vinos y cervezas con un porcentaje reducido de alcohol. La declaración caracteriza la Ley Volstead como "un fomentador peligroso de descontento y un desprecio para con todas las demás leyes del país."

El consejo declaró que decidió iniciar esta campaña después de haber llevado a cabo una investigación completa de la aplicación y los efectos de la Ley Volstead.

El divorcio en Rusia

LOS SENCILLOS METODOS

MOSCOU, ... — La reversión de ideas y normas sociales en la república comunista ofrece más de un aspecto extraño para nosotros, pero es sobre todo en las relaciones maritales que los métodos bolshevistas son especialmente novedosos.

En la nueva escala de valores morales, el analfabetismo político es en el Soviet un crimen cien veces más grave que la bigamia. Los errores de Cupido son curados por las Cortes bolshevistas gratis, sin dolor y en el acto, pero la ignorancia de las leyes bolshevistas es castigada con prisión y confinamiento obligatorio en las escuelas comunistas.

Hace poco se presentó ... uno de un sujeto llamado Ivan Ivanovich Linsky, el cual fué llevado a las Cortes de Moscou, acusado de tener dos mujeres y cinco hijos. "Me separé de mi primera mujer porque ya no la quería", explicó Ivan con naturalidad, lo cual, según los cánones bolshevistas es razón más que suficiente para divorciarse, y ante esta poderosa razón los jueces asentían ya benévolamente, cuando para su desgracia el inexperto joven agregó que "ignoraba que fuera necesario obtener un divorcio". Nunca lo hubiera dicho. La falta pasó a ser delito y la Corte lo condenó unánimemente a confinamiento en una escuela de "analfabetos políticos" que existe, donde será enseñado en conforme a las leyes soviéticas uno solo puede deshacerse de su mujer declarando ante una Corte bolshevista que no la quiere ya y pagando la cantidad de 10 mil rublos (V0.20) en concepto de derechos.

Las leyes de divorcio del Soviet son mucho más sencillas y liberales que las del resto del mundo, más aún que las de eno, que es la ciudad adonde se dirigen a divorciarse de preferencia los matrimonios desgraciados de Estados Unidos, por la manga ancha de sus magistrados. Cuando el Soviet sea reconocido por las grandes potencias y sus decretos de divorcio sean válidos en el resto del mundo, no ha... será el punto de reunión ... de Europa. No se necesita acreditar residencia y se obtiene el divorcio por cualquier causa, aún la voluntad de una de las partes y la diferencia de opiniones políticas.

La provisión de alimentos ... ser repudiada es en Rusia ... guerra y afecta y por lo tanto ... Según las leyes comunistas ... nada, la propiedad no ... comunmente todo el mundo ... tenida por el Estado ... pues, a devolver a su mujer ... patria".

LA LECCION DE BOXEO DE TEODORO ROOSEVELT

Por Willim Mc. Kinley Mooney, compañero de boxeo de Roosevelt en la Casa Blanca

De mis recuerdos de Teodoro Roosevelt como atleta resaltan los siguientes: su entusiasmo y su valor. El me enseñó mucho, no tanto acerca de la parte técnica del atletismo, sino de los placeres adicionales que se pueden obtener de los ejercicios propios para el hombre, como el boxeo, en particular.

"Pégueme duro y tan duro como le sea posible", solía decirme, y cuando le enviaba uno de mis golpes más poderosos contra su quijada, gritaba: "Espléndido; ése es el modo como se hace; ahora obsérveme", y entonces me descargaba su golpe más fuerte. Y tenía un potente golpe, aunque no era lo que se llama un atleta perfecto; pero tenía más ventajas de su pequeño conocimiento del boxeo que cualquier otro hombre con ... he boxeado. Cuando se re... que fuí un mozo débil y un joven enfermizo, es sorprendente que pudiera hacer tanto con su atletismo, esto lo hizo a él, físicamente, y es la razón por la cual pudo hacer trabajos tan tremendamente pesados.

He podido sobrepasar sus fuerzas de algún modo. Como atleta, ... alguna falta, era la tendencia a trabajar demasiado; el límite era lo que le satisfacía.

Cuando Roosevelt fué a la Casa Blanca fuí a visitarlo con mi hermano; tan pronto como me presentaron el Presidente saltó de su asiento y me estrechó la mano.

¡Ah, es usted quien venció a von Landgren! Es el hombre que ya necesitaba ver. Muéstreme como lo hizo usted.

