Feedback Survey useful tool for community

Hourglass Reports

Did you have a great time at the Labor Day Beach Bash? Do you like the new hours at the Post Office? Do you have a suggestion on how Surfway can better serve your needs? Do you have a great idea for a new community event or a way to improve a service offered? We need and want your feedback!

Kwajalein Range Services managers want to increase what we are doing right and improve what we aren't. The KRS Feedback Survey serves as a tool for the community to provide comments regarding service experiences to help us do this.

Negative feedback alone does not help us to improve. We want your specific constructive feedback. Constructive feedback allows us to answer the question: What specifically should we be doing more or less of next time? Tell us what you are dissatisfied with and provide some suggestions on ways we can improve to make the experience more positive for you.

Positive feedback is important because it emphasizes customer expectations. Tell us what we are doing right so we can continue to do so. This can include enjoying an event hosted by Community Activities, a particular article highlighted in the Hourglass, hours of operation at a facility, a specific item at the bakery, as well as receiving exceptional customer service at Surfway, the hospital or the dental clinic. What specifically should we be doing more of?

Your feedback does not go unheard! Look for the Ask & Answer feature in the Hourglass. It will address questions or suggestions from the survey and let you know what actions are being taken towards improvement. The feature will also publish your positive feedback, so continue to submit any accolades you feel deserve attention.

Take the survey here: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/s/KRSFeedback>.

Follow the yellow brick road... to the Kwajalein-style “Wiz”

Article and photos by Sheila Gideon
Managing Editor

Your favorite characters from the much-loved traditional show “The Wizard of Oz” will be making an appearance on Kwajalein this weekend. The only difference? Characters and scenes have been Kwajified. The “Wiz” can be found in Emerald City located oceanside. The Tin Man is now the Rusty Man. Dorothy will wear sparkly, ruby red flip flops. And those nasty trees that threw apples in the original story? Well, this time they’ll be throwing coconuts.

The production will begin with a parade where the characters will “land on Kwajalein.” They will begin the parade at 2 p.m., in front of building 730 and continue down 7th Street to the downtown area. Residents are encouraged to come meet and greet the characters. There will be music and photo opportunities. It will help the actors prepare for their first show that evening at 6:30 p.m. in the MP Room. There is an additional show at 2 p.m., Monday, in the MP Room. The show is free to the community and should last around 90 minutes.

The Kwajalein Children’s Theater was formed in the spring of 2014 by Princess Gooden. She actually owns her own theater back in Georgia, so when she arrived on island she was excited to begin a children’s theater program here. 17 kids belong to the group, ranging in ages from 6-14. Gooden began recruiting kids in the spring, but because most Kwaj kids are off island during the summer, she had to wait to begin “Wiz” practices until school began.

Gooden chose “The Wizard of Oz” because it’s well-known and she knew she’d be able to put a fun, Kwaj-inspired spin on the show. The kids auditioned and once they were assigned a part, they only had four weeks to learn their material.

Out of the 17 kids, only about half have performed in a play before. They practiced every Saturday as a group, but also got together on their own time to run lines and work on getting into character.

This production is just the first of many. Gooden usually writes her own shows, and many of the children in the group have shown interest in writing a play of their own.

Don’t miss out on an exciting opportunity to see Kwajalein youth entertain.

Iris Weiland, the theater group’s youngest actor, practices her part for the “Wiz.”

Spartans, KFC take home 2014 soccer titles

The Kwajalein women's Spartans squad took out league rival team KAT in a 2-0 win Tuesday night, the third championship win in as many years for the high school varsity team.

Intent on keeping the title for yet another year, the Spartans wasted little time setting the pace of the match. Within only a minute of the 5:35 p.m. kickoff, a series of give-and-go passes brought the ladies in blue deep into KAT territory, where Molly Premo absorbed a deflection from a KAT defender, dribbled toward KAT goalie Amber Bates and poked the ball into the net just out of Bates' reach.

KAT's squad struggled against a series of aggressive Spartan presses during the following 10 minutes of match play. Solid defense in the KAT backfield by Jane Premo, Adrienne Chavis and Nikki Delisio and a couple of saves by Bates held high school strikers Caleigh Yurovchak and Daisy Wilttrout at bay.

The KAT women put the Spartans on their heels 12 minutes into the match, though. Attackers Jill Brown and Ornela Kilgore cut through the Spartans' midfield defenses, fielding deflections by defenders and pressing the Spartan backfield. They ran out of steam before getting any solid shots at goalie Dori deBrum's goal, however, leaving the team down by one goal.

