

DECEMBER 12 WORKSHOP

Digitization of the Bridge – Town Mercury Gazette

Description of Photos

Images of the workshop held for the launch of the digitization of The Bridgetown Mercury Gazette on December 12, 2017 at the Department of Archives, Black Rock, St. Michael, Barbados.

The workshop was by invitation only. Participants included senior scholars and professionals from the University of the West Indies, Federal Archives, The National Library Service, Barbados Museum and Historical Society, and independent researchers.

The aim of the workshop was to introduce professionals in related fields to the project and future opportunities for research and scholarship. The project was made possible through funding from the Endangered Archives Programme of the British Library and is the first of its kind to be awarded to Barbados.