Ese von Landgren, de la Legación sueca, había establecido un record de aficionado al boxeo parecido al que hacía al mismo tiempo el profesional Jeffries. Rehusaba batirse con profesionales, pero sus amigos creían que no había un hombre que lo derrotase. Los aficionados no se atrevían a enfrentársele; finalmente me ofrecí en ... un sacrificio al orgullo nacional. El match fué presenciado por lo más distinguido de Washington; los altos funcionarios y el Cuerpo Diplomático estaban allí en masa. Roosevelt mismo, a la sazón miembro de la Comisión Civil, estaba allí.

—Señor Presidente, es algo difícil explicarlo, le contesté.

No trate de explicarlo, demuéstremelo.

Y el saco del Presidente fué puesto a un lado en un segundo y el Primer Magistrado de la Nación saltó a la mitad del cuarto y asumió una actitud de boxeo.

—Ahora, pégueme usted como lo ... con von Landgren.

Naturalmente, yo estaba indeciso y le pegué suavemente en la mejilla.

No, eso no sirve. Pégueme tan duro como lo hizo con von Landgren.

Entonces le envié un "swing" a la quijada; Roosevelt tambaleó y cayó contra la pared.

—Así debe ser; así debe ser, exclamó cuando se repuso del golpe y volvió al ring, imaginario en su oficina.

—Ahora, déjeme probar.

El golpe que me as... tambaleando.

Lo logré, gritó. Eso es lo que hubiera querido con Garfield y otros miembros del Gabinete. Mañana lo haré con ellos, ¿y que también balearán?

... como un muchacho, y me preguntó:

¿Qué está haciendo usted?

Y le conté el puesto que desempeñaba en la Oficina de Correos.

—Usted merece algo mejor que eso; me esforzaré para que usted sea promovido. Y deseo que usted venga aquí ocasionalmente, y combata conmigo.

Sobre todas las cosas, él creía en la vida moderna y no gustaba de las especializaciones. Tenía interés en todo y le gustaba toda clase de sports; no solo boxeaba sino que nadaba, remaba, corría y tomaba parte en todos los ejercicios gimnásticos.

Un Presidente ... como cualquier otra persona, debe jugar, si quiere conservarse bien, y como Roosevelt jugaba, tantas ventajas de los ejercicios, pudo también obtener tantas de su trabajo. Y si hay una sola lección que pueda enseñar a los jóvenes, es la experiencia que se deriva de mis relaciones como compañero de boxeo del Coronel.

MATCH DE AJEDREZ POR CABLE

New York, Febrero 27. — Robert Raubitscheck, presidente del comité de concursos de la Manhattan Chess Club, anuncia que los jugadores de ajedrez que representarán a ese club en el match de ajedrez por cable con el Club de Ajedrez Argentino de Buenos Aires, serán escogidos de los siguientes miembros: ... William de Mille obtiene un Triunfo

Este reputado director del cinematógrafo logró un gran éxito con su monumental producción "The Lost Romance".

William de Mille, uno de los más afamados productores del cinematógrafo fué objeto de las más calurosas felicitaciones que ha prodigado la prensa de New York a productor alguno cuando se estrenó su monumental obra "The Lost Romance", una grandiosa film de arte que fué aclamada como la mejor obra cinematográfica del año. The New York World, uno de los tantos periódicos americanos que elogiaron a de Mille por su admirable labor en "The Lost Romance", dijo que tan bien fué estudiada y artísticamente presentada esta obra que "el único factor que falta es la voz humana para que sea algo de la vida real."

"The Lost Romance" figura como número principal de un selecto programa que presentará en sus funciones de hoy y mañana la empresa del popular Teatro Cecilia.

No hay que perder la oportunidad que ofrece la empresa del Cecilia hoy de ver una de las mejores obras del cinematógrafo que han llegado a Panamá, oportunidades como esta se presentan muy raras veces.

MUCHAS mujeres que podían asumir, en sociedad, los puestos que les corresponden, asistiendo a tés, bailes y comidas, no lo hacen por cuanto están debilitadas y en mala salud. Muchas veces, este debilitamiento culmina en dolores terribles e indecibles sufrimientos en los períodos mensuales.