One of the first hopeful strikes by KAT came at about the 18-minute mark. Attacker Jamye Loy, fresh off the bench, worked with the KAT midfield and fellow strikers to scoop up bobbles and missed kicks by the Spartans and push the ball deep into the blue team's backfield. A swift but rushed connection by Loy 15 yards out sent the ball flying high enough to get over goalie deBrum's head, but it veered off wide left and out of play. Two minutes later another opportunity arose: A corner kick by KAT midfielder Brittany Nichols arced the ball into deBrum's reach, but when it bounced out of the goalie's hands, leaving the goal wide open, none of the women in pink were close enough to connect with the ball and produce a goal.

Twenty-five minutes into the first half, Spartans attacker Wilttrout slipped through the KAT midfield and pressed in toward KAT goalie Bates, stumbling against the KAT backfield and nearly falling down. After quickly regaining her balance, Wilttrout scooted the ball slowly past Bates and into the net just as the 6 p.m. siren blared, pushing her team's lead ahead by two, and giving the newly-formed Kwajalein Jr./Sr. High School Pep Band reason to play a quick tune.

In the waning minutes of the first half, KAT attacker Brown made a series of rushes deep into the blue team's backfield. With help from fellow KAT strikers, a give-and-go pass across the width of the field put the ball at Brown's feet. A hard kick by Brown sent it screaming toward the net, but not before deBrum was able to throw her arms up and connect with the ball for a crucial save. The Spartans fans burst into applause, and the referee blew his whistle to start the halftime break.

KAT got off to a good start in the second half with offensive rushes that pressured the Spartans defenders, but the Spartans set the pace for the rest of the match shortly after. Enjoying a 2-0 lead, the ladies took their time, played good defense and made only a couple plays against the KAT goal. A red card called against goalie deBrum for rushing out of the goalie's box to pick up a shot at about the 20 minute mark was an opportunity KAT didn't manage to capitalize on. Few shots on goal equated to another scoreless half for the KAT women and a loss at the hands of the reigning champions.

While a 0-2 defeat normally isn't something to write home about, team KAT should be proud of their performance in the 2014 season, one observer said: It was the squad's first championship placement since their 2011 victory against Go Green Go.

For the Spartans, though, Tuesday's win was another notch in the team's belt this season and another consecutive championship title in the league.

Kwajalein Football Club trounced FC Swollen 5-0 in the 2014 Men's Soccer Championship Wednesday. A newcomer to the Kwajalein soccer circuit, KFC handed FC Swollen its third championship loss in six years—a continuation of FC Swollen's pattern of taking the league title every other year.

Threatened by masses of rain clouds moving in from the east, the match got off to a 5:15 p.m. start and went scoreless for the first 20 minutes. FC Swollen's Jason Huwe made a good strike on the KFC goal 11 minutes in, but tough goaltending by Rich Ereksen stopped him; it was a pattern that would repeat itself throughout the rest of the match.

A vicious but unsuccessful strike by KFC attacker James Young against Swollen goalie Nate Jones was answered a minute later by a mad dash down the field deep into KFC territory by Kenny Leines. Pressing in on Ereksen from the east side of the field, Leines booted the ball toward the net, but Ereksen again was there to scoop up the shot.

Tracking a throw in from the west side of the field by a teammate at about the 20th minute of play, KFC striker Nick Dahl leaped into the air and headed the ball past Jones, earning his team's first goal of the game. Four minutes later Dahl struck again with a boot 10 yards out from Swollen's goal, putting KFC up by two. Twenty-six minutes into play, a pass from KFC defender Mike Kraesig to Young deep in Swollen territory gave the attacker a wide berth between himself and the Swollen backfield. Aiming into the west corner of the net, Young struck the ball just out of Jones' reach and into the goal, earning the team's third unanswered goal in six minutes.

A couple of determined FC Swollen attempts on the KFC goal in the first five minutes of play following the halftime break were fruitless. Dahl answered with an arcing kick downfield, connecting with KFC attacker Pete Goodick, who pressed in on Jones from his left flank and passed across the field to Dahl, who sent the ball screaming wide left of Swollen's goal. Dahl made up for it a few minutes later with a header into the net, giving the KFC striker a hat trick for the night. Only a minute later Young fed KFC midfielder Matt Sova a give-and-go pass, setting up Sova for a clear shot and an easy goal—the team's fifth.

About 10 minutes into the second half, the dark clouds overhead opened up and let out a steady downpour that quickly soaked the players and the fans and made the field a soupy mess. Several rushes by FC Swollen deep into KFC territory again came up fruitless, and the rest of the match went scoreless. With the score at 5-0 and the rain coming down in heavy sheets, officials called the game, giving the win to KFC, the unchallenged champions of the 2014 Men's Soccer Season.

Kids enjoy tricks, treats at 2014 Halloween Carnival

Article and photos by Molly Premo
Media Services Intern

Elementary students from kindergarten to sixth grade attended the annual Halloween Carnival put on by the Keystone and Torch Club at the Youth Center Sunday. Half of the room was transformed into a haunted house, and the other half was filled with festive games and activities. The event lasted from 3-6 p.m., and kids came dressed up in their Halloween costumes.

Jason Huwe, a Keystone advisor, said that the event was a great way to not only celebrate the Halloween season, but to also give older youth a chance to serve.

“This is a great opportunity for our student leaders to give back to the community,” he said. “I think both the Torch Club and Keystone Club did an excellent job creating a fun and spooky event for all ages.”

Kids in groups of up to eight made their way through the haunted house together, screaming and shouting throughout the passageways. The “house” included many different rooms: a closet, bedroom, bathroom, kitchen and living room, and all featured scary beings ready to jump out at unsuspecting victims.

Strobe lights provided the only lighting, which made it challenging to see the dressed-up creatures ready to jump out and scare Kwajalein youth. The loud, scary music and monster sounds completed the creepy atmosphere of the house.

Candy was scattered all over the tables and dispersed throughout the game room, and kids had their choice of games to play. A large crowd gathered around a table featuring a “reverse bobbing for apples (or donuts)” game. Kids ate donuts hanging from strings while lying on their backs on the floor. The craft table featured small, foam monsters and face paint that the kids used to paint scary faces on one another.

For those who volunteered to help the younger island youth have a good Halloween Carnival, it was a fun and rewarding experience, said Keystone President Dori deBrum.

“It was really fun interacting with kids,” she said. “The Keystone and Torch Club did an amazing job of creating the event.”

SAFELY SPEAKING: You can easily recognize hazards when you know what the hazard symbols mean, but you still have to read the SDS to know how to protect yourself from the hazards!

Thank You

Thanks for a great season!
 Thank you to everyone who helped make the 2014 soccer season a huge success. It really took a lot of effort from so many different people and everyone involved did an excellent job. Thank you to Kenny Leines and Bill Williamson who volunteered to lead the officials clinic. Their knowledge, expertise and willingness to educate and volunteer is greatly appreciated. Thanks to the Kwajalein Sports Association for helping teams fulfill their officiating obligations and responsibilities. All the officials did a great job maintaining the integrity of the league and making play safe and fun for everyone. A special thanks goes to Zoe Spock, who painted the awesome coconut trophies for the league winners. Finally, soccer wouldn't have been complete without the assistance of all of our coaches and managers. Your interest, efforts and support were greatly appreciated. The success of this year's season was all due to the efforts of everyone involved. So again, thank you so much! We could not have done it without you.

Congratulations to KFC and Spartans I Women, who were this year's champions.

Disinfection by-products in drinking water on Meck

Hourglass Reports

The Meck Island water tests performed during second quarter FY14 showed Total Trihalomethane levels in the drinking water above the maximum contaminant level. Trihalomethanes represent a group of chemicals generally referred to as “disinfection by-products.” They are formed when chlorine is used to disinfect water to make it safe for drinking. They result from a reaction between the chlorine and naturally occurring organic compounds in the raw water. Mandatory public notification is required when a contaminant exceeds the MCL. Potential health effects from long term consumption of water with elevated levels of TTHM include liver and kidney problems or increased risk of cancer. However, potential short term exposure by healthy adults has not been shown to lead to adverse health effects. Potential exposures to Meck personnel can be considered short term due to the limited time the MCL has been exceeded.

Installation of a granular activated carbon filter system has begun on Meck and is scheduled to be completed in the fall of 2014. This GAC filter system will treat the entire Meck drinking water system to remove those naturally occurring organic compounds before the water is disinfected with chlorine, effectively reducing the resulting TTHMs to minimal levels.

In the mean time, an activated carbon point-of-use filter is installed on the tap outside the water treatment plant to filter out TTHMs and provide safe drinking and cooking water for Meck personnel from this tap only. Showering and face-washing at other locations will have no negative effects. These activities may continue at any shower or potable water tap.

If you have any further questions, please contact Leigh Pinney, KRS ES&H, at 50506.