No se espere a que su situación se agrave hasta el grado de ser necesario el bisturí del médico para obtener alivio. Prevéngase a tiempo, de la mejor manera; tome el Compuesto Vegetal de Lydia E. Sobre un panteón nacional Examinando las colecciones de acuerdos municipales, dictados por el Honorable Concejo de la Capital, que acaban de llegar a nuestra mesa de Redacción, correspondientes a los años de 1919 y 1920, hemos observado que hay varios de esos mandatos legales por los cuales se ceden a perpetuidad lotes de terreno en el CEMENTERIO AMADOR a familias de próceres o de istmeños ilustres, para que en ellos descansen eternamente las reliquias mortales de éstos. Nada tenemos que objetar en principio a disposiciones que nos parecen prudentes y muy defendibles a la luz del patriotismo: honrar la memoria de los grandes hombres, que han prestado el concurso de sus luces y de su inteligencia a la causa de la comunidad, es servir a la Patria, como en más de una ocasión hemos demostrado desde estas mismas columnas editoriales. A mayor abundamiento, consideramos que el Honorable Presidente del Concejo actual estuvo en lo justo y razonable cuando alguna vez defendió las referidas donaciones, desde el punto de vista de la legalidad, contra un Subsecretario de Gobierno y Justicia, AD INTERIM, que la impugnó por escrito, basándose en la letra del artículo 691, ordinal 5. del Código Administrativo, que dice así: "(Es prohibido a los Concejos Municipales) aplicar los bienes o rentas del Distrito a objetos distintos al servicio público." El Presidente del Concejo, cuya réplica vigorosa nos fue mostrada, decía más o menos, y con él pensamos nosotros que también se sirve a nuestra nacionalidad PUBLICAMENTE, mostrando a las jóvenes generaciones de hoy y las del mañana, esos pedazos de tierra santa donde yacen los despojos de aquellos a quienes debemos Patria y libertad; y que se presta grande y levantado SERVICIO PUBLICO a la nacionalidad panameña, llevando cual suele hacerse todos los años, el día 2 de Noviembre, al pueblo de la Capital a depositar coronas de gratitud ante los manes de nuestros muertos ilustres.

Aunque partidarios fervorosos y entusiastas de ese honor público y supremo rendido a la memoria de los panameños distinguidos, conceptuamos que ha llegado el momento de unificar o consolidar el piadoso homenaje, alterando un tanto su forma. Al efecto, creemos preferible que en vez de proseguir tales donaciones individuales, el Honorable Concejo dedique un buen espacio de terreno en alguno de nuestros cementerios y erija allí mismo un monumento o mausoleo de noble corte arquitectónico, y en su recinto sagrado se trasladen los restos de nuestros próceres y pueda darse asilo asimismo a los panameños ilustres que se hagan acreedores a tal distinción en lo futuro. La estructura que proponemos, sería uno a modo de Panteón Nacional, análogo, aunque en menor escala y con menos grandiosidad, a los que poseen otros países; y por de contado que con ella se imprimiría más eficaz y certeramente el patriotismo de nuestros contemporáneos en la peregrinación del 2 de Noviembre, que como se ha practicado hasta ahora: un solo monumento en torno del cual se agrupase la multitud enfervorizada, por así decirlo, el pensamiento piadoso y reverente de todos los circunstantes como tributo a nuestros grandes muertos en el día de la Patria.

Mucho nos satisfaría saber más adelante que esta idea ha sido acogida con beneplácito y favor por nuestros actuales Concejales, los cuales están, por lo demás, en condiciones de llevarla al terreno de las realidades o los hechos, bien intencionados como se hallan en pro de la comunidad, disponiendo de fondos a suficiencia para ello, y rodeados, por último, de una muy buena atmósfera por parte de sus comitentes del Distrito y en toda la República.

OBRAS INMEDIATAS DE LEON TOLSTOI

SE PREPARA UNA EDICION COMPLETA

Las hijas de León Tolstoi están preparando una edición completa de sus obras que incluirá tres trabajos inéditos del famoso escritor ruso.

Uno de ellos es su "Diario", que comprenderá ocho volúmenes de 500 páginas cada uno. El diario fué comenzado en 1850 y continuado hasta 1870 sin interrupción. En esa época Tolstoi abandonó su obra hasta 1880 en que la reanudó siguiéndola hasta dos días antes de su muerte, en 1910.

El primer período de veinte años del diario, se refiere a su vida de soldado en el Cáucaso, durante el sitio de Sebastopol, y a su matrimonio. La segunda parte es menos personal y está dedicada al estudio de cuestiones religiosas, filosóficas y políticas.

La segunda de las obras inéditas es una comedia en cinco actos titulada "El Nihilista", escrita en 1880. El Teatro del Arte de esa época la rechazó, lo cual desalentó grandemente a Tolstoi, que iniciaba su carrera de escritor.

La tercera de estas obras es una novela inconclusa, titulada "Historia de Pedro el Grande". Existen además muchas novelas cortas y cuentos inéditos o incompletos, que serán también publicados.

Como Tolstoi hizo prometer a sus hijas no reservar los derechos de edición, estas nuevas obras podrán ser publicadas simultáneamente en todo el mundo.

FRANK MAYO EN EL CABALLERO TAHUR

Este es el gran acontecimiento que se prepara para esta noche por la empresa de los teatros Amador y Eldorado

Cuando se informó que esta noche se estrenaría el formidable cinema "EL CABALLERO TAHUR", en el que hace de protagonista el notable actor norteamericano Frank Mayo, mi entusiasmo fué enorme. Y la enormidad de mi entusiasmo tiene su justificación señores. Hace cosa de unos ocho meses vino a caer en mis manos una revista americana y en ella pude deleitarme con un admirable artículo, firmado por uno de los mejores escritores ... que viven en los Estados Unidos. El artículo se refería al éxito justiciero alcanzado por "El Caballero Tahur" en su estreno y de la labor del notable artista Frank Mayo. El escritor en referencia, ha sido toda la vida enemigo del cine, o poco más o menos, y desde luego, esto da mayor valor a su artículo, donde se mostraba entusiasmado por la belleza del argumento de "El Caballero Tahur".

Y esta admirable cinta en 6 rollos, que tanto ruido metió en la pasada temporada cinematográfica estadounidense, será estrenada esta noche, sin alteración de precios. Y saben ustedes cuánto se hubo de pagar por una luneta en New York el día de su estreno? Pues mento, y para demostrarnos su acierto, un dólar y media. Como digno complemento el empresario Martínez ha agregado al programa una bella comedia en dos rollos, especialmente por él escogida.

Así pues, esta noche, a pesar de ser día de Carnaval toda toda persona amante de lo verdaderamente bueno y bello, debe disponer una hora y media para asistir a los teatros Amador y Eldorado a admirar la obra que se estrena.

Gerundio.

MAÑANA MIERCOLES NO SE EDITARA "LA ESTRELLA DE PANAMA"

Mañana miércoles 1° de Marzo no habrá edición de "La Estrella de Panamá". El objeto es dar a nuestros empleados un día de asueto con motivo de las fiestas carnestolendicas.

500 TIMBRES QUE DESAPARECEN

Desde hace algunos días denunció ante la oficina de detectivismo el señor Manuel E. Martínez, Gerente del Teatro Amador la desaparición de 500 timbres para boletos de admisión y señaló como probable responsable a Héctor Freites quien ha popularizado el sobrenombre de Tarzán.

Freites a quien adelante llamaremos Tarzán, desapareció así que le fuera posible a la Pesquisa localizarlo no obstante la persecución de que fué objeto.

Ayer tarde se encontraba por los alrededores del Parque de la Independencia el terrible Pesquisa Palomeque cuando a través del bigote y barba postiza descubrió la buscada persona de Tarzán, quien muy alegre disfrutaba de las fiestas momescas.

Palomeque condujo a Tarzán a la Central de Policía en donde se ordenó una requisa en la habitación de Tarzán, requisa que produjo el hallazgo de 500 sellos de timbres.

Tarzán se halla en la Policía a órdenes del Juez 2o. del Circuito, quien averigua el negocio.

LLUVIA DE GARROTAZOS

Ayer a las 12 y 40 se presentó a la casa de Emma Hernández en la calle 18 Este bis, el chofer panameño de 18 años de nombre José Castillo.

Castillo se presentó donde Emma reclamando un gorro para disfrazarse, gorro que éste había dado a guardar a aquélla.

Emma, que se hallaba bastante mareada por el ron que tenía entre pecho y espalda, manifestó a Castillo que no le entregaba el gorro, por cuya razón éste la cogió a garrotazos, dejándola molida y maltrecha.

En momentos en que esto sucedía llegó el Agente Juan C. Compares y los condujo a la Central en donde se encuentra Castillo a órdenes del Juez ... Municipal.

Emma fué reconocida por el practicante, quien manifestó que ésta tenía una herida contusa en el parietal izquierdo que la incapacitaba ocho días para trabajar.

AVISO DE LICITACION

El suscrito, Subsecretario de Gobierno y Justicia, hace saber: Que hasta las 11 a. m. del día 1° de Marzo de 1922 se recibirán en el Despacho de la Secretaría de Gobierno y Justicia propuestas en pliego cerrado para el suministro de hierba para las Caballerizas del Cuerpo de Policía Nacional.

Las propuestas deben ser formuladas de acuerdo con las siguientes:

1°—La hierba puede ser cortada de los hierbatales que el Gobierno posee en la Exposición y en la Huerta del Rey; o suministrada de otras partes en caso de que falte en esos lugares.

2°—La hierba será recibida en las Caballerizas del Gobierno en mazos de a un quintal cada uno o varios de igual peso.

Los proponentes deben ofrecer por separado los precios de la hierba que corten en los hierbatales de propiedad del Gobierno y de la que suministren de otros lugares.

Para ser postor hábil es necesario depositar previamente en el Despacho de la Secretaría de Gobierno y Justicia un cheque por la suma de B. 25.00.
